ACTING CHAIRMAN.

Cher. 4232

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Sydney R. Bell,

Caney, Kansas.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. D

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of PETER SMITH as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, October 9, 1900, Mahala Smith appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, and made application for the enrollment of herself et al. as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband, Peter Smith, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The application for the enrollment of the said Mahala Smith et al. as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation has been heretofore disposed of, and their rights to enrollment will not be considered in this decision. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 14, 1902, and January 3, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Peter Smith, a white man, was married in accordance with Cherokee law in the year 1870 to his wife, Mary Smith, nee Holt, deceased, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and who died in the year 1872; that from the time of said marriage until the death of said Mary Smith, the said Peter Smith and Mary Smith resided together as husband and wife, and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation; that on July 11, 1873, Peter Smith was married to his present wife, Mahala Smith, nee Grigsby, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and whose name appears on the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, opposite No.10207; that since said marriage the said Peter Smith and Mahala Smith have resided together as husband and wife, and have continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation. Said Peter Smith is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and the Cherokee census roll of 1896, as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), Peter Smith is entitled to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

(SIGNED) Tams Bixby.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this JAN 21 1907

Cherokee
4238

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 27, 1906.

Peter Smith,

Wann, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

November 6, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your wife, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the time of your marriage to her, and whether or not you were married to her in accordance with Cherokee laws.

You are, therefore, directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A. M., on Friday, January 4, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

Respectfully,

J.M.H. Acting Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Bartlesville, I.T., October 9, 1900.

In the matter of the application of John Harvey Johnson for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee by intermarriage and his wife and four children as Cherokees by blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, he testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A John Harvey Johnson.
Q How old are you? A 34.
Q What is your post office? A Dewey.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled, yourself and family? A Yes.
Q That means your wife and children? A Yes, sir.
Q How many children? A Four.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir, a white man.
Q Your wife as a Cherokee, is she? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you your marriage license and certificate? A Yes, sir, I think I have.

(The applicant presents a marriage license issued by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee district August 4, 1891, for his marriage to Miss Jannet Carr, and the certificate shows that they were united in marriage in accordance with said license on the same day as the license by the Clerk of the district, her name in the certificate being spelled Jennie. This is filed herewith.)

Q Have you lived with your wife ever since you married her in 1891?
A Yes, sir.
Q And lived all the time in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Now your wife's full name is Jennie Johnson, that the way you want her enrolled? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is she? A 28.
Q Was she born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Has she lived here all her life? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of her father? A N. F. Carr.
Q Is she dead or alive? A He is alive.
Q Give me the name of her mother? A Annie Carr.
Q Is she dead or alive? A She is alive.
Q You were never married except to this wife? A No, sir.
Q And she was never married except to you? A No, sir.
Q Now give me the names of your children? A Frank M., 8 years old.
Q The next child? A Edith May, 6 years old.
Q The next child? A Roy R., 4 years old.
Q The next child? A Flora D., a year old.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and four children. His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee, she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, her change of name is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Of their four children, the first three are identified with their parents on the roll of 1896, they are living at this time, and they will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. When the Commission is supplied with a certificate of the birth of the youngest child, Flora D., she also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The applicant is shown to have married his wife in accordance with Cherokee law in 1881, he is identified with her on the roll of 1896, they have lived together in the Cherokee Nation ever since their marriage, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by intermarriage.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12228-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "The Nowata Advertiser", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Nowata, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 4, and the first issue in "The Nowata Advertiser" was on March 2, 1906. Attention was called to Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above namedpersons, or his heirs, at his last known post-office advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that thisoffice be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

Respectfully,

August 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 21, (I.T.D.6186-1905), June 1, (I.T.D. 6246-1905), October 4, (I.T.D.12228-1906), and January 12, (I.T. .120-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any of the persons enumerated in his report were living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this Office, and that he be authorize to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. M. Leupp,

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Bartlesville, I.T., October 9, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Courtland C. Runyan for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee by intermarriage, and his wife and children and stepchild as Cherokees by blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, he testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name, please? A Courtland C. Runyan.
Q How old are you? A 43.
Q What is your post office? A Skiatook, I. T.
Q In what district do you live? A Coowescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to enroll, yourself and family? A Yes, sir.
Q That means your wife and how many children? A Four of my own children and one step-daughter.
Q That is a child of your wife by a former marriage? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir.
Q An intermarried citizen, claim to be? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee? A Yes, sir, Cherokee and Shawnee.
Q Have you your marriage license and certificate?
(The applicant presents an official copy of the records of Coowescoowee district, showing that a license was issued to him on March 4, 1891, to marry Mrs. Katie Runyan, nee Katie Flynn, a Cherokee citizen, and that they were married on the 17th of the same month and year. This paper is filed herewith. They were married by the Rev. John M. Watson.)
Q Was your wife's maiden name Flynn? A No, sir.
Q It is a clerical error by which she was put here as Flynn?
A Yes, sir, that was intended for her first husband's name.
Q Her maiden name then was Tyner and her first husband's name was Flynn? A No, sir.
Q How does this Flynn get in here? A That is where the error is.
Q It has no justification at all? A No, sir.
Q What did you say was the name of her first husband? A Tyner.
Q And what was her name before she married him? A Her name was McLish.
Q Have you lived with your wife and in the Cherokee Nation ever since you married her in 1891? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is your wife? A To the best of my knowledge she is about 46 or 47.
Q Was she born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Has she lived here all her life? A Yes, sir.
Q How long has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A She has lived here ever since 1878; that is when she came back.
Q She is on the roll of 1880 is she? A Yes, sir.
Q By what name is she on the roll of 1880? A Katie Tyner.
Q Give me the name of her father? A Frazier McLish.
Q Is she dead or alive? A He is dead.
Q Give me the name of her mother? A Katie McLish.
Q Is she dead or alive? A She is dead.
Q Now give me, please, the names of these children; your own four children first? A Mima, she is 9 years old.
Q The next child? A Samuel, 8 years old.
Q The next child? A Esther E., 5 years old.
Q The next child? A Frank C., 15 months old.
Q All living now are they? A Yes, sir.
Q Now give me the name of the stepchild? A Lula Tyner.
Q How old is she? A 15 years old.
Q Give me her father's name? A Seaborn T. Tyner.
Q Was he a Cherokee or a white man? A He was a Cherokee.
Q How long has he been dead? A He died in 1885.
Q Was your wife ever married except to her husband Tyner and to yourself? A No, sir.
Q Were you ever married except to your present wife? A No, sir.

Emmett Starr, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your full name? A Emmett Starr.
Q You are one of the representatives of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.
Q Do you know the applicant here, Mr. Runyan? A I do.
Q Do you know his wife, Katie? A I do.
Q She was married before he married her, was she not? A She was.
Q And after the death of that husband she married him? A Yes,sir.
Q What was the name of her former husband? A Seaborn Tyner.
Q In the marriage license her name is given as Flynn; that was a clerical error, was it? A It was, it should have been Tyner.
Q You know the woman he married at that time was a Mrs. Tyner and not a Mrs. Flynn? A I do.

Courtland C. Runyan, recalled, testified:

Q Do you wish your wife to go as a Cherokee or a Shawnee? A As a Cherokee.
Q This child, Lula Tyner, is living now? A Yes, sir.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and four children and for one stepchild, the child of his wife by her former husband. His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee, she has lived in the Cherokee Nation since her enrollment in 1880, the variations in name are explained in a satisfactory manner by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith and by personal testimony, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Of their four children, the first three are identified with their parents on the roll of 1896, they are living now, and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. When the Commission is supplied with a certificate of the birth of the next child, Frank C., he also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The applicant is shown to have married his wife in accordance with Cherokee law, he is identified with her on the roll of 1896, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by intermarriage. The child, Lula Tyner, the child of the applicant's wife by her first husband, is identified on the roll of 1896, both her father and mother are identified on the roll of 1880, the child is living at this time, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Bartlesville, I.T., October 9, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Eva May Bigham for the enrollment of herself as a Cherokee by blood and her husband as a Cherokee by intermarriage; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, she testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name, please? A Eva May Bigham.
Q How old are you? A 23.
Q What is your post office? A Vera.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Myself and husband.
Q And children? A No, sir.
Q Do you apply for your own enrollment as a Cherokee by blood?
A Yes, sir.
Q Is your husband a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir, he is a white man.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Fifteen years.
Q Were you admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission or Council? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you your certificate of admission? A Yes, sir.
(The applicant presents an official copy of the records of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, showing that certain persons were admitted to citizenship as citizens by blood on September 13, 1883, and among them appears the name of Eva May Nicholson.)
Q That is your name? A That was my name before I was married, it is Bigham now.
(This is recognized as official evidence of the facts states, and the document is returned to the applicant.)
Q You came to the Cherokee Nation some two or three years after you were admitted? A Yes, sir, I came in 1884.
Q And you have lived here ever since? A Yes, sir.
Q When were you married? A In 1899, January 17.
Q How old is your husband? A 26.
Q Have you a certificate of your marriage? A Yes, sir.
(The applicant presents a license issued bythe Clerk of the United States Court, Northern District, Indian Territory, January 3, 1899, authorizing marriage between herself and Herman C. Bigham. The certificate shows that they were united in married on the 17th of the same month and year by Sarah E. Simcox, a minister of the Gospel. These documents are filed herewith.)

The applicant applies for theenrollment of herself and husband. She is shown to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship by the Cherokee Commission on citizenship in 1883, she states that she came to the Cherokee Nation in 1884 after her admission, and has lived here ever since. She is identified on the roll of 1896. Her change of name is established by the license and certificate filed herewith, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Her husband is shown to have married her in 1899 under the United States license. Under the Cherokee law of 1895, relating to the acquirement of citizenship by intermarriage, and from the factthat this marriage has been consummated under United States license, it follows that the applicant's husband has not acquired rights of citizenship and he is not upon any roll that has been made; therefore this Commission has no jurisdiction over his case as relates to his right to enrollment, and a memorandum will be made of the application for him to that effect. If it is desired that this memorandum be reported to the Secretary of the Interior, it will be done upon the receipt of a written request to that effect.

Eva May Fisher - 3.

Evans G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof..

Q Your age? A 40.
Q Your post office? A Bartlesville.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A 26 years.
Q Do you know this applicant's wife, Annie Parks? A Yes, sir.
Q Was her maiden name Lovelady? A Yes, sir, that is the name she went by.
Q Do you know of anybody elseby that name in this district? A No, sir.
Q On the 1880 roll there is an Annie Lovelady identified, but the age there given is much too old for this woman; you don't know anybody it could have applied to here, do you? A No, sir, I don't know anybody it could have meant but her.

Q You think it was a clearical error by which it was put down there in excess? A I can't say.
Q This woman's mother, was she a full blood Cherokee? A She is about a half breed it seems.
Q Her grandmother? A She was about the same.
Q Her grandfather, Jesse Thompson? A He wasn't this woman's grandfather.
Q You know these women are all Cherokee blood? A Yes, sir, they have always been recognized and their rights have never been disputed.

Commissioner Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and wife. His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee, she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The applicant is shown to have married his wife in accordance with Cherokee law in 1895, they have lived together in the Cherokee Nation ever since their marriage, he is identified with her on the roll of 1896, and he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by intermarriage.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

BY THE COMMISSION:

Q What is your name? A Andrew Reed.
Q What is your age, Mr. Reed? A 49.
Q What is your post office address? A Bartlesville,
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.

Q What per cent. of Cherokee blood have you? A Half breed.
Q How long have you lived in Cooweescoowee District?
A I have lived in Cooweescoowee District since 1874.
Q Have you lived outside of Cooweescoowee since then?
A No,,sir.
Q Does your name appear on the 1880 Cherokee Tribal Roll in Cooweescoowee District?
A Yes, sir.
Q Were you acquainted in 1880 with a girl by the name of Anna Lovelady?
A Yes, sir.
Q How old was this girl in that year?
A Well, she could not have been over four or five years old; I judge her to be four or five years old in 1880.
Q How old is she at the present time?
A Somewhere about 31 or 32.
Q What was the name of this Anna Lovelady's mother?
A Jenny.
Q Jenny what?
A I could not tell you.
Q Do you know under what name Anna Lovelady's mother appears on the 1880 Roll?
A No, sir.
Q What was this child's father's name?
A I could not tell his given name, I was not acquainted with him; this child was born after I went there.
Q Are both the father and mother of this Anna Lovelady dead?
A Yes, sir.
Q What is the present name of this Anna Lovelady of whom you speak?
A Parks.
Q What is the name of the husband of this girl?
A Charlie Parks.
Q When was Anna Lovelady married to Charles Parks?
A About 8 or 10 years ago - something like that.
Q Have they any children?
A They have two.
Q What are the names of those children?
A The oldest is named Martha; I do not know the middle name.

Q What is the name of the next child?
A I hardly ever go over there and do not remember.
Q Are you related to this Anna Parks (nee Anna Lovelady)?
A Yes, sir.
Q What relation?
A Well, I and her mother were first cousins.
Q Have you ever known any other person in Cooweescoowee District by the name of Anna Lovelady except the person of whom you speak
A No, sir.
Q Was this child living in Cooweescoowee District when the 1880 Roll was made?
A She was living in Cooweescoowee in 1877, and then in 1881 or '82 I was back there and she was there.
Q Is it your information that this child has lived all her life in Cooweescoowee District?
A To the best of my knowledge.
Q Is she was living in Cooweescoowee District, should her name have appeared on the 1880 Roll as Anna Lovelady?
A Yes, sir.
Q Has this Anna Parks been finally enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes, sir.
Q Has she selected her land as a citizen?
A Yes, sir.

Anna Lovelady is identified on the 1880 Cherokee Tribal Roll, Cooweescoowee District, number 1749, and is listed from information on Cherokee Doubtful Card 1520. This is the only Anna Lovelady that can be identified on the 1880 Cherokee Tribal Roll, Cooweescoowee District, and it is considered that this card is a duplicate of the card on which Anna Parks has been finally enrolled.

William P. Covington, being duly sworn, states that, as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported proceedings had in the above and foregoing case on the 25th day of May 1905, and that the above and foregoing is a full and correct transcript of his said stenographic notes taken in said case.

In the matter of the application made for the enrollment of Anna Lovelady as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

ORDER.

The record in this case shows that on June 30, 1902 Ernest Starr appeared before the Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, of Anna Lovelady, who was duly identified upon the 1880 Cherokee Tribal Roll, Cooweescoowee District, and she was listed on Cherokee Doubtful card number 1520.

It is further shown from the record herein, and from the records of the Commission, that application was made to the Commission, on October 9, 1900, for the enrollment of the said Anna Lovelady under the name of Annie Parks, and she was listed on Cherokee straight card, field number 4244, and her name appears opposite number 26538 upon the final roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation prepared by this Commission and approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

It is, therefore, ordered that Cherokee-D- card number 1520 be cancelled, and that the record in that case be transferred to Cherokee-4244.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied

In the matter of the application of Joe Hilderbrand for the enrollment of himself and wife as Cherokees by blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, he testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Joe Hilderbrand.
Q How old are you? A 36.
Q What is your post office? A Bartlesville.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll, yourself? A Myself and wife.
Q And children? A No, sir.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What proportion, half breed of full breed? A I can't say exactly.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee or a white woman? A Cherokee.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Give me the name, please, of your father? A Ben Hilderbrand.
Q Is he dead or alive? A He was living the last I heard of him.
Q Give me your mother's name? A Delilah.
Q Is she alive or dead? A She is dead.
Q Give me your wife's name? A Jennie.
Q How old is she? A Well, I can't say exactly, she is something like forty.
Q What was her name when you married her? A Goodhue.
Q Was that her maiden name? A No, sir.
Q What was her name just before it was Goodhue? A Lovelady.
Q Was that her maiden name? A No, sir.

Joe Hilderbrand on 1896 roll, page 181, No. 2553, Joseph Hilderbrand, Cooweescoowee district.)

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and wife. They are both identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as native Cherokees, but there is some doubt as to the identification on the roll of 1880 of the applicant's wife. He claims that they have lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives. They will be listed now for enrollment as Cherokees by blood, with the note that his wife will be required to appear before the Commission and explain the present doubt that exists in regard to her 1880 enrollment.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Chelsea, I. T., June 6, 1901.

Supplemental testimony and judgment in the case of Jennie Hilderbrand, wife of Joe Hilderbrand, on Straight card 4249, Cherokee card.

Com'r Needles-

Upon examination of the records this day, it is found that the enrollment of Jennie Hilderbrand upon said card as the wife of Joe Hilderbrand is an error. She was identified as the tribal enrollment of Millie Jane Colston, whose name is found upon the 1880 roll, No. 629. The testimony taken this day in the enrollment of Lewis R. B. Colston, Cherokee Card 7526, will be made a part of the record, and a copy of the same will be filed with the application of Jennie Hilderbrand, wife of Joe Hilderbrand, on straight card 4249.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the supplemental judgment in this case, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Sir:

I have the honor to inclose herewith a letter from Mr. Agent Wilbur, dated Yuma, May 31, 1881, in relation to the boundary line between the Colorado River Indian Reservation and the Mohave County, Arizona, road.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

Yuma, A. T., May 31, 1881.

Sir:

I have the honor to inclose herewith a petition of citizens of Mohave County, Arizona, praying that the boundary line between the Colorado River Indian Reservation and Mohave County, Arizona, may be so changed as to include the Ehrenberg road.

The petitioners state that the road is now outside the reservation, and that the change asked for will not interfere with the Indians in any way.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

In the matter of the application of Willie C. J. Warren for the enrollment of her son, Lewis R. B. Colston, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation; she being sworn and examined by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Willie C. J. Warren.
Q How old are you? A I am about 52 or three years old.
Q What is your postoffice? A Catoosa.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to enroll? A My little boy, Lewis R. B. Colston.
Q How old is he? A He is 18.
Q What is his father's name? A Richard Colston.
Q He living? A No sir.
Q Was he a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Are you his mother? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married to Mr. Colston? A We married in '81.
Q Have you any certificate of marriage? A Yes sir (presents a certificate) He has been married before; his wife was dead when he married me.
Q What was his former wife's name? A Millie Jane, I think. The man that married me is present.
W. W. Hastings, Cherokee Attorney: Do you know that his former wife, Millie Jane, is dead? A Yes, sir, she used to be a Wilkinson. There are Colstons that live on Pawpaw and Colstons that live somewhere else.
Commissioner: Do you know of any other Colstons besides your husband? A Yes sir, there are lot of Colstons living on Pawpaw and some at Tahlequah.
Q Do you know that? A I have seen some of them, but I am not personally acquainted with them. Mr Corntassle is here; he knows them.
Q Well, your husband's first wife was named Millie Jane? A Yes sir, Millie Jane.
Q And you know that she is dead? A Yes sir; in plainly speaking that is the woman he claimed as his wife; she died before he and I married.

The 1896 census roll of the citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and the name of the applicant's son is found on page 138, No. 1189, Lewis R. B. Colston, Cooweescoowee District.

Q Is he living at this time? A Yes sir.

The 1880 authenticated roll of the citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and the name of the applicants husband is found on page 249, No. 628, Richard Colston, Delaware District.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of Lewis R. B. Colston as a Cherokee citizen by blood. She avers that she was married to one Richard Colston, a Cherokee citizen, in the year 1881, and makes satisfactory proof of said marriage; and the name of Richard Colston is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as per page and number of the roll. The name of Lewis R. B. Colston is found upon the census roll of 1896. He is duly identified and makes satisfactory proof as to residence consequently Lewis R. B. Colston will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes.

Belle Keys,

Bartlesville, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. C

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al vs the United States, Nos 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED; That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12228-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "The Nowata Advertiser", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Nowata, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Nowata Advertiser" was on March 2, 1906. Attention was called to Section 51, of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known post-office advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

Respectfully,

August 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 21, (I.T.D.6186-1905), June 1, (I.T.D. 6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D.12228-1905), and January 12, (I.T. .110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any of the persons enumerated in his report were living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. E. Leupp,

Commissioner.

In the matter of the application of Rosetta A. Cox for the enrollment of herself and her one minor child as Cherokee citizens; she being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name? A Rosetta A. Cox.
Q How old are you? A 20.
Q What is your post-office? A Lawton, I.T.
Q What is your district? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A I and my baby.
Q No husband? A He's a white man.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life, twenty years.
Q Give me the name of your father? A Enos Parson.
Q Is he dead or alive? A Alive.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Mary Parson.
Q Dead or alive? A Dead.
Q How long has she been dead? A She's been dead not quite 20 yrs. about 19 years.
Q When were you married? A In '99.
Q Have you a certificate of your marriage? A Yes sir.

The applicant presents a certificate showing that Isaac M. Cox and Miss Rosetta Parson were married at Caney, State of Kansas, Nov. 20, 1898, by the Rev. J. R. Charlton. This is returned to the applicant.

Q You and your husband have lived together ever since you were married have you? A Yes sir.
Q Is your actual home in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Just over there to get married, were you? A Yes sir.
Q What's the name of your child? A Robert M. Cox.
Q How old is that child? A 15 months old.

Commissioner.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and one child. She is shown to have married her husband in accordance with United States law in November, 1898. Her mother is identified on the roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee, and the applicant, who is too young to be upon that roll, is identified on the roll of 1896. Her change of name arises from her marriage, which is duly established in the testimony. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. When she presents the Commission with a certificate of the birth of her baby, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

E. G. Rothenberger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete translation of his stenographic notes in said case.

COMMISSION: The applicant, Mike Patrick applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and four children. He is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and upon the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. He has satisfactorily established proof as to his residence in the Indian Territory, and he will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee by blood.

He avers that he was married to one Delila Cookson about 16 years ago. She is identified upon the 1880 authenticated roll as a native Cherokee. By this marriage he has two children, Jamie E. and John. These two children are identified upon the census roll of 1896 as native Cherokees and their residence having been satisfactorily established, they will be enrolled by this Commission as native Cherokees.

It further appears from the testimony that about 12 years ago he was married to one Josie Hawkins, a white woman and he lived with this woman about two years, after which he secured a divorce from not identified upon the 1880 roll, but is found upon the 1896 census roll of 1896. The Cherokee Representatives present object to the father enrolling this child, and he will, therefore be required to inform the childs mother that she will have to enroll the child for the re[illegible]

Mike Patrick ---#.

Mike Patrick and his former wife, Josie Hawkins, been residing with its mother in Fort Smith.

In 1894 the applicant was married to one Fannie Patrick nee Hall She is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as an intermarried white. He presents a duly authorized marriage license issued on the 20th day of October, 1894 by J. W. Phillips, Clerk of the United States Court, and a certificate showing that such marriage was consummated on the 21st day of October, 1894, by J. O. Hendrix, a Minister of the Gospel. The license will be filed herewith. He is desired to furnish this Commission with a copy of the decree granting him a divorce from his former wife, Josie Hawkins. The result of his marriage with Fannie Patrick is one child, Harold H. When he supplied the Commission with properly executed affidavits as to the birth of this child, it will, also, be listed for enrollment as a native Cherokee. His present wife Fannie Patrick will be listed for enrollment as an intermarried white, subject to receipt of Decree of Divorce from his former wife, Josie Hawkins.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
CHEROKEE LAND OFFICE.
Tahlequah, I.T., October 30, 1905.

In the matter of the application for the selection of an allotment and the designation of a homestead in the Cherokee Nation for Jane E. Hall (formerly Jane E. Cooper).

Mike Patrick, being duly sworn by Simon Walkingstick, Notary Public, and examined on behalf of the Commissioner, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Mike Patrick.
Q What is your age? A Forty-three.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Wann, Indian Territory.
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q You present here a power of attorney authorizing you to represent Jane E. Hall before the Cherokee Land Office. What relationis Jane E. Hall to you? A She's my daughter.
Q It appears from the records of this office that she married a man by the name of John T. Cooper on December 17, 1902; is that correct? A Yes sir.
Q Did she spearate from him? A He did from her; he just went off and left her.
Q Did she secure a divorce from him in the courts? A Yes sir.
Q Who did she afterwards marry? A James V. Hall.
Q Is he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir, a non-citizen.
Q When did she marry him? A In 1904, but I don't recollect the exact date.
Q Do you know on what date she obtained the divorce from Cooper?
A No sir, I don't, but she obtained the divorce in the Claremore court.
Q Is she living with Hall at the present time? A Yes sir.
Q Why doesn't she appear in her own behalf? A Its so far and I was coming, she asked me to attend to it for her. She has a small child about nine months old to take care of and didn't consider it best for her to come.
Q Where is she living? A Living at Wann.
Q She has already selected a portion of her allotment? A Yes sir.
Q Have you any land to complete her allotment on? A Yes sir.
Q Where is this land? A South of Wann about three miles.
Q Are there any improvements on it? A Its fenced and part is broke out--I don't think all of it is broke.
Q Who owns those improvements? A I couldn't tell you who; the place was made under Webber I think--I think he made it under a lease. That part of the place I want to file on is lying idle now.
Q Does anyone claim this land? A I don't think anyone claims it. Part of it was allotted and this part that I want to file on I don't think is claimed by anyone.

Ira S. Miles, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony in this case, and that the above and foregoing is a true and complete copy of his stenographic notes.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31,(I.T.D.6186-1905), June 1,(I.T.D.6240-1905), Octo ber 4, (I.T.D.12228-1905), and January 12,(I.T.D.110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report were living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this office and are transmitted herewith, the office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

W. M. Leupp.

W. W. GOODMAN, being duly sworn by the Commission, was examined, testified as follows:

Examined by W. W. Hastings, Esq:

Q What is your name ? A W. W. Goodman.
Q What is your post office address ? A Caney.
Q Do you live in the town of Caney, Kansas ?
A Why my wife is there; I live in the Territory.
Q Does your wife keep house there ? A Part of the time.
does, and part of the time she is in the Territory. [illegible]
Q When did she first commence keeping house up there ?
A I guess about ten years ago.
Q Has she kept house there continuously since that time ?
A No sir we have been back three or four years at home [illegible] will let me tell the tale I can give you a better knowledge of it.
Well, I moved there twenty five years ago on Cotton Creek, and was no schools there nor nothin.
Q I want to know how long you have been in Caney, Kansas ?
A After the strip payment I got able to build me a house, and bought some property there. I bought land and built a house in Caney, Kansas, and deeded it to my three youngest children, and through the season I have had them there part of the time going to school. And then in the vacation they would come down to the farm. I did own three thousand acres there [illegible] me out, and I sold it.
Q Where is your family now ? A Part in Caney, part at home [illegible]
Q Where is your wife ? A At home [illegible] part in town.
Q Where is she now ? A I don't know.
Q Does she keep house up in Caney ? A [illegible] as school commenced she has been up there
Q You have got some children up there ?
A I have got two boys and two girls.
Q Did you ever have a store at Caney ? A No sir.
Q Did you ever clerk up there in a store ? A No sir.
Q Did you ever have any other business there ?
A I loaned a fellow some money to run a saddle shop there.
Q Have you an interest in it ? A No sir
Q Did you ever have an interest in it ? A I loaned him some money.
Q Didn't you get broke and run it in somebody else's name ?
A No sir, I never was broke in my life.

Q Where were you living July 19, 1898, and July 20, 1899, and April 2, 1900 ? A Why my folks was in Caney; they had been in Caney through the school term ever since I had built the house after the Cherokee payment.
Q I will ask you if you didn't vote up there in Caney, Kansas, at elections held there ? A I voted there in two bond elections.
Q Didn't you vote there on July 19, 1898 ?
A I want to tell you about that.
Q Say yes or no about it ? A I don't know whether I did or not. I didn't think I did, but I was talking to Pocock, and he said my name was on the roll. I went to the polls and they wanted me to vote; there was a kind of a heated election there, and I told them I had no right to vote, and they questioned me ----
Q Oh tell me whether you voted or not ?

By the Commission:

Q Did you go up there and cast a ballot ?
A I was there and they questioned me, and asked me--
Q Did you cast a ballot in that election ?
A I don't remember of it.

By Mr. Hastings:

Q Did you on July 20, 1899 ? A I did, yes sir
Q Did you on April 2, 1900 ? A I don't remember of it

Mr. Hastings: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a certificate from the City Clerk, of Caney, Kansas, E. F. Pocock, showing that the applicant W. F. Goodman voted at elections held in Caney, Kansas, on the dates hereinabove mentioned

The witness: He told me about this and I went and took him to the books, and saw my name there. The reason why my name was there they said I could vote; it was just a city election; and they said that my being a resident there, and my family being there I had a right to vote.

By the Commission:

Q As a matter of fact, you did vote, didn't you ?
A No sir, I don't think I did.
Q Didn't you cast a ballot ? A No sir. Sam Barr and Minner were judges, but I don't remember ever going up and voting.
Q Where were you living on June 28, 1898 ? A Why if school was out then, we were living on the farm.
Q Have you got a house on the farm ? A Oh I have got a house, and its never been rented nor nothing. Last winter I fed a hundred head of steers there.
Q About what time of the year would your people go to Kansas ?
A When the school term [illegible] September.
Q Would they stay there continuously ?
A Until school lets out. We rented our house in town when they moved out, and put our furniture off in one end of the house, but I never have moved them from Caney to the farm.
Q You keep house there ? A I have stayed there for six months at one time, but I haven't stayed there any time in six months.
Q Haven't stayed there a night in the past six months ? A No sir.

Q Where did you come from down here ?
A From the farm
Q Where did you take the train ? A Right east of Caney there at Fawn Valley.
Q Is it in the Cherokee Nation ? A No sir, its up on the State line; of course I know what the name of it is, but I can't call the name right now; its Tyro.
Q How far is your farm from the State line ? A Three miles.
Q What is the closest post office ? A Caney.
Q Do you mean to say that you have not spent a night in Caney, Kansas in the past six months ? A Yes sir.
Q You are positive ? A Yes sir.
Q You are willing to swear that you have not spent a night there in six months ? A Yes sir.

EDWARD FRENCHMAN, called as a witness, being duly sworn by the Commission, testified as follows:

Examined by Mr. Hastings:

Q What is your name ? A Edward Frenchman
Q What is your age Mr. Frenchman ? A I am about 31.
Q Where do you live ? A I now live in Caney, Kansas
Q How long have you lived there ? A Since a year ago last September.
Q That would be in September, 1901 ? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you go from to Caney at that time ?
A I went from about four miles south of the State line right down the Osage line
Q How long had you been living there when you moved to Caney ?
A Oh about a year I guess. I lived still further south of that before that.
Q How long had you lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously before you moved to Caney, Kansas, in September, 1901 ?
A I lived there I guess about twenty five years.
Q Have you lived in Caney before this time ? A Yes sir.
Q When did you live there ? A I moved there the first time about five or six years ago.
Q Do you know which ? A I can't say exactly which, but somewhere along there.
Q Do you know whether it was 1896 or 1897 that you moved to Caney, Kansas ? A Lets see, I believe it was; I believe I went there in the fall of 1893; it was in the fall of 1893 I believe went there first.
Q Well, but in 1896 or 1897 you moved there. How long did you live there when you moved there five or six years ago ?
A I was there about half the time, about two years; about half the time I was back and forth.
Q Where were you in June, 1898 ? A I was down in the Territory on the farm farming.
Q Is your wife an invalid ? A Yes sir.
Q She is sick now ? A Yes sir.
Q She has consumption ? A Why some doctors says she has, and some says she hasn't.

Q What did you move to Caney for ? A I went there for the purpose of schooling my children and being near doctors.
Q What did you do there ? A I worked part of the time. When I first went there of course I didn't do anything much. I run a delivery wagon there last winter.
Q What do you do now ? A I clerk in a store.
Q You say you were on the farm in 1898 ? A Yes sir
Q Are you positive about that ? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known W. F. Goodman ?
A Just as far back as I can remember.
Q For the last five or six years where has he and his family been living ? A Well, so far as I know his family has been back and forth to Caney for the last six years.
Q Don't his family live in Caney now ? A I can't say, I haven't seen his family for three or four months
Q You don't keep track of them ? A No sir.
Q Do you know Sidney E. Bell ? A Yes sir.
Q Where does he live ? A In Caney
Q How long has he lived there ? A I never did know Mr. Bell until about two years ago.
Q You have known him about two years ? A Yes sir. He has been there ever since I have known him.
Q How long is the longest you have ever lived in Caney, Kansas.
A Well, about--the whole time together, I expect----
Q At any one time ?
A The last time I went was about twelve months. Of course went there, and kept my family there; that is back and forth two years, but I counted it about half the time I was there.
Q Was that from 1893 to 1895 ? A Somewheres along there
Q Then you went back in 1893 to the country ?
A No, it was two years ago that I went back there.
Q In 1897 ? A Yes sir, and stayed there from the first of September till January.
Q Then where did you go ? A I went back on the farm again
Q Then you went back to Caney on the first of September, 1899 ?
A Yes sir.

By the Commission:

Q How long did you stay in Caney, Kansas, when you went there in 1895, as you stated a while ago ? A Well, I was there, I guess, back and forth all together.
Q I mean how long did you actually reside in Caney, Kansas when you went there in 1893 before you left ?
A I left there about 1895, but I was just back and forth, I wasn't there all the time.
Q Were you married in 1893 ? A No sir.
Q When were you married ? A In 1886.
Q Then you were a married man in 1393 ? A Yes sir.
Q Were you living there in Caney, Kansas, in 1895 ?
A I probably was part of that time, but about that time I moved back on the farm, in March.
Q How long did you stay in the Territory that time ?
A I stayed in the Territory until two years ago.
Q From 1895 up until two years ago, or up until one year ago last September, you resided continuously in the Cherokee Nation ?
A Yes sir.
Q And did not reside at Caney, Kansas ? A No sir.

In the matter of the application of WILLIAM F. GOODMAN, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and his wife, CATHERINE B. GOODMAN, and his children, ORA M., ALBERT A., SUSIE J., ROBERT F. and JOSEPH P. GOODMAN, as citizens by blood, of the Cherokee Nation:

The Commission: This testimony is to be taken in and applied to Cher # 4297; Cher # 4262; Cher # 4232, and in Del # 99.

W. F. GOODMAN, being duly sworn by the Commission, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by W. W. Hastings, Esq:

Q What is your name ? A W. F. Goodman.
Q What is your post office address ? A Caney.
Q Do you live in the town of Caney, Kansas ?
A Why my wife is there; I live in the Territory.
Q Does your wife keep house there ? A Part of the time she does, and part of the time she is in the Territory with me.
Q When did she first commence keeping house up there ?
A I guess about ten years ago.
Q Has she kept house there continuously since that time ?
A No sir we have been back three or four years at home If you will let me tell the tale I can give you a better knowledge of it. Well, I moved there twenty five years ago on Cotton Creek, and there was no schools there nor nothing.
Q I want to know how long you have been in Caney, Kansas ?
A After the strip payment I got able to build me a house, and I bought some property there. I bought land and built a house in Caney, Kansas, and deeded it to my three youngest children, and through the season I have had them there part of the time going to school. And then in the vacation they would come down to the farm. I did own three thousand acres there until they cut me out, and I sold it.
Q Where is your family now ? A Part in Caney.
Q Where is your wife ? A At home part of the time, and part in town.
Q Where is she now? A I don't know.
Q Does she keep house up in Caney ? A Why she has since school commenced she has been up there.
Q You have got some children up there ?
Q I have got two boys and two girls.
Q Did you ever have a store at Caney ? A No sir.
Q Did you ever clerk up there in a store ? A No sir.
Q Did you ever have any other business there ?
A I loaned a fellow some money to run a saddle shop there.
Q Have you an interest in it ? A No sir.
Q Did you ever have an interest in it ? A I loaned him some money.
Q Didn't you get broke and run it in somebody else's name ?
A No sir, I never was broke in my life.

Q Where were you living July 19, 1898, and July 20, 1899, and April 2, 1900 ? A Why my folks was in Caney; they had been in Caney through the school term ever since I had built the house after the Cherokee Payment.
Q I will ask you if you didn't vote up there in Caney, Kansas, at elections held there ? A I voted there in two bond elections.
Q Didn't you vote there on July 19, 1898 ?
A I want to tell you about that.
Q Say yes or no about it ? A I don't know whether I did or not. I didn't think I did, but I was talking to Pocock, and he said my name was on the roll. I went to the polls and they wanted me to vote; there was a kind of a heated election there, and I told them I had no right to vote, and they questioned me ----
Q Oh tell me whether you voted or not ?

By the Commission:

Q Did you go up there and cast a ballot ?
A I was there and they questioned me, and asked me--
Q Did you cast a ballot in that election ?
A I don't remember of it.

By Mr. Hastings:

Q Did you on July 20, 1899 ? A I did, yes sir.
Q Did you on April 2, 1900? A I don't remember of it.

Mr. Hastings: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a certificate from the City Clerk, of Caney, Kansas, E. F. Pocock, showing that the applicant W. F. Goodman voted at elections held in Caney, Kansas, on the dates hereinabove mentioned.

The witness: He told me about this and I went and took him to the books, and saw my name there. The reason why my name was there they said I could vote; it was just a city election; and they said that my being a resident there, and my family being there I had a right to vote.

By the Commission:

Q As a matter of fact, you did vote, didn't you ?
A No sir, I don't think I did.
Q Didn't you cast a ballot ? A No sir. Sam Barr and Minner were judges, but I don't remember ever going up and voting.
Q Where were you living on June 28, 1898 ? A Why if school was out then, we were living on the farm.
Q Have you got a house on the farm ? A Oh I have got a house, and its never been rented nor nothing. Last winter I fed a hundred head of steers there.
Q About what time of the year would your people go to Kansas ?
A When the school term takes up in September.
Q Would they stay there continuously?
A Until school lets out. We rented our house in town when they moved out, and put our furniture off in one end of the house, but I never have moved them from Caney to the farm.
Q You keep house there ? A I have stayed there for six months at one time; but I haven't stayed there any time in six months.
Q Haven't stayed there a night in the past six months ? A No sir

Q Where did you come from down here ?
A From the farm
Q Where did you take the train ? A Right east of Caney there at Fawn Valley.
Q Is it in the Cherokee Nation ? A No,sir, its up on the State line; of course I know what the name of it is, but I can't call the name right now; its Tyro.
Q How far is your farm from the State line ? A Three miles.
Q What is the closest post office ? A Caney.
Q Do you mean to say that you have not spent a night in Caney, Kansas in the past six months ? A Yes sir.
Q You are positive ? A Yes sir.
Q You are willing to swear that you have not spent a night there in six months ? A Yes sir.

By Mr. Hastings:

Q Didn't you tell us that you spoke to this city clerk up there about it ? A Yes sir. I was there Friday and Saturday.
Q You didn't spend the night there ? A No sir.
Q Do you know Edward Frenchman ? A Yes sir.
Q Where does he live ? A In Caney.
Q Do you know S. E. Bell ? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he lived in Caney ? A About 5 or 6 years.
Q Hasn't he lived there eight or ten years ? A Yes sir.
Q Frenchman lives there ? A Yes sir.
Q His family lives there ? A Yes sir.
Q They keep house there do they ? A Yes sir.
Q What business is Bell engaged in ? A Not anything; he is bumming around there.
Q Is he engaged in busines ? A He has farms in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Where ? A Some on Cotton Creek; and some east of Caney.
Q Did he ever work it ? A He did one year.
Q When ? A A year ago last summer, or two years.
Q Are you positive he has not been living in Caney more than five years ? A I can't tell you about that. I know he moved up there and has been there since.
Q Did he move there since you went to Caney, Kansas; you went there in 1894 ? A I don't know; it was about 2 or 4 years.
Q After that ? A Yes sir, maybe three years.
Q Has he been there all the time since ? A Yes sir.
Q What business is Frenchman in ? A He is clerking for Bill Meeker.
Q How long has he been clerking there ? A About a year.
Q How long after you went to Caney before Frenchman came there ?
A I don't know.
Q Did you see him there when you went there ? A I don't remember; I didn't pay any attention to it.
Q How long are you certain he has been living there at Caney, Kansas ? A Four or five years I guess.
Q Are you positive he hasn't been there more than five years ?
A No sir.
Q Are you positive he hasn't been there less than five years ?
A No sir, I can't say.

A Yes sir, he was in business there two years, I think.
Q What years were they ? A In 1898 and 1899, I think.
Q What business was he engaged in ? A He was selling Plano harvesting machines.
Q Has he ever been engaged in any other business ?
A He was in the harness business there at one time.
Q Was he actually running it ? A He was never around much himself.
Q Was he known as the proprietor ? A Yes sir.
Q Was he living there in 1895 when you went to Caney ?
A Yes sir
Q Was he living there in 1900 when you went away ?
A Yes sir, I don't know that they have ever moved back entirely.
Q They are still keeping house there ? A Yes sir.

EDWARD FRENCHMAN, called as a witness, being duly sworn by the Commission, testified as follows:

Examined by Mr. Hastings:

Q What is your name ? A Edward Frenchman
Q What is your age Mr. Frenchman ? A I am about 31.
Q Where do you live ? A I now live in Caney, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived there ? A Since a year ago last September.
Q That would be in September, 1901 ? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you go from to Caney at that time ?
A I went from about four miles south of the State line right down the Osage line.
Q How long had you been living there when you moved to Caney ?
A Oh about a year I guess. I lived still further south of that before that.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously before you moved to Caney, Kansas in September, 1901 ?
A I lived there I guess about twenty five years.
Q Have you lived in Caney before this time ? A Yes sir.
Q When did you live there ? A I moved there the first time about five or six years ago.
Q Do you know which ? A I can't say exactly which, but somewhere along there.
Q Do you know whether it was in 1896 or 1897 that you moved to Caney, Kansas ? A Lets see; I believe it was; I believe I went there in the fall of 1893; it was in the fall of 1893 I believe I went there first.
Q Well, but in 1896 or 1897 you moved there. How long did you live there when you moved there five or six years ago ?
A I was there about half the time, about two years; about half the time I was back and forth.
Q Where were you in June, 1898 ? A I was down in the Territory on the farm farming.
Q Is your wife an invalid ? A Yes sir.
Q She is sick now ? A Yes sir.
Q She has consumption ? A Why some doctors says she has, and some says she hasn't.

Q What did you move to Caney for ? A I went there for the purpose of schooling my children and being near doctors.
Q What did you do there ? A I worked part of the time. When I first went there of course I didn't do anything much. I run a delivery wagon there last winter.
Q What do you do now ? A I clerk in a store.
Q You say you were on the farm in 1898 ? A Yes sir
Q Are you positive about that ? A Yes sir
Q How long have you known W. F. Goodman ?
A Just as far back as I can remember.
Q For the last five or six years where has he and his family been living ? A Well, so far as I know his family has been back and forth to Caney for the last six years.
Q Don't his family live in Caney now ? A I can't say, I haven't seen his family for three or four months.
Q You don't keep track of them ? A No sir.
Q Do you know Sidney E. Bell ? A Yes sir.
Q Where does he live ? A In Caney.
Q How long has he lived there ? A I never did know Mr Bell until about two years ago.
Q You have known him about two years ? A Yes sir. He has been there ever since I have known him.
Q How long is the longest you have ever lived in Caney, Kansas ?
A Well about--the whole time together, I expect----
Q No, at any one time ?
A The first time I went was about twelve months. Of course I went there, and kept my family there; that is back and forth for two years, but I counted it about half the time I was there.
Q Was that from 1893 to 1895 ? A Somewheres along there.
Q Then you went back in 1896 to the country ?
Q No, it was two years ago that I went back there.
Q In 1900 ? A Yes sir, and stayed there from the first of September till January.
Q Then where did you go ? A I went back on the farm again.
Q Then you went back to Caney on the first of September, 1901 ?
A Yes sir.

By the Commission:

Q How long did you stay in Caney, Kansas, when you went there in 1893, as you stated a while ago ? A Well, I was there, I guess, back and forth all together---
Q I mean how long did you actually reside in Caney, Kansas when you went there in 1893 before you left ?
A I left there about 1895, but I was just back and forth, I wasn't there all the time.
Q Were you married in 1893 ? A No sir.
Q When were you married ? A In 1888.
Q Then you were a married man in 1893 ? A Yes sir.
Q Were you living there in Caney, Kansas, in 1895 ?
A I probably was part of that time, but about that time I moved back on the farm, in March.
Q How long did you stay in the Territory that time ?
A I stayed in the Territory until two years ago.
Q From 1895 up until two years ago, or up until one year ago last September, you resided continuously in the Cherokee Nation ?
A Yes sir.
Q And did not reside at Caney, Kansas ? A No sir.

Patrick who are enrolled with him on Straight Card #4263. These two children on the later card who are concerned are Ida and Alec; the third child with him on this card is the child of him the first wife of George W. Patrick, and is identified with him and the deceased mother of the child on the roll of 1880. The name of the child was identified as John Patrick.

It is shown in a satisfactory manner by the testimony just taken that after the death of George W. Patrick's first wife, Poline Keys, who has been identified with him as his wife on the roll of 1880, he married one Nancy Langley in say 1883; they lived together as husband and wife until say 1887; this Nancy Langley is identified on the roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee; she died in 1887. The marriage between her and George W. Patrick being established now in a satisfactory manner it leaves no doubt as to the right of enrollment of the two children of that marriage, Ida and Alec, who have just been referred to as being on Card #4263.

Now, after the death of this second wife, Nancy Langley, George W. Patrick married the third time, to one Nancy Jenkins: He avers that he was never married except to the three women whose names are here given; and that his last wife, Nancy Jenkins, with whom he is still living and to whom he was married in say 1889 was never married before, both of his previous wives being dead at the time of this marriage, this being established by satisfactory testimony in addition to that of George W. Patrick himself; and this woman being identified as his wife on the roll of 1896, no doubt is entertained of the right of the children of this marriage, whose names are on Card "D" #553 to be enrolled as Cherokees by blood. These children, five in number, are Nancy, Rachel, Eliza, Lucy and Fannie Patrick.

This testimony should complete what is necessary to secure the enrollment of George W. Patrick and all of the children enumerated as Cherokees by blood and his present wife, Nancy Patrick as a Cherokee by adoption.

Copies of this testimony will be placed with both of the cases referred to.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al vs the United States, Nos 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied

Mr. Fielding Halfmoon,

Bartlesville, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:-

When you applied to this Commission for the enrollment of yourself and family as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, you gave the name of your wife as Annie Halfmoon. It is noticed in the affidavit which you send as to the birth of your child Frederick A. Halfmoon, that the name of your wife appears throughout the affidavit and she signs same as Annie E. Halfmoon.

Will you please advise the Commission which is her correct name and how she desires to be listed for enrollment as a citizen of the CherokeeNation.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

3-26-1902

Her correct name is Annie E. Halfmoon wishes to be enrolled that way.
Yours Ful.

Q How did you get to be a Cherokee? A Well sir, I complied with the Cherkee law which they passed in 1876.
Q You deposited $500.00 under that old Cherokee law for the purpose of securing your rights? A Yes sr.
Q And then that was subject to the action of the Cherokee Council? A Yes sir.
Q Then did the Cherokee Council go on and grant you citizenship? A As heretofore.
Q Did it do it in this case? A I doubt that there is a particular legislation in regard to it.
Q You claim that the payment of five hundred dollars under the operation of the old Cherokee law made you at once a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
Q That would be in article fifteen section seventy five of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation of 1875. Its under that that you claim, is it? A Yes sir.
Q And I see in this receipt which you hand here for $500.00, paid Nov. 22, 1877, that reference is made to Chapter 18 article 15 of Section 75, of what are called the Constitution and Laws of the Cherokee Nation.
Q Are you on the roll of 1880? A Yes sir.
Commissioner- This receipt is filed with your application.
Q You paid that money with a view of pertaining rights for yourself and wife? A I had no wife at that time.
Q Have you lived here ever since Nov. 22, 1877? A Lived here ever since 1860.
Q Give me the name of your wife, please? A Huldah Bennett.
Q How old is she? A 46.
Q When did you marry her? A In '78, January.
Q You married your present wife? A Yes sir.
Q Is she with you on the roll of '80? A Yes sir.
Q She's living with you now is she? A Yes sir.
Q Lived with you ever since she and you were married? A Yes sir.
Q Her maiden name was Bennett? A No sir, her maiden name was Ringo.
Q She was a Bennett when you married her? A Yes sir.

Representative of the Cherokee Nation-

W. W. Hastings, one of the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation, objects to the enrollment of this family, either as Cherokees by blood or as citizens by intermarriage, for the reason that Section 75 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation of 1875, upon which the applicant relies for enrollment, provides-" That the applicant will thereafter conform to the Constitution of the Cherokee Nation and to thelaws made or to be made in pursuance thereof, in which case he shall be deemed a Cherokee to all intent, and be entitled to all the rights of other Cherokees." And Section 74, which immediately precedes the former section of the same code of laws of 1875, provides,- " That in case a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage be left a widow or widower by the deceased of the Cherokee wife or husband, such surviving widow or widower shall forfeit his rights of citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, provided he subsequently intermarried with any person other than a Cherokee by blood" and the testimony of the applicant shows that he paid in to the Cherokee Nation on Nov. 22, 1877, the sum of $50.00, and that in January 1878, or about two months thereafter, he intermarries with a white woman, having no rights of Cherokee citizenship at that time. And W. W. Hastings, one representative of the Cherokee Nation contends that in the event under any construction of the Cherokee law, or the act of Congress under which the United States Commission is making this roll; that no one other than the husband, or perhaps the wife, whose name appear upon the roll of 1880 and seems to have been authenticated, or was authenticated, by the Cherokee Nation, and by the Congress of the United States, should be listed for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation either by blood of the husband, or by adoption of both. That the Commission is not bound to enlist for enrollment the children since born, for the reason that they were not admitted as citizens of Cherokee blood, and they make no contention that they have any rights of citizens by blood. The representative further contends, that this act of Council does not give any more right to an intermarried white citizen than he formerly had under the laws that were in existence, or those subsequently enacted since 1880.

By the Commissioner-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife, and three children. This is a unique case in the history of the Cherokee Nation. The applicant and his wife are both of white blood, but he is shown, as set forth in the testimony, to have purchased what is claimed as a blood right in the Cherokee Nation on the 22nd of November, 1877, in accordance with law existing at that time. The receipt for the money paid to the Cherokee treasury filed herewith, and the laws cited in connection with that receipt, are referred to upon that point. After the applicant acquired his right as a Cherokee citizen bythese proceedings and before the roll of 1880 was made, he married his presentwife. They have lived together in the Cherokee Nation continuously from the time of their marriage in 1878 to the pesent time. About this thereis no dispute. Both of them were admitted to enrollment by the Cherokee authorities in 1880, and also in 1896. Apart from any question involved inthe original rights of the applicant and his family, they have rights dating from their enrollment in 1880, which under Section 21, of what is known as the Curtis Law, approved June 28, 1898, cannot be gone behind by this Commission, or any other authority, so long as that law is sustained by the courts. According to the language of that law, this Commission is, "directed to take the roll of Cherokee citizens of 1880 as the only roll intended to be confirmed by this and preceding acts of Congress, and to enroll all persons now living whose names are found on said roll, and all descendents born since the date of said roll to persons whose names are found thereon." It makes no difference how defective the original transaction may have been, while it has been confirmed by the Cherokee authorities by the roll of 1880, and the applicant has lived consistently with the requirements of citizens since the enrollment of 1880, that is a finality. He is considered to have acquired blood rights by his original transaction, and he will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood, And his wife will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption, and the three children identified with them on the roll of 1896, all minors and born since the roll of 1880 was made, will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

E. C. Rothenberger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in fullall proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete translation of his stenographic notes in said case.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

ADDRESS ONLY THE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 3, 1902.

Hulda Bennett,

Bartlesville, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:-

The Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902, and entitled "An Act To provide for the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, for the disposition of town sites therein, and for other purposes," (Public No. 241), provides that "the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen-hundred and two."

In accordance with said provision, you are hereby notified that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will be at its offices at Muskogee, Indian Territory, until Friday, October 31, 1902, inclusive, for the purpose of affording you an opportunity to show that you have not, between the date of the original application for your enrollment and Sept 2, 1902, forfeited your right as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

This evidence should be introduced immediately, as it is necessary in determining your right to share in the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, and until the same is furnished no further action can be taken looking toward your final enrollment as an intermarried citizen.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905(I.T.D. 6240-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12228-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "The Nowata Advertiser", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Nowata, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Nowata Advertiser" was on March 2, 1906. Attention was called to Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902(32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 190[illegible], it is respectfully recommended that their names by stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31, (I.T.D.6186-1905), June 1, (I.T.D. 6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D.12228-1905), and January 12, (I.T. .110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any of the persons enumerated in his report were living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

WASHINGTON.

Land
12693-1907.

February 14, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On January 19, 1907, the Office transmitted the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, relative to applications for the enrollment of Frank Howard, et al, as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The decision includes the applications of seventy-two persons found by the Commissioner to be not entitled to enrollment under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al, against the United States.

It appears from the record in the case that the names of all the applicants are found on the authenticated 1880 roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and the Office in transmitting the record did not consider this phase of the case. On January 31 the Department was requested to return the record in the case for further consideration by the Office. It was returned with Department letter of February 6, 1907, I.T.D. 1380.

With refernece to the names of these applicants being on the 1880 roll Mr. Bixby says:

> THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

as the applicants were not married to citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the laws, usages and customs of the tribes prior to November 1, 1875, they are not entitled to enrollment, unless it be by virtue of their names being on the 1880 roll. By the provisions of section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. L., 495), the roll of Cherokee citizens of 1880, not including freedmen, is confirmed, and the Commission is directed to enroll all persons whose names are found on that roll and descendants born since the date of the roll. It is then provided that other rolls shall be examined and that the names of all persons found on the other rolls not placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law shall be enrolled.

The only question in the case seems to be whether a confirmation of this roll by Congress entitles a person whose name appears on said roll to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation who would not otherwise be entitled to such enrollment.

The Supreme Court in the case of Nofire vs. the United States (164 U.S.,657), said:

(Syllabus)

The fact that a marriage license has been issued carries with it a presumption that all statutory prerequisites thereto have been complied with, and one who claims to the contrary must affirmatively show the fact.

.....

The evidence shows that the deceased sought, in his lifetime, to become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, took all the steps he supposed necessary therefor, considered himself a citizen, and that the Cherokee Nation in his lifetime recognized him as a citizen and still asserts his citizenship. Held, that, under those circumstances, it must be adjudged that he was a citizen by adoption, and consequently that the jurisdiction over the offence charged is, by the laws of the United States and treaties with the Cherokee Nation, vested in the courts of that Nation.

In the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al, vs. the United States the Supreme Court said:

> The roll of 1880, made by the Cherokees, was a census roll, and its confirmation was not intended to create any rights which citizens of the Cherokee Nation had not before enjoyed, but merely to furnish the basis for making up the roll of citizens. Section 21 was in reality a statement that no previous act of Congress was intended to confirm any other roll of the Cherokee Nation.
> Section 31 of the Act of July 1, 1902, says that no person whose name does not appear on the roll made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes "shall be entitled to in any manner participate in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribe, and those whose names appear thereon shall participate in the manner set forth in this act." In other words, the roll must be made up of citizens who under the laws of the Cherokee Nation were entitled to participation in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribes.
> The concluding words of section 21, "with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws," emphatically indicate that Congress had the Indian citizen in mind in all that went before and limited enrollment of white persons to such as might be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws.

From the foregoing quotations it is evident that the Supreme Court makes a distinction between citizens having political rights only and these having all rights including the right to share in the distribution of the land and other property of the Cherokee Nation. This being true it is evident that Congress did not intend that any person should be given the right to share in the property of the Cherokee Nation simply because his name was on some roll of that nation that had been confirmed by Congressional action, unless it is there as a full citizen and not as a citizen with political rights only.

The Office is of the opinion that the persons whose names appear in the record enclosed are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and the approval of the Commissioner's adverse decision is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. H. Lovebee,

Acting Commissioner.

WASHINGTON.

February 20, 1907.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On February 14, 1907 (Land 12493), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 10, 1907, in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Frank Howard and seventy-two others as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, together with your decision, adverse to said applicants.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

It appears that the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880 and that theym possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

In view of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, it is considered that your decision, adverse to these persons, is correct, and it is hereby affirmed.

The papers in the case and a carbon copy hereof have been sent to the Indian Office.

Respectfully,

Thos. Ryan.

First Assistant Secretary.

Q It was your father who bought rights as a Cherokee citizen in '77, was it not? A Yes sir.
Q And who married your mother in 1880? A Yes sir.
Q And it is your family which has the note on the '96 roll, transferring your father and the children to the blood roll? A Yes sir.

By the Commissioner—

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and two children. She is identified on the roll of 1880 as an adopted white. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life. Her change of name arises from her marriage which is established by her own and her father's testimony. Reference is made to the application of her father, Joseph H. Bennett, which application has just been made for the enrollment of himself, wife and minor children, as setting forth exceptional features relating to this family. Her father is considered by the present commissioner to have purchased blood rights in the Cherokee Nation, and to be, and to have become legally a Cherokee by blood, However, great in natural fiction that may work by his purchase of right on Nov. 23, 1877, as set forth in full in his own application, and under tthe Cherokee law existing at the time. W. W Hastings, one of the representatives present of the Cherokee Nation, has made a protest setting forth his grounds to the enrollment of the applicant's father, wife and children. This will be found in full in the case just cited. The decision in the present case is, that the applicant being identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896, and having lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and being entitled to the rights acquired by her father through her mother, who is also on the roll with her father of 1880, shall be listed for enrollment at this time as a Cherokee by blood: and when the Commissinn is supplied with the certificates of the birth of her two children, whose names are given in the testimony, they also will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

E. G. Rothenberger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilised Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete translation of his stenographic notes in said case.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
BARTLESVILLE, I. T., OCTOBER 9th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Daniel C. Kenyon for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

By the Commission:
Q What is your name? A Daniel C. Kenyon.
Q What is your age? A Twenty five.
Q What is your Postoffice address? A Bartlesville.
Q Are you a resident of the Indian Territory? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you resided here? A I was born here, and was taken away, and pulled around, until a few years back.
Q How old were you when you left the Cherokee Nation? A About a year and a half old.
Q Where did you go? A To the State.
Q Then where did you go? A I came back here and stayed a while.
Q How long? A Until I was about six years old; then we went south.
Q Where did you go south? A To Texas.
Q How long did you stay in Texas? A I do not know; a year or so, then I came back here.
Q How old were you when you came back here? A About eight or nine years old.
Q Then ~~did you stay~~ how long did you stay here? A A year or two.
Q Where did you go after that? A Went back to Texas; then to Arkansas. Then I left home; I was thirteen years old then, but I came back here once before I left home.
Q You were thirteen years old when you left home, and then you went to Arkansas? A Yes sir.
Q Then, where did you go? A Texas and Louisiana.
Q How long did you remain in Texas and Louisiana? A I came back here three years ago.
Q Just when was it you came back: What month and what year did you come back? A I think it was three years ago. I came back here in March.
Q What year? A It must have been in ~~March~~ 1897. I think it was: I worked here on three crops since I came back.
Q Have you been here ever since? A No sir.
Q Have you been outside of the Cherokee Nation since you came back three years ago? A I went up into the Strip and stayed three or four days. (ever)
Q Have you resided in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What do you do here? A I live here; farm here, and work around for people.
Q Do you live here by yourself? A Yes sir, when I am not working for some one else.
Q Do you make application for any one besides yourself? A No sir; I have a woman, but I just married her last Winter.
Q You are not making any application for her, are you? A No sir.
Q Have you any children? A No sir.
Q You are making this application solely on your own behalf?
A Yes sir.
Q Is your name on the 1880 Cherokee Roll? A I think it is; yes sir.
Q How much Cherokee blood do you claim? A About one sixteenth I guess.
Q ~~In what district in the Cherokee Nation do you belong?~~
A Cheweescowee.
Q What is your fathers' name? A C. L. Kenyon.
Q Is he living? A Yes sir.

Q Is he a Cherokee Indian? A No sir; he is a white man.
Q What is your mother's name? A Mollie Kenyon.
Q Is she a Cherokee Indian? A Yes sir.
Q Is she living? A No sir.
Q To what district in the Cherokee Nation does your mother belong?
A Cooweescoowee.
Q Where were you living in 1880? A I do not know.
Q Were you in the Cherokee Nation in 1880? A I would not be sure: I was not old enough to know.

The 1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation is examined , and the name of the applicant, Daniel C. Kenyon does not appear thereon; neither is the name of the applicant found upon the 1894 Strip Payment Roll, nor upon the 1896 Census Roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Q How long has your mother been dead? A About twenty three or twenty four years.
Q Did you ever make application to the Cherokee Tribal authorities for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q When? A When the Dawes Commission first came out: I applied for admission, and they allowed it.
Q What is the name of the case: Who brought the suit?
A Lawyer Watts, Jesse E. Watts.
Q Were you with anybody when you applied in 1896; your mother of your father? A No sir.
Q Just made application for yourself? A Yes sir.
Q Are you sure you made application in 1896? A I would not be sure: It was when the Dawes Commission first came out.
Q When the Dawes Commission was at Vinita? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any one else with you? A My sister I think.
Q What is her name? A Dora Barnes now.
Q Did you make application in 1896, with your sister, Dora L. Barnes? A No sir; she made it for herself.
Q Was not your name included in that application? A I think we had the same attorney: I do not know how he sent it in.

Records of the Commission examined, under Act of Congress of June 10th, 1896, Docket "B", Page 412, Cherokee Case, #5389, Dora L. Barnes et al versus the Cherokee Nation: Application filed September 9th, 1896, and answer of the Cherokee Nation filed thereto, and on November 24th, 1896, the Commission admitted to citizenship the following parties: Dora L. Barnes; her children, William L. Barnes Junior, Etta M. Barnes, James D. Barnes and Ethel Barnes as citizens by blood, and William L. Barnes, her husband, as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation: Also Daniel C. Kenyon, and his son, George A. Kenyon, as citizens by blood: There is no record of any appeal having been taken by the Cherokee Nation from the decision of the Commission.

Q Are you the identical person admitted to citizenship in the case of Dora L. Barnes et al, under the name of Daniel C. Kenyon?
A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever have any children? A Yes sir; I had a child: The same lawyer put in the application for the child.
Q What is the name of the child? A Gerge Allen I think.
Q Where is this child now? A I do not know.
Q Are you divorced from this woman? A Yes sir.
Q Where were you divorced? A At Greenwood, Arkansas.
Q Who brought the suit; you or your wife? A I brought it, and she appeared, and I got a lawyer for her.
Q In granting the divorce, who was given the custody of this child? A There was not a word said about the child: I told my lawyer not to say anything about it; and her's too.
Q Where is this child now? A I do not know.
Q Do you not know where the child is? A No sir: I guess she [illegible] Watts has I think.

The applicant, Daniel C. Kenyon, having been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, acting under the Act of Congress of June 10th, 1896, and no appeal having been taken therefrom by the Cherokee Nation, in the time prescribed by the Act above referred to, the decision of the Commission at that time became final, and the applicant, Daniel C. Kenyon will be listed for enrollment, in accordance with said judgment of the Commission, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

No. 4268. Department of the Interior.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Bartlesville, I. T. October 9, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Sarah A. Beffa for the enrollment of herself, husband and children as Cherokee citizens; she being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Sarah A. Beffa.
Q How old are you? A I am 56
Q What is your post office? A Bartlesville, I. T.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled -- yourslef and who else?
A Myself and children.
Q How many children? A Two at home.
Q You dont apply for your husband? A Yes, I have a marriage certificate, I will if I can.
Q Is he a white man? A Yes sir.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Your husband you say is a white man? A Yes sir, a white man.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Born and raised here, but have'nt lived here all the time.
Q You say you were born in the Cherokee Nation, but have not lived here all the time? A No, I have been a way for a while and come back, and was admitted again.
Q When were you admitted? A In 1894.
Q Have you a certificate of your admission? A Yes sir.
By the Commissioner:
The applicant presents what is accepted by the Cherokee representative present, as an official copy of an act of the Cherokee Council approved Nov. 23, 1894, admitting certain persons to citizenship, provided said persons move to the Cherokee Nation w within six months after the approval of the act. Among the persons named in that act appears the name of Sarah A. Beffa.
Q That is your name? A My name is Beffa, yes.
Q This name that I have read is that intended for you? A Yes sir
Commissioner: This is recognized as official evidence of the fact stated.
Q How did you come to the Cherokee Nation within six months after the approval of that act; that is to say within six months after Nov. 23-'94.
A Yes, I was here and never went away.
Q Have you made it your home ever since Nov. 23-94? A Yes sir.
Q Never lived outside of the Cherokee Nation at all? A No sir.
Q Give me the name of your husband? A Alphonse Beffa.
Q You were married to him under United States Law before you were admitted to citizenship, were you? A Yes.
Q An then remarried to him under Cherokee law at a later date?
A Yes.
Commissioner:
The applicant presents a Cherokee license issued by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee district, August 6, 1897, authorizing her marriage to her husband as stated by her. The certificate shows that they were united in marriage in accordance with said license on the same date as the license. This is filed herewith.
Q Has your husband lived with you ever since you were admitted to citizenship in '94. A Yes sir.
Q Give me the names of your children? A Walter N. Henry.
Q That is the child of a former husband, is it? A Yes sir.
Q How old is that child? A He's 20
Q Give me the name of your next child? A Myrtle Henry.
Q How old is that child? A 18

Q These two children are mentioned in the Certificate that admitted you? A Yes.

Commissioner: The name of Walter and Myrtle Henry are both identified in the official copy of the act of the Cherokee Council admitting their mother.
Q These children came to the Cherokee Nation the same time you did and they have lived here ever since? A Yes sir.
1896 roll page 121 # 678 Sarah Beffa, Cooweescoowee.
1896 roll page 185 #2469 Walter Henry, "
1896 roll page 185 #2472 Myrtle Henry.

Commissioner.
The applicant applies for enrollment of herself husband and two children. She is shown to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship in 1894, and to have lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since her admission. She is identified on the roll of 1896 and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood..

Her two minor children whose names are given in the testimony are identified with her on the official copy of the act of the Cherokee Council, admitting the applicant and certain ones of her family to citizenship, also they were minors at the time of their mother's admission, and are still minors. They are identified with their mother on the roll of 1896, and are living, and will be listed now for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

The applicants husband is shown to have married her under Cherokee law in 1897. He had married her under United States alw prior to her admission to Cherokee citizenship. He is not on the roll of 1896, or upon any roll, and under the Cherokee law of 1895 prohibiting the acquirement of citizenship rights by intermarriage after the date of said law, he is not deemed to have acquired the right of enrollment, and under the circumstances, this Commission is not considered to have jurisdiction over his case, amd a memorandum simply will be made to that effect. If it is desired that this memorandum be reported to the Secretary of the Interior, it will be done upon receipt of a written request to that effect.

E. G. Rothenberger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete translation of his stenographic notes in said case.

Signed, Edward G. Rothenberger.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of October 1900.
Signed, C. R. Breckinridge.

Ella Mielenz, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, she made the foregoing copy, and that same is a true and correct copy of the original transcript.

Q DXxyxxx Who do you apply to have enrolled now? A James M. Welch
Q How old is he A He is 29.
Q What is the next one's name? A Effie Henry.
Q How old is she? A 18:
Q Is your name on the roll of 1880? A No, I don't think it is, but here is my readmittance papers, I have been here and come back to enroll on the 1896/

Com'r Needles:--Applicant presents a certified copy of an Act readmitting Sarah Beffa and others to citizenship, said Act approved November 24th, 1894; signed by C. J. Harris, Principal Chief; certificate as to the correctness of the copy being signed by J. A. Scales, Assistant Executive Secretary. Said Act among others provides that James Welch and Effie Henry were readmitted to Cherokee citizenship, providing that Sarah A. Beffa, the mother of sadd James Welch and Effie Henry, and her children, remove to the Cherokee Nation within six months after the approval of this act, the date of approval being November 23d, 1894.

Q Mrs. Beffa where were you living when this Act-? A I was living in California.
Q Well, when did you return to the Cherokee Nation?
A I returned just when I was readmitted, I never went away after I was here.
Q I thought you said you were living in California at the time?
A I was out here and hadn't moved out.
Q You were living here at the time this Act was approved?
A I was living here myself and I wrote for my family to come out.
Q Did James Welch and Effie Henry return within the time?
A They was here and the boy, Mr. Starr told him he could go out and work and come back; he has got his place here and everything, but he went away to work and he went away to the Philippines.
Q Is he married? A No, sir.
Q What is the reason he is not here? A He is in the Philippines.
Q Soldier in the United States Army? A I don't know, he wrote and told me he was there.
Q You don't know whether he is in the United States Army or not?
A I don't know; he went from San Francisco over there; he never told me what he was doing and told me he was over in the Philippines and told me he can't come back.
Q You say he was never married? A No, sir.

BY MR. W. W. HASTINGS, Cherokee Representative:

Q Was he here when this Act was passed on November 23d, 1894?
A No, he was away then, but the family come afterwards.
Q Did Jim Welch, himself, personally come, individually?
A Yes, he come; he was here himself and has his placd here.
Q He come in March, 1895? A No, he didn't come with the younger ones.
Q When did James Welch first return to the Cherokee Nation?

A He was born here.
Q Madam, I am trying to get you to tell me after this Act was passed, has he ever been in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, he has been here; he has been gone about two years.
Q I am trying to get you to tell me when he came here after this Act was passed? A He came out, don't know, we have had so many ups and downs.
Q Well, do you think he came within a year? A No, he was working then and didn't come, but he come.
Q Well, as much as two years after this act was passed?
A Yes, sir.
Q You think then of your own judgment he came within two years?
A Yes, sir.
Q Where did he come to, Cooweescoowee? A Yes, Cooweescoowee; our farms is in Cooweesc owee.
Q Now, how long did Jim stay here when he came? A He stayed here a year; he is a young man and goes around to work for a living and g got sick here and didn't want to stay here on account of chills and fever and went away.
Q He stayed here about a year? A Yes, sir.
Q And then he went back to California A Yes, sir.
Q Where he had formerly been? A Yes, sir.
Q And then you next heard of him in the Philippines?
A Yes, sir.
Q About when did he leave California? A Well, he has been gone I guess over a year from there.
Q Well, now, after he came out here in 1896 according to your testimony and remained here a year, he remaine here until about 1897 and then, If I am correct, he went back to California and then sometime last year he went from California to the Philippine Islands?
A Yes, sir.
Q That is about the statement you desire to make? A Yes, sir.
Q What is James' age? A He is 29.
Q Is your youngest child, Effie Henry, has she ever been to the Nation? A Oh, yes, she came out in March, after I came.
Q She came in March, 1895? A Yes, sir.
Q How long did she remain here? A She remained here until two years ago.
Q And then she remained from 1895 to 1899? A Yes, sir; and went out there to stay with her sister on account of her sister not having good health.
Q She is not married? A No, sir.
Q Have you remained here yourself continuously since 1894?
A Yes, sir.
Q You haven't been back to California yourself? A No, sir.
Q Yo are her mother? A Yes, sir.

BY COM'R NEKDLES:

Q Who is Ellen Henry? A She is my daughter.
Q She is married and lives in California? A Yes, sir.
Q Who is Myrtle Henry A That is my daughter.
Q Where is she living? A She got married not long ago; she lives over in Osage this winter and I guess ~~she~~ ~~is~~ she will be over home.
Q When did she come from Californie to the Cherokee Nation?
A She came at the same time I did.

The 1896 Census Roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and names of applicants found thereon as follows:

COM'R NEEDLES: Sarah Beffa applies for the enrollment of James M. Welch and Effie Henry and presents a certificate of admission described in the testimony which is filed herewith. She avers that her son James M. Welch is now in the Philippine Islands, presumed to be a soldier, consequently it is impossible for him to be present. She avers that her child, Effie, 18 years of age, is now in California. She avers that the said James M. Welch did not return to the Cherokee Nation until about two years after the date of the certificate of admission providing that he should come within six months. She avers that the said Effie Henry did arrive in the Cherokee Nation within the six months as described in the certificate of admission. They are duly identified upon the census roll of 1896 as indicated in the testimony. Said James M. Welch will be listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation upon a doubrful card, awaiting further consideration of the Commission. Said Effie Henry will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen.

Sarah A. Beffa, the mother of Effie Henry, is enrolled on straight card #4268.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of GEORGE B. KEELER as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, October 9th, 1900 application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of George B. Keeler as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 26th, 1902, October 13th, 1902 and January 4th, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, George B. Keeler, a white man, was married in accordance with Cherokee law August 9th, 1872 to one Josie Keeler, nee Gilstrap, since deceased who was at the time of said marriage a recognised citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and whose name appears upon the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District, Page 126, No.1617, as a native Cherokee; that the said George B. Keeler and Josie Keeler resided togehher as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation until the time of her death, which occurred about the year 1894; that subsequent to the death of said Josie Keeler, the said George B. Keeler, in February, 1895, was married to one Joseph C. Keeler, formerly Cass, who was a recognised citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and whose name appears upon the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District Page 59, No.37, as a native Cherokee, and whose name is included in the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation opposite No.26590, and the said George B. Keeler and Joseph C. Keeler have resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation since said marriage. Said applicant is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 and the Cherokee census roll of 1896 as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5th, 1906 in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos., 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, George B. Keeler, is entitled, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28th, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

Q For whom do you make application now, madam, for enrollment? A Mr. Keeler is guardian for a child, and I desire to have it enrolled.

Q What is its name? A Nellie Dirtpot.

Q An Indian child? A Yes, sir.

Q How old is the child? A Thirteen years of age.

Q Is it a full blood Cherokee? A I think so.

Q Giveme the name of the child's father. A Robin Dirtpot.

Q He is dead, is he? A I think so.

Q How long has he been dead, do you know? A No, sir.

Q Give me the name please of the child's mother.

A I couldn't tell that.

Q Do you know whether the child's mother was a full blood Cherokee woman or not? A I don,t know really. I never saw her mother. I am not acquainted with the family at all. My husband was busy and he thought maybe I could do this for him.

Q The mother is dead, is she? A Yes, I think so.

1896 Roll, page 144, No. 1348, Nellie Dirtpot, Cooweescoowee District.

WILLIAM JOHNSON, being sworn and examined by the Commissioner, testified as follows: Q Give me your name, please. A William Johnson.

Q Your post office address? A Bartlesville.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?

A Twenty-four years.

Q What do you know about this child, Nellie Dirtpot? Who was its mother? A Her mother's name was Gemmer, a white woman.

Q Do you know her given name? A I did but I have forgotten it.

Q She is dead, is she? A No, sir; she is living.

Q You think she is living? A Yes, sir.

Q Well the name of the child's father. A Borin Dirtpot.

Q Was he a full blood Cherokee? A Yes, sir.

Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir; he is dead.

Q Was this child's mother the recognized wife of that Indian?

A Yes, sir. She lived with him as his wife until he died. She afterwards married a white man.

Q And this is recognized as the child of that marriage between this woman and that Indian? A Yes, sir. That is the ward of Mr. Keeler.

Q The child is living at this time, is she? A Yes, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant applies for the enrollment of a ward of her husband, a half breed Indian girl, Nellie Dirtpot. It is established by satisfactory testimony that this is the child of a marriage between a full blood Indian and a white woman; that the child's father is dead, and that the mother has since married a white man and has passed out of notice. The child is identified on the roll of 1896; she is living at this time, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

In the matter of the application of Lillie Fugate for the enrollment of herself and children as Delawares, and her husband as a Cherokee by intermarriage; she appearing before the Commission and being sowrn and examined, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Lillie Fugate.
Q How old are you? A 37
Q What is your post office address? A Bartlesville.
Q How long have you resided in the Indian Territory? A I was born here.
Q Born and lived in the Cherokee Nation all your life? A Yes sir
Q Have you been outside of the Cherokee Nation in the last three years? A A Never was only just to Caney and back.
Q Do you claim to be a Cherokee? A No, a Delaware I guess.
Q How much Delaware blood do you claim? A All I reckon.
Q To what district in the Cherokee Nation do you belong? A I was raised right here, Cooweescoowee.
Q What is your father's name? A Whiteturkey, Simon I think.
Q Is he living? A No sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A Been dead 26 years.
Q What is your mother's name? A Carrie Whiteturkey.
Q She living? A Yes sir.
Q They were both Delaware Indians? A Yes sir.
Q Are you making application for any one besides yourself?
A Well I have four children living and a husband.
Q What is your husband, a white man? A Yes sir, a white man.
Q Making application for him? A I should think so.
Q As an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is your husband's name? A James R. Fugate.
Q How old is he? A He is 32.
Q What was his father's name? A William Fugate.
Q His father living? A Yes sir.
Q He is a white man? A Yes sir.
Q What is your husband's mother's name? A You have asked me something I have forgot.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir, she is living in West Virginia.
Q Was she a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q Your husband never made any claim to Indian citizenship by blood? A No sir.
Q Where did you marry him? A Down at John Sarcozies.
Q How long have your been married to him? A About 10 years.

Q Have you got your marriage license and certificate? A Yes sir, that is all I have got, the other was tore up; I have got the certificate.
Q You have'nt got the license? A No, they were lost in the trunk, I suppose the children maybe took them out; they were in an album I think.
Q This marriage ever been recorded? A Yes sir.
(There is offered in evidence a certificate of marriage between James R. Fugate and Lillie Whiteturkey.)
Q The Lillie Whiteturkey in this certificate, you are the identical party? A Yes sir,
Q What are the names and ages of your children for whom you desire to make application? A My biggest boy was 10 years old last February, George.
Q What is the next child? A Pearl 5 years old.
Q The next one? A Stella, she was three in April.
Q The next one? A John, a year old.

Q That al, of them? A I have got one dead, but they did'nt put them on the roll.
Q James R. Fugate is the father of these four children? A Yes sir
Q You are the mother of all four of them? A Yes sir.
Q They all live with you at your home? A Yes sir.
On 1880 roll page 201 No 3256 Lelie Whiteturkey, Cooweescoowee.
On 1896 roll page 368 No 262 Lilla Fugate, Cooweescoowee District.
James B. Fugate on 1896 roll page 305, No 389, Cooweescoowee "

The name of the applicant is found on the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation as Lelie Whiteturkey and on the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation as Lilia Fugate, and she is identified as the party who is now making application, and will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee-Delaware.

The name of her husband, James R. Fugate, is found upon the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation as an intermarried white, and he will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation, subject to the redeipt of a certified copy of the records of Cooweescoowee District, Cherokee Nation, in which the license and marriage certificate between James R. Fugate and Lillie Whiteturkey on May 31 1890, are recorded.

The names of two minor children, George and Pearl Fugate are found upon the 1896 roll(census) and they will be listed for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. The two minor children Stella and John, having been born subsequent to the preparation of any tribal rolls by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, will be listed for enrollment by this Commission upon the presentation of proper affidavits of birth of these two children.

The fact of their residence in the Indian Territory in compliance with law has been fully established.

Tahlequah, I. T., June 1, 1903.

I n the matter of the application of James R. Fugate for enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

James R. Fugate, being duly sworn, and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A James R. Fugate.
Q How old are you? A Thirty-five.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Dewey, Indian Territory.
Q Have you ever applied to this Commission to be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation? A I don't think I did now. Yes, I did too, I recollect now they notified me to come to Muskogee and so they sent a man up to Dewey.
Q What is your wife's name? A Lillie.
Q Have you some children named George, Pearl, Stella, John and Bessie? A Yes sir.
Q Are those children all living here now? A Yes sir.
Q Your wife living? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married before you married your present wife? A No sir.
Q Was she ever married before you married her? A No sir.
Q Did you ever live anywhere else except in the Cherokee Nation since you married her? A No sir.
Q You have lived here all the time since your marriage? A Yes sir.
Q Are you living here now? A Yes sir.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

B. G. Rothenberger

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Bartlesville, I.T., October 8, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Mrs. Thomas Washington for the enrollment of herself and grandchild as Cherokees of Shawnee blood; she appearing before the Commission, and being sworn and examined, testified as follows; through William Tooley, a duly sworn interpreter:

Q What is your name? A Mrs. Thomas Washington.
Q How old are you? A About 100, more than 100; I have been living in this world a long time.
Q You are not that old, are you? A I don't know exactly, about that.
Q What is your father's name? A McLaughlin.
Q Is he living? A He died a good while ago.
Q Was he a Cherokee indian? A They were Delawares.
Q What is your mother's name? A Lena.
Q Your mother a Delaware? A She was a Shawnee, my husband was a Delaware.
Q Where do you live? A The other side of Skiatook.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since the Delawares came here.
Q Been outside the Cherokee Nation in the last three years? A No, sir.
Q Are you making application for anyone besides yourself? A I have got a grandchild, a boy I want to enroll.
Q Where are the mother and father of this child? A They died, both of them died.
Q This child always lived with you? A Yes, I raised it.
Q What is this child's name? A Thomas White.
Q How old is he? A He is 16.
Q Is he a Shawnee? A They were counted with the Delawares and enrolled with the Delawares.
Q What was this child's father's name? A Wash White.
Q He living? A No, sir, he is dead.
Q Was he an indian? A He was a Shawnee.
Q What was his mother's name? A Wiscangumpsee.
Q The mother dead? A Yes, sir.
Q She a Shawnee indian? A She was my daughter.
Q Where is your husband, Thomas Washington? A He died a good while ago.
Q How long has he been dead? A About 16 years.

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 19th instant in reply to Commission's letter of the 10th instant relative to the identification of your deceased sister, Fannie White, upon the Delaware Register.

In your reply you state that Fannie White came to the Cherokee Nation with the Delaware Indians when they removed here in 1868, and that her name appears upon the Register. You fail to state, however, under what name she appears thereon. As she cannot be identified upon the Register under her English name it is presumed that she appears under her Indian name. You are desired, therefore, to furnish the Commission with the different Indian as well as English names by which she was known, in order that her name may be identified upon said Register.

It is important that the Commission be supplied with this information at the earliest date possible, and you are requested to give this matter your immediate attention.

A return penalty envelope, which requires no postage, is inclosed for your reply.

Subject: Enrollment in Five Civilized Tribes.

Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Sir:

With his letter to you of December 26, 1908, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes forwarded two lists of names of persons stricken from the approved rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Five Civilized Tribes at various times. These papers were filed in your office, December 30, 1908, as No. 66,220, and, on the same date, referred to the Department.

One of said lists purports to show the names of persons stricken from the rolls, without prior notice; the other purports to show the names of those persons to whom notice was given before their names were stricken from the rolls.

The Department has considered the first of said lists and, in various letters, has taken action concerning the names included therein by directing, in some instances, that the parties be restored to the status of recognized citizens, and, in others that supplemental reports be furnished.

But there were persons named in the first of said lists whose cases were totally different than those dealt with heretofore, in that their names were stricken from the rolls merely to remedy clerical defects such as duplication and erroneous classification. In cannot be said that such persons have suffered any legal injury, and therefore the Department must and does decline to issue any order looking to the erasure of interlineations and notations purporting to cancel their names from the approved rolls from which they were stricken. The names of the persons included in this ruling are as follows:

CHEROKEES BY BLOOD.

Stricken from roll because of Duplicate Enrollment.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

WASHINGTON, April 5, 1904.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose herewith communication from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated March 24, 1904, in which it is stated that the name of Mrs. Thomas Washington, which appears on the Cherokee approved partial roll opposite number 10292, is a registered Delaware.

The Commission say that at the time she made application for enrollment she stated to the Commission that she was a Cherokee citizen of Shawnee blood and made no reference to any claim to rights as a Delaware Indian; that the testimony taken November 30, 1903, shows that she acquired rights in the Cherokee nation under the provisions of the Delaware-Cherokee agreement of 1867, and that she is identified upon the register of Delaware Indians who removed to the Cherokee Nation under the provisions of said agreement, at number 826 as Pe-a-tah-pe-a-she.

The Commission recommends that her enrollment upon the Cherokee rolls be cancelled in order that her name may be reported for approval of her enrollment as a registered Delaware.

From the Commission's report and the testimony transmitted, it appears that the authority requested should be granted.

Very respectfully,

A. C. Tonner,

Acting Commissioner.

Gentlemen:

On March 24, 1904, you transmitted the testimony of William Washington, taken November 30, 1903, and recommended that the name of Mrs. Thomas Washington, opposite number 10292 on the partial roll of Cherokee citizens approved by the Department December 6, 1902, be cancelled, in order that her name may be reported for approval of her enrollment as a registered Delaware.

It appears from your letter and the testimony of William Washington that said cancellation should be made. You are advised that the name of Mrs. Thomas Washington has been cancelled from said partial roll in this office. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has been authorized to make such cancellation on the partial roll in his office, and you are authorize to make such cancellation on the partial roll in your possession.

A copy of the Acting Commissioner's letter of April 5, 1904, transmitting your communication, is enclosed.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Bartlesville, I.T., October 9, 1900.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Emma A. Byers and child as Cherokees by blood.

George M. Byers, appearing before the Commission and being sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A George M. Byers.
Q What is your age? A 30 years.
Q What is your post office address? A My post office is Austin, but it will be discontinued in a few days and Ochelata will be my post office.
Q Are you a resident of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you resided in the Indian Territory? A Two years almost, about a year and ten or eleven months.
Q Where did you reside before that? A In Texas four years and before that in Alabama.
Q How long have you maintained a continuous residence in the Indian Territory? A About a year and ten or eleven months.
Q The past year and ten or eleven months, is that the only residence you have ever had in the Indian Territory? A That is all.
Q Are you making application for anyone besides yourself? A I am not making application for myself; just for my wife and child.
Q Where is your wife? A She is at home.
Q What is your wife's name? A Emma A. Byers.
Q You making application for her as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her maiden name? A Tyner was her maiden name, the daughter of R. R. Tyner.
Q What is your wife's age? A 29 years.
Q How much Cherokeeblood does she claim? A Well sir, I hardly know; about 1/32 I guess, or something like that.
Q What is her father's name? A Reubin R. Tyner.
Q He living? A Yes, sir.
Q To what district in the Cherokee Nation does he belong? A I can't tell you; Cooweescoowee I suppose.
Q What is your wife's mother's name? A Almira Tyner.
Q She living? A Yes, sir.
Q She a Cherokee indian? A I think not.
Q A white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q Has your wife always been a resident of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes, sir.
Q Has she been outside the Cherokee Nation in the past three years?
A No, sir, not that I know of.
Q Was she born here? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your child's name? A Wilmer Anice Byers.
Q How old? A She was born the 11th of September, this year.
Q You are the father of this child? A Yes, sir.
Q Emma A. Byers the mother? A Yes, sir.
Q The child lives with you at your home? A Yes, sir, I have an affidavit tothat effect.
Q Your wife was never married until you married her? A No, sir.

The application is made by George M. Byers on behalf of his wife and his minor child for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and the name of his wife is found upon the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation as Emma Tyner, and upon the 1896 census roll as Emma Tyner. For the enrollment of their minor child, Wilmer Anice Byers, born September 11, 1900, there is offered in evidence a written application with sufficient affidavits of the mother and the attending physician and the records as to the birth of the child, Emma A. Byers and her child, Minnie Alice Byers will therefore be listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, sufficient evidence having been given as to their residence within the limits hereinafter as described by law.

Bruce S. Smith, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Bartlesville, I. T., Oct. 9, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth Black for the enrollment of herself, husband and children as Cherokee citizens, husband and children being of Delaware blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge she testified as follows:

Q Give me your name, please? A Elizabeth Black.
Q How old are you? A 24.
Q What is your postoffice? A Caney, Kansas.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll, yourself? A Yes, sir.
Q And who else, husband? A Yes, sir.
Q And how many children? A 2.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir.
Q White woman? A Yes, sir.
Q Your husband a Cherokee by blood? A Delaware.
Q When were you married to your husband? A 18th of April, 1895.
(Produces papers.)
Com'r: The applicant presents marriage certificate showing that she was married to her husband, Alexander Black, on the 18th of April, 1895, by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee District; this is filed herewith.
Q Now you and your husband have lived together ever since you were married have you? A Yes, sir.
Q Your husband's full name then is Alexander Black? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is he? A 39 I think.
Q How long has he lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I couldn't say; he came here with the Delawares.
Q You think he has lived here about 32 years then? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of his father? A John Black.
Q Is he dead or alive? A Dead.
Q Give me the name of his mother? A I couldn't do that.
Q Now give me the names of your children? A Albert Black.
Q How old is that child? A 4 years.
Q The next child, please? A Daniel Earnest.
Q How old is that child? A 2 years old.
Q Both are living now are they? A Yes, sir.
1880 roll examined for husband and name not found.
Q You know whether your husband was ever admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he go out and come back and get re-admitted? A He has always lived here.
Q Did he ever have to apply for re-admission for having gone out? A Oh, no, sir.
Q He has staid here all the time? A Yes, sir.

Alexander Black, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge testified as follows:

Q Give your full name please? A Alexander Black.
Q Are you on the roll of 1880? A Yes, sir.
Q Under an Indian name or an English name? A English—both I reckon.
Q Are you the husband here of this applicant, Elizabeth Black? A Yes, sir.
Through interpreter, John R. Willy:
Q Find out from him if you can how he was enrolled in 1880?
Nothing ascertained through interpreter.
Direct:
Q Are you a full-blood Delaware? A Half Shawnee and half Delaware.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation, 32 years?
A Yes, sir.
Q Lived here all the time? A Yes, sir.
Q Never lived anywhere else at all? A No, sir.
Q Have you been going back to Kansas? A No.
Q Staid here all the time? A Yes, sir.
1896 roll, page 361, #107, Alexander Black, Cooweescoowee District, adopted Delaware, 36 years old.
1896 roll, page 361, #108, Albert Black, Cooweescoowee District.
Note on roll as to husband: Not on 1880 roll, but identified by Jobe Parker and John Willy.

JOHN R. WILLY, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your name? A John R. Willy.
Q Are you one of the interpreters for the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes, sir.
Q What is your age? A 50.
Q What is your postoffice? A Nowata.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Little over 32 years.
Q You know Alexander Black here? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known him? A About 30 years.
Q Has he lived in the Cherokee Nation all that time? A Yes, sir.
Q He is a Delaware is he? A Yes, sir. Supposed to be; draws with the Delawares.
Q You know of any reason why he is not on the roll of 1880?
A No, I don't.
Q You think he just must have been overlooked do you? A Must have been. His name is on the old Delaware Register.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, husband and two children, and her husband appears in the course of the application; her husband is identified on the roll of 1896 as an adopted Delaware, and it is shown by his own and additional personal testimony that he has been in the Cherokee Nation ever since the Delawares came, thirty-two years ago. He isafull-blood Indian, and he will be listed now for enrollment as an adopted Delaware.

His wife is shown to have married him in accordance with Cherokee law in April, 1895; she is identified with him on the roll of 1896; they have lived together in the Cherokee Nation ever since their marriage and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption.

Their older child, Albert, is identified with his parents on the roll of 1896; he is living now and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Delaware. When the Commission is supplied with certificate of birth for the younger child, Daniel E., he also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee-Delaware.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, has been designated by the Secretary of the Interior, as the official to make and approve appraisals of the value of improvements upon land in the Cherokee Nation which were made prior to November 5, 1906, by white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried white claimant, or makes any adverse claim to said improvements, or to the right of the intermarried white claimant to sell said improvements under the Act approved March

Nation which were made prior to November 5, 1906, by white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried white claimant, or makes any adverse claim to said improvements, or to the right of the intermarried white claimant to sell said improvements under the Act approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), said citizen must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes either at Muskogee, Indian Territory, prior to April 1, 1907, or at one of the places above designated and within the dates above designated and make formal complaint before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes of his contention. At Muskogee, Indian Territory, between March 11th and March 30th, 1907, inclusive, and at the other places herein named during the hearings at said places as herein fixed, plats will be open for inspection showing the location of tentative allotments made by former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage and all other land on which such claimants claim improvements, so far as indicated by the records of this office.

All persons interested should take careful note of the limitation of time herein provided for, within which designations and complaints may be made, and that they must be made by appearance before the Commissioner.

TAMS BIXBY,
Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Cherokee No. 4281

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 20th, 1902.

Elizabeth Black,

Caney, Kansas.

Dear Madam:

The Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902, and entitled ''An Act To provide for the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, for the disposition of town sites therein, and for other purposes,'' (Public No. 241), provides that ''the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen-hundred and two.''

In accordance with said provision, you are hereby notified that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will be at its offices at Muskogee, Indian Territory, until Friday, October 31, 1902, inclusive, for the purpose of affording you an opportunity to show that you have not, between the date of the original application for your enrollment and Sept 2, 1902, forfeited your right as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

This evidence should be introduced immediately, as it is necessary in determining your right to share in the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, and until the same is furnished no further action can be taken looking toward your final enrollment as an intermarried citizen.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 28, 1905

Elizabeth Black,

Copan, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

There is returned herewith affidavit recently received, signed by you, as to the birth on February 5, 1905, of your child, Mary Tina Black.

You are advised that this office is without authority of law to receive applications for the enrollment of children born to recognized and enrolled citizens of the Cherokee Nation subsequent to September first, 1902. For your information there is quoted to you the following provisions of the Cherokee Agreement proclaimed August 12, 1902:

> "During the months of September and October, in the year nineteen hundred and two, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes may receive applications for enrollment of such infant children as may have been born to recognized and enrolled citizens of the Cherokee Nation on or before the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two, but the application of no person whomsoever for enrollment shall be received after the thirty-first day of October, nineteen hundred and two."

Respectfully,

(SIGNED).

James Dixby.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al vs the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

CherokeeD-4283

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 15, 1902.

Mr. Dempsey Fields Gilstrap,

Ramona, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:-

When you applied to this Commission for enrollment as a citizen of the CherokeeNation, you gave your name as Dempsey Gilstrap while in the affidavit which you make as to the birth of your child George Arthur Gilstrap, your name appears throughout as Dempsey Fields Gilstrap.

Will you please advise the Commission which is your correct name and how you desire to be listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

C-1255.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 27, 1902.

Mrs. Dempsey Gilstrap,
Ramona, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of March 22 stating that you desire to be listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation under the name of Dempsey Gilstrap.

The affidavit heretofore received as to the birth of your child George Arthur Gilstrap, is accordingly herewith returned to you and you are desired to have same corrected so that your name will appear therein as Dempsey Gilstrap instead of Dempsey Fields Gilstrap.

Please give this matter your prompt attention and return affidavit to the Commission.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Cherokee 4283

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 19, 1902.

Artelia Gilstrap,

In care of Dempsey Gilstrap,

Ramona, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:-

There has heretofore been mailed you a notice, requiring you to appear before the Commission for the purpose of giving additional testimony relative to your right to enrollment, on September 1, 1902, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

Such testimony has not yet been furnished the Commission and you are now advised that, until same is presented, your application for enrollment will not be complete.

This testimony can be introduced before the Cherokee Land Office of the Commission, at Vinita, Indian Territory, any time after January 5, 1902.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

4283

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Artelia Gilstrap,

Ramona, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. C

Commissioner.

Cherokee No.4283.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 7, 1907.

Artelia Gilstrap,

Ramona, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

C Commissioner.

Q That was your first wife enrolled in 1896, was it? A No, sir, my last one.
(Glen C. Tyner on 1896 roll, page 271, No. 4887, Glen Tyner, Cooweescoowee district. John C. Tyner on 1896 roll, page 271, No. 4888, John Tyner, Cooweescoowee district. George A. Tyner on 1896 roll, page 271, No. 4889, Austin Tyner, Cooweescoowee district. Fannie A. Tyner on 1896 roll, page 271, No. 4890, Fannie Tyner, Cooweescoowee district. Mollie L. Tyner on 1896 roll, page 271, No. 4891, Mary Tyner, Cooweescoowee district.)
Q Is your third child named Austin? A Yes, sir.

The name of the applicant, George W. Tyner, is found on the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation as on the 1896 census roll of that Nation, and he will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The names of his children, Glen C., John C., George A., Fannie A., and Mollie L. Tyner, are found upon the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation as the children of George W. and Mollie Tyner, and they will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

The name of his present wife, Mary A. Tyner, a white woman, to whom the applicant was married September 9, 1896, is found upon the 1896 census roll of the citizens of the Cherokee Nation as an intermarried citizen. This marriage having been subsequent to December 16, 1895, her enrollment by the Cherokee authorities at that time was without authority of law and her enrollment will be refused. The minor child, Letitia Tyner, will be enrolled by the Commission upon the presentation of the proper affidavits as to the birth of this child. Sufficient evidence has been given by the applicant as to his residence in the Cherokee Nation.

Supplemental testimony:

George W. Tyner, recalled, testified:

Q Mr. Tyner, in giving the names of your minor children, you made application for enrollment for, you said that your youngest child's name was Letitia. You have now presented to the Commission a written application for the enrollment of this child, in which it is Letitia Ann Tyner. What is this child's name? A Letitia Ann.
Q Why didn't you state it was Letitia Ann? A The paper was there.
Q I asked you what the child's name was and you said Letitia? A We were trying to spell Letitia and Mr. Riquelme there was asking about it, and we had the paper in our hands and were talking about it.
Q Is this child's name Letitia or Letitia Ann? A It is Letitia Ann.

George T. Tyner - 2.

Henry S. Foote, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer in the examination of the Five Civilized Tribes in correctly reported the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

No. 4285

Department of the Interior.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Bartlesville, I.T. Oct. 10th, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Richard Henson for the enrollment of himself, wife and three children as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name ? A Richard Henson.
Q How old are you? A I was born May 23d, 1866.
Q What is your post office? A Ramona.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll, yourself? A Myself and three children.
Q Do yoi apply for your own enrollment as a Cherokee by blood?
A Yes sir.
Q How lon g have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life nearly, we came here when I was a baby, I can't remember anything about it.
Q You have lived here over 30 years? A Yes sir.
Q Give me your father's name? A William Henson.
Q Is he dead? A Yes sir.
Q How long since he died? A He has been dead I guess 12 or 13 years.
Q Your mother's name, please. A Martha.
Q Is she dead? A Yes sir.
Q How long since she died? A She has been dead about 16 or 17 years.
Q Give me the names of your children? A Mattie May.
Q How old is that child? A 3 years old the 8th of February last
Q Next child? A Pearl J.
Q How old is that child? A She is 2 years old the 23d of September.
Q Next child? A Martha Ivy.
Q How old is that child? She is three months old the 15th of this month.

Q Was she ever married except to you? A No sir.
Q How old is she? A I declare I cant tell you that. She is about 24 or 25 I guess.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and three children, he is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee, he has lived in the Cherokee Nation for the last 30 years, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

He states that his wife was married to him in February 1896, this is too late under the Cherokee law od 1895 for her to be enrolled at this time; she is identified with him on the roll of 1896; they are living together, but owing to the lateness of their marriage, the application for her enrollment is rejected; it is further desired to perfect the record in her case that the applicant supply the Commission with a copy of the decree of divorce from his first wife.

When the Commission is supplied with certificates of the birth of these three children named in the testimony, children of the present marriage, they also will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Richard Henson,

Ramona, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

When you applied to this Commission for the enrollment of yourself and wife as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, you gave your own name as Richard Henson and the name of your wife as Susie, while in the affidavit which you send as to the birth of your child Ella E. Henson it is noticed that your own name appears therein as Dick Henson, and your wife's name appears and she signs same as Susie C. Henson.

The affidavit is herewith returned to you and you are requested to have same corrected so that your own name will appear therein as Richard Henson and your wife's name will appear as Susie Henson.

Please give this matter your prompt attention and return to the Commission as soon as possible.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12228-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "The Claremore Messenger", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Claremore, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, 1906, and the first issue in "The Claremore Messenger" was on March 2, 1906. Attention was called to Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of thenotice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial roll in its possession; and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31,(I.T.D.6186-1905), June 1,(I.T.D.6240-1905), Octo ber 4, (I.T.D.12228-1905), and January 12,(I.T.D.110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report were living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this office and are transmitted herewith, the office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

W. H. Leupp.

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

A I haven't my papers with me, my lawyer has them.
Q [illegible] living? A Yes, sir.
Q Why were you appointed to guardian of this child? A His father is a kind of shiftless fellow and does not take much interest in the child.
Q How long has this child lived with you? A About one year since I have been appointed guardian.
Q You testify that you have your papers of guardianship at home?
A No, sir, not at home, they are at Nowata with my Lawyer, Tillitson.
BY THE COMMISSION: You had better come to the Commission at Nowata and bring your papers with you and have the child enrolled there.

The name of the applicant, Julia Hall, is found upon the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation as julia Shawnee, and on the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation as Julia Hall. Sufficient evidence having been introduced as to her residence in the Cherokee Nation, she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by Delaware blood. The name of her husband, William Hall, appears upon the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation as an intermarried citizen and sufficient proof of his marriage to his wife having been introduced he will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as an intermarried citizen.

Chas. von Weise, having been duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, and that the foregoing is a true, correct and full transcript of his stengraphic notes.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied

Q Give me your name, please? A Anne Thornton.
Q How old are you? A 35.
Q What is your post office? A Bartlesville.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q What is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself and child
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir, adopted.
Q When were you married? A I was married in 1893.
Q To whom were you married? A Thomas J. Thornton.
Q Your husband was a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Is he dead or alive? A He is in the Insane Asylum.
Q Are you still his wife? A No, sir, he murdered my brother and was sent to the ~~Penitentiary~~ Penitentiary and sent back to the Insane Asylum. I am not divorced from him, but I do not think it would be right for me to live with him.
Q Don't you make any application for him? A No, sir.
Q Was your husband born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Has he lived here all his live? A He went to Texas for several months.
Q Give me the name of his father? A They called him Dock.
Q The father is alive is he? A I think he is the last time I heard of him.
Q Is your husband's mother alive? A No, sir, she died when he was a child.
Q Have you a certificate of your marriage? (Presents papers)
Q Your maiden name was Ortner, was it? A Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge:--The applicant presents a certificate of her marriage on September 6th 1893 to T. J. Thornton of Cooweescoowee. John B. Bishop, Minister, officiating. This is filed herewith.

Q Now, you lived with your husband from the time of your marriage until when? A Until the Spring of 1895, he murdered my brother the 31st day of March.
Q Since that you have continued to live in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q And you have never re-married? A No, sir.
Q Give me please the name of your child? A William Livingstone Thornton.
Q How old is that child? A He will be six in December.
Q He is living now is he? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is your husband now? A He never told me the truth about it, his father told me that he was 40, and he told me that he was 36.

Muskogee, I. T., October 13, 1902.

In the matter of the application of ANNA THORNTON, for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by intermarriage, and her son WILLIAM L. THOMPSON, as a citizen by blood, of the Cherokee Nation:

ANNA THORNTON, called as a witness, being duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

Q What is your name ? A Anna Thornton.
Q What is your age at this time ? A I think I am thirty seven.
Q What is your post office ? A Bartlesville.
Q Are you the same Anna Thornton that made application to the Commission for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation in October, 1900 ? A Yes sir.
Q What is your husband's name ? A T. J. Thornton. He is now in an Insane Asylum at Washington, D. C.
Q How long has he been there ? A He murdered my brother in the spring of 1895 and was sent to the penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio, and transferred to Washington about a year afterwards.
Q That happened in the spring of 1895 ? A Yes sir.
Q Was he arrested for that ? A Yes sir.
Q When was he arrested ? A Six weeks afterwards. He murdered him on the 31st day of March, 1895.
Q And he was arrested sometime in May ? A Yes sir.
Q You and he haven't been living together then as husband and wife ? A Not since then, of course.
Q Not since the 31st day of March, 1895 ? A No sir, he flew the track and went to Colorado, and was captured there.
Q Well, when were you married to Mr. Thornton ?
A In the fall of 1893.
Q And you and he lived together as husband and wife until the crime was committed on the 31st day of March, 1895 ? A Yes sir.
Q And since the 31st day of March, 1895, you and he have not lived together as husband and wife ? A No sir.
Q Is he a Cherokee by blood ? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been divorced from him ? A No sir.
Q On the first day of September, 1902, you were still his wife in the eyes of the law were you ? A Yes sir.
Q But have not lived with him since March 31, XXXX 1895 ?
A No sir.

Cherokee 4901.

Before [illegible],
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., November 24, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Anna Thornton for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of her child, William H. Thornton, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Cherokee Nation by its representative makes the following proof of, service on the applicant that it would on the 24th day of November, 1902, at the office of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, introduce testimony to disprove her right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. The applicant has this day been notified and fails to respond either in person or by attorney.

W. I. Thornton, being sworn and examined, testified as follows:

By W.W. Hastings: What is your name? A W. I. Thornton.
Q What is your age? A I will soon be fifty-four years old.
Q What is your postoffice? A Southwest City, Missouri.
Q Do you know the applicant, Anna Thornton? A Yes sir, I have seen her.
Q Do you know her alleged husband, Thomas J. Thornton? A Yes sir.
Q What relation was Thomas J. Thornton to you? A A brother.
Q Was Thomas J. Thornton ever married prior to his marriage to the applicant, Anna Thornton? A Yes sir.
Q What was the first wife's name? A Mary Pearson.
Q Did he live with Mary Pearson until her death? A Yes sir.
Q About when did she die? A Some time along in 1900 or 1901.
Q What became of his first wife, Mary? A She lived here in the country a while and the last I heard of her she was out in the Indian country.
Q Do you know about the time of your brother's marriage to the applicant, Anna Thornton? A That was at the time I was at Tahlequah.
Q Do you know about the time? A Yes sir, some time last fall I reckon.
Q Have you seen or heard of your brother's first wife since his marriage to the applicant, Anna Thornton? A Yes sir, I heard of her being in the neighborhood; I didn't see her in person; she was there at my sisters.
Q How far does your sister live from here? A About twenty-five miles. She stayed there a day or two.
Q It is a matter of common knowledge that he was living after your brother's marriage to the applicant, Anna Thornton? A Yes sir, he come back after Tom had been sent off.
Q Where is your brother now? A He is in the insane asylum at Washington.
Q He had been convicted of some crime prior to that time? A Yes sir, I talked to him at Fort Smith while he was in jail.
Q Do you know whether or not your brother was divorced from his first wife Mary? A He told me he wasn't.
Q Did you ever hear of his being divorced? A No sir.
Q He is in an asylum now at Washington? A Yes sir.
Q About what time was he convicted, was it since the allotment payment?
A Yes sir, it has been since the allotment payment.
Q And since his conviction this woman has been back in the neighborhood at your sisters? A Yes sir.
Q About how long ago did he lose himself? A I don't know; I know just only what I get through the doctors; he didn't stay in Columbus only three months and then he was sent to the asylum and hasn't been there ever since.

[illegible]-Anna Thornton.

Q Was her first wife a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q This woman, Anna, is a white woman? A I [illegible].
Q Does she live where he was living with her first wife? A On Cowgill Prairie in Delaware District.
Q How far from you? A It is a neighborhood off and on. They were married I think - first married in about '70 I reckon.
Q Where were they living when they separated? A They were living about toward Chetopa some where.
Q In Delaware District? A No sir, in Cowgill Prairie District at [illegible] the time. They had [illegible] and it died, and was buried at Vanita.
Q You say you [illegible] he was here divorced from his first wife? A Yes sir, he told me he wasn't.
Q Did you ever hear of his first wife suing for divorce? A [illegible]
Q You heard of his first wife being in the county and she was convicted and sent to the penitentiary? A Yes sir.
Q You never saw her personally? A No sir, but my brother-in-law.

W.W.Hastings: Do you know whether she ever got a divorce from him? A No sir, she didn't get one.
Q How do you know she didn't? A I do. If anyone else got it of the Cherokee Court.
Q Did you ever hear that she didn't get one? A No sir.
Q Did you ever hear that she didn't apply for a divorce? A No sir.
Q Have you ever seen her since their separation, his first wife? A No sir.
Q You don't know of your own knowledge whether or not she ever applied for a divorce? A No sir, not that I know of; I never heard of it. I think she told me [illegible] told me she never was divorced.
Q But you don't know it? A No sir.

It appears from the authenticated copy of the Cherokee Roll in the possession of the Commission that Thomas J. Thornton is identified thereon in Delaware District, page 299, No. 8704, with one Mary E. Thornton described, a white woman, aged [illegible] years.

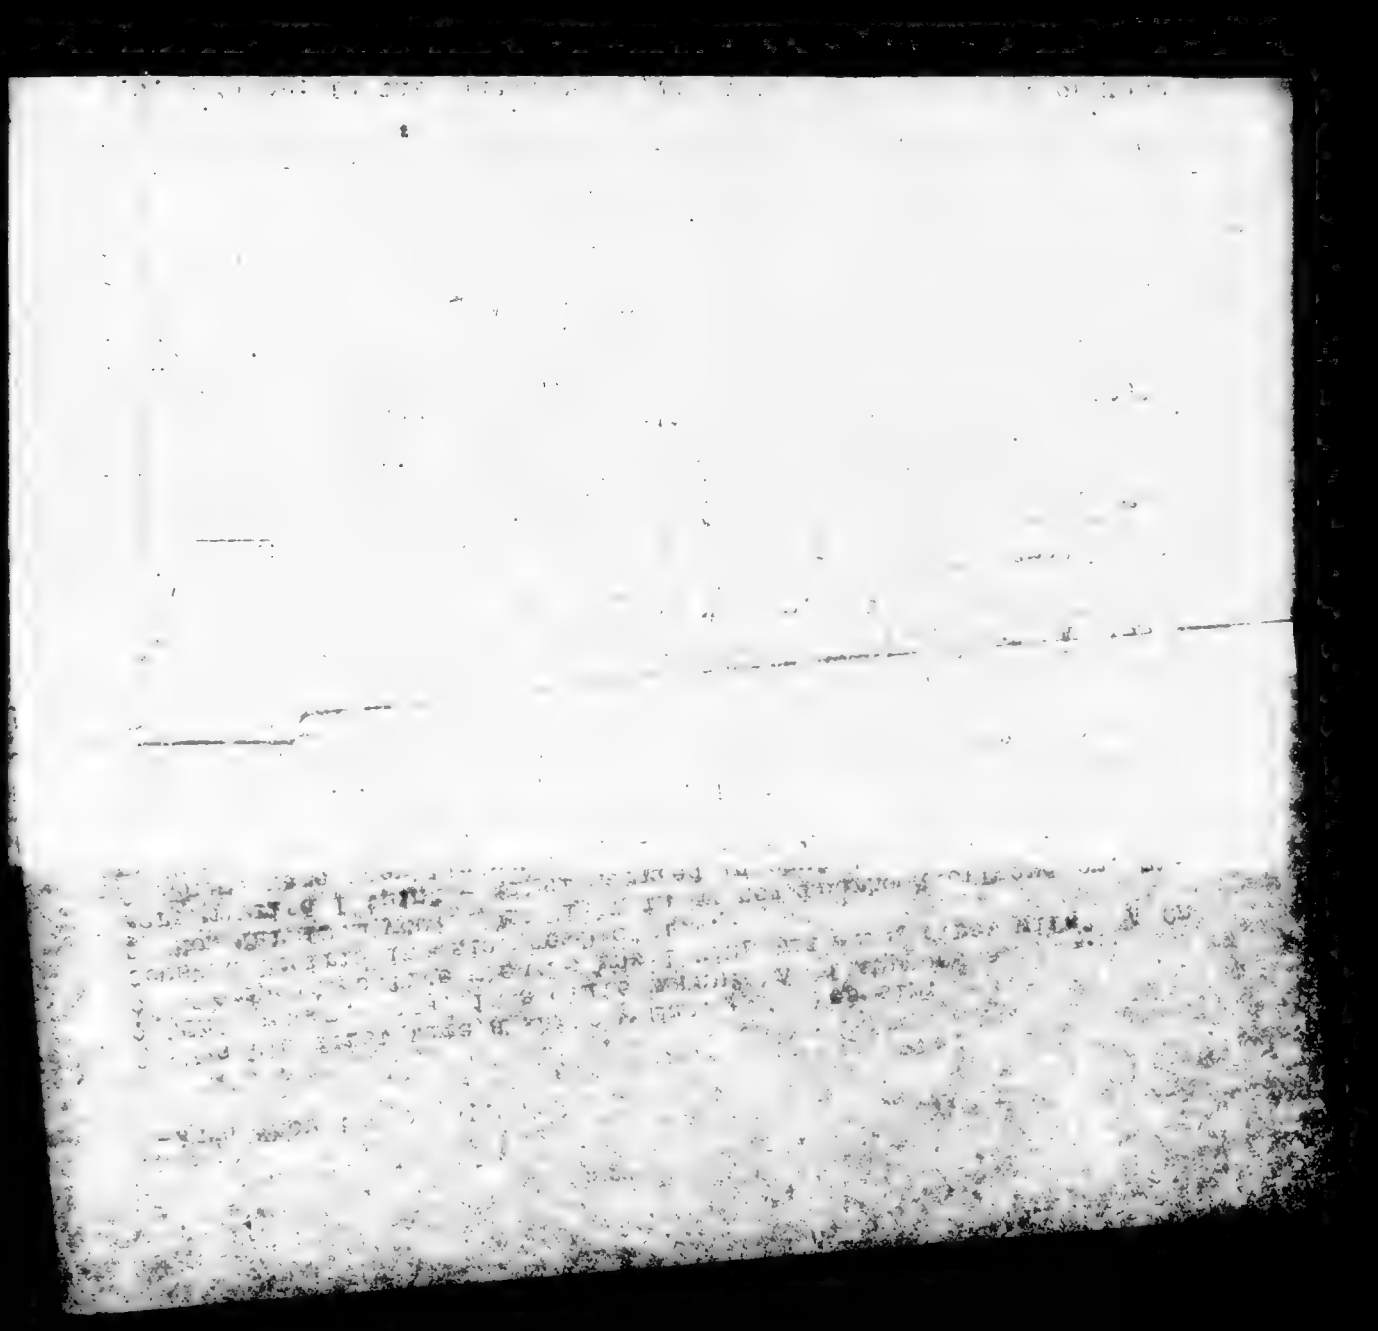

W.W.Hastings: Is this enrollment just given the name of your brother? A His wife is on there too I reckon, Mary E. Thornton.
Q He is there as Thos. J.? A Yes sir.
Q And his wife, Mary E.? A Yes sir.
Q That is his wife, now? A Yes sir.
Q And that was his wife? A Yes sir, his first wife.

I, the undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, I correctly recorded the questions and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

Vinita, I. T., February 13, 1903.

In the matter of the application of ANNA THORNTON, for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by intermarriage, and her son, WILLIAM L. THORNTON, as a citizen by blood, of the Cherokee Nation:

ANNA THORNTON, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

Q What is your name ? A Anna Thornton.
Q How old are you ? A I will be thirty seven my next birthday.
Q What is your post office ? A Bartlesville.
Q You are a white woman ? A Yes sir.
Q Claiming the right to be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage ?
A Yes sir.
Q What is your husband's name ? A Thomas J. Thornton.
Q Was he a Cherokee ? A Yes sir.
Q Is he living ? A Yes sir, he was the last account we had of him.
Q Have you separated from him ? A Yes sir, but he is in the Insane Asylum.
Q When were you married to Mr. Thornton ? A In the fall of 1893; on September 6, 1893.
Q Who married you ? A Mr. Bishop, a minister.
Q Is he living ? A I do not know whether he is living now or not.
Q Did you get a marriage certificate from him ? A Yes sir.
Q Have you got it ? A It was sent to the government two years ago last October.
Q You mean the Commission ? A They told me it would go before the government.
Q Who sent it ? A I delivered it to this Commission; I suppose so, it was the Dawes Commission.
Q Two years ago ? A Yes sir.
Q Well now, had Mr. Thornton ever been married before you married him ? A I don't know; I have been told afterwards he had, but he denied it; he bitterly denied it; he denied it before the minister.
Q Well, it seems he had a wife by the name of Mary ?
A Well, I heard afterwards--they didn't say they were married, they said he was living with her, I don't know anything about it.
Q You say that your husband denied it ? A Yes sir. Before the minister and to me.
Q The minister asked him that question ? A Yes sir.
Q He said he never had been married before ? A Yes sir.
Q How long had you known him before ? A I don't know, probably seven or eight months; I think it was about that time.
Q For whom did you make application for enrollment ?
A For my baby and myself.
Q You didn't make application for your husband ?
A No sir, I was afraid to, I was afraid he would get out and do me an injury.
Q Where was he then ? A In the Insane Asylum.
Q How long has he been there ? A He has been there a little over four years I think; he was in the penitentiary a year and four months.
Q What is your boy's name ? A William L.
Q Is he living ? A Yes sir.
Q Living with you ? A Yes sir.
Q Have you ever made any inquiries since you were informed that your husband had a former wife, have you made any inquiries to find out if it were true ? A Yes sir, through Mr. Chase.

Q Have you any testimony to offer on that point ?
A Not at this time.
Q Have you married since your separation from your husband ?
A No sir.
Q Have you been living in the Cherokee Nation ever since your marriage to him ? A Yes sir.
Q Mrs. Thornton, I don't remember whether you were asked the question or not, were you ever married before ? A No sir.
Q Did you ever live with any person as husband and wife at all ?
A No sir.
Q Is it or is it not a fact that you had a child ?
A Yes sir, I was deceived when I was a girl.
Q You were not married to the father ? A No sir.
Q Did you ever live with him as husband and wife ?
A No sir; he was a Cherokee, but I have made no application for it.
Q Is the child living ? A Yes sir, seventeen years old, he is a messenger on the Santa Fe railroad.
Q You made no application for him ? A No sir.
Q Where is he living ? A He is a messenger on the Santa Fe road.
Q Is he living with you ? A Yes sir, he is only seventeen years old.

Examined by Mr. Chase, attorney for applicant:

Q This child lived with you while you lived with Thornton ?
A Yes sir, I have raised him.
Q What is his name ? A Louie Sanders. Ed Sanders is his father.
Q He has always lived with you has he ? A Yes sir.

Appearances: W. A. Chase for applicant; J. C. Starr for Cherokee Nation.

Jacob DuBois, being first duly sworn, and examined by J. C. Starr, representing the Cherokee Nation, testified as follows:

Q State your name? A JacobDuBois.
Q What is your age? A Forty-two.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Needmore.
Q Indian Territory? A Yes sir.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A About twenty year.
Q Are you acquainted with Thomas J. Thornton? A Yes sir.
Q Are you acquainted with Anna Thornton? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know how many times Thomas J. Thornton was married? A Twice,I reckon.
Q Were you acquainted with his first wife? A Yes sir.
Q What was her name? A Mary.
Q Mary Thornton? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know her before she was married to Thomas Thornton? A No sir,
Q How long had you been acquainted with her, Thomas Thornton's first wife? A I have been acquainted with her eighteen years until now.
Q When was the last time you saw her? A I seen her about two years after the payment, she come to my house.
Q After what payment? A Cherokee Payment, '94 or '5.
Q 1894 Strip Payment? A Yes sir.
Q Two years after that she was at your house? A Yes sir. By reason of that, I built a new house and she never come - I got the money from the strip and she never came until two years after that, and we lived in the new house then.
Q Do you know about when she and Thomas J. Thornton separated? A I couldn't tell, but about four years before that I reckon, as near as I can tell. Theyleft the Nation about five years before that and they weren't separated the last time. The last time I saw them, - he parted from his wife- they weren't parted yet.
Q When was the last time you saw Thomas J. Thornton before he separated from his wife? A That was about two years before the payment, I reckon. It might have been a little more, I wouldn't be certain; about two years and may be a little over and may be a little under.
Q When did you see him again? A I seen him the last time when his wife here and he were at my sister-in-law's, Nacey Gossett.
Q When he and his wife Anna were there? A Yes sir.
Q When was that ? A A A little before the payment, because she died before the payment.
Q His wife Anna died - who did you have reference to, "she died before the payment"? A Mrs. Gossett, she died before the payment.
Q How long had Thomas J. Thornton been separated from his first wife when he married Anna? A That I couldn't tell exactly, but it must have been between two or three years along there somewhere, I can't tell exactly.
Q Not more than that? A No sir. I rented the place to Mr. Martin, and it couldn't have been any longer than three years.

By W.A.Chase: How long did Thomas J. Thornton live with his first wife? A Why, sir, that is something I couldn't tell you.
Q Do you know when he was married? A No sir, he was married before I came to this country.
Q Do you know in fact whether he was married or not? A Not for certain; he always said he was; they said he was married lawfully to his wife.
Q Do you know whether or not he was divorced from his first wife?
A No sir, I couldn't tell you that.
Q You don't know the date of the separation? A No sir.
Q Or the date of his last marriage? A I couldn't tell exactly, no sir.
Q Do you know where Thomas J. Thornton is now? A Why, sir, he is either in the insane asylum or the pen for all I know.
Q He was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary, was he? A Yes sir.
Q For what crime? A Killing her brother, I think.
Q Killing his second wife's brother? A Yes sir.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Appearances:
W. A. Chase for Applicant.
J. C. Starr for Cherokee Nation.

W. I. Thornton, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by Mr. Starr.

Q. What is your name? A. W. I. Thornton.
Q. What is your age? A. I will be 56 this next month.
Q. What is your post office? A. Southwest City.
Q. Missouri? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Are you acquainted with Thomas J. Thornton? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Are you acquainted with his first wife? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was her name? A. Mary E.
Q. Do you know how long Thomas J. Thornton and his first wife lived together as husband and wife? A. I think they must have been married sometime in '78 or 9.
Q. How long did they live together? A. They must have lived together somewhere about 10 or 12 years. I couldn't be positive.
Q. Do you know how long they had been separated, if they separated, before Thomas Thornton married his second wife Anna?
A. I don't know. Couldn't have been over a year or a couple of years.
Q. They lived together up to within two years of the time he married Anna? A. I think so. I wasn't with them at the time they separated. That is my understanding.
Q. Where were they living with they separated? A. Somewhre in Cooweescoowee.
Q. How long had they been living there? A. I don't know. Somewhere along about a year. It hadn't been over two years, I think, at the time he left Delaware and moved up there.
Q. Where did they live in Delaware? A. Lived on Cowskin awhile and lived over on Mustang.
Q. How long did they live on Mustang creek? A. 4 or 5 years, I reckon. He moved from there up near Snow creek. I wasn't with him after he left Mustang creek. I didn't see him for about a couple of years.
Q. When you saw him after he left Mustang creek was he still living with his wife Mary? A. Yes, sir. His little boy died and they parted.
Q. How long was that before he married Anna? A. It couldn't have been over a year, or two years.
Q. Not more than two years? A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know whether Mary E. Thornton was living at the time Thomas J. Thornton married his second wife Anna? A. Yes, sir; I guess she was. I got a letter from her.

Q. When did you get a letter in reference to the time he married Anna? A. After he was convicted and sent to Columbus, Ohio.

Q. Was he convisted and sent to Columbus, Ohio, after he married Anna? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was his first wife when you for that letter?

A. She was in Oklahoma. She wrote something about her rights here. I referred her to the Commission.

Q. To the Dawes Commission? A. Yes, sir. Mr. Buchannan was here at that time.

Examination by Mr. Chase.

Q. Do you know when he was married to his first wife?

A. It must have been----

Q. I didn't ask you when it must have been. Do you know?

A. No, I am not positive.

Q. Do you know how long he lived with her? A. Well, it must have----

Q. I am asking if you know what you are talking about.

A. Of course I am not positive about anything.

Q. Do you know? Answer that Yes or No. A. I wouldn't say positive how long they lived together.

Q. Do you know when they were separated? Just answer it Yes or No. A. It must have been----

Q. Just answer that Yes or No. A. I will say no.

Q. Do you know when he married his wife Anna? A. No.

Q. You don't? A. No.

Q. You say you received a letter from this woman?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know whether it was from her or some one else?

A. It was her signature.

Q. Did you know her signature? A. Well, she wrote to me Mary E. Thornton.

Q. Just had her name to it, you don't know who signed the letter? A. No. She said she was sorry that Tom was sent away.

BY THE COMMISSION:

Q. You don't know whether Tom Thornton and his first wife were legally married or not? A. No, I don't know. I never seen them.

BY MR. CHASE:

Q. You don't know whether they were divorced or not?

A. No, sir; I don't know whether they were divorced or not. I suppose the record will show.

BY MR. STARR:

The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a certified copy of a marriage certificate, which shows that on February 26th, 1877, Thomas J. Thornton and Miss Mary E. Pearson were united in marriage by James K. P. Moore, a Justice of the Peace.

BY MR. CHASE:

The applicant objects to the introduction of the certified copy of the marriage record for the reason and upon the grounds that there is no evidence identifying the husband of the applicant as the party who was married to Mary E. Pearson, as shown by the certificate introduced.

BY THE COMMISSION:

The document offered will be ~~accepted~~ filed and the applicant's objection will be noted.

Examination by Mr. Starr.

Q. Mr. Thornton, what was the maiden name of Thomas J. Thornton's first wife? A. Mary E. Pearson.

Q. Where did she live at the time they were married?

A. Well, she was staying at my father's. She was an orphan girl.

Q. Where was your father living at that time? A. Living in Delaware.

Q. How far from the Missouri line? A. About 6 or 8 hundred yards.

Q. How far from Pineville, Missouri? A. We called it 18 miles from the line to Pineville.

Q. Do you know James F. P. Moore? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where does he live now? A. He lives close to Southwest City.

Q. How long has he been living there? A. He was living there when I come to the country. I have been living there 37 years in July.

Q. Do you know where Prairie township is? That is how far from where you lived? A. It is just accross the line.

Q. How far if Prairie township from where your father lived in 1877? A. About 600 yards; up to the line.

BY MR. CHASE:

Q. You gave testimony in this case once before, didn't you?

A. Yes, sir.

Examination by the Commission.

Q. Was Mary Pearson a Cherokee by blood? A. No, sir; she was a white lady.

Q. Was she living in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir; she was living in the Cherokee Nation; lived with my father when they were married. She was an orphan girl.

Q. She had never been married before, had she? A. No, sir; not that I know of.

Q. How old was she? A. I guess she must have been about 18 years old at the time.

Q. How old was he at that time? A. Well, I don't know at that time. Thomas was born in 1854, I think. The record shows. I think he was born in 1854.

Q. Had he ever been married before that? A. No, sir.

Examination by Mr. Starr.

Q. Mr. Thornton, has it been the custom of a great many people along the border line to go over in Missouri and get married?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was it the custom about 1877? A. Yes, sir.

Jesse O. Carr on oath states that as steno rapher to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the above entitled case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

FILED
MAY 13 1903

Supl. to Cher. 4291.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, Indian Territory, April 24, 1903.

In the matter of the application of Anna Thornton for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of her child, William L. Thornton, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearances: W. A. Chase for applicant; J. C. Starr for Cherokee Nation.

Jacob DuBois, being first duly sworn, and examined by J. C. Starr, representing the Cherokee Nation, testified as follows:

Q State your name? A JacobDuBois.
Q What is your age? A Forty-two.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Needmore.
Q Indian Territory? A Yes sir.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A About twenty year.
Q Are you acquainted with Thomas J. Thornton? A Yes sir.
Q Are you acquainted with Anna Thornton? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know how many times Thomas J. Thornton was married? A Twice, I reckon.
Q Were you acquainted with his first wife? A Yes sir.
Q What was her name? A Mary.
Q Mary Thornton? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know her before she was married to Thomas Thornton? A No sir,
Q How long had you been acquainted with her, Thomas Thornton's first wife? A I have been acquainted with her eighteen years until now.
Q When was the last time you saw her? A I seen her about two years after the payment, she come to my house.
Q After what payment? A Cherokee Payment, '94 or '5.
Q 1894 Strip Payment? A Yes sir.
Q Two years after that she was at your house? A Yes sir. By reason of that, I built a new house and she never come - I got the money from the strip and she never came until two years after that, and we lived in the new house then.
Q Do you know about when she and Thomas J. Thornton separated? A I couldn't tell, but about four years before that I reckon, as near as I can tell. Theyleft the Nation about five years before that and they weren't separated the last time. The last time I saw them, - he parted from his wife- they weren't parted yet.
Q When was the last time you saw Thomas J. Thornton before he separated from his wife? A That was about two years before the payment, I reckon. It might have been a little more, I wouldn't be certain; about two years and may be a little over and may be a little under.
Q When did you see him again? A I seen him the last time when his wife here and he were at my sister-in-law's, Nacey Gossett.
Q When he and his wife Anna were there? A Yes sir.
Q When was that ? A A A little before the payment, because she died before the payment.
Q His wife Anna died - who did you have reference to, "she died before the payment"? A Mrs. Gossett, she died before the payment.
Q How long had Thomas J. Thornton been separated from his first wife when he married Anna? A That I couldn't tell exactly, but it must have been between two or three years along there somewhere, I can't tell exactly.
Q Not more than that? A No sir. I rented the place to Mr. Martin, and it couldn't have been any longer than three years.

By W.A.Chase: How long did Thomas J. Thornton live with his first wife? A Why, sir, that is something I couldn't tell you.
Q Do you know when he was married? A No sir, he was married before I came to this country.
Q Do you know in fact whether he was married or not? A Not for certain; he always said he was; they said he was married lawfully to his wife.
Q Do you know whether or not he was divorced from his first wife?
A No sir, I couldn't tell you that.
Q You don't know the date of the separation? A No sir.
Q Or the date of his last marriage? A I couldn't tell exactly, no sir.
Q Do you know where Thomas J. Thornton is now? A Why, sir, he is either in the insane asylum or the pen for all I know.
Q He was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary, was he? A Yes sir.
Q For what crime? A Killing her brother, I think.
Q Killing his second wife's brother? A Yes sir.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q. Was Mr. Thornton living up there then? A. Was he, yes, sir.
Q. How long did you continue to live with Mr. Thornton as his wife
A Lived with him about fifteen years.
Q Did you then separate? A Yes, sir.
Q Where were you living at the time of your separation A Where were we living? At Catoosa, Indian Territory.
Q That would be in the year 1892? A. Yes, sir.
Q That was the year, was it? A That we separated, yes, sir. Well, I could not just exactly say, it was '91 or '92, along there somewhere.
Q. Did you ever sue for a divorce? A. No, sir.
Q Did Mr. Thornton? A Not that I know of.
Q What was the cause of the separation? A Well I do n't particularly know - he got tired of me, got another woman and went away with her.
Q He left you did he? A. Yes, sir. When he got back he wanted me to live with him again. I would not do it.
Q How long after he had gone was it before he came back?
A I don't remember that just exactly.
Q A month or two? A Yes, sir it was, well, about as near as I can remember, three months he came back home.
Q Where you and he had been living? A Yes, sir.
Q And he wanted you and him to live together again. A. Yes, sir.
Q How long did he stay home then, or did he stay at all?
A No, sir, he did not stay at all- he went off again. On several occasions he threatened my life and I did not believe it safe.
Q. During the thirteen or fifteen years you had been living together, he had done this? A. Yes, sir.
Q Do you know he remarried? A Not exactly, I don't. I heard of it afterwards.
Q About how long after your separation, if you know? A. Well, I cannot say exactly, but it was, well, as near as I can remember, about a year. I would not say - it might not have been quite a year.
Q Did you still continue to live at Catoosa? A No, sir. We went from there. My sister was with me. We went from there to Coffeyville, Kansas. Let me see, we went there a short time, then I came back to the Territory.
Q. Where did you go to? A Sapulpa?
Q. You were living at Catoosa when your husband came back? A. No, sir - we were in Coffeyville.
Q I mean the time he came back, and tried to get you to live with him? I was in Cowskin.
Q Do you know if your husband knew of your various changes of residence. Did your husband know of the various changes of residence during the year? A. I don't know.
Q You say no papers were ever served, no summons? A. None whatever.
Q No proceedings for divorce that you know of and you never sued for divorce? A No, sir.
Q Do you know whom your husband married? A No, sir.
Q How old was your husband- how old would he be now? A I don't know as I could tell you that.
Q About how old? A Well he was, let's see. He was 20 or 21 when we were married - in '87.
Q Do you know his wife's name? No, sir.
Q What was his father's name? Diaphantus Dewitt Thornton.
Q Do you know whether he is living? A Yes, sir. He is living.
Q Do you know the names of any of his brothers, of Thomas Thornton's brothers, your husband's? A Yes, sir, William R. Thornton.
Q Where is he living? A In Southwest City.

Q Did you know of any other brother ? A No, sir. Just the two.

Q No sisters ? A He had two sisters and one half sister - Mrs. Paulina Pates, the other is Mary Gossett, his half sister, is Mary Dubois.

Q Do you know where Thomas Thornton is now? A I know where they say he is.

Q Where do they say he is ? A Last I heard he was in Virginia.

Q Did you live together continually for fifteen years, you and your husband? A No, sir, we separated once.

Q Was your husband ever in the Penetentiary? A Not, while he was my husband he was not.

Q You separated about '92, along there? A Yes, sir. Somewhere there.

Q And you say you do not know the name of the woman he married?
A No, sir. I did not know her name at that time, nor do I know it yet, not her maiden name, I don't.

Q Have you ever seen your husband since you separated? Since you separated the last time? A No, sir- I saw him once after we separated. He came back and wanted me to live with him and I would not.

Q That was before he married again? A Yes, sir. That is what he said, he was not married.

Q How long did you live at Coffeyville, Kansas at that time? A I do not remember exactly , four or five months probably. May be not so long. Of course I did not have any occasion to keep the exact date.

Q When did you go to Oklahoma? A When did I. I have been there I have a sister living there, visited with her a short time and back again.

Q How long did you live in the Territory after you and your husband separated. A Before I went to the States? Well, just a short time .

Q A year? A Yes, I guess it must have been a year.

Q With the exception of the time you lived at Coffeyville? A.Yes, sir- we stayed there. Well, no, I do not know exactly. I could not say exactly the length of time.

Q Did you know where your husband was during the time between your separation and his marriage to this other woman? A. Did I know where he was, no, sir.

Q You did not know whether in the territory or not? A. No, sir.

By W. A. Chase:

Q. When were you and Thomas J. Thornton married?

A. In 1877.

Q. Where is he at this time? A Well, I could not tell you that- where he is now. I do not know I could not say, only that I heard he was in Virginia.

Q What point in Virginia? A I could not tell you that - I do not know.

Q How did you hear that? A I heard it through his sister.
Q She did not tell you anything about what point he was at now.
A No, sir.
Q Did you live here in the Territory after you were separated from him? Up to the present time? Did you leave the Cherokee Nation entirely after you were separated?
A. Why I went to the States after we were separated for a short time.
Q Lived at Coffeyville, Kansas? A Yes, sir. I lived there a short time.
Q Is it not a fact you lived at Coffeyville when you separated
A Why certainly, yes, sir, a short time.
Q You were separated there? At Coffeyville? A No, sir. I did not say we separated at Coffeyville.
Q You separated at Ca'oosa? A Yes, sir.
Q You never saw him but one time after you were separated?
A No, sir.

By the Commission:

Q You went from Coffeyville down to Sapulpa? A Yes, sir.
Q How long did you remain there, at Sapulpa? A. Well, it was, near as I can remember, I was there 6 or 7 years.
Q Where do you now live? A At present I have been in Oklahoma with my sister.
Q At what place? A Stroud.
Q How long have you been living at Stroud? A Well, my sister has been living there for over six years and I have been there off and on at times.
Q For the past six or seven years? A Yes, sir. I have never made that my home - never considered that my home.
Q Did you learn of your husband's being sent to the penetentiary, or hear of it after your separation? A. Yes sir. I did.
Q Did you and he have any children? A Yes, sir. We had two.
Q Are they living? A No, sir. They are both dead.
Q At that time, before your separation? A Yes, sir.

By Mr.Hastings.

Q Where were you married to Thomas J. Thornton? A In Missouri.
Q At what place? A I could not tell you just exact the place.
Q Married by a minister? A Yes, sir. He was not a minister, but was a squire.
Q Justice of the peace? A. Yes.
Q Was it Pineville, Missouri? Our marriage was recorded there, at Pineville, but I was not married there.
Q That was the county seat then of that county? A.Yes, sir.
Q Do you own any property in Stroud, Oklahoma? A. No, sir.
Q Are you direct from Stroud, Oklahoma here? A. Well, no, not direct. I have been at Sapulpa.
Q How long. A Three or four weeks.
Q You came from Stroud there? A. Yes, sir.
Q How long had it been since you had been in the Indian Territory, prior to three or four weeks ago. A Well, I could not tell you just the exact time. It was not been very long. Alon last fall, I worked in the Territory.

Q Where? A Near Stroud, across the line.

Q When were you in the Cherokee Nation last? A Some little time since I was in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Well, about how long. A It is going on two years.

Q You own any property in the Cherokee Nation? A. No, sir. I don't, only as my husband owned, I did.

Q Never have since your separation? A. No, sir. I have never improved any.

Q You sister lives at Stroud? A. Yes, sir.

Q No divorce papers were ever served upon you. A None at all, no, sir.

Q Were you keeping house together at Catoosa at the time of this separation, or when you parted?

A We were running a hotel there.

Q You say he left you there? A Yes, sir.

Well, you can just consider that as you like about it. He went away to this woman and of course that was discovered -

Q And then when he came back, you were gone? A. No sir I was there and he wanted me to live with hi again.

Q And you declined to live with him because of his conduct in going off with this other woman.

A On account of several occasions he threatened my life and I did not feel safe with him.

By Mr. Chase

Q I would ask you Mrs. Thornton, if you ever had an agreement with Thomas J. Thornton to separate and not appear in contest of divorce proceedings? A. No, sir.

Q I will ask you if you did not, on or about Oct. 5th, 1892, at Coffeyville, Kansas, separate and then and there enter into an agreement by which you should live separate and apart, and never appear against the other in contest in divorce proceedings that might be brought. A. No, sir, there was a contract drawn up between us, but no divorce mentioned.

Q. I wish you would examine this instrument, I hand you (Hands witness copy of an agreement) A. If it was, I was ignorant of it at the time.

By Mr. Wastings:

Q. Do you remember anything about that agreement? A Yes, sir I remember an agreement.

Q It was signed at Coffeyville on the day of the separation? A No, sir. A -No, sir- it was along after the separation.

Q How long after the separation? A I don't remember all that-

Q Was it two years? A I could not say, I did not think of having to keep date of any such thing and did not pay any attention at the time.

Annie Thornton , applicant, is recalled:

By Mr. Hastings:

Q. When were you married to Thomas J. Thornton? A The sixth day of September, 1893.

By Mr. Chase: I desire to offer in evidence, the certified copy of an agreement entered into between Thomas J. Thornton and Mary E. Thornton, dated

By the Commission: There being no objection, the document will be filed and made a part of this record.

MARY E. THORNTON, witness, is recalled:

By the Commission:-

Q. You appear on the Roll of 1880 with Thomas J. Thornton , don't you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Well, I want to inquire a little more fully in to your separation? You say that at various times, Mr. Thornton threatened your life. Yes, sir.
Q About how often did that occur? A I did not keep count of it.
Q A great many times? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he ever strike you? A Yes, sir.
Q Many times? A Well, no, not a number of times, but several times.
Q When was the last time? That is before your separation, that he struck you? A That he struck me?
Q Or threatened your life? A Well , I don't know as I could tell you that exactly.
Q Do you know of your own knowledge that he was living with another woman during the time he was gone? A I don't exactly know, of my own knowledge. I knew he had taken this woman with him when he went away. He had taken her and left.
Q Who was the woman? A Her name was Myra Upchurch.
Q Was she living there at Catoosa? A Yes, sir.
Q They went away together. You know that to be a fact? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you charge him with it when he came back to you A No, sir I never said anything to him.
Q He wanted you to live with him ? A And I told him no.
Q Did you give reasons why? A I did not. I told him I would not live with him or anyone who acted as he had.
Q But you gave him no further reasons, did you specify the cause.
A Yes, sir I did. He knew.

Q What did he say in reply, when you said that to him. A Well, he said he was innocent.
Q Innocent of what? A The conduct he had been guilty of and said he had not lived with the woman.
Q Then the reason you gave him was not his acts of cruelty, or his threatenin your life, but the fact he had gone away with another woman. That is the reason you gave him for not living with him, was it? A Yes, sir. That was the reason. I told him. He knew he had mistreated me enough with it this, to cause me to leave him.
Q You have not married since your separation? A. No, sir I never have. You
Q You are still single? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you been living in Oklahoma A How long? Seems to me I have answered that question several times.
Q But it is not very definite. A I could not tell exactly- I have lived there a short length of time several times. I have been there off and on for the last few years- go up there and stay with my sister a while and then be back in the Nation, I have no home. I have never claimed a home except in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Have you any property in the Nation? A Have I? I have none improved.
Q Did you and your husband have any place, a farm? A. Yes, sir.
Q Have you any interest in that farm? A Have I? No, sir. He never kept any place any length of time. He would improve a small part and then sell it.
Q You say you made your home with your sister down in Stroud.
A I did not say I was making my home. Some time I came there and visited her, stayed a month and may be two.
Q Who do you live with in the Cherokee Nation? That is when you come? A As a general rule I work- stay first one place, then another.
Q You have never then moved out of the Nation to make your home?
A No, sir.
Q You have never applied to this Commission to be enrolled, have you? A Well, I wrote them a short time ago.
Q How long ago was it? A month or two, was it not A Yes, sir- I guess it was.
Q Had you ever made application before that? A No, sir.
Q Why did you not? A Why I don't know. I could not say why, but I did not suppose there was any cause for me to make one sooner.
Q Did you not know the Commission was making a roll of citizens here? A Yes, sir.
Q But you say you did not know it was necessary to make application. A There was no limit of time. I supposed one time was as good as another.

By Mr. Hastings:
Q You say you have been this time about three weeks, in the Cherokee Nation? A About that.
Q Now Mrs. Thornton, I would like to get your evidence a little more definitely. Now will you state to this Commission here, where and with whom you lived in the Cherokee Nation, the last, next before this time, before you came here this time, in the Cherokee Nation. Where were you living and with whom and where - prior to this time - prior to your coming here this time? A Well, I was living with my brother-in-law, Kennedy and a sister.

Q A. E. Kennedy?
A That is my sister's name.
Q Well, where was he living ? A He lived around from place to place.
Q But when you were here the last time, you say, in the Cherokee Nation, on this visit? A Let me see, it was at Vinita.
Q Now when was that? A I cannot tell you that exactly either- I could not say exactly.
Q Has it been ten years ago ?A I cannot say.
Q Well, what is your best judgment? A Well, it has been, to my best judgment, about, I guess - eight years ago.
Q Since that time then you have been making a home at Stroud?
A No, sir I have been - well what time I have been there, but I have been in the Nation often and lots more than I have there.
Q Just asked you the last time you were in the Nation prior to this visit and you say now it was about 8 years ago, that is to live here. That is the way I understand you. Were you ever here in the meantime? A Since then? Yes, sir I have been here off and on. I have been here probably a week or such a matter and have gone.
Q You have never been here to live in the last 8 years? A No, sir, not to live.
Q You were only here occasionally on business, you have already testified youown no property here? A Yes, sir. I have none improved.
Q You have never been in the Nation since the Dawse Commission have been traveling through the country, making a roll of the Cherokee citizens? A I have been in the Nation, but have never been enrolled. I have not been here or at Muskogee , but I have been in the Nation.
Q What year have you been in the Nation since 1900? A Since 1900? Well, I was in Vinita about a year and a half ago.
Q Don't you know that the Dawse Commission has been traveling around from place to place all over this territory, making dates from town to town, sending out notices to all applicants for Cherokee citizenship to appear before them for enrollment.
A Well, sir, I did not see it.
Q Never heard of that on any of your visits back and forth?A Yes, sir I have heard of it. But I am a very poor hand to read, I suppose that is the reason why I did not see it.
Q What kind of work do you do? You say you work out? A Well, sir, I do just what I can find to do. Sometimes sewing, sometimes do housework.
Q You own no separate house at Stroud? A No, sir.
Q Do you own any house in the Indian Territory? Or in Oklahoma?
A No, sir.
Q What is your brother-in-law's name at Stroud? A His name is C. D. Kennedy.
Q Where is your brother-in-law at present? A I don't know where he is at now.
Q With whom were you living when you came here three weeks ago?
A With whom I was staying? With a woman at Sapulpa. I was living with my sister then, staying with her? I came to Sapulpa and stopped there with a woman.

By the Commission:
Q What became of your hotel property? A We did not own it, just rented it.

Q Did not [illegible] the furniture? A Yes, sir we [illegible]ed the furniture.
Q What became of it? A Sold it.
Q Did you sell it? A Yes, sir.
Q You have not kept house in the Cherokee Nation since then? A No, sir. I have not kept house.
Q In fact you do not keep house anywhere, do you? Your post office is Stroud, Oklahoma? A At present, yes, sir.
Q Can you say more definitely when you went to Oklahoma after your separation? A When, I went to Oklahoma?
Q You say you lived in the Territory about a year? What would bring you up to '93? A After we separated?
Q Did you then go to Oklahoma? A No, sir.
Q Where did you go? A. It seems to me I told you after we separated we, I went to Coffeyville.
Q Did you stay there only three months? A At Coffeyville? Somewheres near that.
Q Then came back to the Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q How long did you stay in the Nation after you came back from Coffeyville? A I don't know just exactly.
Q Do you remember what year? A Well, yes, it might have been a year, probably a little more than a year.
Q Do you remember when the Cherokee strip money was paid out.
A I cannot remember the date, I remember the occasion.
Q Where were you living then? A Well it seems to me I was in Coffeyville at that time. I was at Coffeyville, lived there a short time, 2 or 3 different times.
Q You think you were living at Coffeyville at the time the strip money was paid out? A Yes, sir.
Q You went after that, or was it before, you went to Oklahoma?
A Well it has been 6 or 7 years ago. I went to Oklahoma and went up there. Stayed a while and then came back.
Q You remember the fact your name being put on the 180 roll, don't you? Do you remember the '96 roll? The Roll made 8 years ago? Do you remember of that one being made?
A That was when the strip money was paid out, was it? Q. Two years after. A. No, I guess, I don't remember that.
Q Who were you living with in Coffeyville? A My sister.
Q You had a sister there? A Yes, sir.
Q What is her name? A The same one, Kennedy.
Q She is living in Oklahoma? A Yes, sir.
Q Don't you remember when they moved? A They moved, I know right at the first, when Stroud first started. When it was a new town.
Q That was after the strip money, a year after strip money was paid out to the Nation here? A I suppose so. If I remember right it is six or seven years this spring.
Q Do you work out any down in Oklahoma? A Do, I? Yes, sir- It is one thing that I am there, I get better wages there than I could here?
Q. While there you live with your sister? What brings you back to the Cherokee Nation? What brings you back these various times you speak of? A Well, I have friends here- back to see them a while.
Q Do you come back for work or back to visit? A Well, I have on several occasions had no intention of working when I came, but on several occasions find a place to work and worked a while.
Q Have you always regarded yourself as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you an initial? A Yes, there is an "F". I hardly ever use it.

By the Commission: Do you want to offer anything more in your cause, Mr. Chase? A. No, sir.

I, Veronica Wallwork, being first duly sworn, state as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, that the above and foregoing is a true and correct transcript of my stenographic notes taken in the above entitled cause and that I accurately reported the same.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied

Cherokee 4291.

Tahlequah, Indian Territory, May 17, 1904.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

There are enclosed herewith the original jacket and record in the matter of the application of Anna Thornton for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation and for the enrollment of her son, William L. Thornton, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, Cherokee 4291.

William L. Thornton has been placed on the final roll of Cherokee citizens. The record is believed to be complete and is transmitted to be held for decision as to Anna Thornton whenever the rights of intermarried whites have been determined by the Court of Claims.

Respectfully,

MH
Enc. H-1.

Commissioner in Charge
Cherokee Land Office.

Cher. 4291

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Anna Thornton,

Bartlesville, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

By the Commission-

The name of the applicant, Perley Israel, appears upon the 1896 Census Roll of the Cherokee Nation as an intermarried citizen, and from the testimony it appears that he has been married in accordance with the Cherokeelaws. It will be necessary, however, for the applicant to file with this Commission either the original or a certified copy from the records of the district in the Cherokee Nation in which he was married, of his marriage license and certificate. The name of his wife is found upon the 1880 authenticated roll of the citizens of the Cherokee Nation as Peggy Blackstone, and on the 1896 Census roll as Peggie Isaril. The names of the applicant's two children, Walter and Della Israel, are also identified on the 1896 roll of the citizens of the Cherokee Nation. The wife and the two minor children of the applicant will be listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation and the applicant as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation, when he shall have filed with the Commission the evidence of his marriage to his wife. Sufficient evidence having been given as to the continued residence of the applicant and his family in the Indian Territory, the time required by law.

E. G. Rothenberger, being fist duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete translation of his stenographic notes in said case.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied

.....
Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, has been designated by the Secretary of the Interior, as the official to make and approve appraisals of the value of improvements upon land in the Cherokee Nation which were made prior to November 5, 1906, by white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that [illegible] ownership, location and value of [illegible] to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried [illegible]

Nation which were made prior to November 5, 1906, by white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried white claimant, or makes any adverse claim to said improvements, or to the right of the intermarried white claimant to sell said improvements under the Act approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), said citizen must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes either at Muskogee, Indian Territory, prior to April 1, 1907, or at one of the places above designated and within the dates above designated and make formal complaint before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes of his contention. At Muskogee, Indian Territory, between March 11th and March 30th, 1907, inclusive, and at the other places herein named during the hearings at said places as herein fixed, plats will be open for inspection showing the location of tentative allotments made by former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage and all other land on which such claimants claim improvements, so far as indicated by the records of this office.

All persons interested should take careful note of the limitation of time herein provided for, within which designations and complaints may be made, and that they must be made by appearance before the Commissioner.

TAMS BIXBY,
Commissioner.

In the matter of the application of WILLIAM F. GOODMAN, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and his wife, CATHERINE B. GOODMAN, and his children, ORA M., ALBERT A., SUSIE J., ROBERT F. and JOSEPH F. GOODMAN, as citizens by blood, of the Cherokee Nation:

WILLIAM F. GOODMAN, called as a witness, being duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

Q Your full name is William F. Goodman ? A Yes sir.
Q How old are you ? A I am fifty years old.
Q What is your post office address ? A Caney, Kansas.
Q You are a white man ? A Yes sir.
Q Are you on the 1880 roll as an intermarried white ?
A Yes sir.
Q Was your wife Catherine B., at that time ? A Yes sir.
Q The same wife you have now ? A Yes sir.
Q Have you and your wife Catherine B., been living in the Cherokee Nation together since 1880 ?
A We live on the line near Caney, and she goes up there and sends the children to school. I stay in the Indian Territory all the time.
Q Your home is in the Indian Territory ? A Yes sir.
Q You have no home in Kansas ? A Oh no.
Q Have you and your wife ever been separated ? A No sir.
Q Were you living together on the first day of last September ?
A Same as we always have, she stays in the State part of the time, and I stay in the Indian Territory.
Q You have never been separated ? A No sir.
Q Are your five children all living ? A Yes sir.
Q They are all living at home with you, are they ?
A Yes sir. I have one elder than that, but he is of age and enrolls himself.
Q You say you have never made your home outside of the Indian Territory since 1880 ? A No sir.
Q Your wife goes to Kansas to school the children ? A Yes sir.
Q Where does she stay when up there ?
A I took the strip money that belongs to the children, the three youngest children, and bought a house and lot there.
Q So you built a house in Caney, Kansas ? A I took their money and built a house for them, so they could stay there and go to school.
Q How far is Caney from your home in the Cherokee Nation ?
A About five miles.
Q How long do they stay there during the year ?
A Just the length of the term of school, five to seven months.
Q Does she board up there, or keep house ?
A She takes up an outfit up there.
Q You own a farm in the Cherokee Nation ?
A Yes sir, we have got about all we can hold improved.
Q Did you make it ? A Yes sir.
Q This place you are living on is your own farm ?

In the matter of the application of WILLIAM T. GOODMAN, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and his wife, CATHERINE B. GOODMAN, and his children, OTA E., ALBERT A., SUSIE J., ROBERT F. and JOSEPH W. GOODMAN, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation:

The Commission: This testimony is to be taken in and applied to Cher # 4297; Cher # 4262; Cher # 4263, and in Cher # 96.

W. T. GOODMAN, being duly sworn by the Commission, was examined, testified as follows:

Examined by W. W. Hastings, Esq:

Q What is your name ? A W. T. Goodman
Q What is your post office address ? A Caney.
Q Do you live in the town of Caney, Kansas ?
A What my wife is there; I live in the Territory.
Q Does your wife keep house there ? A Part of the time she does, and part of the time she is in the Territory with me.
Q When did she first commence keeping house up there ?
A I guess about ten years ago.
Q Has she kept house there continuously since that time ?
A No sir we have been back twice or four years at home if you will let me tell the tale I can give you a better knowledge of it. Well, I moved there twenty five years ago on Cotton Creek, and there was no schools there nor [illegible]
Q I want to know how long you have been in Caney, Kansas ?
A After the strip payment I got a lot to build me a house, and I bought some property there. I bought land and built a house in Caney, Kansas, and deeded it to keep three youngest children, and through the season I have had them there part of the time going to school. And then in the vacation they would come down to the farm. I did own three thousand acres there until they run me out, and I sold it.
Q Where is your family now ? A Part in Caney.
Q Where is your wife ? A At home part of the time and part in town.
Q Where is she now ? A I don't know.
Q Does she keep house up in Caney ? A Why she has since school commenced she has been up there
Q You have got some children up there
A I have got two boys and two girls.
Q Did you ever have a store at Caney ? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever clerk up there in a store ?
Q Did you ever have any other business there ?
A I loaned a fellow some money to run a saddle shop there
Q Have you an interest in it ? A No sir
Q Did you ever have an interest in it A I loaned him some money.
Q Didn't you get broke and run it in somebody else's name ?
A No sir, I never was broke in my life

Q Where were you living July 19, 1898, and July 20, 1899, and April 2, 1900 ? A Why my folks was in Caney; they had been in Caney through the school term ever since I had built the house after the Cherokee payment.
Q I will ask you if you didn't vote up there in Caney, Kansas, at elections held there ? A I voted there in two bond elections.
Q Didn't you vote there on July 19, 1898 ?
A I want to tell you about that.
Q Say yes or no about it ? A I don't know whether I did or not. I didn't think I did, but I was talking to Pocock, and he said my name was on the roll. I went to the polls and they wanted me to vote; there was a kind of a heated election there, and I told them I had no right to vote, and they questioned me ----
Q Oh tell me whether you voted or not ?

By the Commission:

Q Did you go up there and cast a ballot ?
A I was there and they questioned me, and asked me--
Q Did you cast a ballot in that election ?
A I don't remember of it.

By Mr. Hastings:

Q Did you on July 20, 1899 ? A I did, yes sir.
Q Did you on April 2, 1900 ? A I don't remember of it

Mr. Hastings: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a certificate from the City Clerk, of Caney, Kansas, E. F. Pocock, showing that the applicant W. F. Goodman voted at elections held in Caney, Kansas, on the dates hereinabove mentioned

The witness: He told me about this and I went and took him to the books, and saw my name there. The reason why my name was there they said I could vote; it was just a city election; and they said that my being a resident there, and my family being there I had a right to vote.

By the Commission:

Q As a matter of fact, you did vote, didn't you ?
A No sir, I don't think I did.
Q Didn't you cast a ballot ? A No sir., Sam Barr and Minner were judges, but I don't remember ever going up and voting.
Q Where were you living on June 28, 1898 ? A Why if school was out then, we were living on the farm.
Q Have you got a house on the farm ? A Oh I have got a house, and its never been rented nor nothing. Last winter I fed a hundred head of steers there.
Q About what time of the year would your people go to Kansas ?
A When the school term takes up in September.
Q Would they stay there continuously ?
A Until school lets out. We rented our house in town when they moved out, and put our furniture off in one end of the house, but never have moved them from Caney to the farm.
Q You keep house there ? A I have stayed there for six months at one time; but I haven't stayed there any time in six months.
Q Haven't stayed there a night in the past six months ? A No sir

Q Where did you come from down here ?
A From the farm
Q Where did you take the train ? A Right east of Caney there at Fawn Valley.
Q Is it in the Cherokee Nation ? A No sir, its up on the State line; of course I know what the name of it is, but I can't call the name right now; its Tyro.
Q How far is your farm from the State line ? A Three miles.
Q What is the closest post office ? A Caney.
Q Do you mean to say that you have not spent a night in Caney, Kansas in the past six months ? A Yes sir.
Q You are positive ? A Yes sir.
Q You are willing to swear that you have not spent a night there in six months ? A Yes sir.

By Mr. Hastings:

Q Didn't you tell us that you spoke to this city clerk up there about it ? A Yes sir. I was there Friday and Saturday.
Q You didn't spend the night there ? A No sir.
Q Do you know Edward Frenchman ? A Yes sir
Q Where does he live ? A In Caney.
Q Do you know S. E. Bell ? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he lived in Caney ? A About 5 or 6 years.
Q Hasn't he lived there eight or ten years ? A Yes sir.
Q Frenchman lives there ? A Yes sir.
Q His family lives there ? A Yes sir
Q They keep house there do they ? A Yes sir
Q What business is Bell engaged in ? A Not anything; he is bumming around there.
Q Is he engaged in business ? A He has farms in the Cherokee Nation
Q Where ? A Some on Cotton Creek; and some east of Caney.
Q Did he ever work it ? A He did one year.
Q When ? A A year ago last summer, or two years.
Q Are you positive he has not been living in Caney more than five years ? A I can't tell you about that. I know he moved up there and has been there since.
Q Did he move there since you went to Caney, Kansas; you went there in 1894 ? A I don't know; it was about 2 or 4 years.
Q After that ? A Yes sir, maybe three years.
Q Has he been there all the time since ? A Yes sir.
Q What business is Frenchman in ? A He is clerking for Bill Meeker.
Q How long has he been clerking there ? A About a year.
Q How long after you went to Caney before Frenchman came there
A I don't know.
Q Did you see him there when you went there ? A I don't remember; I didn't pay any attention to it.
Q How long are you certain he has been living there at Caney, Kansas ? A Four or five years I guess.
Q Are you positive he hasn't been there more than five years ?
A No sir.

A Yes sir, I don't know that they have ever moved back entirely
Q They are still keeping house there ? A Yes sir

EDWARD FRENCHMAN, called as a witness, being duly sworn by the Commission, testified as follows.

Examined by Mr. Hastings:

Q What is your name ? A Edward Frenchman
Q What is your age Mr. Frenchman ? A I am about 31.
Q Where do you live ? A I now live in Caney, Kansas
Q How long have you lived there ? A Since a year ago last September.
Q That would be in September, 1901 ? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you go from to Caney at that time ?
A I went from about four miles south of the State line right down the Osage line.
Q How long had you been living there when you moved to Caney ?
A Oh about a year I guess. I lived still further south of that before that.
Q How long had you lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously before you moved to Caney, Kansas, in September, 1901 ?
A I lived there I guess about twenty five years.
Q Have you lived in Caney before this time ? A Yes sir.
Q When did you live there ? A I moved there the first time about five or six years ago.
Q Do you know which ? A I can't say exactly which, but somewhere along there.
Q Do you know whether it was 1896 or 1897 that you moved to Caney Kansas ? A Lets see; I believe it was; I believe I went there in the fall of 1893; it was in the fall of 1893 I believe went there first.
Q Well, but in 1896 or 1897 you moved there. How long did you live there when you moved there five or six years ago ?
A I was there about half the time, about two years; about half the time I was back and forth.
Q Where were you in June, 1898 ? A I was down in the Territory on the farm farming.
Q Is your wife an invalid ? A Yes sir.
Q She is sick now ? A Yes sir.
Q She has consumption ? A Why some doctors says she has, and some says she hasn't.

Q What did you move to Caney for ? A I went there for the purpose of [illegible]ling my children and being near doctors.
Q What did you do there ? A I worked part of the time. When I first went there of course I didn't do anything much. I run a delivery wagon there last winter.
Q What do you do now ? A I clerk in a store.
Q You say you were on the farm in 1898 ? A Yes sir
Q Are you positive about that ? A Yes sir
Q How long have you known W. F. Goodman ?
A Just as far back as I can remember.
Q For the last five or six years where has he and his family been living ? A Well, so far as I know his family has been back and forth to Caney for the last six years.
Don't his family live in Caney now ? A I can't say, I haven't seen his family for three or four months.
You don't keep track of them ? A No sir.
Do you know Sidney E. Bell ? A Yes sir.
Where does he live ? A In Caney
How long has he lived there ? A I never did know Mr [illegible] about two years ago.
You have known him about two years ? A Yes sir. He has been there ever since I have known him.
Q How long is the longest you have ever lived in Caney, Kansas ?
Well, about--the whole time together, I expect----
Q At any one time ?
A The first time I went was about twelve months. Of course I went there, and kept my family there; that is back and forth for two years, but I counted it about half the time I was there.
Q Was that from 1893 to 1895 ? A Somewheres along there.
Q Then you went back in 1895 to the country ?
A No, it was two years ago that I went back there.
Q In 1900 ? A Yes sir, and stayed there from the first of September till January.
Q Then where did you go ? A I went back on the farm again
Q Then you went back to Caney on the first of September, 1901 ?
A Yes sir.

By the Commission:

Q How long did you stay in Caney, Kansas, when you went there in 1893, as you stated a while ago ? A Well, I was there, I guess, back and forth all together---
Q I mean how long did you actually reside in Caney, Kansas when you went there in 1893 before you left ?
A I left there about 1895, but I was just back and forth, I wasn't there all the time.
Q Were you married in 1893 ? A No sir.
Q When were you married ? A In 1888.
Q Then you were a married man in 1893 ? A Yes sir.
Q Were you living there in Caney, Kansas, in 1895 ?
A I probably was part of that time, but about that time I moved back on the farm, in March.
Q How long did you stay in the Territory that time ?
A I stayed in the Territory until two years ago.
Q From 1895 up until two years ago, or up until one year ago last September, you resided continuously in the Cherokee Nation ?
A Yes sir.
Q And did not reside at Caney, Kansas ? A No sir.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Vinita, Indian Territory, January 19th, 1903.

In the matter of the application of William F. Goodman for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage and for the enrollment of his wife, Catherine B. Goodman, and his children, Ora M., Albert A., Susie J., Robert F. and Joseph F. Goodman, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Supplemental to #4297.

The Cherokee Nation appears by its representative, J. C. Starr, and the applicant appears in person and by his attorney, James S. Davenport, both parties consenting to the taking of further testimony in this case.

W. O. Truskett, being sworn in behalf od the applicant, testified as follows:

Examination by Mr. Davenport.

Q. What is your name? A. W. O. Truskett.
Q. Where do you live? A. Caney, Kansas.
Q. How long have you lived in Caney, Kansas? A. I have lived there for 10 or 11 years; 10, I believe.
Q. Do you know W. F. Goodman? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long have you known him? A. I have known Mr. Goodman for the last 10 or 11 years.
Q. Where was he living when you got acquainted with him?
A. In the Cherokee Nation.
Q. Where? A. Where he is living now, on Cotton creek.
Q. Do you know whether he has lived in Caney since you got acquainted with him? A. Yes, sir; they come there to school their children.
Q. They had a home or place there? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know whether they stayed there regularly, all the time, or not? A. No, theym was there and then they would go back down to the farm.
Q. What season of the year, do you know, did they go back to the farm? A. After school.
Q. Are you in business in Caney? A. Yes, sir; in the mercantile business.
Q. Have you been trading with them? A. Yes, sir; Mr. Goodman has traded with us for the last 6 or 7 years. I couldn't say exactly.
Q. Do you know what business Mr. Goodman has been in? A. He has been farming.
Q. Where has he been farming? A. Down there on his place.
Q. Do you know where they are living now? A. At home, I suppose, down on his place.
Q. Do you know whether he had a farm that he farmed in Kansas?
A. Oh, no. He had no farm in Kansas. If he has I don't know anything about it.
Q. Have you ever been to the farm in the Cherokee Nation?
A. Oh, yes; lots of times.
Q. Where are the children? Do you know them? A. Yes, sir. They're going to school. The older boys, I think, are there on the place.
Q. About how far is his place from Caney? A. About 6 or 7 miles.
Q. Caney is how far from the line? A. About three-quarters of a mile.
Q. Do you know whether he has looked after the farm and farmed it each year you have been acquainted with him? A. Yes, sir, I think he farms it every year. About its being 7 or 8 miles, I don't know. I am just guessing at it.

Q. You have been down to the farm? A. Oh, yes.
Q. What kind of a farm has he there? A. His home place?
Q. Yes. A. Why, I should judge there would be a hundred or two acres right there in his home place, then he had other places north and east of his home place.
Q. What, if anything, would they do with their home place where the family stayed in Kansas when they were home? A. I can call to mind one time this man Smith had it rented. I remember once they had it locked up.

Examination by Mr. Starr.

Q. How long have you known Mr. Goodman? A. For the last 10 or 11 years.
Q. Where was he living when you first got acquainted with him?
A. In the Cherokee Nation, where he lives now.
Q. When did he first move to Caney? A. Well, now, lets see. I can't exactly say just when they first moved up there to send their children to school. About--I don't know whether it was '90 or '92, they they first lived up there to send the children to school.
Q. How many times have they moved back to the Cherokee Nation since then? A. Well, the family--I couldn't say just how many times they moved back.
Q. How many times has his wife been back since then? A. Just how many times, I don't know. They were backward and forward.
Q. Do you know where they were living in 1895? A. Well, in 1895, during school, fall and winter, the family lived in Caney.
Q. How about the summer of 1895? A. Well, now, they were going backward and forward to the place. More than likely they were there. I can't just say they went back that identical time.
Q. Did they move their household goods and everything back to the farm? A. I couldn't say about that.
Q. How many times have you been down on his farm? A. I am there two or three times a year, more than likely. May be half a dozen times, may be ones.
Q. Do you know whether he rents his farm; rents it out? A. Well, I think he farms a part of it himself.
Q. Who has been living on his farm for the last 5 or 6 years?
A. I think he has himself. He may have some of it rented.
Q. Where has his wife been living for the last 5 or 6 years?
A. She has been living in Caney. They had a home and lived in both places.
Q. As a matter of fact didn't his wife live in Caney continuously?
A. Why, no.
Q. How much of the time has she lived there? A. I couldn't say. I couldn't say how much of the time she stayed in Caney or how much of the time on the farm. I couldn't say.
Q. Where is she living now? A. She is in Caney.
Q. The children are with her? A. Yes, sir; the little fellows.
Q. How long has she been there continuously? A. Yes, the little fellow are with her.
Q. Mrs. Goodman; how long has she been there continuously this last time? A. I don't know whether she has been there all the summber or not. I know last spring she was there.
Q. Do you know hos long she has been there? A. I don't know exactly. Mr. Goodman was feeding cattle down there on the farm a year ago last winter and she was there.
Q. As a matter of fact Mr. Goodman voted in Caney, didn't he?
A. I couldn't say about that.
Q. You don't know that? A. No, sir; I don't.
Q. Is Mr. Goodman and his wife living together now as husband and wife? A. Well, I couldn't say as to that, whether they are or not.

Q. You don't know of any separation between them? A. I do not.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:
Q. Do you know where Mrs. Goodman is to-day? A. Yes, sir; she is down here.
Q. Who with? A. With Mr. Goodman.
Q. Have you seen them here to-day? A. Yes, sir.
Q. They have been together? A. Yes, sir; they came together on the train.

Examination by the Commission.
Q. Has Mr. Goodman any business interests in Caney, Kansas?
A. No, sir.
Q. He hasn't any? A. Not that I know of. Now, he loaned a man some money there a long time ago and he had that for a little bit but he soon disposed of it. It was a harness shop or something.
Q. He had to take the shop? A. He had to take the shop. He didn't have it only a little bit, until he could dispose of it. He disposed of it right away. That is the only thing I know of Mr. Goodman having in Caney and he only had that just a short time.
M.

C. F. HERRING, being sworn in behalf of the Cherokee Nation, testified as follows:

Examination by Mr. Starr.
Q. State your name? A. C. F. Herring.
Q. What is your post office? A. Turo, Kansas.
Q. What is your age? A. 46.
Q. Are you acquainted with William F. Goodman, the applicant in this case? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long have you known him? A. Well, I have known Mr. Goodman since '87 or '88.
Q. Where has Mr. Goodman been living for the past 8 or 10 years?
A. Why, in the Territory.
Q. Do you know of his living in Caney Kansas? A. Yes, sir. Well, now, that is a pretty definite question to answer yes or no.
Q. Do you know when he went up to Caney? A. I know about the time, yes, sir.
Q. When? A. I think in '90.
Q. How long did he live in Caney after that? A. Well, he moved up there in the fall, I think, and was there during that winter.
Q. When did he move back again? A. Then I think the coming fall he moved back up there, continuing three or four years and finally he moved up there and his family stayed there.
Q. Is his family living there yet? A. I think so; yes, sir.
Q. About how long has his family been living in Caney?
A. Well, I think they moved back and forth five or six years, and then, since then they continued living there, his family has.
Q. That was about 1894? A. I haven't any knowledge of their going back to the farm and staying permanently.

Examination by Mr. Davenport.
Q. Have you any knowledge of them staying in Caney permanently?
A. No, only as I would go by there, go by their house, Mrs. Goodman was there.
Q. Can you say anything about Mrs. Goodman not going back to the farm each year? A. No, sir; I couldn't.
Q. How far from their farm do you live? A. About 5 miles.
Q. How far do you live from Caney? A. About 8 miles.
Q. Then you don't know when they went back to the farm each summer and when they went to Caney? A. No, sir.
Q. You know they had a home there? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You know Mr. Goodman was back and forth? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know where Mr. Goodman stayed a greater part of the time? A. Now, Mr. Goodman, everytime I would go down to the farm, he would be there.

Examination by Mr. Starr.

Q. Ever see him in Caney? A. Yes, sir; been there and took dinner with him when he was there.
Q. Was he living in Caney continuously? A. I wouldn't swear because I wasn't there.
Q. Did he have a farm? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did he have it rented? A. Yes, sir.

Examination by Mr. Davenport.

Q. What do you mean, had all his farm rented out? A. No, sir. He might have farmed some himself.
Q. Do you know whether he had his home place rented out?
A. Well, he had a family there.
Q. Southerland stayed there, didn't he? A. I don't know.
Q. Do you know who lived on the home place; do you know the man?
A. No, sir; I never was acquainted with him.
Q. You know it was his son or son-in-law? A. His son lived with him.
Q. Did you know that Mr. Goodman has a stallion and jack there?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You knew he stood them there each year? A. Yes, sir.

Examination by Mr. Starr.

Q. You know there was some one on the farm? A. Yes, sir: I don't know who it was but there was a man living there.

Examination by Mr. Davenport.

Q. Do you know who attended that horse and jack when the stood there at the spring season? A. Every time I was there Mr. Goodman attended them himself.

Examination by the Commission.

Q. Do you know for what purpose he went to Caney? A. To school his children. I don't know that but they went there to school and then come back.

There being no further evidence, the case will be submitted for final decision.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., October 13, 1902.

In the matter of the application of WILLIAM F. GOODMAN, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and his wife, CATHERINE B. GOODMAN, and his children, ORA M., ALBERT A., SUSIE J., ROBERT F. and JOSEPH F. GOODMAN, as citizens by blood, of the Cherokee Nation:

WILLIAM F. GOODMAN, called as a witness, being duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

Q Your full name is William F. Goodman? A Yes sir.
Q How old are you? I am fifty years old.
Q What is your post office address? A Caney, Kansas.
Q You are a white man? A Yes sir.
Q Are you on the 1880 roll as an intermarried white?
A Yes sir.
Q Was your wife Catherine B., at that time? A Yes sir.
Q The same wife you have now? A Yes sir.
Q Have you and your wife Catherine B., been living in the Cherokee Nation together since 1880?
A We live on the line near Caney, and she goes up there and sends the children to school. I stay in the Indian Territory all the time.
Q Your home is in the Indian Territory? A Yes sir.
Q You have no home in Kansas? A Oh no.
Q Have you and your wife ever been separated? A No sir.
Q Were you living together on the first day of last September?
A Same as we always have, she stays in the State part of the time, and I stay in the Indian Territory.
Q You have never been separated? A No sir.
Q Are your five children all living? A Yes sir.
Q They are all living at home with you, are they?
A Yes sir. I have one older than that, but he is of age and enrolls himself.
Q You say you have never made your home outside of the Indian Territory since 1880? A No sir.
Q Your wife goes to Kansas to school the children? A Yes sir.
Q Where does she stay when up there?
A I took the strip money that belongs to the children, the three youngest children, and bought a house and lot there.
Q So you built a house in Caney, Kansas? A I took their money and built a house for them, so they could stay there and go to school.
Q How far is Caney from your home in the Cherokee Nation?
A About five miles.
Q How long do they stay there during the year?
A Just the length of the term of school, five to seven months.
Q Does she board up there, or keep house?
A She takes up an outfit up there.
Q You own a farm in the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir, we have got about all we can hold improved.
Q Did you make it? A Yes sir.
Q This place you are living on is your own farm?
A Yes sir.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Muskogee, I. T., December 2, 1902.

In the matter of the application of WILLIAM F. GOODMAN, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and his wife, CATHERINE B. GOODMAN, and his children, ORA M., ALBERT A., SUSIE J., ROBERT F. and JOSEPH F. GOODMAN, as citizens by blood, of the Cherokee Nation:

The Commission: This testimony is to be taken in and applied to Cher # 4297; Cher # 4262; Cher # 4232, and in Del # 99.

W. F. GOODMAN, being duly sworn by the Commission, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by W. W. Hastings, Esq:

Q What is your name? A W. F. Goodman.
Q What is your post office address? A Caney.
Q Do you live in the town of Caney, Kansas?
A Why my wife is there; I live in the Territory.
Q Does your wife keep house there? A Part of the time she does, and part of the time she is in the Territory with me.
Q When did she first commence keeping house up there?
A I guess about ten years ago.
Q Has she kept house there continuously since that time?
A No sir we have been back three or four years at home If you will let me tell the tale I can give you a better knowledge of it. Well, I moved there twenty five years ago on Cotton Creek, and there was no schools there nor nothing.
Q I want to know how long you have been in Caney, Kansas?
A After the strip payment I got able to build me a house, and I bought some property there. I bought land and built a house in Caney, Kansas, and deeded it to my three youngest children, and through the season I have had them there part of the time going to school. And then in the vacation they would come down to the farm. I did own three thousand acres there until they cut me out, and I sold it.
Q Where is your family now? A Part in Caney.
Q Where is your wife? A At home part of the time, and part in town.
Q Where is she now? A I don't know.
Q Does she keep house up in Caney? A Why she has since school commenced she has been up there
Q You have got some children up there?
A I have got two boys and two girls.
Q Did you ever have a store at Caney? A No sir.
Q Did you ever clerk up there in a store? A No sir.
Q Did you ever have any other business there?
A I loaned a fellow some money to run a saddle shop there.
Q Have you an interest in it? A No sir.
Q Did you ever have an interest in it? A I loaned him some money.
Q Didn't you get broke and run it in somebody else's name?
A No sir, I never was broke in my life

Q Where were you living July 19, 1898, and July 20, 1899, and April 2, 1900? A Why my folks was in Caney; they had been in Caney through the school term ever since I had built the house after the Cherokee payment.
Q I will ask you if you didn't vote up there in Caney, Kansas, at elections held there? A I voted there in two bonds elections.
Q Didn't you vote there on July 19, 1898?
A I want to tell you about that.
Q Say yes or no about it? A I don't know whether I did or not. I didn't think I did, but I was talking to Pocock, and he said my name was on the roll. I went to the polls and they wanted me to vote; there was a kind of a heated election there, and I told them I had no right to vote, and they questioned me----
Q Oh tell me whether you voted or not?

By the Commission:

Q Did you go up there and cast a ballot?
A I was there and they questioned me, and asked me--
Q Did you cast a ballot in that election?
A I don't remember of it.

By Mr. Hastings:

Q Did you on July 20, 1899? A I did, yes sir.
Q Did you on April 2, 1900? A I don't remember of it.

Mr. Hastings: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a certificate from the City Clerk, of Caney, Kansas, E. F. Pocock, showing that the applicant W. F. Goodman voted at elections held in Caney, Kansas, on the dates hereinabove mentioned.

The witness: He told me about this and I went and took him to the books, and saw my name there. The reason why my name was there they said I could vote; it was just a city election; and they said that my being a resident there, and my family being there I had a right to vote.

By the Commission:

Q As a matter of fact, you did vote, didn't you?
A No sir, I don't think I did.
Q Didn't you cast a ballot? A No sir. Sam Barr and Minner were judges, but I don't remember ever going up and voting.
Q Where were you living on June 28, 1898? A Why if school was out then, we were living on the farm.
Q Have you got a house on the farm? A Oh I have got a house, and its never been rented nor nothing. Last winter I fed a hundred head of steers there.
Q About what time of the year would your people go to Kansas?
A When the school term takes up in September.
Q Would they stay there continuously?
A Until school lets out. We rented our house in town when they moved out, and put our furniture off in one end of the house, but I never have moved them from Caney to the farm.
Q You keep house there? A I have stayed there for six months at one time; but I haven't stayed there any time in six months.
Q Haven't stayed there a night in the past six months? A No sir.

Q Where did you come from down here?
A From the farm
Q Where did you take the train? A Right east of Caney there at Fawn Valley.
Q Is it in the Cherokee Nation? A No sir, its up on the State line; of course I know what the name of it is, but I can't call the name right now; its Tyro.
Q How far is your farm from the State line? A Three miles.
Q What is the closest post office? A Caney.
Q Do you mean to say that you have not spent a night in Caney, Kansas in the past six months? A Yes sir.
Q You are positive? A Yes sir.
Q You are willing to swear that you have not spent a night there in six months? A Yes sir.

By Mr. Hastings:

Q Didn't you tell us that you spoke to this city clerk up there about it? A Yes sir. I was there Friday and Saturday.
Q You didn't spend the night there? A No sir.
Q Do you know Edward Frenchman? A Yes sir.
Q Where does he live? A In Caney.
Q Do you know S. E. Bell? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he lived in Caney? A About 5 or 6 years.
Q Hasn't he lived there eight or ten years? A Yes sir.
Q Frenchman lives there? A Yes sir.
Q His family lives there? A Yes sir.
Q They keep house there do they? A Yes sir.
Q What business is Bell engaged in? A Not anything; he is bumming around there.
Q Is he engaged in business? A He has farms in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Where? A Some on Cotton Creek; and some east of Caney.
Q Did he ever work it? A He did one year.
Q When? A A year ago last summer, or two years.
Q Are you positive he has not been living in Caney more than five years? A I can't tell you about that. I know he moved up there and has been there since.
Q Did he move there since you went to Caney, Kansas; you went there in 1894? A I don't know; it was about 2 or 4 years.
Q After that? A Yes sir, maybe three years.
Q Has he been there all the time since? A Yes sir.
Q What business is Frenchman in? A He is clerking for Bill Meeker.
Q How long has he been clerking there? A About a year.
Q How long after you went to Caney before Frenchman came there?
A I don't know.
Q Did you see him there when you went there? A I don't remember; I didn't pay any attention to it.
Q How long are you certain he has been living there at Caney, Kansas? A Four or five years I guess.
Q Are you positive he hasn't been there more than five years?
A No sir.
Q Are you positive he hasn't been there less than five years?
A No sir, I can't say.

Q Do you live in the town of Caney? A Yes sir.
Q You own a farm on this side? A Yes sir.
Q When did you go there? A In December, 1895.
Q Do you own a house in Caney, Kansas? A No sir.
Q You rent a house? A Yes sir.
Q You keep house there? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been keeping house there since December, 1895?
A No sir, we moved on the farm and made a crop there in 1900
Q With that exception you have kept house in Caney, Kansas?
A Yes sir.

By the Commission:

Q Is that the only time you have kept house in the Indian Territory since 1895? A Yes sir.
Q From 1895 up till 1900 you resided in the State of Kansas?
A Yes sir.
Q Continuously? A Yes sir.
Q You kept house there? A Yes sir.
Q And did not keep house in the Indian Territory? A No sir.
Q Were you family with you up there? A Yes sir.
Q Have you children? A Yes sir.
Q Were they with you? A The smaller children were with me, my two step-sons were were in the Territory on the farm when school was not going on.
Q How old are these two step-sons? A Seventeen and nineteen.
Q Who did they live with in the Territory?
A They worked there on the farm.
Q From 1895 up till 1900, did they always spend the winters in Kansas with you? A Yes sir.
Q When did they first go to the Territory during the summer months, what year? A They worked there on the farm every year more or less They are working now and have been for the last several years.
Q They are your wife's children? A Yes sir.
Q Are you acquainted withthis man Edward Frenchman?
A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A About seven years.
Q Was he living there when you moved to Caney? A Yes sir.
Q What business was he engaged in? A Working in a store.
Q Has he been working there continuously since that time?
A No sir, he has moved back two or three times.
Q When did he first go back? A I can't say.
Q Is he a married man? A Yes sir.
Q Has he a wife and children? A He has one boy I believe.
Q Are they keeping house in Caney? A Yes sir.
Q Were they keeping house there in 1895 when you moved there?
A Yes sir.
Q Now Mr. Bell, do you know whether Frenchman and his wife continued to keep house there in Caney, Kansas, from 1895 up till you went back in 1900? A No sir, I think they moved back.

Q Was he living there in 1900 when you went away?
A Yes sir, I don't know that they have ever moved back entirely.
Q They are still keeping house there? A Yes sir.

EDWARD FRENCHMAN, called as a witness, being duly sworn by the Commission, testified as follows:

Examined by Mr. Hastings:

Q What is your name? A Edward Frenchman.
Q What is your age Mr. Frenchman? A I am about 31.
Q Where do you live? A I now live in Caney, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived there? A Since a year ago last September.
Q That would be in September, 1901? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you go from to Caney at that time?
A I went from about four miles south of the State line right down the Osage line.
Q How long had you been living there when you moved to Caney?
A Oh about a year I guess. I lived still further south of that before that.
Q How long had you lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously before you moved to Caney, Kansas, in September, 1901?
A I lived there I guess about twenty five years.
Q Have you lived in Caney before this time? A Yes sir.
Q When did you live there? A I moved there the first time about five or six years ago.
Q Do you know which? A I can't say exactly which, but somewhere along there.
Q Do you know whether it was in 1896 or 1897 that you moved to Caney, Kansas? A Lets see; I believe it was; I believe I went there in the fall of 1893; it was in the fall of 1893 I believe I went there first.
Q Well, but in 1896 or 1897 you moved there. How long did you live there when you moved there five or six years ago?
A I was there about half the time, about two years; about half the time I was back and forth.
Q Where were you in June, 1898? A I was down in the Territory on the farm farming.
Q Is your wife an invalid? A Yes sir.
Q She is sick now? A Yes sir.
Q She has consumption? A Why some doctors says she has, and some says she hasn't.

Q What did you move to Caney for? A I went there for the purpose of schooling my children and being near doctors.
Q What did you do there? A I worked part of the time. When I first went there of course I didn't do anything much. I run a delivery wagon there last winter.
Q What do you do now? A I clerk in a store.
Q You say you were on the farm in 1898? A Yes sir
Q Are you positive about that? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known W. F. Goodman?
A Just as far back as I can remember.
Q For the last five or six years where has he and his family been living? A Well, so far as I know his family has been back and forth to Caney for the last six years.
Q Don't his family live in Caney now? A I can't say, I haven't seen his family for three or four months.
Q You don't keep track of them? A No sir.
Q Do you know Sidney E. Bell? A Yes sir.
Q Where does he live? A In Caney.
Q How long has he lived there? A I never did know Mr. Bell until about two years ago.
Q You have known him about two years? A Yes sir. He has been there ever since I have known him.
Q How long is the longest you have ever lived in Caney, Kansas?
A Well about--the whole time together, I expect----
Q No, at any one time?
A The first time I went was about twelve months. Of course I went there, and kept my family there; that is back and forth for two years, but I counted it about half the time I was there.
Q Was that from 1893 to 1895? A Somewheres along there.
Q Then you went back in 1896 to the country?
A No, it was two years ago that I went back there.
Q In 1900? A Yes sir, and stayed there from the first of September till January.
Q Then where did you go? A I went back on the farm again
Q Then you went back to Caney on the first of September, 1901?
A Yes sir.

By the Commission:

Q How long did you stay in Caney, Kansas, when you went there in 1893, as you stated a while ago? A Well, I was there, I guess, back and forth all together---
Q I mean how long did you actually reside in Caney, Kansas when you went there in 1893 before you left?
A I left there about 1895, but I was just back and forth, I wasn't there all the time.
Q Were you married in 1893? A No sir.
Q When were you married? A In 1888.
Q Then you were a married man in 1893? A Yes sir.
Q Were you living there in Caney, Kansas, in 1895?
A I probably was part of that time, but about that time I moved back on the farm, in March.
Q How long did you stay in the Territory that time?
A I stayed in the Territory until two years ago.
Q From 1895 up until two years ago, or up until one year ago last September, you resided continuously in the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q And did not reside at Caney, Kansas? A No sir.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Vinita, Indian Territory, January 19th, 1903.

In the matter of the application of William F. Goodman for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage and for the enrollment of his wife, Catherine B. Goodman, and his children, Ora M., Albert A., Susie J., Robert E. and Joseph F. Goodman, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Supplemental to #4207.

The Cherokee Nation appears by its representative, J. C. Starr, and the applicant appears in person and by his attorney, James S. Davenport, both parties consenting to the taking of further testimony in this case.

W. O. Truskett, being sworn in behalf od the applicant, testified as follows:

Examined by Mr. Davenport.

Q What is your name? A. W. O. Truskett.
Q Where do you live? A. Caney, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived in Caney, Kansas? A I have lived there for 10 or 11 years; 10, I believe.
Q Do you know W. F. Goodman? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known him? A. I have known Mr. Goodman for the last 10 or 11 years.
Q Where was he living when you got acquainted with him?
A In the Cherokee Nation.
Q Where? A Where he is living now, on Coon creek.
Q Do you know whether he has lived in Caney since you got acquainted with him? A Yes, sir: they come there to school their children.
Q They have a home or place there? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether they stayed there regularly, all the time, or not? A No, they was there and then they would go back down to the farm.
Q What season of the year, do you know, did they go back to the farm? A After school.
Q Are you in business in Caney? A Yes, sir; in the mercantile business.
Q Have you been trading with them? A Yes, sir: Mr. Goodman has traded with us for the last 6 or 7 years. I couldn't say exactly.
Q Do you know what business Mr. Goodman has been in? A He has been farming.
Q Where has he been farming? A Down there on his place.
Q Do you know where they are living now? A At home, I suppose, down on his place.
Q Do you know whether he had a farm that he farmed in Kansas?
A Oh, no. He had no farm in Kansas. If he has I don't know anything about it.
Q Have you ever been tothe farm in the Cherokee Nation?
A Oh, yes; lots of times.
Q Where are the children? Do you know them? A Yes, sir. They're going to school. The older boys, I think, are there on the place.
Q About how far is his place from Caney? A About 6 or 7 miles.

Q Caney is how far from the line? A About three-quarters of a mile.
Q Do you know whether he has looked after the farm and farmed it each year you have been acquainted with him? A Yes, sir, I think he farms it every year. About its being 7 or 8 miles, I don't know. I am just guessing at it.
Q You have been down to the farm? A Oh, yes.
Q What kind of a farm has he there? A His home place?
Q Yes. A Why, I should judge there would be a hundred or two acres right there in his home place, then he had other places north and east of his home place.
Q What, if anything, would they do with their home place where the family stayed in Kansas when they were home? A I can call to mind one time this man Smith had it rented. I remember once they had it locked up.

Examined by Mr. Starr.
Q How long have you known Mr. Goodman? A For the last 10 or 11 years.
Q Where was he living when you first got acquainted with him? A In the Cherokee Nation, where he lives now.
Q When did he first move to Caney? A Well, now, lets see. I can't exactly say just when they first moved up there to send their children to school. About--I don't know whether it was '90 or '92, the they first lived up there to send the children to school.
Q How many times have the moved back to the Cherokee Nation since then? A Well, the family--I couldn't say just how many times they moved back.
Q How many times has his wife been back since then? A Just how many times, I don't know. They were backward and forward.
Q Do you know where they were living in 1895? A Well, in 1895, during school, fall and inter, the family lived in Caney.
Q How about the summer of 1895? A Well, now, they were going backward and forward to the place. More than likely they were there. I can't just say they went back that identical time.
Q Did they move their household goods and everything back to the farm? A I couldn't say about that.
Q How many times have you been down on his farm? A I am there two or three times a year, more than likely. May be half a dozen times, may be once.
Q Do you know whether he rents his farm; rents it out? A Well, I think he farms a part of it himself.
Q Who has been living on his farm for the last 5 or 6 years?
A I think he has himself. He may have some of it rented.
Q Where has his wife been living for the last 5 or 6 years?
A She has been living in Caney. They had a home and lived in both places.
Q As a matter of fact didn't his wife live in Caney continuously?
A Why, no.
Q How much of the time has she lived there? A I couldn't say. I couldn't say how much of the time she stayed in Caney or how much of the time on the farm. I couldn't say.
Q Where is she living now? A She is in Caney.
Q The children are with her? A Yes, sir: the little fellows.
Q How long has she been there continuously? A Yes, the little fellow are with her.
Q Mrs. Goodman; how long has she been there continuously this last time? A I don't know whether she has been there all the summber or not. I know last spring she was there.
Q Do you know how long she has been there? A I don't know exactly. Mr. Goodman was feeding cattle down there on the farm a year ago last winter and she was there.
Q As a matter of fact Mr. Goodman voted in Caney, didn't he
A I couldn't say about that.
Q You don't know that? A No, sir; I don't.

Q Is Mr. Goodman and his wife living together now as husband and wife? A Well, I couldn't say as to that, whether they are or not.
Q You don't know of any separation? A I do not.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:
Q Do you know where Mrs. Goodman is located? A Yes, sir; she is down here.
Q Who with? A With Mr. Goodman.
Q Have you seen them here to-day? A Yes, sir.
Q They have been together? A Yes, sir; they came together on the train.

Examination by the Commission.
Q Has Mr. Goodman any business interests in Caney, Kansas
A No, sir.
Q He hasn't any? A Not that I know of. Now, he loaned a man some money there a long time ago and he had what for a little bit but he soon disposed of it. It was a harness shop or something.
Q He had to take the shop? A He had to take the shop. He didn't have it only a little bit, until he could dispose of it. He disposed of it right away. That is the only thing I know of Mr. Goodman having in Caney and he only had that just a short time.

C. . . . , being sworn in behalf of the Chero . . . ation, testified as follows:

Examination by Mr. Stacy.
Q What is your name? A C. . . Herring.
Q What is your post office? A Turo, Kansas.
Q What is your age? A .
Q Are you acquainted with Wil . . . Goodman, the complainant in this case? A Yes, sir.
How long have you known him? A Well, I have known Mr. Goodman since '87 or '88.
Q Where has Mr. Goodman been living for the past 6 or 10 years?
A Why, in the Territory.
Q Do you know of his living in Caney, Kansas? A Yes, sir. Well, now, that is a pretty definite question to answer yes or no.
Q Do you know when he went up to Caney? A I know about the time, yes, sir.
Q When? A I think in '00.
Q How long did he live in Caney after that? A Well, he moved up there in the fall, I think, and was there during that winter.
Q When did he move back again? A Then I think the coming fall he moved back up there, continuing three or four years and finally he moved up there and his family stayed there.
Q Is his family living there yet? A I think so; yes, sir.
Q About how long has his family been living in Caney?
A Well, I think they moved back and forth five or six years, and then, since then they continued living there, his family has.
Q That was about 1894? A I haven't any knowledge of their going back to the farm and staying permanently.

Examination by Mr. Davenport.

Q Have you any knowledge of them staying in Caney permanently?
A No, only as I would go by there, go by their house, Mrs. Goodman was there.
Q Can you say anything about Mr. Goodman not going back to the farm each year? A No, sir; I couldn't.
Q How far from their farm do you live? A About 5 miles.
Q How far do you live from Caney? A About 8 miles.
Q Then you don't know when they went back to the farm each summer and when they went to Caney? A No, sir.
Q You know they had a home there? A Yes, sir.
Q You know Mr. Goodman was back and forth? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know where Mr. Goodman staved a greater part of the time? A Now, Mr. Goodman, everytime I would go down to the farm, he would be there.

Examination by Mr. Starr.

Q Ever see him in Caney? A Y s, sir; been there and took dinner with him when he was there.
Q Was he living in Caney continuously? A I wouldn't swear because I wasn't there.
Q Did he have a farm? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he have it rented? A Yes, sir.

Examination by Mr. Davenport.

Q What do you mean, had all his farm rented out? A No, sir, he might have farmed some himself.
Q Do you know whether he had his home place rented out?
A Well, he had a family there.
Q Southerland stayed there, didn't he? A I don't know.
Q Do you know who lived on the home place; do you know the man?
A No, sir; I never was acquainted with him.
Q You know it was his son or son-in-law? A His son lived with him.
Q Did you know that Mr. Goodman has a stallion and jack there?
A Yes, sir.
Q You knew he stood them there each year? A Yes, sir.

Examination by Mr. Starr.

Q You know there was some one on the farm? A Yes, sir: I don't know who it was but there was a man living there.

Examination by Mr. Davenport.

Q Do you know who attended that horse and jack when the stood there at the spring season? A Every time I was there Mr. Goodman attended them himself.

Examination by the Commission.

Q Do you know for what purpose he went to Caney? A To school his children. I don't know that but they went there to school and then come back.

There being no further evidence, the case will be submitted for final decision.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of William F. Goodman as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, October 10,1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of William F. Goodman as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 13,1902, December 2, 1902 and at Vinita, Indian Territory, January 19, 1903.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, William F. Goodman, is a white man and neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as he may have acquired by virtue of his marriage on May 30,1877, to Catherine B. Goodman, nee Duncan, an enrolled citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, her name being found opposite No. 32475 on the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, under a Cherokee tribal license . Said applicant did not, therefore, marry a citizen of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5,1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, William F. Goodman is not entitled, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28,1898 (30 Stats. 495) to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Gentlemen:

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of William F. Goodman, et al, it appears from the records of this division that a decision was prepared in this case on December 12th, 1902, which said decision, together with the original papers in the case, are in the possession of the Commission at Muskogee.

On January 19th, 1903, supplemental testimony was taken at Vinita, Indian Territory, and there is transmitted herewith a copy of said testimony, that it may be embodied in the decision.

Respectfully,

Applicant recalled:
The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and his wife He is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee: He gives his age as twenty one years, but probably he is not that old, as his family is identified on the roll of 1880, and he can not be found on that roll. He is a full blood Cherokee: He states that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.
The wife is also said to be a full blood Cherokee: She is identified on the roll of 1896; She is too young to be on the roll of 1880; She has lived with him ever since their marriage, and in the Cherokee Nation all her life: Her change of name is established attested by the applicant's testimony, and one additional witness; and she, Kayhawka McIntosh will be listed for enrollment now as a Cherokee by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF NINA MELVINA PARTIN FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HERSELF? HER HUSBAND AND ONE CHILD AS CHEROKEE CITIZENS.

The said Nina Melvina Partin, being sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, was examined by the Commission and testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Nina Melvina Partin.
Q What is your age? A Twenty-three.
Q What is your post office address? A Ochelata.
Q Are you a resident of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived here? A All my life.
Q Have you ever been outside of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir, I never lived outside.
Q Are you making application for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q To what district in the Cherokee Nation do you belong? A Cooweescoowee.
Q What is your father's name? A Lige Bly. It may be on the roll some place as Blythe, but I don't know.
Q Is your father living? A Yes sir.
Q Is he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is your mother's name? A Sarah Grimmeth.
Q Is your mother living? A No sir.
Q Is she a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
Q To what district in the Cherokee Nation did she belong? A Delaware.
Q Are you making appliction for any one besides yourself?
A Yes sir.
Q For whom? A For my family.
Q What does your family consist of? A One child.
Q Are you making any application for your husband? A Yes sir.
Q What is your husband's name? A William T. Partin.
Q Is your husband a white ma n? A Yes sir.
Q When did you marry William T. Partin? A In 1895.
Q Where? A Skiatook. We were married over. We got license from Claremore and we were married at Skiatook Indian Mission.
Q You were married first under United States law? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married under United States law? A In 1895
Q Have you your marriage license and c ertificate? A We got them stolen. I have got a copy the preacher gave us we enrolled from the other time. I don't know whether it will pass this time or not, but we have several witnesses that we were married. They were stolen and we never offered a reward for them, but our marriage is recorded on the book, in Book No 3, some place. Mr. Johnson knows about when Willie got his license.
Q Where did he procure his license? At Claremore.
Q From whom? A From Lahay, if I am not mistaken.
Q Where was the record of this marriage recorded? A At Claremore.
Q Have'nt you a copy of the license? A Nothing more than this. (exhibiting paper) They got stolen and of course the preacher that married us give us this. Our marriage is recorded on the book at Claremore.

1896 roll page 232 No 2770 (5770) Malvina Partin, Cooweescoowee District.

Q Your husband was enrolled in 1896, was'nt he? A Yes sir, I suppose so he was with me.

The name of the applicant is found on the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation as Melvina Blythe, and on the 1896 census roll as Malvina Partin. She having established the fact of her residence in the Indian Territory in accordance with the law, will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Her husband, William T. Partin, for whom application is made as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and to whom she avers she was married according to the Cherokee law November 30th, 1895, will be listed upon a doubtful card by this Commission, awaiting the presentation of either the original or a certified copy of the records, of the marriage license and certificate, by which she and William T. Partin became man and wife, under the laws of the Cherokee Nation.

The enrollment of her infant child, Everett Theodore Partin, will be made by the Commission. The applicant offers an affidavit of his mother and Sylvia Partin as to the birth of this child. The same being in proper form, it will be filed with the records of the Commission, and this child will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Cherokee No. 4303

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Dewey, I. T., October 16, 1902.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY AND PROCEEDINGS, in the matter of the application of JAMES H. STOKES, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation; being sworn and examined, he testified as follows:

BY COMMISSION:

Q What is your name? A James H. Stokes.
Q How old are you? A 41.
Q What is your post-office address? A Dewey, I. T., or Bartlesville, either one, Indian Territory; and I get mail at Ramona.
Q You live in Cooweescoowee District? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Before we was married, Georgia A. Russell.
Q You are a white man, and she is a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q How many children have you? A Two.
Q What are their names? A Olive M. Stokes and Gretta E. Stokes.
Q They are both living now and living with you, and your wife? A Yes, they are in Kansas City at school now, but they are living here.
Q When were youmarried to your wife, Georgia A.? A 1883 I think it was, we was married first in Missouri, and then married according to Cherokee law little bit later; I think it was 1883.
Q Were you ever married before you married her? A No sir.
Q Was she ever married before she married you? A No sir.
Q Since your marriage to her haveyou lived with her continuously as husband andwife? A Yes sir.
Q Since your marriage to her you and she have always lived in the Cherokee Nation, have you? A Yes sir.
Q You have never been out to live any time since then? A Not any more than one summer. We lived up at Caney, Kansas, for the school, just temporarily, through the summer; we just moved back up there to send the children to school, I had cattle south of Arkansas City, that summer, and I was out there a good deal, and we lived at Caney that summer, and sent the children to school and came back that fall; that was along about 1893 I think.
Q How many months did you live up there at that time? A I think we were there about eight months.
Q Did you have your household effects and everything up there? A No, we kept house too, but never moved our household effects away from here, that is moved our household effects away from here any more than just a part, just what we could get along with up there.
Q That is the only time you have ever been out of the Cherokee Nation to live since your marriage to your wife? A Yes sir, I all the time maintained a residence here; I was farming here that summer; I had in about a thousand acres of corn here near Dewey.
Q Your two children who are now in Kansas City how long have they been there? A They come home every vacation and stay; they have been going to school there two years; one of them has been there two years and the other one has been a year; they went back the first of September; come home the first of July and went back the first of September; they will stay now until Christmas, and come home and stay about two weeks, and then go back; they have about a ten months school.
Q They make their home with you in the Cherokee Nation all the time? A Yes sir.

JAMES H. REQUA, being sworn and examined, testified as follows:
BY COMMISSION:
Q What is your name? A James H. Requa.
Q How old are you? A Thirty.
Q What is your post-office address? A Dewey, I. T.
Q You are acquainted with James H. Stokes? A Yes sir.
Q You know his wife? A Yes sir.
Q What is her name? A Georgia.
Q He is a white man and she is a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know when they were married? A No, they were married before ever I knowed them, I have heard her say they was married just when she was a little girl.
Q So far as you know have they lived together continuously as man and wife, since they were married? A I have heard this, just what I tell you exactly; Jim would get to drinking, she said she wouldn't stand it, and she would go off some place, and he would go and take the Keeley cure, and that would settle it, and she would come back.
Q How many times have they been separated in this manner? A All I know about it, two; they might have been separated forty times and I not know it; they get along all right so far as I know; I used to run Bartles' pasture and boarded and stayed there one summer.
Q How long were they separated each time of the two times that you know? A I couldn't tell you; I know it takes a month to take the Keeley cure, and I know before he came home she was at home and had everything in running order, before he got back; but the time, I don't know, whether it was a month or a week.
Q When they separated did she leave first or did he go off and take Keeley cure and she stay at home? A It is all talk with me, I heard it stated that Jim Stokes and his wife separated, and she had gone back to her folks in Missouri.
Q Do you know that she did leave home? A Yes, I know that she left home the first time; I understand she went to Missouri; and the second time she left where they were living and came up here on the farm; this is what she calls home; this old ranch place.
Q How long ago was the first time that they were separatedin that manner? A I don't remember, it must be about close to five years.
Q And when was the second time they separated, in this manner? A I couldn't tell you about that.
Q When is this second time youare talking about? A This last spring; she might have been there when he come, I don't know; it was this last spring, 1902; I don't know the month nor the date of the month. Mrs. Stokes never told me that her and Jim Stokes had separated, nor Mr. Stokes never told me that him and his wife had separated, but I have heard it from other people.
Q Mr . Stokes and his wife both have lived in the Cherokee Nation since you have known them have they? A They have lived here since 1890, I know, because I have been acquainted with them that long.

Dewey, I. T., October 17,1902.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW. That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED. That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al vs the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Bartlesville, I.T. October 10th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF WILLIAM A. LONG FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HIMSELF AND WIFE AS CHEROKEE CITIZENS.

The said William A. Long, being sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, was examined by the Commission, and testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A William A. Long.
Q What is your age? A Fifty.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Dewey.
Q Are you a resident of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you resided here? A About ten years.
Q Maintained a continuous residence here for the past ten years? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you been outside of the Indian Territory during the past three years? A I have been to Coffeyville.
Q You never maintained a residence elsewhere? A No, sir.
Q Do you apply for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your father's name? A John C. Long.
Q Is he a white man? A Yes, sir.
Q Is he living? A No. He is dead.
Q What is your mother's name? A Caroline.
Q Is she living? A No, sir.
Q Was she a white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q Through whom do you claim your rights to intermarried citizenship among the Cherokees? A My wife.
Q What is her name? A Eliza Long.
Q What was her maiden name? A McCay.
Q Where did you marry her? A In Vinita.
Q When? A In 1890.
Q You were married to her in accordance with the Cherokee laws? A Yes, sir, by Chamberlain, deputy Clerk.
Q Have you your certificate of marriage and marriage license? A I have a copy here of the license and the certificate.
Q What is your wife's age? A Fifty.
Q Is she a native Cherokee? A Yes, I suppose so.
Q To what district of the Cherokee Nation does she belong? A Cooweescoowee. She lives in that District.
Q What is her father's name? William P. McCay.
Q Is he living? A No, sir; I think he is dead.
Q Was he a white man? A I think he was.
Q What is your wife's mother's name? A Jane Lowther,
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A I guess so.
Q To what district does she belong? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Have you any children? A No, sir.
Q Are you making this application for yourself and your wife? A Yes, sir.

There is offered in evidence as proof of the marriage between the applicant and his wife, a certified copy of the records of Cooweescoowee District, Cherokee Nation, of marriage license and certificate between Mrs. Eliza Blosser, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and W. A. Long, a citizen of the United States, and also certificate of W. C. Chamberlin, deputy Clerk Cooweescoowee District, Cherokee Nation, as to the marriage of Eliza Blosser and W. A. Long on the 17th day of April, 1890.

MRS. Eliza Long, being sworn by the Commissioner, and examined by the Commission, testified as follows: Did your former husband die before you married this husband? A No, sir; me and him separated and then I got a divorce in 188 or 1889.

Q Have you a copy of those papers? A (No response)

Is your first husband dead now? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your first husband's name? A Emanuel Blosser.

Q Is he living? A No, sir; he is dead now.

Q When did he die? A He died in--I think in the summer of 1890, in August.

Q He died then after your marriage to your second husband? A Yes, sir; a few months.

Q Were you living with him as man and wife at the time of his death? A Living with Blosser?

Q Yes. A No, sir.

Q Had you separated from him? A Yes, sir.

Q Had you a divorce? A Yes, sir; here is evidence of it.

There is offered in evidence a certified copy of the records of the Circuit Court of Cooweescoowee District, Cherokee Nation, granting a divorce to Eliza Blosser from Emanuel Blosser, the 9th day of September, 1889.

1880 roll, page 70, No. 277, Lizzie Blossey, Cooweescoowee District. Native Cherokee.

1896 Roll, page 139, No. 2845, Eliza Long, Cooweescoowee District.

The applicant appears on behalf of himself and his wife, Eliza Long, he making application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and on behalf of his wife as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The name of his wife appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Lizzie Blossey, and on the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation as Eliza Long as a native Cherokee, and the name of her husband appears upon the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation as an intermarried white.. There is offered in evidence certified copies of the records of the marriage between the applicant and his wife in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, and sufficient evidence having been adduced as to their residence in the Cherokee Nation for the time provided by law, they will be listed for enrollment by this Commission, the applicant as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and his wife, Eliza Long, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

----o----

The undersigned being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this application for enrollment, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of William A. Long et al., Straight Cherokee Card #4304, applicant re-called by the Cherokee Nation for further cross examination.

Cherokee Nation represented by W. W. Hastings & J.L.Baugh.

William A. Long being first duly sworn by Commissioner T. B. Needles testified as follows:

(By Hastings)

Q What is your name? A William A. Long.
Q What is your post office address? A Dewey, Indian Territory.
Q Are you the same William A. Long that applied at Bartlesville for citizenship on the 10th of October a year ago to day? A Yes sir, I guess so, I was enrolled there.
Q What is your age? A 51.
Q What is your father's name? A John C. Long.
Q What is your mother's name? A Caroline.
Q How long have you been living at Dewey? A Since the Spring on '98 , I bought the place there in March.
Q Did you go there then March of '98? A Yes sir.
Q How many years last March? A Three years.
Q Last March or next March? A This is three years, it will be three years next March.
Q You went there then in March of '99? A No sir in '98; Spring of '99 is one year, spring of '90 is two years and spring of '91 is three years
Q When did you move on that place? A Four or five days after I bought it.
Q How many crops have you made on it? A Three crops.
Q You must have gone on it in '99 then? A No sir in '98; spring of '99 would be one year and the spring of 1900 would be two years and the spring of 1901 would be three years.
Q You are positive that you have made four crops on that place? A Yes sir this will be four crops if I figure right.
Q Where did you move from when you moved to Dewey? A We lived at Vinita,went over there in the spring of '98.
Q Did you go from Vinita to Dewey? A No sir, from Coffeyville; I bought the place in March and my wife came over on——I dont know if she came the last of March of the first of April——I went and taken possession of the place and then she went to Colorado and lived there in '98 and came back in the fall and was under the doctors care in Coffeyville and they advised me to send her back as she was suffering from lung trouble, and I sent her there the next year and I lived on the place.
Q Where did you live prior to your marriage to your wife? A In Kansas
Q Where in Kansas? A Coffeyville, two summers I was in Texas but Coffeyville was my home.
Q Was there a suit in Montgomery County Kansas brought against you by John T. Wettock? A Yes sir.
Q When was that case tried? A I believe it was in '99.
Q I would like for you to be as positive as you can. A One case at Fort Scott and one case at Independence Kansas.
Q This case was tried before A. H. Skidmore as Judge ? A Yes, that was in 99.
Q Where was you living at that time? A On my place.
Q Where? A Dewey.
Q How long had you been living there then? A Bought the place in March of '98 and went there then, my wife was in Colorado in '98 and '99.
Q Well, didn't you testify in that case in your own behalf? A Yes sir at Fort Scott and Independence both.
Q I will ask you if you didn't say then during the progress of that trial,in answer to this question: " Where do you reside Mr.Long? " if you didn't answer that " I reside in Coffeyville Kansas. "
A Yes sir, but I can explain it this way: The farm I owned was close to Coffeyville, Kansas and the suit was brought there in Kansas ---some of the time---I will tell you how this was: when I was on the Dewey place, I lived there all the time except when I would go away on business, I was in Coffeyville on business several times,I was there in '99;some times I was up there and some times I was on my place;I called Dewey my home and I might have answered that question that way. Some times I would go there a stay a month at Coffeyville,I might have answered that question that way,but I wasn't a resident there.

Q I will ask you if following that question, if in answer to this question " How long have you lived there? " you answered this: " I have lived there in and about there for 18 or 20 years. " A Yes sir

Q Didn't you own a farm at that time within two miesof the city of Coffeyville Kansas? A Yes sir---I went up there once in '97 fishing and camping there for a couple of weeks.--

Q Wasn't this suit in reference to some mortgage on that very farm? A Yes sir,given before my marriage on an old cattle deal.

Q Didn't you claim that place in Kansas as a homestead? A Yes sir as a homestead, it was a farm that I owned at that time.

Q That was the reason that it involved the question of your residence on that farm because you claimed it as a homestead? A My lawyers done that, they claimed that I could hold it as a homestead; I didn't live there; they made that pleading.

Q You admit that you answered the question as to how long you had lived there, that you answered about 18 years? A Yes sir I came there to that country 18 years ago.

Q AS a matter of fact from June '96 to December '99 didn't you live there on that farm in Kansas and cultivate it? A No sir I never plowed a furrow there and haven't for ten years.

Q I will ask you if Thomas Houck didn't tend the place for you? A Yes sir he did; the bank wanted to rent it for a long time and finally they said to get some good man to rent it and they got the rent.

Q Didn't you have your household effects there during that time on that farm? A No sir we never took anything up there ; we was up in there in '97 camping and fishing and staying in a tent that Mr. Isabel let us have, a whole family of us, we went up there in the fall and staid two months about. My wife was out in Colorado in '98 and '99 and I was staying there on the place in Dewey, and I would go to Coffeyville on business some times, but Dewey was my home.

Q Then it is not a fact that in '99 during that trial that you was living in Coffeyville Kansas? A I had a room down there in Dewey and I was in Coffeyville and in Fort Scott too on business, looking up witnesses in this case, would stay there a week or ten days at a time and come back to my place at Dewey. As far as living at Coffeyville then, I never did it; I stopped there in my tent for a couple of months in '97 fishing and camping.

Q From whom did you purchase that place near Dewey? A J. D. Blosser

Q You claim that you bought it in the spring of '98? A Yes sir I have the bill of sale and I think that it was the spring of '98 in March I think.

FILED
OCT 21 1901

[illegible]

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I.T., October 21, 1901.

In the matter of the application of William A. Long et al for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearances:
W. H. Kornegay, attorney for applicant;
J. L. Baugh, Cherokee representative.

JOHN T. WETTACK, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr.Baugh: What is your name? A John T. Wettack.
Q What is your age? A My age is 59.
Q Where do you live? A I live in Coffeyville, Kansas.
Q About how long have you lived there, Mr. Wettack? A I have lived there; well I moved there in '93, spring of '93, it would be eight years past.
Q Are you acquainted with Mr. William A. Long? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known Mr. Long? A I have known him for about eight years.
Q Where did you first get acquainted with him at? A I got acquainted with him in Coffeyville, Kansas.
Q Was he living in Coffeyville, Kansas, at that time, or near there? A No, sir, no, I think he was then living in Vinita.
Q Has he ever lived near Coffeyville, Kansas? A Yes, sir.
Q About when did he first live there to yourknowledge? A He moved on a farm near Coffeyville in about June, 1896.
Q Well, do you know whether or not Mr. Long has lived continuously or did live continuously for how long? A He lived there continuously for about three years.
Q About when did he move back to the Cherokee Nation? A I think he moved back in about November, 1899.
Q Well, did you have any conversation with him at that time relative to his residence and his citizenship? A Yes, sir, I had several conversations with him.
Q Well, just state what the conversations were that you had with him? A I can only tell them in about ~~substance~~ substance.
Q Well, just as near as you can? A It is hard to tell exactly unless I give sorter of a recital of our business between us.
Q Well, did you have any business transactions with him then?
A Yes, sir.
Q What were the nature of those transactions? A Well, it is mostly with reference to a law suit that was pending against him and the first National Bank of Coffeyville.
Q Well, I will ask you in connection with that, did you have a mortgage on his place in Kansas at that time? Or the First National Bank did? A Yes, sir, the First National Bank did, and the Eastern Loan Company had a mortgage.
Q Well, I will ask this question: What is your occupation now?
A I am cashier of the First National Bank of Coffeyville, Kansas.
Q Well, now in reference to the business transaction, did Mr. Long give you to understand that his residence was in Kansas and that he intended to keep it up?

Mr.Kornegay: I object to that as being leading.

Commissioner: Let the witness state what Mr. Long said in regard to his residence, and what impression it had on his mind.

A Mr. Long was threatened with foreclosure suit by the Eastern Loan Company, and he desires me to protect him, and he paid me, or gave a new mortgage on his farm and I lifted his previous indebtedness on the farm, and he promised to pay me at certain periods, told me that on account of this suit he had some delicacy in paying off the debt at once, and that the party suing him might take the land; he told me that he went into the Territory to recoup his losses that he made in the state and that he always intended that this land should be his home, and his homestead, and he aimed to redeem the mortgage that the Eastern Loan had and the First National Bank just as soon as he could do so with safety, and make it his homestead.

Q From that you understood that his citizenship was in Kansas?

Mr. Kornegay: I object to that.

Commissioner: He will state the fact.

A All I learned from the conversation was that he aimed to retain that farm as his home.

Q Well you know anyway that he was living there from 1896 up to sometime the latter part of 1899? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Kornegay: Who cultivated the farm in 1896? A Why the gentlemen that rented it, his name I forget.

Q Who cultivated it in 1897? A I think Mr. Houk.

Q Who cultivated it in 1898? A The same man.

Q The fact of the business is, Long never did cultivate it during any of this time, did he? A Well, he always rented the cultivated lands.

Q He rented it? A Yes.

Q Well now you know what interests he had down in the Nation during that time? A Don't know anything about his interests in the Nation.

Q How far was the farm from Coffeyville? A About two or three miles.

Q How many times were you on that farm in 1897? A Well, I can't say as to that.

Q Weren't there at all? A Yes, sir, I was there every year.

Q Well, about how often? A Oh, two or three times a year.

Q Two or three times a year was the extent of it? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, do you know whether or not Mr. Long didn't have a farm down in the Nation during that time and that he was back and forth looking after that farm? A I don't know anything about his interests in the Nation.

Q You don't know anything about his living down there on the Bartlesville place do you? A No, sir, don't remember.

Q Don't know anything about that? A No, sir.

Q Never kept up with Long very much? A Yes, sir, kept up very closely with him.

Q All you know about it is he lived on that place? A Yes, sir.

Q Lived there all the time? A Yes, sir, three years continuously.

Q Where was his wife? A His wife was with him most of the time.

Q During what years? A From June, 1896, continuously to about November, 1899.

Q Did he live in the house on the place? A Yes, sir, lived in the house on the place.

Q Anybody else live there? A No, sir, nobody else lived there.

Q None at all during that time? A No, sir, there was only one house on there and only one family lived there.

Q You don't know anything about his living there in the Nation at that time? A No, sir, nobody else does, I don't suppose.

Q Don't know anything about it? A No, sir.

Q Why are you so positive about nobody else knowing about these things; what have you got against Mr. Long? A Because he lived on his farm in Kansas.

Q Your relations towards him are not very friendly? A No, sir, he tried to swindle me out of $3500 claiming that land as his homestead.

Q You beat him on that? A Yes, sir.

Q You proved it wasn't his homestead? A No, I didn't prove anything.

Q You beat him on that very contention? A I beat him because he owed me.

Q You proved that it wasn't his homestead? A No, sir, I proved nothing except that he owed me.

Q You proved nothing except that he owed you? A Yes, sir, that is what I proved.

Mr. Baugh: We have got another witness in this case; he isn't here yet.

---0---

Testimony introduced on behalf of the applicant.

JOHN HOTSON, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Kornegay: What is your name and postoffice? A John Hotson; Vera is my postoffice.

Q Do you know W. A. Long? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A A little over three years, about three years and a half.

Q What time did you become acquainted with him? A In the spring of '98.

Q Where was he at that time? A He was on his farm up there about Bartlesville.

Q Was he living there? A I suppose he was, he had a bed there that he called his and he roomed there and had his team there and had them in the barn.

Q You know whether or not he had any portion of the barn specially reserved for himself? A Yes, sir.

Q You know about a room that he had there, or anything about that? A Yes, sir, there was a room up stairs in the house that he occupied all the time he was there.

Q Who received the rents that year down there? A Long did himself.

Q What did he do with them? A I can't tell you what he did with them; he stored the grain.

Q On whose place, where did he store it, in the granary on the farm? A Yes, sir, he had one third of all the granary room.

Q Do you know whether he worked on the place, made repairs, etc.? A Yes, sir.

Q What time in the spring was it that you got acquainted with him and know he was there? A In May, 1898.

Mr. Baugh: Mr. Hotson, when did you say Mr. Long came to his place on the Caney? A I can't tell you when he came, I went to that farm and met him there, went to work on the farm.

Q Were you his renter? A No, sir, I worked for the renter.

Q Well, Mr. Long didn't have possession of that place at that time, did he, he only had a room, isn't that a fact? A I suppose he had possession, he had a renter and he stayed there.

Q Where was his family? A His wife was in Colorado, she went in June.

Commissioner: What June, June before? A No, sir, the June after I got acquainted with him, she was sick at the time.

Mr. Baugh: Was his wife living with him on the place? A No, sir.

Q Do you know where she was at? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Then it is a fact that Mr. Long didn't live there, only just stayed there temporarily? A Why he had the farm rented and he made his home there, he was there about half the time.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of William A. Long et al., Cherokee Straight Card #4304. SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY

Appearances:
J. L. Baugh for the Cherokee Nation
W. H. KORNEGAY for the applicant.

THOMAS HOUCK being first duly sworn by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows on the part of the Cherokee Nation:
(By Baugh)
Q What is your name? A Thomas Houck.
Q How old are you? A 58.
Q Where do you live? A Three and a half miles souh east of Coffeyville
Q How long have you lived there? A 7 years.
Q Do you know a man named William A. Long? A Yes sir.
Q And his wife? A Yes sir.
Q What is his wife's name? A Eliza
Q Did you ever rent a farm from William A. Long in the State of Kansas? A Yes sir.
Q When? A In the fall of '65 I put in a crop of wheat.
Q In '65? A I mean '95; I sowed a crop in the fall of '95—wheat.
Q Who was working with you at the time you rented the farm—did you rent it for yourself, or with some one else? A My son and I worked it together,we rented it in partnership.
Q Do you remember how long you remained there as Mr. Long's tenant?
Q The last crop we put in——in '99 was the last crop we put in.
Q During the time that you lived on the farm did Mr. Long live there also on the farm? A Yes sir—I didn't live on the farm, I lived on the Reed farm and only farmed the Long farm; we couldn't get possession of the house on the Long farm, he had possession of the house all the time.
Q Why couldn't you get possession? A Because he said he had to have possession as Whitake was going to bring suit against him and he wanted it as his homestead.
Q Did he live there when you rented it? A No sir he lived here in Vinita then I think.
Q When did he come there after that? A In 1896.
Q Who was living there when you rented itfrom him? A A man named Pepper; he wouldn't rent me the house and so I sub rented the house to Pepper with the understanding that when Long moved up he was to have the house right away.
Q When Mr. Long moved up in '96 did he get possession of the house? A In about a month; he had a tent there; I loaned him the tent, and he pitched it on the place and lived in it for a month unil Pepper got out.
Q Did he move his household goods in that tent? A Yes sir.
Q How long did he live in that house after that,after he moved in?
Q Until long in '99—no '98 I think it was.
Q I will ask you if you ever went to him and made a proposition to him to allow your son to move in the house in which he lived any time during the year '99? A No sir it was in '98, in the fall of '98—or was it '99?—I am so forgetful—anyway it was the last crop we put in on the place, I made him a proposition one Sunday morning if he would let my son live in the house while he was prepairing the ground to sow wheat, my son had got married then and was living four miles from this place and it was inconvenient for him to come so far to work and so I wanted to get him the house to live in while he was breaking the ground and I asked Mr. Long about it and he said for me to come back the next Tuesday and that he would let me know, that he would have to consult his lawyer first before he would give me an answer.
Q Did he afterwards come back and let you have the house? A He came back on Thursday and said that Will, that's my son, could live there but that he must not bring any of his own household goods in there, not as much as a waterbucket.

Q Had William A. Lane been living in the State of Kansas and on that place from harvest time in '96 until the time you speak of? A Yes sir, made his continuous residence there.
Q Do you know when he left up there? A Long late in the fall , in November, getting cold weather.
Q What year? A Make it the year of---let's see---that would be in the fall or winter of '98— I am a poor hand to figure dates— yes that was about the time---when Mr. Whitake got possession of the place.
Q When did Mr. Whitake get posession of the place? A When my son moved in the house Mr. Whitake---
Q I simply want to know when it was that Mr. Whitake got possession of the place is all? A That winter, in '98.
Q In the winter of '98? A Yes sir winter or fall, cold weather.
(By Mr. Karnegay)
Q Was Mr. Lng at all times on the place---wasn't he away from it a good deal of the time? A Only to town and back is all.
Q Didn't he come to the Territory during that time? A Yes sir he w would occasionally take a trip here and be gone a day or two two or three days.
Q Did he have any interests in the Territory at that time? A Yes sir he claimed he had.
Q Where? A Claimed he had a farm near Vinita.
Q Any where else? A Long later he claimed he had bought the Joel O Mack place.
Q He always claimed during that time that he had interests down here and would be occasionally down here? A Yes sir he would come and see about his rents when he thought they were harvesting, and he would get me to do his chores around the place there.
Q Who else occupied that house besides Lane? A No body.
Q Didn't Joe Blosser occupy it? A No sir it was locked up except when his wife came up, she came once and staid at my house.
Q When Mr. Land was there was she always on the place? A She was there all the time.
Q Who was there all the time? A Mrs. Lane.
Q From when was she there all the time? A From '96.
Q What time in '96? A Middle of June.
Q Continuously until '98? A Yes sir.
Q Never was away during that time? A Yes,occasionally they would be gone and drive away for a day in the country there.
Q You are positive of that are you? A Yes sir I lived within one mile of them.
Q And you know positively that Mrs. Lane lived on that place continuously from the middle of June '96 until '98? A Yes sir.
QWhat is the state of your feelings towards Mr. Lane? A I think Mr Land is as good a neighbor as I ever ~~had~~ lived beside of.
Q How came you to come down here this time? A I was subpoenaed.
Q Wasn't you subpoenaed at the instance of Morris Knight wh has a suit now against Mr. Lane? A The first I knew of this I got a letter from Mr. Starr wanting me to make a statement as to how long Lane lived there and and if he had made a continuous residence there during the time he was there; I didn't pay much attention to it for some time until one day I went to the bank on some business and I said to Mr. Whitake that I had this lettere and he said to make a statement and then he made it out for me and mailed it, and the next I knew I got a subpoena.
Q Both you and Mr. Whitake volunteered to make affidavits in the case of Blosser and Long, that is true isn't it? A Yes sir.
(By Mr. Baugh)
Q You know that he did live there from '96 to '98? A I do for I lived close neighbors to him.

Vinita, I.T., October 30, 1901.

In the matter of the application of William A. Long, et al., for enrollment as Cherokee citizens.

TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF THE CHEROKEE NATION.

Appearances:
W.H.Kornegay, attorney for theapplicant, and applicant in person.
W.W.Hastings, of attorneys for the Cherokee Nation.

LAURA MACK, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Laura Mack.
Q What is your age, Madam? A 38 .
Q What is your post-office? A Ramona, Indian Territory.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q How long has Ramona been your post-office? A Since the 10th of October.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.
Q Is your husband alive or dead? A Dead.
Q What was his name? A Joel O. Mack.
Q He was killed I believe, in 1897? A Yes sir.
Q Where was your husband living, you and your husband living at the time of his death? A At the time of his death we resided in Independence, Kansas. He held a right on a farm near Dewey, Indian Territory; it wasn't any Dewey then, it was Bartlesville; had his stock there and held his rights there, but he had a renter on the place.
Q Did you ever reside on that farm? A Yes sir.
Q Had you resided on it prior to that time? A Yes sir.
Q When did you begin to reside on it ? A It was in the fall of '85.
Q Do youknow the applicant here, W. A. Long? I met him, yes sir.
Q You know his wife? A Yes sir.
Q What was his wife's name when you first knew her? A Blosser.
Q Eliza Blosser? A Yes sir.
Q Was that her married name or her maiden name? A Her married name as I understood it.
Q What was her husband's name at that time? A Emanuel Blosser.
Q Had Emanuel Blosser and Eliza Blosser any children? A Yes sir.
Q What were their names? A Joe D. Blosser.
Q Well now when did you go upon this place out near Bartlesville that you spoke of? A It was in the fallof '85 that I went there, but my husband he went there the spring before and opened the place.
Q Had Eliza Long married her present husband then, W.A.Long?
A No sir.
Q To whom was shemarried at that time? A Emanuel Blosser.
Q Do you know what time your husband made a contract to go upon that place as you stated? A Yes sir.
Q That contract reduced to writing? A Yes sir.
Q Have you it with you? A No sir.
Q What became of it? A Last I knew of it it was in Mr. Hutchingson's hands at Muskogee, I think that's the lawyer's name,-Hutchings.
Q Have you seen it since? A No sir.
Q Did you try to get a copy of it? A No sir.
Q Have you seen any of the pleadings in a civil suit an answer of which he filed for you or for your husband? A No, I don't think I ever did.
Q You don't know whether that was filed with it or not? A No sir.
Q Well, were you present when this contract was made? A I heard the contract talked over; I wasn't present when it was made but I was present when it was signed.

Q Well who signed it? A Mrs. Blosser and her husband and my husband, and I think Mr. McKay, Mrs. Blosser's brother, but I want be positive about that.
Q What was the contract about? A It was about taking a piece of land and improving it.
Q For whom?
MR. KORNEGAY: I object; the contract should be in evidence; the testimony should not be taken as to the contents of it.
COM'R BRECKINRIDGE: Objection willbe noted.
A J. D. Blosser.
MR. KORNEGAY: We note an exception.
Q Now tell under his objection what were the conditions of that contract and what was it? A Well I couldn't tell everything that wassaid, but we was to have a piece of land, fence it, break it out and make improvements and have the use of it for 15 years, and at the end of that time it was to be Joe D. Blosser's farm. It was always understood to be Joe D. Blosser.
Q Emanuel Blosser was his father? A Yes sir.
Q And Eliza was the mother of Joe D.? A Yes sir, I always so understood it.
Q Was Joe D., of age at that time?A No sir.
Q A minor?A Yes sir.
Q Well how long did you continue to live upon this place?A We lived there from the fall of '85 untilthe fall of '99, with the exception of about six months that I was at Independence, schooling the children.
Q That was in 1897? A Yes sir.
Q What time in the fall of 1899 did you leave the place? A In November, the 26th.
Q Were you upon this place all of the year of 1898? A Yes sir.
Q And all of the year of 1899 up until November 26? A Yes sir.
Q How far is this place located from where Dewey now is, and in what direction? A It is east and a little south.
Q Well about how far? A Oh it isn't- about half a mile, hardly a quarter; it takes about 10 minutes to walk up there, I understand the town site survey runs right up on the place.
Q I will ask you if William A. Long, withhis wife Eliza Long, ever lived upon that place during the year of 1898 or the year of 1899, up until you left there in November, 26th? AThey never did.
Q Did Mr. Long have a room down there? A No sir.
Q Did he have any furniture down there? A No sir.
Q Did he have any bedding?A No sir.
Q Did he reserve part of the barn for his use? A No sir.
Q You were there I believe until November 26, 1899? A Yes sir.
Q His wife ever live down there during those two years up until that time? A On that farm?
Q Yes ma'am? A No sir.
Q Well was it understood that- you ever saw him down there at any time?A Well at one time he was there and made some repairs on the grainary, and he may have been there a week, possibly 10 days, I don't think over that time, I don't know, it was quite a little while, several days.
Q With whom did he eat at that time? A He eat with me at my table.
Q Upon whose bed did he sleep? A Mine, I owned the bed.
Q Never kept any room? A No sir.
Q Did he bring anything down there with him in the way of furniture or clothing or anything of that kind? A I never saw any of it.
Q Did you ever see him bring a change of clothing down there?
A Never did.
Q Did he ever have any washing done down there? A Yes, one time I let him have a shirt of my brother's and washed his so he would be clean; he had that washing done there, for I did it.

Q Where washe living in '98 and '9? A Indeed I couldn't say, he told me he lived at Coffeyville.
Q Kansas?A Yes sir.
Q When did he tell you that' A Oh several times; in fact he always referred to living there when he would be down on the place; he was there several times.
Q Did you ever have any correspondence with him? A Yes sir, I received one or two letters from him,Qpostmarked Coffeyville? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever hear him say anything about having a homestead up there near Coffeyville, in Kansas? A Said he owned a farm up there.
Q Made no declaration about keeping it as a homestead that you know of? A I don't know as I ever heard it referred to as a homestead, but he called it a farm and a home.

BY MR. KORNEGAY:

Q Mrs. Mack, how did you occupy the place in the year 1898, under whom? A Why from George Crooks.
Q You rentedit from George Crooks? A Yes sir, I had it under George Crooks.
Q Who did he hold it under? A Our administrator, Wilhite, my husband's administrator; or at least Wilhite and Crooks made the contract, and the understanding was I was to have as much ground as I wanted under the same contract, that Crooks made with Wilhite, I was to have half or as much of the farm as I wanted and I dealt with Crooks.
Q I will get you to look at this and see if that isn't your signature by which you held it that year,under that contract?
(Hands witness paper.)
A Yes, that is my signature and this is the contract that Crooks-
Q What is the date of that contract? A It says the 22nd, 1897.
Q Of what? A This says '97.
Q Whow as to get the rent under that contract , examine it and see.

MR. KORNEGAY: We introduce that contract:

United States Court in Indian Territory, sitting in and for the Northern District thereof, at Vinita.

In the matter of the Estate of Joel O. Mack, deceased. Stipulation signed by all the parties in interest in filedin this case under and by virtue of an order of court under date of the 21st day of December, A.D.,1897, at Vinita.

This Agreement, made and entered into on this the 22 day of December, A.D.,1897, by and between Ola Wilhite, Administrator of the Estate of Joel O. Mack, deceased, and a citizen of the United States, and residing 2 1/2 miles north-east of Bartlesville, I.T., and within the Northern District of the Indian Territory, and George Crooks, a citizen of the United States and residing within said District and Territory aforesaid, three miles north-east of Bartlesville, I.T., partiesof the first part, and Mrs. Eliza Long, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, residing at vinita,I.T., party of the second part,

WITNESSETH: That said party of the first part, for and in consideration of crops raised on the farm known as the Blosser place, and occupied by Joel O. Mack in his life time, the same being about 600 acres situate about 2 miles north-east of Bartlesville, I.T., for the years 1896 and 1897, same to be delivered to said parties of the first part, Ola Wilhite, Administrator of the Estate of Joel O. Mack, deceased, for the use and benefit of said estate by the party of the second part, Mrs. Eliza Long, and for and in consideration of the renting of said farm aforesaid by the said second party, Mrs. Eliza Long, to the party of the first part,

George Crooks, for the year beginning January 1st, 1898, and ending the rental of the wheat and small grain land as soon as the same is off of the ground and ending the rental of the corn land the first day of March, A.D., 1899, the said first party, George Crooks, in consideration of the above, hereby expressly agrees to pay to the said party of the second part, Mrs. Eliza Long, one-third of all the small grain raised on said farm aforesaid for the crop year of 1898 in half-bushels, and one-third of all the corn raised on said place aforesaid for the crop year of 1898 in the cribs on said place, and he further agrees to give the full and complete possession of this entire farm free from all tenants to said second party on the 1st day of March, 1899, said possession to be feasible and without recourse to law.

Said party of the first part, George Crooks, further agrees to give to said secondparty, Mrs. Eliza Long, one third of all hay raised and put up on said place in the stack and to give to said secondparty one-third of the corn-stalks, with the privilege retained to said first party to buy the said one-third of corn stalks from said second party at the market price, and to give said second party one third of all straw from the small grain, ~~threshed~~ provided that if said second party wants one third of said straw she will agree to pay for the stacking of same.

For and in consideration of the use of the pastures on said place said first party, George Crooks, is to have free use of same, provided that said first party, George Crooks, is to keep all the fences on said place in first class order at all times and in good repair.

The said second party agrees to take out necessary permits for said first party George Crooks and the tenants that he may put on said place under him, provided, that said George Crooks is to pay for all of said permits, which he hereby agrees to do, and to keep paid up promptly, as required by law.

In consideration of the above, the said second party, Mrs. Eliza Long, for herself and for her son, J.D.Blosser, who has agreed with said party of the first part, Ola Wilhite, Administrator of the Estate of Joel O. Mack, deceased, that she will bring no suit for damages against said estate, and that said J.D.Blosser will bring no suit for damages against said estate, and that the crops of 1896 and 1897 shall be the absolute property of the said estate from the time that this contract is ratified and signed by the parties hereto and filed of record in this case.

The said Ola Wilhite, administrator of the estate of Joel O. Mack, deceased, hereby expressly agrees on the signing and filing of this stipulation to release said place from the administration forever, hereby ratifying all the things contained in the above contract and attached agreement, and expressly agrees that if this contract is faithfully observed by all the parties hereto the same shall be and remain in full force and effect, and that if any of the terms of said contract are broken by said parties hereto the same shall become alienable and the immediate possession of the place shall be given to the said second party, Mrs. Eliza Long, or she shall have the right to recover the same by law as if or by unlawful detainor.

We have the day and year first above written set our hands and affixed our seals to this instrument.

WITNESS our hands and seals this the 22nd day of December, 1897.

Ola Wilhite, Administrator of the Estate of Joel O.Mack, deceased.
George J. Crooks,
Eliza Long, for herself and son,
J. D. Blosser.

I hereby agree that my mother, Mrs. Eliza Long, shall sign the above contract for me and matters pertaining to me.
J.D.Blosser.

Bartlesville, I.T., December.

I, Mrs. Laura Mack, widow of Joel O. Mack, deceased, do hereby expressly agree to the terms of this contract as set forth in same, and I further agree to relinquish all claim to the possession and use of said farm that I might have under or by virtue of my deceased husband, Joel O. Mack, and to deliver possession of that part of said place and the improvements that may be occupied by me at the time to said second party in the above contract, Mrs. Eliza Long, on the 1st day of March, 1899.

Witness: Ola Wilhite. Laura Mack.

Indorsed on back: No.60, Probate. In the matter of the Estate of Joel O. Mack, deceased. Stipulation of all parties in interest in the contract and agreement between the parties. Filed December 28,1897. James A. Winston, Clerk, by J.C. Anderson, Deputy, P.S.Davis,

Q In that contract the rent of Mrs. Long was to be placed in the cribs on the place was it not? A That's what it says.
Q I believe you said that Mr. Long improved the granaries when he was down there one time? A Yes.
Q What granary was reserved for the purpose of putting this rent into? A There was one on the east side of the barn that he used for corn.
Q Well now where was the wheat stored? A I don't remember about the wheat, I believe he hauled it off.
Q Wasn't a part of the wheat placed in the ice house in storage? A Yes sir, it was.
Q And part in the granary at the barnwasn't it? A I don't remember about any wheat being at the barn, I remember itsbeing stored in the bins, up over the bins on the east side there was kind of an upper granary- I mean on the west side, there was kind of an upper granary on the west side, I think he had oats up there, but I disremember about the wheat, but since you spoke of it I remember he did have wheat in the ice house.
Q All the wheat that was in the ice house was his, yours wasn't stored there at all? A No, I think not.
Q Wasn't there a division made in the granary and didn't he have one third of the granary room at the barn? A I don't remember about the wheat at the barn, I remember he had wheat at the ice house, but I don't remember about the wheat at the barn.
Q How long did it stay in storage, do you know? A No sir.
Q How long before cropping time in 1898 wasit that he repaired the granary? A Oh I don't remember just how long it was, it was some little time I presume, but I don't know exactly how long it was.
Q Didn't he floor one side of it, a place about 40 feet long? A He was putting floors down , I don't know how long they were.
Q How long was the barn? A I couldn't tell you that.
Q You know how many stalls in the barn? A Five I believe , on a side.
Q How wide are those stalls? A I don't know.
Q Where did Mr. Long keep his animals down there, his team when he was down there? A Some times in the pasture and some times in the barn.
Q Where did he sleep when he was there? A Well he slept first one place and another, three was three or four rooms and three or four beds, and wherever it was conveinent for me to put him he slept.
Q Didn't have but 2 beds at the house did you? A Well I guess I did, I had 3, two upstairs and one down, and part of the time I had 4; if it wasnecessary I could put a bed on the floor, and did.

Q Well now Mrs. Mack you stayed there under Crooks that year and he stored the rents on the place and had the control of the ice house and the granary, how did you stay there the next year? A ~~The xxxex~~ And had control of the ice house

Q Didn't you state that here? A He did with my consent; he did not have that reserved; we just allowed him to put it there; that wasn't considered the granary, that belonged to the house, and we simply accommodated him that much.

Q How did you occupy the premises in the year 1899? A Well I occupied them, Mr. Long come down there before the contract, this contract and Crooks come in and I said something about what I would do if I knew we could have ~~xx~~ the place another year, and he says you can haveit, go on and do that, he says you can have it on the same contract, and Crooks gotit from the administrator and we stayed under that contract, but alongin February he comes there with another contract different from that and I objected to it and him and I had a spat about it, and we have never loved each other since.

Q Well you signed it didn't you? A Signed what.

Q Contract? A Yes sir, signedit after he put my namein it, he was trying to get my name out after I planted 150 acres of wheat there then he tried to get somebody else to rent the place and throw me off.

Q You fell out at that time? A Didn't fall out, but he left mighty quick and was never back afterwards; I told him what I thought about the way he was doing and he left and never did come back in the house while I was living there, untilthe day of my sale, 4th dayof November.

Q How did you happen to come here? A How did I happen to come?

Q Yes. A I was sent for.

Q Who sent for you? A Commissioners I believe.

Q Were you subpoenaed? A Yes sir.

Q Regular subpoena? A Well I guess it is a regular subpoena, I am not acquainted with subpoenas; it says subpoena.

Q Did Morris Knight have you to come here? A I don't know. I aint seen Morris Knight attached to it, nor his name in the papers.

Q You are Morris'witness in a law suit he has over a place here A Not down here now on that business.

Q You have been?A No sir.

Q You made affidavits in his behalf voluntarily? A Yes sir I did make an affidavit for Mr. Knight.

Q I will get you to look at this and see if you didn't rent the place in 1899 from Mr. Long a couple of years ago? A Why I said I did.

Q Where was his wheat stored that year?A I don't know where it was stored, because I went away while he was threshing. I went on a visit to California.

Q You stayed there the balance of the time that year didn't you? A Stayed where.

Q All the year of '99? A I stayed there until November on the farm.

Q You don't know then where Long was on the place during that time or not, do you? A He might habe been there a few days while I was gone, I wasn't gone but about a month.

MR. KORNEGAY: I would like to introduce that lease.

Witness: I rented the place from Mr. Long last year, I acknowledge that.

MR. KORNEGAY: (Reads lease as follows):

Lease, dated February 28,1899, signed by W.A.Long, Laura Mack, Harry Hayden. Term beginning March 1st, 1899 and ending March 1st, 1900.

Q Well, he had the granaries that year too didn'the, to store his wheat in? A I told you I don't know where he stored his wheat there or not, I don't believe his wheat was there when I come back.

Q Reserved the stalk fields that year didn't he? A No, all of them he didn't.
Q Part of it? A We went right by the contract; we didn't break the contract.
MR. KORNEGAY: I will introduce the contract.(Reads it.):

KNO ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That this Contract, made and entered into by and between W.A.Long, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation,I.T., party of the first part, and Harry Hayden, and Laura Mack, as citizens of the United States, parties of the second part, that the party of the first part this day and of this date do let and by these presents have leased and let unto the parties of the second party the following described improvements for the year 1899, situate and being in Cooweescoowee District, Cherokee Nation,I.T., said farm containing about 500 acres in cultivation, being situate about 2 1/2 miles northeast of Bartlesville,I.T., This contract is to begin March 1st,1899, and end March 1st, 1900. For and in consideration of the rent of said farm the party of the second part hereby obligates himself aand agrees to pay unto the party of the first part one-third of all the wheat and oats raised upon said farm in alf-bushels, and also one-third of all the corn raised upon said farm, to be delivered to the party of the first part in crib upon said farm; also one third of all hay and other products raised upon said far , excepting those above mentioned, to be delivered to theparty of the first part in stack; the party of the second part hereby obligates himself to agree to keep up the fences, houses and other improvements upon said farm in as good condition as they are now in, usual wear and tear and deterioration excepted, for which the party of the first part obligates himself and agrees to give unto the party of the second part free and undisturbed use during the continuance of this lease of the pasture containing 100 acres more or less, said pasture being located immediately south-west of the house upon said farm being reserved for the benefit of the said first party.

Party of the first part, in addition to the other covenants above mentioned is to receive one-third of the stalk fields that grow, first party to pay for stacking of his one third part of stacking uponsaid farm, giving the party of the second part the privilege to purchase same from the party of the first part at the market value at the time same is ready for use. Party of the second part hereby waives any notice of determination of this lease and hereby agrees to give the party of the first part peaceable possession of the said farm on or before March 1st,1900, without any notice whatever.

In Testimony Whereof, the parties to this contract on this 28th day of February, 1899, set their hands.

(signed)W.A.Long,
Laura Mack.

By William McCoy

Q Mrs. Mack, that was a part of this place that was made under contract with Eliza Long was not it? A No sir, hold on, I believe so. It was the last , I wont be positive but I think it was; we took in a scope ofland three or four years after the first place was made; I think that lease was made with Mrs. Long, I wont be positive.
Q That was the one that was wasn't it?
A McCoy, why of course he says he witnessed it, but I think the other was witnessed too.
Q Well as a matter of fact a part of this place was originally made under Mrs. Long? A I didn't say it was made under her, I said I thought the last was; that was the one Mr. Mack made the bargain with, I think it was after his death, I wont be positive.

Q Wasn't it with Mrs. Long; and wasn't the name Eliza Long signed to it? A Well it says so there, but I wont be positive.

BY MR. KORNEGAY: (Reads instrument):

February 5,1891. On California Creek Ranch.

This is To Certify, that I have this day employed Joel O. Mack to improve theland lying now between the place occupied by him on Four Mile and Coon Creek and Billy Wilson's place and west of said place now occupied by Joel O. Mack, and for payment for his improving said land the said Joel O. Mack is to have all he can make off of saidland so improved for 15 crops, com encing from date and ending with the year 1906, at which time said Joel O. Mack shall give full possession of saidpremises toge ther with the improvements thereon,

Eliza Long.

Joel O. Mack.

Witness:William McCoy.

February 5,1891.

On California Creek Ranch.

This written contract is not to be construed so as to alter the contract on farm or old improvements in any particular.

Eliza Long,

Witness:William McCoy. Joel O. Mack.

Q Mrs. Mack, I will go back to the year 1898, you remember the bin that was put there on the east side of the barn during that year? A A bin put there?

Q Yes, put on the east side of the barn during the year 1898?

A There never was.

Q Don't know anything about that? A A new bin built on?

Q A floor built in the shed on the east side, making a bin? A There always has been a bin there. Mr. Long repaired some bins and he put floors in; I think he put them on both sides of the barn, the ins were oneach side of the barn, I think he put a floor in each bin.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q He never did live there in 1898 or 1899 up to the time you left there? A No sir, he never did.

Q And he never has any stuff there? A No sir.

Q No effects in your house? A No sir.

Q When he was down there occasionally he has lived in your house and slept on your beds? A Yes sir.

Q Now I believe you stated that you thought that Mr. Blosser, Emanuel Blosser was dead when this last contract was entered into? A That's what I said.

Q Had there been any talk of any trouble as to holding the old improvements when this last contract was made? A Never had to my knowledge.

Q You know what was said as to who these new improvements should belong to at the time it was made? A -

MR. KORNEGAY: I object to that, because the written contract speaks for itself; the contract indicates both the contract between Mrs. Long in her own right and the party, and I dont think they could vary it by oral testimony at this time.

COMMISSIONER: That statement and objection will be noted and the answer permitted that the Commission may consider the whole matter.

A It was understood-

MR. KORNEGAY: I objec to what you understood, but what was said.

A Well I understadd that it was Joe Blosser's, that it was to be attached to the other farm and also just the same as the old lease was.

Q How far wasit from the old place? A It wouldn't- just took off the old wire from it and put it all in.

Q You made it all part of one place? A Yes sir.

MORRIS F. KNIGHT, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testifies as follows:

Q Give your name please? A Morris F. Knight.
Q How old are you? A 27.
Q Whatis your post-office? A Vinita, I. T.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You know the applicant here, W.A.Long? A Yes sir.
Q You know his wife, Eliza?A Yes sir.
Q When did you first learn to know them? A I new them about in 1895, I think, 1894 or 1895.
Q Did you ever know them in 1898 or '99? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you know them? A I understood they lived at Coffeyville.
MR. KORNEGAY: I object to what you understood; what you know, if you please.
Q Did you ever see them at Coffeyville? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever at their house? A Yes sir.
Q Where were they living? A They were living south-west of Coffeyville, two or three miles.
Q In Kansasor the Cherokee Nation? A In Kansas, yes sir.
Q What time were you at their house? A I was there in the summer of 1897, summer or fall of 1897, and I was there again in 1898.
Q You see them both times in Coffeyville?A Yes sir.
Q What time in 1898 were you there? A I was there some time in the fall, I don't know exactly, it must have been September or October.
Q When did you first know that W.A.Long laid claim to the place down near Bartlesville? A Well I knew it here last year.
Q You had a mortgage on the place some time ago? A Yes sir.
Q With whom? A Joe D. Blosser.
Q Joe D. Blosser a son of Mrs. Long's? A Yes sir.
Q You had more or less litigation about it? A Yes sir.
Q Now when did hismother, thatis now Mrs. Long, and Mr. Long first claim it? A I never knew they claimed it until here the last year or so, within the last year; they never did claim it to me; never claimed that they had a bill of sale of it; I just understood that they claimed it.
Q You ever talk with Joe Blosser about it in the presence of either of these people, ~~them~~ while they were together about it, about what relations you had in the matter or about his rights or anything with reference to ownership of it?A Yes sir, several times, he and Long talked.
Q Long ever claim that he or his wife ownedit then? A No sir.
Q Well was this place sold on an order of court or foreclosure of sale? A Yes sir.
MR. KORNEGAY: I suggest that you ought to bring in the record if that is what you are trying to do.
Q I want to know if Mr. Long was present when the sale took place?
A Yes sir.
Q Did he make any objection to the sale because of his owning it at that time? A No sir.
MR. KORNEGAY: I object to that.
Q Did he object to it at all? A He had a few objections there he never claimed the place.
Commissioner Breckinridge: It is competent to inquire into the facts that are within the immediate knowledge of the witness. Of course it is not the best testimont if it is a matter set forth in the official document; but this is a matter not set forth in the document I believe.
MR. KORNEGAY:
Q Were you present when this stipulation was talked of and arranged between Ola Wilhite, Mrs. Eliza Long ans Mrs. Mack, in 1897? A Between them?
Q ~~Yes sir~~ Yes sir.

Q Yes? A Yes sir.
Q You knew then as a matter of fact that they or that Mrs. Long had some interest in it didn't you? A None other than as protecting her son or helping him out.
Q You knew this contract that has been introduced in evidence was signed by the father didn't you? A Yes sir.
Q You know that George Crooks rented the place from Mrs. Long under that contract at that time didn't you? A Yes sir.
Q You never made Mrs. Long a party to your foreclosure proceedings at all did you? A No, sir, she was in the complaint.
Q You never made anybody a party except Joe D. Blosser, a non-resident? A That's all.
Q You never notified a tenant on the place did you? A Why I suppose my lawyer did if it was necessary.
Q Well did you or not? A I don,t know.
Q Never made anybody a party to the proceeding except J.D.Blosser and published for him? A That's right.
Q You are taking a very prominent part in this citizenship matter are you not? A Why I am taking considerable interest in it, yes.
Q You are the party that had Mrs. Mack to come here did you not?
A No sir, the Cherokee Nation subpoenaed her I suppose.
Q Wasn't it donw at your instance? A No sir.
Q Wasn't it done at the suggestion of your attorney? A I don't know.
Q You have been in frequent consultation with her since she has been here? A I had a talk with her.
Q She has been at your attorney's office? A Yes sir.
Q The matter hasbeen thoroughly canvassed has it not? A It was talked over.
Q Where have you been for the last year or two? A I have been here forabout six months; I was in California for about 6 months.
Q What place? A Los Angeles.
Q What time were you in California? A

MR. HASTINGS: I submit that I don't see that that's a proper cross-examination.

MR.KORNEGAY: I suggest that if you put a witness on the stand I have a right at the time to know about his antecedents. The [redacted] point is that I have a right to inquire into the antecedents of the witness; of course there is some latitude to the cross-examination; he has disclosed here that he is very much of an interested witness in this case. That's developed and I want to know what are the motives behind this, that's what I want.

Commissioner Breckinridge: The Commission gives great latitude in examinations, much wider than is customary in regular judicial proceedings; it wants to get at all the facts, but the record shows in numberless cases that some care must be exercised to keep the record from growing unduly volumnious. If you want to show that the witness occupies a position prejudicial to the case why that is allvery well, but you don't want simply personal biography introduced don't you see.

MR. KORNEGAY:

Q You very frequently have called on Mr. Long in the last three or four years to see something about your interest on this place?
A I have met him several times and seen him.
Q Talked to him about your interest in the place? A I believe so.
Q Why were you so instrumental in talking to him about this place if he had nothing to do with it? A Because he was the father-in-law of Joe Blosser and Blosser had skipped out of the country.
Q And Long was lookingafter his int rest? A Mrs. Long was I suppose so.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Di you have, about that time that this contract that was introduced here was entered into, an interview or conversation or an understanding with Mr. Long and his wife with reference to the payment of the amount due you from Joe Blosser? A Yes sir.

[redacted]

Q What did they agree to to do then? A Why Mrs. Long was appointed receiver for the place, and she was to pay off this mortgage out of the place for Joe Blosser; there were several judgments against him, and he was a little bit afraid that I would take the place away from him and she was a pointed receiver of the place.
Q And Joe Blosser had failed, had he? A Yes sir.
Q Was deeply in debt? A Yes sir.
Q And he left the country? A Left the country, yes sir.
BY MR. KORNEGAY:
Q What evidenced his confidence of her as receiver? A Why it was understanding between us.
Q It was this Wilhite contract that you have reference to was not it? A Yes sir.

PRESTON S. DAVIS, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your full name? A Preston S. Davis.
Q What is your age? A 30 years old, past.
Q Your post-office? A Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q You are a practicing attorney here at Vinita? A Yes sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You know W.A.Long and his wife? A Yes sir.
Q You know Morris Knight? A Yes sir.
Q You know Mrs. Mack? A Yes sir.
Q You know Joe D. Blosser? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know his father, Emanuel Blosser? A I did not.
Q How long have you known W.A.Long? A I have known Mr. Long ever since the summer of 1896.
Q You know where he was living at that time? A I am not positive as to where he was living at that time, no sir.
Q Have you ever been to his house in the years 1897 or 1898?
A I was at his place in Coffeyville, Kansas, about this time, to the best of my remembrance, in the year 1898.
Q What did you go up there for? A Well sir, I got into a correspondence with Mr. Long in the summer of 1898 ~~before~~ after the wheat crop was made on this Mack-Blosser place relative to Long and his wife complying with that agreement and paying over to Morris Knight on his mortgage indebtedness on this farm a portion of the proceeds of the crops, as they had agreed to do.
MR.KORNEGAY : I object to your testifying about the agreement unless you state whether it was verbal or written; if it is written I want the original and if it is verbal I guess you can go ahead.
A This agreement was verbal.
Q Well tell about it? A Well sir, this place in question belonged to J.D.Blosser and in the fall of 1896, to-wit: on September 21, of that year, I was employed by J.D.Blosser to file suit to recover the possession of this place from Joel O.Mack et al., who were then living upon it.
Q Did you do that? A I filed this suit, yes sir, it is suit No. 379, law, on the Civil Docket of the United States Court at Vinita, and the papers are now lying here before me in that case on the table. In this suit Joe D. Blosser swore that he was the owner.
KORNEGAY: I object to that.
A Here is the complaint here.(Witness hands paper to Commissioner.)
COMMISSIONER: You can substantiate any statement of fact that you want to introduce in the case; it is undertaken I believe to show that a certain party claimed a certain interest or disclaimed a certain interest in the property at a given time; the official proceedings had in that connection by the party would certainly be competent testimony.

Mr.Kornegay: I don't believe, Mr. Commissioner, that you could introduce Joe Blosser's affidavit in this connection as to what Joe swore, as evidence.
Com'r Breckinridge: As to his own interest?
MR.KORNEGAY: Yes sir, where he was swearing for himself. This is a proceeding that Joe Blosser is not a party to and I don't believe that what he swore about it in that proceeding, he not being a party to it, would bind us in anyway.
BY MR.HASTINGS: The point that we are trying to get at is that this place down here belonged to Joe Blosser instead of William A. Long or his wife at that time, and therefore that they had no effects in the Cherokee Nation, together with the additional fact that these people did not live down there as Mr. Long has sworn in this case. There are two points in it, both the question of ownership of the place and the question of Mr. Long and his wife's residence in 1898.
BY MR. KORNEGAY: Now he wants to introduce an affidavit sworn to by Joe Blosser in another proceeding; Joe Blosser now mind you in an unlawful detainor case where the title could not be gone into at all, and in a suit that was dismissed without any action taken by the court at all, upon Mr. Davis' own testimony.
COM'R BRECKINRIDGE: But the point is to establish, if I understand it right, what Joe Blosser's relationship was to the particular piece ofproperty; of course I know nothing of the general theory and merits of that, and in the taking of testimony from time to time in these cases it is sometimes submitted before one Commissioner and sometimes before another; I know nothing of the general theory and character of this case; that isn't possible in these field proceedings and in lengthy cases. The Counsel for the applicant can state his objection and the testimony can be introduced simply for consideration, and the commission will exclude it as having no bearings upon the merits of the case if upon examination they find it so. I can't undertake to discriminate definitely on these matters and the connections.
MR.KORNEGAY: Our objection is that the witness on the stand cannot testify to what was sworn to in a collateral proceeding. Further objection is that the affidavit itself is made out in the proceeding wouldnot be competent and relative in this proceeding, it being a matter to which the applicant herein was not a party at the time, and being offered as an admission of one of the applicants. And for the further reason that that was in a proceeding in which under the law the title to the property could not be brought in issue, being merely anaction of unlawful detainor under the statutes in force in this proceeding.
COM'R BRECKINRIDGE: The Commission will decide finally as to the weight and competency of the testimony; at present under these conditions you can introduce such matters of fact as you like for what they may prove to be worth.
MR.HASTINGS:

Q Now go ahead and tell in as brief a way as you can about this matter? A In this civil suit number 379, entitled J.D.Blosser, vs. Joel O. Mack, and others, in the complaint in thiscase, September 21,1896, in the United States Court at Vinita, J.D.Blosser the plaintiff, stated that he was the owner and entitled to the possession of this farm in the controversy, also making some showing in the affidavit that he swore to.
Q I would like to ask you if that is the same place that has been testified about here? A That is the identical place that hasbeen talked about in this case.
Q I want to ask you if Mr. and Mrs. Long knew anything about the pendency of this suit?
MR.KORNEGAY: I certainly object to that, their knowing anything about the pendency.

A Mr. Long came to me before this suit was filed, at the time it was filed and afterit was filed; talked to me about it on several different occasions, about bringing the suit and about the place, and stating that it was Blosser's place, and had been made for Joe D. Blosser by his father Emanuel Blosser under improvement contract with Joel O. Mack.

MR.KORNEGAY: I move to exclude that, because it is developed now that the man came to him and consulted him as attorney.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE: It will be included in the testimony for what it may be worth.

MR.HASTINGS:

Q Were you present at the time this agreement was entered into, I believe it was '97? A Yes sir.
Q Now you tell briefly why Mrs. Long's name, if you know, was in that contract?

MR.KORNEGAY: I object to that, because the contract speaks for itself.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE: Your objection will be noted.

A This civil suit number 379 wascontinued I think on the dockets here of the court until Joel O. Mack waskilled in 1897. It was imperfect in the name of his administrator Ola Wilhite, and when called for hearing was dismissed by the court on that technicality, without prejudice; Ola Wilhite at that time was administrator of the estate of Joel O. Mack, in probate case No.60, in this court at Vinita, and Joe D. Blosser threatened to re-bring this suit for an order of court obtai ed in the probate case No.60; the administrator got leave to make a settlement with these parties in order to keep down another suit. Pursuant to that order Mr.W.A. Long and Morris F.Knight, who held a mortgage on this place dated in 1894, securing a note of a thousand dollars to J.D.Blosser, and Ola Wilhite, met in my law office in the town of Vinita on the 22nd day of December, 1897, to effect this compromise in this matter. Considerable discussion was had as to the clauses of this contract and settlement, and the terms of it were finally agreed upon as set forth in this written instrument, with the exception that it was to be made in the name of J.D.Blosser; Morris Knight was present with his note and mortgage, and objected to this on the ground that he either wantedhis money or wanted the place turned over. In order to satisfy Mr. Knight Mr.Long and J.D.Blosser then and there spoke up and agreed that they would put Mrs. Eliza Long in this contract to act for J.D.Blosser, on the ground that Blosser had been sued, had several judgments hanging against him, had some trouble with his wife, was unsettled at the time, had no permanent habitation; that Mrs. Long and her husband were living in Kansas near this place, and they offered to guarantee Mr Knight that Mrs. Long's name would be substituted in here tead for Mr. Blosser, and that they would see to it personally that he was paid every cent of his money out of the rent of the place as fast asthey could, promising him that he would be paid some two or three hundred dollars out of the rents of 1898. This contract was made and was signed by Blosser and these parties to that effect.
Q Did Long and his wife at that time individually claim the place?
A They didnot; Mr.Long emphatically said that it was Blosser's place there in the office and that this was just done and that Eliza and himself would see to it that Mr. Knight was paid out of the rent and they put Mrs.Long in there for the purpose to see that that was done, and that they would handle it for Blosser.
Q During the correspondence that you had with Mr.Long in 1898 or '9 or during 1897, what was his post-office address, where did you write him or where did he write you? A Coffeyville, Kansas.
A When the rents were gathered in 1898 Mr.Long didn't apply any of them to Mr.Knight; I was representing Mr.Knight at that time and I began a correspondence with Mr.Long; I was writing from Vinita and writing to him at Coffeyville, Kansas. It was some time before I could get any answer out of Mr.Long, and I wrote a pretty sharp letter, urging him by calling attention to what he agreed to, and he finally wrote me, claiming I had written to the wrong man, I wrote it "W.H." Long I believe he said and his name was "W.A." Long, and he wrote that letter,- I then got into a correspondence with him and savedhis letters, had them on file in my office, and lost the correspondence in the burning of my office on the 9th of November, 1899; I kept up this correspondence with Mr.Long and fixed it for Mr.Knight and myself to meet him there in Coffeyville, Kansas. We notified him that we would be there on that day, and we went and were there on that day and met Mr.Long on the streets across from the post-office near the brick building with an iron stair way went up on the outside, and some big goods boxes set there diagonally across in the corner. We had a conversation with Mr.Long in which he went over this whole transaction, had him look up the rents on the place, where he hadn't paid out this and that, and the upshot was that he would try to raise 600 dollars and give it to Mr. Knight if he would turn over this security, and he that he held against Blosser; Mr.Knight wouldn't do it, wanted a thousand dollars; Mr.Long got on his horse and rode away, left the town, and we talked the matter over and decided we would find him again and offer to split the difference with him; we went out to his house, if I remember the direction itwas in the north-west part of Coffeyville, Kansas, in the town, we went out there, and I don't know who come to the door, but they said that's whre he lived, and said he was not there, he was gone somewhere, I don't know where. We never did find him again.

Q Square house? A I think so, square house, roof went up on the four sides and a deck on top, painted kind of brown. I don't know that he lived there, they said he did, but he had gone. These letters that I got were all post-marked Coffeyville and I met him in Coffeyville, Kansas.

Q That was about three years ago now? A Yes sir, about three years ago.

Q Do you remember my asking Mrs. Mack on the stand about the contract that she signed and Mr. Hutchings, and West, her attorneys, had? A Yes sir, that was the original contract between Joel O. Mack andEmanuel Blosser.

Q I will ask you if you made a search for that contract? A Yes sir.

Mr.Mack in his answer in the suit, No.379, said he had filed a copy of that contract, he didn't file it. I made mention of that fact to Mr.Hutchings, Mr.Mack'slawyer, and he said he would file it, and thatis since I was in Mr. Hutchings office at Muskogee, and they never did file the contract; they couldn't find it.

Q Made search for it? A Yes sir, went through his files and it wasn't there.

Q You were not present when this place was sold? A Yes I was there

Q You were present? A Yes sir.

Q Was Mr. Longpresent? A Mr. Long was there, sir.

Q Was his wife? A I didn't see her.

Q Did Mr.Long at that time claim it was his place? A He did not.

Q About when was this sale?A On the 18th day of March,1901, right on the place, in a few steps of the front door, in the yard.

Q When did you first learn or know of Mr.Long or his wife individually claiming the place? A I never knew they had any claim on the place until they came down here and filed a motion to vacate the appointment of a receiver in the foreclosure suitin No. 973 in this court by Morris F. Knight against Joe D. Blosser; that was filed on July 16, 1901, is the first time I ever heard of any claim made that they owned this place.

I will state this: That Mr. Long was there at the day of the sale was had; he read from a letter that had Denison & Aikin letterhead from Galena, Kansas, he read some two or three objections, three I think, to this sale in that letter.

Q Among them did he claim the question of ownership? A No sir, it wasn't touched upon; his objection was that it was contrary to Cherokee law, that was his principal objection; there was nothing that even looked towards a claim of the place; never said he had a bill of sale, never said it was the title; he said he desired to take it as allotment and that it was contrary to the Cherokee law was the other and I believe contrary to the law in force now; I believe that's all he had to say. Stayed there and the place was put up and sold at public outcry.
Q Did he produce a bill of sale? A He did not, never said anything about having one.

BY MR. KORNEGAY:

Q He now claimed to have a bill of sale dated in March,1898, doesn't he? A Yes sir, he came down here and carried a paper, swore that he bought it from Blosser and his wife, Elmira Blosser, on the 4thof March,1898, and that he had no knowledge of Knight's mortgages, never heardof it before, and that he had been in the actual possession of this farm, living there since the 4th of March,1898; he swore to that in that paper,to my surprise.
Q Now Mr. Davis you didn't have any written contract at the time of the compromise in 1897 except the one that is introduced here in evidence already did you? A No sir when the parties agrees to t this matter before it was written it was written and it was to be made in the name of Joe D. Blosser; Morris Knight objected and to pacify him they took Blosser's name out and put Mrs. Long's name in it to act for Blosser in the contract, I then wrote this contract myself.
Q That is all the writing that was made embodying the supposed agreement? A That's all that was reduced to writing.
Q You say Mr.Long had talked to you several times about bringing this Blosser suit before the suit was brought? A Yes sir, he consulted me.
Q Now Mr. Davis, Mr.Long and Mrs.Long were there after the suit was dismissed to you on this compromise that we have evidence here by this writing was made, wasn't they? A Mr.Long was present in my office, Mrs.Long was not.
Q She was not there? A No sir.
Q I believe you say you and Morris Knight went to Coffeyville to his house there in the town of Coffeyville? A We went to a house; we inquired where he lived; we went to the house as near as we could, and asked at one or two places, and we finally were pointed out to a certain house as being where Mr.Long lived.
Q That was in the town of Coffeyville? A That was as I remember it now in the north-west part of the town , kind of that way, and they said, whoever come to the door, they said that that's where he lived but that he was not there, he had gone, got on his horse and gone away; I don't know whether he lived there or not, but I know that occurred. Morris Knight was with me and we were in a buggy, from Vinita we went up Pumpkin Creek and got rained on and got wet, instead of crossing the Verdigris River we went up Pumpkin Creek and stayed all night with a farmer in Kansas, and got in the next morning.
Q Who wasoccupying thepremises at the time you brought the foreclosure proceedings? A Mrs. Mack.
Q What time did you bring those foreclosure proceedings?
A This suit was originally filed, the original papers were filedin myoffice,it was in March '99, on the 30th day of March, 1899.
Q Where was Joe Blosser at that time? A Well sir, I don't know, I don't know whether God knows or not; he wasn't here.
Q Was he a resident or a non-resident of the Indian Territory?
A He was a non-resident to the best of my knowledge and belief.
Q Did you notify anybody at allof the pendency of your forclosure proceeding? A I think we did, by published notice according to law, and Judge Denison was appointed attorney, an attorney here at the bar, and I notified him in person that he had been so appointed.

Q No tenant on thepremises was ever summonsed in the court to answer?A No sir.
Q Was any proceeding taken to take charge of the premises pending the litigation? A Not until after the decree was rendered, after the sale and decree we got a receiver.
Q How long after you took that step before Mr.Long and his wife claimed the place? A They came down right away after that.
Q You say they had objected to the sale upon the ground that he wanted to take this as the allotment for himself and family? A He didn't say that; he read from this letter, I desire to take this place for my allotment; I desire to take my allotment on this place is the wordshe used I think, was one objection to the sale.
Q He read from the Denison & Aikin letter he didn't he? A I believe so.
Q Did he not read this: I forbid the sale, because I want to take the lands as there improved as the pro rata share of myself and family as allotment of Cherokee lands?A He might have done it, I don't know, I don't remember exactly.
Q And then when you sent for a receiver he came in too?
A Yes sir, I never notified him at all, considered he had n thing to do with it.
Q At whose suggestion was Mrs. Mack brought here as a witness in this proceeding? A I couldn't tell you.
Q Did you not suggest to the representatives of th Cherokee Nation as to what Mrs. Mack would testify in this case? A I didn't know what she would testify to, furth r than an affidavit she made here in Mr. Knight's foreclosure suit, I think I did call Mr. Cale Starr's attention to that some time ago.
Q Did she not report to your office as soon as she came in this proceeding, and did you not come over on yesterday and get the evidence in this case and together with her run over the whole transaction?A Mrs. Mack was at my office; I never saw Mrs.Mack until her appearance here in Vinita at thia time in my life, Mrs. Mack was at my office there at the gate waiting for me when I came down yesterday morning, yes and I did get the testimony taken here and I think she and Mr.Knight went over it, I didn't.
Q In your presence in your office? A Yes sir,and then Mr.Hastings came down and talked to the lady in my office.
Q As a matter of fact isn't that combined effort to forfeit Mr. Long's citizenship the direct result of your and Mr. Knight's law suit on the civil docket of the court? A I can't say as to Mr. Knight, it isn't from my standpoint , no sir.
Q Who subpoenaed you to testify here? A Mr.Hastings asked me to be sworn thismorning; I didn't know I was going to be sworn.
Q Didn't you come up for that purpose? A No sir.
Q Didn't you bring those papers here for that? A You asked me to bring these papers here.
Q Didn't I ask you after I saw you in the court room? A You asked me yesterday I believe.
Q As a matter of fact haven't you sat here and prompted Mr.Hastings as a representatvie of Morris Knight to ask these questions that he has asked in this case?A Yes I have whispered to him a time or towo.

I desire to state now that all I have in this case of interest is the fact that Mr.Long came down here in this Morris Knight case and wilfully and absolutely swore to some thing that he knew positively to be untrue and false, and if I have had any interest at all it is only on that account; I have got nothing against Mr. Long outside of that when he came down here and swore that he had no knowledge of Mr.Knight's mortgage he swore to some thing that he knew to be absolutely untrue.

Additional testimony introduced on behalf of the Applicant.

Mr. Hastings: The representatives of the Cherokee Nation desire to call attention to the fact that the attorney for the applicant asked that the witnesses be placed under the rule, and made no statement at the time that he desired to call in witnesses for the applicant, and that after the introduction of three witnesses on the part of the Cherokee Nation against the applicant, that he then first made known the fact that he had some witnesses that he desired to introduce, and that they were called up out of the room in which the Commission was taking testimony and were in a hearing distance of what the other witnesses had testified to; and therefore object to the introduction of these witnesses at this time.

Commissioner: The statement will be made a part of the record, but the Commission gives very wide latitude in the ascertainment of facts, and the testimony of the witnesses now present will be taken under the circumstances as set forth.

QQ Did they live in the house with you? A Yes, sir, Mrs. Long kept house for me; that was after my wife died and she stayed there and kept house for me.
Q When did your wife die? A She died in 1895, July of '95, and my oldest daughter was married in August, 1896, and then Mrs. Long came there and lived and kept house for me through that winter, and afterwards the next winter when the children was going to school.
Q How long had you known Mr. Long? A I had known him since '90 I believe it was, I believe he was married in '90, the first time I saw him they came to my house and was married at my house here in town.
Mr. Kornegay: Where did they reside after they were married up to the spring of '98? A Well I never was at their house until about '95 when they lived out here, '94 or '5, out between here and Lightning Creek; while they lived up on the line, I wasn't there.
Q Lived on California Creek a while? A That is what I understood, I never was up there.
Q Up near the line? A Yes, sir.
Mr. Hastings: Were you ever at this man's house in Coffeyville, Kansas? A Not in Coffeyville I wasn't.
Q Well near Coffeyville? A Near Coffeyville, well I would say about three miles.
Q What direction? A West.
Q In the State of Kansas? A Yes, sir.
Q When were you there? A I was there in June, 1897; after him and his wife left my house and went up there he came back in June and got my two little girls and taken them up there and kept them till August, and when school commenced I went up after them and went out to his place and got these two girls of mine, and then his wife came down to keep house for me that winter.
Q Were you there in 1898? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you have any letters from them up there? A I had letters from Eliza in '99 in Colorado.
Mr. Kornegay: When you went up there after the children when they had taken them up there, where were they living, on the place?
A They were living in a log house and right on the bank of Onion Creek, about three miles I would call it west of Coffeyville.
Q Well do you remember about their having a tent up there at one time when you went up after the children? A They didn't have a tent at the time I was there.
Q Well, you remember about their camping out on the place? A I don't know, I wasn't there.

Q They were back at your place in the fall of '97 after you were up there, and stayed all the winter here? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know where they went to in '98 when they left? A No, sir; they went up to that country over there, I don't know where they went to from here, they left part of the things at my house that spring and in the spring of '98 they took all the things from my house.
Mr. Hastings: Wasn't anything left there in June, the 28th, 1898?
A No, sir.

Q Who were you under? A I rented from Mrs. Mack.
Q She is the witness on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q She knew up there in that year? A Yes, sir, saw him around there.
Q How frequently did you see him around there? A Well sir I can't tell you, just saw him maybe a time or two and might be maybe three or four weeks before I would see him.
Q What was he doing there? A I don't remember now what he was doing.
Q He was frequently at the place, was he? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, did he use the barn, any of it that you know of? A I don't recollect anything about it.
Q Do you remember his using the granary that year? A Yes, sir.
Q What did you do with the grand that you harvested that year?
Q I never had nothing but corn and I hauled it to Willhite.
Q Willhite bought it from Long? A Yes, sir.
Mr. Hastings: Are you a Cherokee or a non citizen? A Non citizen.
Q How far was your house from where Mrs. Mack lived? A About a mile and a quarter as near as I can guess.
Q Do you know whether this man lived down there with his wife or not on that place in 1898? A No, sir, I don't.
Q Did you ever see his wife there in 1898? A No, sir.
Q Did you ever see him except on occasional visits? A I seen him work there them times I told you about is all I remember.
Q About how many times in the year 1898 did you see him there at work, you have mentioned two or three times? A Three times I saw him and I saw him at another time.

Q Only for a day or two at a time? A I wasn't around very much, I just went over to see Hayden on some business and he was around there.
Q You never saw him living down there? A No, sir.
Q Never knew of him living down there in '98? A No, sir.
Q Where was he living at that time? A I don't know.
Q Don't you know he was living in Coffeyville? A No, sir, March, '98, is the first time I saw him.
Q Don't you know where he came from when he came down there? A No, sir.
Q You know he wasn't living on this place, don't you? A No, sir, I don't know he didn't live on the place, I don't know he did live there for certain.
Q It was never claimed then he lived on the place in '98? A It wasn't my understanding, no, sir.
Q You saw him you think three times during that year? A Three times he worked there, yes, sir.

ELIZA LONG, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:
Q What is your full name, please? A Eliza Long.
Q How old are you? A 51.
Q What is your postoffice? A Dewey.
Mr. Kornegay: Mrs. Long, where were you living in the year 1896?
A In Vinita.
Q Whom were you living with? A With my son, Joe Blosser.
Q Do you remember the time you were up about Mr. Isbell's; when was that? A What time in 1896 you mean?
Q Yes? A Well I was there in August I think.
Q How long did you remain there at Isbell's? A In August I was there about two weeks I guess, or three.
Q Well, did you stay there during that winter? A Yes, sir, I went down there and stayed to help my niece get ready for her wedding, and after she was married I went back up to Joe's there west of the Academy where they live and made preparations to go back there and keep house for Mr. Isbell.
Q Well, where were you in '97 and '8? A In '97 and '8, well I was here in Vinita during '97.
Q Well, any part of '98 were you in Vinita? A I was here until, I think, about the middle or latter part of April, 1898.
Q Where did you go to then? A I went up to Kansas.
Q How long did you remain in Kansas? A I suppose about a month.
Q Where did you go to from there? A I went to Colorado.
Q What did you go there for? A Went therefor my health, I was sick and the doctor told me I had better go to Colorado, I went there and spent the summer.
Q What doctor was it told you that, do you remember? A Dr. McChesney.
Q Where did you go to when you came back from Colorado? A In '98, I went to Coffeyville.
Q What time did you come back in '98? A Well I don't remember, but I think it was, I am not certain, but I think it was either November or December.
Q Well, what time did you return to Colorado? A I went the next spring, I think it was in May, I think it must have been earlier than that because I wasn't able to go.
Q Were you sick all winter? A I was sick all winter the winter I came from Colorado.
Q Where did you stay then? A I boarded at the hotel in Coffeyville.
Q Under the care of a physician? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did you go from there? A Went back to Colorado.

Q How long did you remain there? A Well I came back, I don't know just how long I was out there that summer of '98 - -

Q Sometime in '99 was the last time you were there? A Summtime in '99, that is right, it was in December I think when I came back.

Q Well where are you now living? A I live near Dewey in the Cherokee Nation.

Q How long have you been living there? A Since I came back from Colorado in December, 1899.

Q Is that on what is known as the Mack place? A Yes, sir.

Q Mrs. Long, who was that place made under originally, for whom?

A The first contract, myself and my husband, Manuel Blosser.

Q Whose place was it at that time? A Well it was ours, we bought the place from a man by the name of Wilson and gave Joe Mack a lease on it.

Q Well was the place ever deeded to Joe Blosser at all? A No, sir.

Q Now under whom was the west part of it made? A Under me individually.

Q Have you at all times had an interest in that place Mrs. Long?

A Yes, sir.

Q Were you a party to the contract made here in December, 1897, between Willhite and yourself and Mrs. Mack? A What kind of a contract.

Q Well I have the original here (handing witness paper); that is your signature there, Mrs. Long, isn't it? A Yes, sir.

Q You have at all times had an interest in that place? A Yes, sir.

Q Mrs. Long, when did Joe Blosser's interest in that place cease?

A March 4, 1898, I think.

Q You think that was the date of the contract? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you and your husband buy the place? A Yes, sir.

Q You have got a bill of sale for it have you? A Yes, sir.

Q Who got the rents from the place for the year 1898? A We did.

Q Who got them for the year 1899? A We did.

Q Mrs. Long, did your husband do any work on the place in 1898 and '9 that you know of? A Why he went down there to work, I wasn't there, I can't tell, I suppose he did.

Q You don't know what he did so? A He told me what he done and what he was going to do when he went down; I wasn't there but a short time after we bought the place before I went to Colorado, and I don't know what he done after I left.

Mr. Hastings: Mrs. Mack was present when these trades were talked over between your former husband and your self and her husband? A I think so, yes, sir.

Q This was just a claim on the public domain at that time, wasn't it? A No, sir, we bought the place, there was a cabin and a little piece of ground broke out there.

Q How much ground? A I can't say as to how much ground, it was a small field.

Q Do you think as much as an acre? A Yes, sir, more than that.

Q Five acres? A I suppose about five acres as well as I remember.

Q Well all the rest of this has been made from that? A Yes, sir

Q Do you know whether or not the contract between these parties, your husband and Mrs. Mack, was made on behalf of Joe Blosser; don't you know it was understood and stated at that time that the place was to be Joe Blosser's? A Yes, sir, it was to be his place some day when we seen fit to turn it over to him.

Q Joe was a minor at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q And it was always known and understood to be Joe Blosser's place?

A It was understood that it was to be his place when we saw fit to turn it over to him.

Q Well it was never turned over to him? A No, sir, never particularly turned it over to him.

Q Well, did you ever any other way turn it over to him? A No, sir.

Q You know about his mortgaging the place to Morris Knight? A No, sir, I don't know anything about that.

Q You swear you don't know it? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Well, did you ever know it afterwards? A No, sir, I never knew it afterwards.

Q Wasn't you present at the time this contract was entered into and wasn't that question of Joe's indebtedness to Morris Knight and his lien on this place discussed? A Not in my presence.

Q Well weren't you down at Mr. Isbell's that night when Morris Knight took these papers referred to down there and discussed it and went over the matter with you and wasn't your name put in there for the reason that Joe Blosser was heavily indebted, that he owed a great many people, and didn't you promise to act as the trustee and to receive these rents from on this place and apply them to the payment of this debt, and wasn't it fully discussed? A No, sir, Mr. Knight never came down to Mr. Isbell's to present any papers whatever to me.

Q Never saw you in any way whatever? A No, sir, he didn't.

Q Never did discuss it at all? A No, sir, not at all.

Q Didn't you know of Joe's indebtedness to him of this $1000?

A No, sir, I didn't.

Q You never heard of it? A No, sir, I knew that there was a debt, but I didn't know the amount and I asked Joe once on one or two occasions how much he owed Morris andthe only answer I could get was he didn't know exactly, but he supposed he owed him $100 or $150.

Q You knew he owed him? A Yes, sir.

Q You knew there was a lien on this place? A No, sir.

Q Morris Knight never told you about it? A No, sir, he didn't never

Q Well, didn't Morris Knight come to your house up in Kansas and talk this matter over? A Yes, sir, he came up there where we are in Kansas.

Q Didn't he present this note and mortgage? A Not to me he didn't.

Q Didn't he in your presence, to your husband? A No, sir.

Q Wasn't it talked over in your presence? A I never saw that note.

Q Wasn't it talked over in your presence? A The indebtedness, yes, sir.

Q Was the fact that he had a mortgage talked over in your presence?

A No, sir.

Q Nothing was said about it in your presence? A No, sir.

Q Didn't your husband at that time offer him some milling stock to satisfy this debt, in your presence? A No, sir, not in my presence he didn't.

Q Did you know about Joe Blosser bringing a suit against Mrs. Mack and Mr. Mack before his death for the possession of this place out there? A No, sir.

Q You never knew about it? A No, sir.

Q Never heard of it? A No, sir, not until after Mr. Mack was killed, about that time.

Q You didn't know about it when he brought it? A No, sir, I knew nothing about it.

Q Well, when you came back in the winter of '98 you stayed in Coffeyville, didn't you? A Yes, sir.

Q When was the first time you ever went down there on the place; I mean to live, with things tomove in the house and sleep and cook and eat? A Well I never went there to live until I came from Colorado, and I didn't bring anything with me but my trunk, didn't have anything to bring.

Q When was that? A I think December of '99.

Q Then you never lived there in '98? A No, sir, I never lived there in '98.

Q And you never lived there up until then? A When we bought that place in the spring of '98 I was sick and wasn't able to go there and I wouldn't have gone down there to life for a dozen places because I wasn't able to, I was under the doctor's care.

Q Have you got a copy of the bill of sale that you purchased from Joe Blosser?

Mr. Kornegay: Here is a copy (handing Mr. Hastings paper).

Q Well, if you owned this place all this time and you never turned it over to Joe Blosser and he never had any interest in it and it was yours originally, why is it that you took occasion to buy it from him and his wife on the 4th day of March, 1898, and pay him the alleged sum of $2200 for it? A Well that was just this way; I always intended to give Joe the place, but I saw he was getting his health so ruined and he had no health and I saw he wasn't going to live long in this country and climate and I gave him the money instead of giving him the place, and I thought if he would go to Colorado he would get his health.

Q Yet you took occasion to take a bill of sale to transfer the place from him? A Yes, sir.

Q And you took oecasion to have it witnessed? A Yes, sir, I thought that was the right thing to do, for I didn't intend him to have the place after I gave him the money.

Mr. Kornegay: The place was made under you and young Blosser's father originally, wasn't it? A Yes, sir.

Q His father was dead at this time, at the time you bought it? A Yes, sir.

Q And he was an heir of his father also, wasn't he? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Hastings: This bill of sale didn't say anything about his heirship, you bought the place of him, didn't you? A I supposed he was an heir, he was his father's son.

Q You bought the whole place of Joe and the whole place is described in this bill of sale of March 4, 1898? A I don't understand you.

Q You bought the whole place of Joe Blosser on March 4, 1898, and the bill of sale stated that you gave him $2200 for it, didn't you? A Yes, sir, I bought the whole place, yes, sir.

Q Was Manuel Blosser a white man? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Kornegay: He was an adopted citizen, wasn't he, of the Nation, your former husband? A Adopted by marriage, yes, sir.

Commissioner: You are the wife of William A. Long? A Yes, sir.

Q And your maiden name was McKay? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Hastings: I want to introduce a copy of the application of W. A. Long and Eliza Long to vacate order appointing receiver in the case of Morris Knight, plaintiff, against J. D. Blosser, defendant, No. 973, Equity, filed July 16, 1901, in the United States Court at Vinita; this is the original here. (Mr. Hastings reading):

"Morris Knight, plaintiff)	In the United States Court for
against)	the Northern District, sitting
J. D. Blosser, defendant.)	at Vinita.

Application of W. A. Long and Eliza Long to vacate order appointing receiver.

Comes now W. A. Long and Eliza Long and asks leave of Court to intervene herein and protect their rights, and show to the Court that Eliza Long is a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood and W. A. Long by adoption, he being her husband. That the premises in controversy made by Eliza Long, who is the mother of defendant, when defendant became of age, the premises in question were given by her to him without consideration except love and affection; that defendant was never in the actual possession and the transfer was never evidenced by any writing.

That as to the genuineness of plaintiff's mortgage and the genuineness of the indebtedness they are not possessed of sufficient knowledge or information to form an opinion, in view of the fact that plaintiff has made different statements concerning the matter, and they ask for strict proof of same. That on March 4, 1898, without knowledge, either actual or constructive, of the existence of plaintiff's supposed mortgage, they, for value then and before supplied defendant, purchased of defendant and his wife, Elmira Blosser, the premises in question, and immediately took possession and have been in the actual possession ever since; that a copy of the conveyance is as follows:

"Know All Men By These Presents, that we, Joe Blosser and Elmira Blosser, his wife, of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, and citizens of said Nation, have this day bargained, sold and delivered, and by these presents do sell and deliver unto W. A. Long and Eliza Long, his wife, of the Cherokee Nation, for and in consideration of the sum of twenty two hundred dollars ($2200), all of that part and parcel of improved land, hereinafter described, to-wit; About six hundred acres (600) of improved farm land located about twenty (20) miles south of Coffeyville, Kansas, and bounded as follows, to-wit; on the north by the improvement of Jack Shalers; on the east by Shaler; on the south by Tom Buffalo; on the west by the Coffeyville and Bartlesville road; being about two and a half (2 1/2) miles northwest of Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and known as the Joel Mack farm.

To Have and To Hold the same unto said grantees, their heirs and assigns, forever, together with all the appurtenances, hereditaments thereunto belonging.

In witness thereof we have hereunto affixed our hands and seals this the 4th day of March, 1898.

Signed, Joe Blosser
Elmire Blosser.

Witness; A. M. Etchen
A. W. Berrian."

That the same was duly recorded in the record of improvements of Cooweescoowee District, Cherokee Nation, on page 364, Book F, No. 2; That plaintiff herein had due knowledge of petitioners' rights herein at all time; that in utter disregard of same he has proceeded to foreclose his supposed lien; that at the supposed sale of the premises the mother of the plaintiff being the purchaser as the applicants are informed and believed, and she is the real party in interest, but the plaintiff herein, notwithstanding said sale, has had a receiver appointed for the property without knowledge of the applicants and to their injury. They further show that the receiver is the brother of plaintiff and the bond therein is not sufficient, plaintiff being the bondsman and T. M. Buffington being the other; that a judgment on contract could not be collected of either of the bondsmen.

Wherefore, applicants ask that the receivership be vacated, and the receiver be required to turn over any funds he may have received by virtue thereon to the applicants, and that they may have any further relief to which they may be entitled.

Signed, W. A. Long,
Eliza Long, by

G. B. Denison, W. H. Kornegay, attorney."

Then the following jurat:

"I, W. A. Long, on oath do say that the statements of the foregoing application are true as I verily believe.

Additional testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

MORRIS F. KNIGHT, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Morris F. Knight.

Mr. Hastings: Mr. Knight, after the contract was entered into between the administrator of the estate of Joel Mack, deceased, and a number of parties, which has been introduced here in testimony, after the death of Mr. Mack sometime in December of 1897, I will ask you if you had a talk with Mrs. Long about the indebtedness of Joe Blosser to yourself, down at Mr. Isbell's? A Yes, sir, I went down there in the evening and took the papers and showed them to her, and she had them in her hand.

Q What papers?

Mr. Kornegay: I object to that for the simple reason that for the purposes of this case it would be immaterial as to whether or not she had knowledge of the witness' lien, and it is not therefore a matter about which contradictory testimony can be introduced.

Commissioner: The transactions in regard to the debt as now proposed to direct inquiries has already become a part of the record, and inquiries may be addressed in relation thereto for the further consideration of the Commission.

Q Well now if you had any talk with her, state it; at that time?
A Well old Long there, in Preston Davis' office, after the contract was drawn up, asked me to go down and see Mrs. Long and show her these papers.

Q What papers? A The mortgage I hold against the farm.

Q Who was the mortgage given by and to whom? A Joe Blosser to me.

Q And what was it given to secure? A To secure a note for $1000

I had loaned him.

Q Well, did you go down there? A Yes, sir, I did.

Q Did you show her the note and mortgage? A Yes, sir, I showed her the note and mortgage and she read them and looked at them.

Q And I believe you have already stated, promised to pay it out of the rent? A Yes, she cried and went on and said Joe was drinking and gambling and having trouble with his wife and to be easy on him etc., and a whole lot of stuff like that, and I told her what was done and she promised, and said it was all right, etc.

Q She actually had them in her own hand, both the note and mortgage? A Yes, sir, read them.

Q Did you ever discuss this note and mortgage with her at any other place up at her home? A Well I was out to the place there at Coffeyville and I was talking with Long.

Q Just Long? A Where Long lives, three miles from Coffeyville; I was talking to Long and she came in the room while I was there.

Q Did she hear the conversation between you and Long then? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, was that conversation about this note and mortgage? A Yes, sir, entirely.

Q Did you have the note and mortgage with you at the time?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember whether she saw it at that time? A I don't know whether she did or not.

Q Was she in the room during this conversation? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, was there anything said looking to a settlement of it, in her presence I mean? A They promised about what they did before, that this note would be settled.

Q Well, anything about any mill stock? A Well old Long there offered me $500 Afton Mill stock out here for the note and mortgage.

Q Do you know whether she was present at the time? A No, I don't, she came in while we were talking.

Q Do you know if she knew what you were talking about? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, did she take any part in the conversation herself? A Why she talked as much, took asmuch part in it as Long did himself, when she was in.

Commissioner: This testimony will be filed as supplemental testimony in Cherokee straight case No. 4304, entitled William A. Long et al.

Dec. 20, 1901.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., October 14, 1901.

In the matter of the application of William A. Hall, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife, Eliza Hall, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation; he being sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A William A. Hall.
Q How old are you? A Forty-two.
Q What is your postoffice? A Dewey, Indian Territory.
Q Are you a white man? A Yes sir.
Q You are applying as a citizen by intermarriage? A Yes sir.
Q What is your wife's name? A Eliza.
Q How old is she? A Forty-two.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q How long has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All her life I believe.
Q When were you married to her? A Married in '90.
Q Is Eliza your first wife? A Yes sir.
Q Are you her first husband? A I am her second husband.
Q Was her first husband living when you married her? A No, he died soon after she got a divorce from him.
Q Where did she get a divorce? A Her papers are all filed here in the office.
Q Do you know, do you remember? A I never saw her papers.
Q Do you remember when the divorce was granted? A I wasn't acquainted with her then; she got the divorce before I knew her.
Q Was that the only time she was ever married before? A I think so, for years.
Q Have you and your wife been living together ever since you married her? A Yes sir.
Were you married under a Cherokee marriage license? A Yes sir.
Q You never was separated from your wife? A No sir.
Q You were living together on the first day of September 1902? A Yes sir, ever since we were married in '90, I think it was.
Q Made your home in the Cherokee Nation all the time? A Yes sir.
Mr. Wolfe: Didn't you live out in Kansas a while? A No sir.
Q You never did? A No sir.
Q Where were you in 1896? A I was living on a farm down in Dewey, Indian Territory. We had a fight over there at Vinita, and some parties had a Cherokee mortgage on the place and they made a fight and we had a trial before the Dawes Commission and they swore I lived up in Kansas in '96, '7, '8 and '99.
Q Didn't you have a law suit up in Kansas about a place up there?
A Yes sir.
Q Didn't you testify before that Court that you were a resident of the State of Kansas? A They had that up there that I swore on the witness stand that I was a resident of Kansas.
Q Didn't you swear that? A I might have done that, I don't know. I was up there with a law suit and I proved that I wasn't there.
Q It didn't make any difference with that case? A Unthoughtedly they asked the question where I lived and I said I lived in Kansas; it didn't make any difference on one side of the case or the other as the lawyers on both sides knew I was a resident of the Cherokee Nation.
Q But didn't you defeat the case up there by claiming that place as a homestead? A No sir.
Q What became of that place? A They beat me and got my farm and the mortgage I was holding.
Q Didn't you claim that place was exempt and it was your homestead?
A No sir, there was a mortgage on it.

Q Didn't you ever live on that place? A Never lived on that place sir, no sir, no sir.
Q You deny that you ever lived in the State of Kansas do you?
A Yes, sir, I have proof at Vinita.
Q Did you ever live in Kansas? A No sir, never did live in Kansas.
Q You testified in that case up in Kansas that you did live there?
A They asked me the question where I resided; I don't know what they did ask me, and I said I resided in Kansas.
Commission: Did you ever make a residence in Kansas? A No sir.
Q Did you ever live there at all? A No sir.
Q What do you mean by saying your residence is in Kansas? A I had a farm there.
Q What made you say that? A Unthoughtedly they asked me where I was residing, which wasn't the case at all; I never thought about it.
J.J.Starr: You were living in Kansas in 1898? A No sir, I lived on my farm in '98, down there at Dewey.
Q Were you up in Kansas at any time in 1898? A In 1896 I sent her to Colorado for her health, and in '99 I sent her to Colorado for her health and in the winter of '99 she went to Coffeyville under a doctor's care and I lived on my place and went backward and forward. She was there under the doctor's care and I lived on my place.
Q How much of the time of '98 were you in Kansas? A I was up there the time the Chautauqua was going on; Davis come there to see me; I was there four days.
Q Where were you at that time? A At the Dewey Hotel at that time, or the Farmer's Home.
Q Didn't live on a farm in Kansas near Coffeyville in '98? A No sir. My wife was some sick to Colorado in '98.
Q Where were you living? A I was living on my place; I had no home, nobody to keep house; I never kept house when I went to Coffeyville; I went up there frequently, stopped at the hotel there.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q What is your post-office address? A Dewey, Indian Terriaoty.
Q Are you the same William A. Long that applied at Bartlesville, for citizenship on the 10th of October a year ago today? A Yes, sir, I guess so; I was enrolled there.
Q What is your age? A 51.
Q What is your father's name? A John C. Long.
Q What is your mother's name? A Caroline.
Q How long have you been living at Dewey? A Since the spring of '98, I bought the place there in March.
Q Did you go ~~thereinlastxMarch~~ there then Marchof '98? A Yes sir.
Q How many years last March? A Three years.
Q Last March or next March? A This is three years, it will be three years next March.
Q You went there then in March of '99? A No sir in '98; spring of '99 is one year, spring of '90 is two years and spring of '91 is three years.
Q When did you move on that place? A Four or five days after I bought it.
Q How many crops have you made on it? A Three crops.
Q You must have gone on it in '99 then? A No sir, in '98; spring of '99 would be one year ~~on it~~ and the spring of 1900 would be two years and the spring of 1901 would be three years.
Q You are positive that you have made four crops on that place? A Yes sir this will be four crops if I figure right.
Q Where did you move from when you moved to Dewey? A We lived at Vinita, went over there in the spring of '98.
Q Did you go from Vinita to Dewey? A No sir, from Coffeyville; I bought the place in March and my wife came overon-- I dont know if she came the last of March or the first of April-- I went and taken possession of the place and then she went to Colorado and lived there in '98 and came back in the fall and was under the doctors care in Coffeyville and they advised me to send her back as she was suffering from lung trouble, and I sent her there next year and I lived on the place.
Q Where did you live prior to your marriage to your wife? A In Kansas.
Q Where in Kansas? A Coffeyville, two summers I was in Texas but Coffeyville was my home.
Q Was there a suit in Montgomery County Kansas brought against you by John T. Wettock? A Yes sir.
Q When was that case tried? A I believe it was in '99.
Q I would like for you to be as positive as you can? A One case at Fort Scott and one case at Independence Kansas.
Q This case was tried before A.H.Skidmore as Judge? A Yes, that was in 99.
Q Where was you living at that time? A On my place.
Q Where? A Dewey.
Q How long had you been living there then? A Bou ght the place in March of '98 and went there then, my wife was in Colorado in '98 and '99.
Q Where was you living at that time? A On my place.
Q Where? A Dewey.
Q How long had you been living there then? A Bought the place in March of '98 and went there then, my wife was in Colorado in '98 and '99.
Q Well, didn't you testify in that case in your own behalf? A Yessir. at Fort Scott and Independence both.
Q I will ask you if you didn't say then during the progress of that trial, in answer to this question:"Where do you reside Mr.Long?" if you didn't answer that "I reside in Coffeyville, Kansas."
A Yes sir, but I can explain it this way: The farm I owned was close to Coffeyville, Kansas and the suit was brought there in Kansas-- some of the time-- I will tell you how this was: when I was on the Dewey place, I lived there all the time except when I would go away on business, I was in Coffeyville on business several times, I was there in '99; some times I was up there and sometimes I was on my place; I called Dewey my home and I might have answered that question that way. Sometimes I would go there a stay a month at Coffeyville, I might have answered that question that way, but I wasn't a resident there.

Q I will ask you if following that question, if in answer to this question, "How long have you lived there?" you answered this: "I have lived in and about there for 18 or 20 years." A Yes sir.
Q Didn't you own a farm at that time within two miles of the city of Coffeyville Kansas? A Yes sir-- I went up there once in '97 fishing and camping there for a couple of weeks.--
Q Wasn't this suit in reference to some mortgage on that very farm? A Yes sir, given before my marriage on an old cattle deal.
Q Didn't you claim that place in Kansas as a homestead? A Yes sir as a homestead, it was a farm that I owned at that time.
Q That was the reason that it involved the question of your residence on that farm because you claimed it as a homestead? A My lawyers done that, they claimed that I could hold it as a homestead; I didn't live there; they made that pleading.
Q You admit that you answered the question as to how long you had lived there, that you answered about 18 years? A Yes sir I came there to that country 18 years ago.
Q As a matter of fact from June '96 to December '99 didn't you live there on that farm in Kansas and cultivate it? A No sir I never plowed a furrow there and haven't for ten years.
Q I will ask you if Thomas Houck didn't tend the place for you? A Yes sir, he did; the bank wanted to rent it and they got the rent.
Q Didn't you have your household effects there during that time on that farm? A No sir we never took anything up there; we was up in there in '97 camping and fishing and staying in a tent that Mr.Isabel let us have, a whole family ofus, we went up there in the fall and staid two months [illegible]. My wife was [illegible] Coffeyville in '[illegible] and I [illegible] D[illegible], I [illegible] Coffeyville [illegible] D[illegible].
Q Then it is not a fact that in '99 during that trial that you waz living in Coffeyville Kansas? A I had a room down there in Dewey and I was in Coffeyville and in Fort Scott too on business, looking up witnesses in this case, would stay there a week or ten days at a time and come back to my place at Dewey. As far as living at Coffeyville then, I never did it; I stopped there in my tent for a couple of months in '97 fishing and camping.
Q From whom did you purchase that place near Dewey? A J.D.Blosser
Q You claim that you bought it in the spring of '98? A Yes sir I have the bill of sale and I think that it was the spring of '98 in March I think.

In the matter of the application of William A. Long et al for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearances:
W.H.Kornegay, attorney for applicant;
J.L.Baugh, Cherokee representative.

JOHN T. WETTACK, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:
Mr.Baugh: What is your name? A John T. Wettack.
Q What is your age? A My age is 59.
Q Where do you live? A I live in Coffeyville, Kansas.
Q About how long have you lived there, Mr. Wettack? A I have lived there; well I moved there in '93, spring of '93, it would be eight years past.
Q Are you acquainted with Mr. William A Long? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known Mr. Long? A I have known him for about eight years.
Q Where did you first get acquainted with him at? A I got acquainted with him in Coffeyville, Kansas.
Q Was he living in Coffeyville, Kansas at that time, or near there? A No, sir, no, I think he was then living in Vinita.
Q Has he ever lived near Coffeyville, Kansas? A Yes, sir.
Q About when did he first live there to your knowledge? A He moved on a farm near Coffeyville in about June, 1896.
Q Well, do you know whether or not Mr. Long has lived continuously or did live continuously for how long? A He lived there continuously for about three years.
Q About when did he move back to the Cherokee Nation? A I think he moved back in about November,1899.
Q Well, did you have any conversation with him at that time relative to his residence and his citizenship? A Yes, sir, I had several conversations with him.
Q Well, just state what the conversations were that you had with him? A I can only tell them in about substance.
Q Well, just as near as you can? A It is hard to tell exactly unless I give sorter of a recital of our business between us.
Q Well, did you have any business transactions with him then? A Yes, sir.
Q What were the nature of those transactions? A Well, it is mostly with reference to a law suit thatwas penging against him and the first National Bank of Coffeyville.
Q Well, I will ask you in connection with that, did you have a mortgage on his place in Kansas at that time? Or the First National Bank did? A Yes, sir, the First National Bank did, and the Eastern Loan Company had a mortgage.
Q Well, I will ask this question: What is your occupation now? A I am cashier of the First National Bank of Coffeyville, Kansas.
Q Well, now in reference to the business transactions, did Mr.Long give you to understand that his residence was in Kansas and that he intended to keep it up?

Mr Kornegay: I object to that as being leading.

Commissioner: Let the witness state what Mr.Long said in regard to His residence, and what impression it had on his mind.

A Mr. Long was threatened with foreclosure suit by the Eastern Loan Company and he desires me to protect him, and he paid me, or gave a new mortgage on his farm and I lifted his previous indebtedness on the farm, and he promises to pay me at certain periods, told me that on account of this suit he had some delicacy in paying off the debt at once, and that the party suing him might take the land; he told me that he went into the Territory to recoup his losses that he made in the state and that he always intended that this land should be his home, and his homstead, and he aimed to redeem the mortgage that the Eastern Loan had and the First National Bank just as soon as he could do so with safety, and make it his homestead.

Q From that you understood that his citizenship was in Kansas?
Mr.Kornegay: I object to that.
Commissioner: He will state the fact.
A All I learned from the conversationwas that he aimed to retain that farm as his home.
Q Well you know anyway that he was living there from 1896 up to sometime the latter part of 1899? A Yes sir.
Mr.Kornegay: Who cultivated thatf arm in 1896? A Why the gentleman that rented it, his name I forget.
Q Who cultivated it in 1897? A I think Mr. Houk.
Q Who cultivated it in 1898? A The same man.
Q The fact of the business is, Long never did cultivate it during any of this time, did he? A Well, he always rented the cultivated lands.
Q He rented it? A Yes.
Q Well now you know what interests he had down in the Nation during that time? A Don't know anything about his interests in the Nation.
Q How far was the farm from Coffeyville? A About two or three miles.
Q Howmany times were you on that farm in 1897? A Well, I can't say as to that.
Q Weren't there at all? A Yes, sir, I was there every year.
Q Well, about how often? A Oh, two or three times a year.
Q Two or three times a year was the extent of it? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, do you know whether or not Mr. Long didn't have a farm down in the Nation during that time and that he was back and forth looking after that farm? A I don't know anything about his interests in the Nation.
Q You don't know anything about his living down there on the Bartlesville place do you? A No, sir, don't remember.
Q Don't know anything about that? A No, sir.
Q Never kept up with Long very much? A Yes, sir, kept up very closely with him.
Q All you know about it is he lived on that place? A Yes, sir.
Q Lived there all the time? A Yes, sir, three years continuously.
Q Where was his wife? A His wife was with him most of the time.
Q During what years? A From June, 1896, continuously to about November, 1899.
Q Did he live in the house on the place? A Yes, sir, lived in the house on the place.
Q Anybody else live there? A No, sir, nobody else lived there.
Q None at all during that time? A No, sir, there was only one house on there and only one family lived there.
Q You don't know anything about his living there in the Nation at that time? A No, sir, nobody else does, I don't suppo se.
Q Don't know anything about it? A No, sir.
Q Why are you so positive about nobody else knowing about these things; what have you got against Mr. Long? A Because he lived on his farm in Kansas.
Q Your relations towards him are not very friendly? A No, sir, he tried to swindle me out of $3500 claiming that land as his homestead.
Q You beat him on that? A Yes, sir.
Q You proved it wasn't his homestead? A No, I didn't prove anything.
Q You beat him on that very contention? A I beat him because he owed me.
Q You proved that it wasn't his homestead? A No, sir, I proved nothing except that he owed me.

Q You proved nothing except that he owed you? AYes, sir, that is what I proved.

Mr. Baugh: We have got another witness in this case; he isn't here yet.

--o--

Testimony introduced on behalf of the applicant.

JOHN HOTSON, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Kornegay: What is your name and post-office? A John Hotson; Vera is my post-office.
Q Do you know W.A.Long? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known him? A A little over three years, about three years and a half.
Q What time did you become acquainted with him? A In the spring of '98.
Q Where was he at that time? A He was on his farm up there about Bartlesville.
Q Was he living there? A I suppose he was, he had a bed there that he called his and he roomed there and had his team there and had them in the barn.
Q You know whether or not he had any portion of the barn specially reserved for himself? A Yes, sir.
Q You know about a room that he had there, or anything about that? A Yes sir, there was a room up stairs in the house that he occupied all the time he was there.
Q Who received the rents that year down there? A Long did himself.
Q What did he do with them? A I can't tell you what he did with them; he stored the grain.
Q On whose place, where did he store it, in the granary on the farm? A Yes, sir, he had one third of all the granary room.
Q Do you know whether he worked on the place, made repairs, etc? A Yes, sir.
Q What time in the spring was it that you got acquainted with him and know he was there? A In May, 1898.
Mr. Baugh: Mr. Hotson, when did you say Mr. Long came to his place on Caney? A I can't tell you when he came, I went to that farm and met him there, went to work on the farm.
Q Were you his renter? A No sir, I worked for the renter.
Q Well, Mr . Long didn't have possession of that place at that time, did he, he only had a room, isn't that a fact? A I suppose he had possession, he had arenter and he stayed there.
Q Where was his family? A His wife was in Colorado, she went in June.
Commissioner: What June, June before? A No sir, the June after I got acquainted with him, she was sick at the time.
Mr. Baugh: Was his wife living with him on the place? A No sir.
Q Do you know where she was at? A No, sir, I don't.
Q Then it is a fact that Mr. Long didn't live there, only just stayed there temporarily? A Why he had the farm rented and he made his home there, he was there about half the time.

Appearances:
J.L.Baugh for the Cherokee Nation.
W.H.Kornegay for the applicant.

THOMAS HOUCK being first duly sworn by Commissioner T.B. Needles, testified as follows on the part of the Cherokee Nation:
(By Baugh)

Q What is your name? A Thomas Houck.
Q How old are you? A 56 .
Q Where do you live? A Three and a half miles southeast of Coffeyville.
Q How long have you lived there? A 7 years.
Q Do you know a man named William A. Long? A Yes sir.
Q And his wife? A Yes sir.
Q What is his wife's name? A Eliza.
Q Did you ever rent a farm from William A Long in the State of Kansas? A Yes sir.
Q When? A In the fall of '65 I put in a crop of wheat.
Q [illegible]n '65? A I mean in '95; I sowed a crop in the fall of '95-- wheat.
Q Who was working with you at the time you rented the farm--did you rent it for yourself or with some one else? A My son and I worked it together, we rented it in partnership.
Q Do you remember how long you remained there as Mr. Long's tenant? A The last crop we put in-- in '99 was the last crop we put in.
Q During the time that you lived on the farm did Mr. Long live there also on the farm? A Yes sir-- I didn't live on the farm, I lived on the Reed farm and only farmed the Long farm; we couldn't get possession of the house on the Long farm, he had possession of the house all the time.
Q Why couldn't you get possession? A Because he said he had to have possession as Whitake was going to bring suit against him and he wanted it as his homestead.
Q Did he live there when you rented it? A No sir he lived here in Vinita then I think.
Q When did he come there after that? A In 1896.
Q Who was living there when you rented it from him? A A man named Pepper; he wouldn't rent me the house and so I sub-rented the house to Pepper with the understanding that when Long moved up he was to have the house right away.
Q When Mr. Long moved up in '96 did he get possession of the house? A In about a month; he had a tent there; I loaned him the tent, and he pitched it on the place and lived in it for a month until Pepper got out.
Q Did he move his household goods in that tent? A Yes sir.
Q How long did he live in that house after that, after he moved in? A Until long in '99-- no '98 I think it was.
Q I will ask you if you ever went to him and made a proposition to him to allow your son to move in the house in which he lived any time during the year '99? A No sir it was in '98, in the fall of '98- or was it '99- ~~mxxxxx~~ I am so forgetful- anyway it was the last crop we put in on the place, I made him a proposition one Sunday morning if he would let my son live in the house while he was prepairing the ground to sow wheat, my son had got married then and was living four miles from this place and it was inconvenient for him to come ~~fxxx xxxxx~~ so far to work and so I wanted to get him the house to live in while he was breaking the ground and I asked Mr. Long about it and he said for me to come back the next Tuesday and that he would let me know, that he would have to consult his lawyer first before he would give me an answer.

Q Did he afterwards come back and let you have the house? A He came back on Thursday and said that Will, that's my son, could live there but that he must not bring any of his own household goods in there, not as much as a waterbucket.
Q Had William A. Lane been living in the State of Kansas and on that place from harvest time in '96 until the time you speak of? A Yes sir, made his continuous residence there.
Q Do you know when he left up there? A Long late in the fall, in November, getting cold weather.
Q What year? A Make it the year of-- let's see--that would be in the fal or inter of '98-- I am a ppor hand to figure dates--yes that was about the time--when Mr. Whitake got possession of the place.
Q When did Mr. Whitake get possession of the place? A When my son moved in the house Mr. Whitake--
Q I simply want to know when it was that Mr. Whitake got possession of the place is all? A That winter, in '98.
Q In the winter of '98? A Yes sir winter or fall, cold weather.
(By Mr. Kornegay.)
Q Was Mr. Long at all times on the place--wasn't he away from it a good deal of the time? A Only to town and back is all.
Q Didn't he come to the Territory during that time? A Yes sir, he would occasionally take a trip here and be gone aday or two two or three days.
Q Did he have any interests in the Territory at that time?
A Yes sir he claimed he had.
Q Where? A Claimed he had a farm near Vinita.
Q Any where else? A Long later he claimed he had bought the Joel O Mack place.
Q He always claimed during that time that he had interests down here and would occasionally be down here? A Yes sir he would come and see about his rents when he thought they were harvesting, and he would get me to do his chores arounhd the place there.
Q Who else occupied that house besides Lane? A Nobody.
Q Didn't Joe Blosser occupy it? A No sir it was locked up except when his wife came up, she came once and staid at my house.
Q When Mr. Lane was there was she always on the place? A She was there all the time.
Q Who was there all the time? A Mrs. Lane.
Q From when was she there all the time? A From '96.
Q What time in '96? A Middle of June.
Q Continuously until '98? A Yes sir.
Q Never was away during that time? A Yes, occasionally they would be gone and drive away for a day in the country there.
Q You are positive of that are you? A Yes sir, I lived within one mile of them.
Q And you know positively that Mrs. Lane lived on that place continuously from the middle of June '96 until '98? A Yes sir.
Q What is the state of your feelings towards Mr. Lane? A I think Mr. Lane is as good a neighbor as I ever lived beside of.
Q How came you to come down here this time? A I was subpoenaed.
Q Wasn't you subpoenaed a t the instance of Morris Knight who has a suit now against Mr. Lane? A The first I knew of this I got a letter from Mr. Starr wanting me to make a statement as to how long Lane lived there and ifhe had made a continuous residence there during the time he was there; I didn't pay much attention to it for sometime until one day I went to the bank on some business and I said to Mr. Whitake that I had this letter and he said to make a statement and then he made it out for me and mailed it, and the next I knew I got a subpoena.

Q Both you and Mr. Whitake volunteered to make affidavits in the case of Blosser and Long, that is true isn't it? A Yes sir.
(By Mr. Baugh)
Q You know that he did live there from '96 to '98? A I do for I lived close neighbors to him.

BY THE COMMISSION: This will be filed with the papers in the case.

TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF THE CHEROKEE NATION.

Appearances:
W.H.Kornegay, attorney for the applicant, and applicant in person.
W.W.Hastings, of attorneys for the Cherokee Nation.

LAURA MACK, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Laura Mack.
Q What is your age, Madam? A 38.
Q What is your post-office address? A Ramona, Indian Territory.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q How long has Ramona been yourpost-office?A Since the 10th of October.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.
Q Is your husband alive or dead? A Dead.
Q What was his name? A Joel O. Mack.
Q He was killed I believe, in 1897? A Yes sir.
Q Where was your husband living, you and your husband living at the time of his death? A At the time of his death we resided in Independence, Kansas. He held a right on a farm near Dewey, Indian Territory; it wasn't any Dewey then, it was Bartlesville; had his stock there and held his rights there, but he had a renter on the place.
Q Did you ever reside on that farm? A Yes, sir.
Q Had you resided on it prior to that time? A Yes sir.
Q When did you begin to reside on it? A It was in the fall of '85.
Q Do you know the applicant here, W.A.Long? A I met him, yes sir.

Q You know his wife? A Yes sir.
Q What was his wife's name when you first knew her? A Blosser.
Q Eliza Blosser? A Yes sir.
Q Was that her married name or her maiden name? A Her married name as I understood it.
Q What was her husband's name at that time? A Emanuel Blosser.
Q Had Emanuel Blosser and Eliza Blosser any children? A Yes sir.
Q What were their names? A Joe D. Blosser.
Q Well now when did you go upon this place out near Bartlesville that you spoke of? A It was in the fall of '85 that I went there, but my husband he went there in the spring before and opened the place.
Q Had Eliza Long married her present husband then, W.A.Long? A No sir.
Q To whom was she married at that time? A Emanuel Blosser.
Q Do you know what time your husband made a contract to go upon that place as you stated? A Yes sir.
Q That contract reduced to writing? A Yes sir.
Q Have you it with you? A No sir.
Q What became of it? A Last I knew of it it was in Mr. Hutchingson's hands at Muskogee, I think that's the lawyer's name,- Hutchings
Q Have you seen it since? A No sir.
Q Did you try to get a copy of it? A No sir.
Q Have you seen any of the pleadings in a civil suit an answer of which he filed for you or for your husband? A No, I don't think I ever did.
Q You don't know whether that was filed with it or not? A No sir.
Q Well, were you present when this contract was made? A I heard the contract talked over; I wasn't present when it was made but I was present when it was signed.
Q Well who signed it? A Mrs. Blosser and her husband and my husband, and I think Mr. M cKay, Mrs. Blosser's brother, but I wont be positive about that.
Q What was the contract about? A It was about taking a piece of land and improving it.
Q For whom?
MR. KORNEGAY: I object; the contract should be in evidence; the testimony should not be taken as to the contents of it.
COM'R BRECKINRIDGE: Objection will be noted.
A J. D. Blosser.
MR.KORNEGAY: We note an exception.
Q Now tell under his objection what were the conditions of that contract and what was it? A Well I couldn't tell everything that was said, but we was to have a piece of land, fence it, break it out and make improvements and have the use of it for 15 years, and at the end of that time it was to be Joe D. Blosser's farm. It was always understood to be Joe D. Blosser.
Q Emanuel Blosser was his father? A Yes sir.
Q And Eliza was the mother of Joe D.? A Yes sir, I always so understood it.
Q Was Joe D. of age at that time? A No sir.
Q A minor? A Yes sir.
Q Well how long did you continue to live upon this place? A We lived there from the fall of '85 until the fall of '99, with the exception of about six months that I was at Independence, schooling the children.
Q That was in 1897? A Yes sir.
Q What time in the fall of 1899 did you leave the place? A In November, the 26h.
Q Were you upon this place all of the year of 1898? A Yes sir.
Q And all of the year of 1899 up until November 26? A Yes sir.
Q How far is this place located from where Dewey now is, and in what direction? A It is east and a little south.
Q Well about how far? A Oh it isn't- about a half a mile, hardly a quarter; it takes about 10 minutes to walk up there, I understand the town site survey runs right up on the place.

Q I will ask you if William A. Long, with his wife Eliza Long, ever lived upon that place during the year of 1898 or the year of 1899, up until you left there in November, 26th? A They never did.
Q Did Mr. Long have a room down there? A No sir.
Q Did he have any furniture down there? A No sir.
Q Did he have any bedding? A No sir.
Q Did he reserve part of the barn for his use? A No sir.
Q You were there I believe until November 26,1899? A Yes sir.
Q His wife ever live down there during those two years up until that time? A On that farm?
Q Yes ma'am? A No sir.
Q Well was it understood that- you ever saw him down there at any time? A Well at one time he was there and made some repairs on the granary , and he may have been there a week, possibly 10 days, I don't think over that time, I don't know, it was quite a little while, several days.
Q With whom did he eat at that time? A He eat with me at my table.
Q Upon whose bed did he sleep? A Mine, I owned the bed.
Q Never kept any room? A No sir.
Q Did he bring anything down there with him in the way of furniture or clothing or anything of that kind? A I never saw any of it
Q Did you ever see him bring a change of clothing down there?
A Never did.
Q Did he ever have any washing done down there? A Yes, one time I let him have a shirt of my brother's and washed his so he would be clean; he had that washing done there, for I did it.
Q Where was he living in '98 and '99? A Indeed I couldn't say, he told me he lived at Coffeyville.
Q Kansas? A Yes sir.
Q When did he tell you that? A Oh several times; in fact he always referred to living there when he would be down on the place; he was there several times.
Q Did you ever have any correspondence with him? A Yes sir, I received one or two letters from him.
Q Post-marked Coffeyville? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever hear him say anything about having a homestead up there near Coffeyville, in Kansas? A Said he owned a farm up there.
Q Made no declaration about keeping it as a homestead that you know of? A I don't know as I ever heard it referred to as a homestead, but he called it a farm and a home.

BY MR. KORNEGAY:

Q Mrs. Mack, how did you occupy the place in the year 1898, under whom? A Why from George Crooks.
Q You rentedit from George Crooks? A Yes sir, I had it under George Crooks.
Q Who did he hold it under? A Our administrator, Wilhite, my husband's administrator; or at least Wilhite and Crooks made the contract, and the understanding was I was to have as much ground as I wanted under the same contract that George Crooks made with Wilhite, I was to have half or as much of the farm as I wanted and I dealt with Crooks.
Q I will get you to look at this and see if that isn't your signature by which you hel td it that year, under that contract? A Hands witness paper.)
A Yes , that is my signature and this is the contract that Crooks-
Q What is the date of that contract? A It says the 22nd, 189%.
Q Of what? A This says '97.
Q Who was to get the rent under that contract, examine it and see.

MR.KORNEGAY: We introduce that contract.

United States Court in Indian Territory, sitting in and for the Northern District thereof, at Vinita.

In the matter of the Estate of Joel O. Mack, deceased. Stipulation signed by all the parties in interest filedin this case under and by virtue of an order of court under date of the 21st day of December,A.D.1897, at Vinita.

This Agreement, made and entered into on this the 22 day of December A.D.1897, by and between Ola Wilhite, Administrator of the Estate of Joel O. Mack, deceased, and a citizen of the United States, and residing 2 1/2 miles northeast of Bartlesville, I.T., and within the Northern District of the Indian Territory, and George Crooks, a citizen of the United States and residing within the said District and Territory aforesaid, three miles northeast of Bartlesville,I.T., parties of the first part, and Mrs. Eliza Long, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, residing at Vinita, I.T., party of the second part,

WITNESSETH: That said party of the first part, for and in consideration of crops raised on the farm known as the Blosser place, and occupied by Joel O. Mack in his life time, the same being about 600 acres situate about 2 miles northeast of Bartlesville, I.T., for the years 1896 and 1897, same to be delivered to said party of the first part, Ola Wilhite, Administrator of the Estate of Joel O. Mack, deceased, for the use and benefit of said estate by the party of the second part, Mrs. Eliza Long, and for andin consideration of the renting of said farm aforesaid by the said second party, Mrs. Eliza Long, to the party of the first part, Groege Crooks, for the year beginning January 1st,1898, and ending the rental of the wheat and small grain land as soon as the same is off of the ground and ending the rental of the corn land the first day of March, A.D.1899, the said first party, George Crooks, in consideration of the above, hereby expressly agrees to pay to the said party of the second part, Mrs. Eliza Long, one-third of all the small grain raised on said farm aforesaid for the crop year of 1898 in half-bushels, andone-third of all the corn raised on said place aforesaid for the crop year of 1898 in the cribs on said place, and he further agrees to give the full and complete possession of this entire farm free from all tenants to said second party on the 1st day of March,1899, said possession to be feasible and without recourse to law.

Said party of the first part, George Crooks, further agrees to give to said second party, Mrs. Eliza Long, one-third of all hay raised and put up on said place in the stack and to give to said second party one-third of the corn-stalks, with the privilege retained to said first party to buy th e said one third of corn stalks from said second party at the market price, and to give said second party one third of all straw from the small grain, provided that if said second party wants one third of said straw she will agree to pay for the stacking of same.

For and in consideration of the use of the pastures on said place said first party, George Crooks, is to have free use of same, provided that said first party, George Crooks, is to keep all the fences on said place in first class order at all times and in good repair.

The said second party agrees to take out necessary permits for said first party George Crooks and the tenants that he may put on said place under him, provided, that said George Crooks is to pay for all of said permits, which he hereby agrees to do, and to keep paid up promptly, as required by law.

In consideration of the above, the said second party, Mrs. Eliza Long, for herself and for her son, J.D.Blosser, who has agreed with said party of the first part, Ola Wilhite, Administrator of the Estate of Joel O. Mack, deceased, that she will bring no suit for damages against said estate, and that said J.D.Blosser will bring no suit for damages against said estate, and that the crops of 1896 and 1897 shall be the absolute property of the said estate from the time that this contract is ratified and signed by the parties hereto and filed of record in this case.

The said Ola Wilhite, administrator of the estate of Joel O. Mack, deceased, hereby expressly agrees on the signing and filing of this stipulation to release said place from the administration forever, hereby ratifying all the things contained in the above con tract and attached agreement, and ex pressly agrees that if this contract is faithfully observed by all the parties hereto the same shall be and remain in full force and effect, and that if any of the terms of said contract are broken by said parties hereto the same shall become alienable and the immediate possession of the place shall be given to the said second party, Mrs. Eliza Long, or she shall have the right to recover the same by law as if or by unlawful detainor.

We have the day and year first above written set our hands and affixed our seals to this instrument.

WITNESS our hands and seals this the 22nd day of December, 1897.

Indorsed on back: No.60:Probate. In the matter of the Estate of Joel O. Mack, deceased. Stipulation of all parties in interest in the contract and agreement between the parties. Filed December 28,1897. James A. Winston,Clerk, by J.C.Anderson Deputy, P.S.Davis.

Q In that contract the rent of Mrs. Long was to be placed in the cribs on the place was itnot? A That's what it says.
Q I believe you said that Mr. Long improved the granaries when he was down there one time? A Yes sir.
Q What granary was reserved for the purpose of putting this rent into? A There was one on t he east side of the barn that he used for corn.
Q Well now where was the wheat stored? A I don't remember about the wheat, I believe he hauled it off.
Q Wasn't a part of the wheat placed in the ice house in storage? A Yes sir, it was.
Q And part in the granary at the barn wasn't it? A I don't remember about any wheat being at the barn, I remember its being stored in the bins, up over the bins on the east side there was kind of an upper granary- I mean on the west side, there was kind of an upper granary on the west side, I think he had his oats up there, but I disremember about th e wheat, but since you spoke of it I remember he did have wheat in the ice house.

Q All the wheat that was in the ice house was his, yours wasn't stored there at all? A No, I think not.
Q Wasn't there a division made in the granary and didn't he have ont third of the granary room at the barn? A I don't remember about the wheat at the barn, I remember he had wheat at the ice house, but I don't remember about the wheat at the barn.
Q How long did it stay in storage, do you know? A No sir.
Q How long before cropping time in 1898 was it that he repaired the granary? A Oh I don't remember just how long it was, it was some little time I presume, but I don't know exactly how long it was.
Q Didn't the floor one side of it, a place about 40 feet long?
A He was putting floors down, I don't know how long theywere.
Q How long was the barn? A I couldn't tell you that.
Q You know how many stalls in the barn? A Five I believe, on a side.
Q How wide are those stalls? A I don't know.
Q Where did Mr. Long keep his animals down there, his team when he was down there? A Sometimes in the pasture and sometimes in the barn.
Q Where did he sleep when he was there? A Well he slept first one place and another, there was three or four rooms and three or four beds, and wherever it was convenient for me to put him he slept.
Q Didn't have but 2 beds at the house did you? A Well I guess I did, I had 3, two upstairs and one down, and part of the time I had 4; if it was necessary I could put a bed on the floor, and did.
Q Well now Mrs. Mack, you stayed there under Crooks that year and he stored the rents on the place and had the control of the ice house and the granary, how did you stay there the next year? A And had control of the ice house?
Q Didn't you state that here? A He did with my consent; he did not have that reserved; we just allowed him to put it there; that wasn't considered the granary, that belonged to the house, andwe simply accomodated him that much.
Q How did you occupy the premises in the year 1899? A Well I occupied them , Mr. Long come down there before the contract, this contract and Crooks come in and I said some thing about what I would do if I knew we could have the place another year, and he says you can have it, go on and do that, he says you can have it on the same contract, and Crooks got it from the administrator and we stayed under that contract, but along in February he comes there with another contract different from that and I objected to it and him and I had a spat about it, and we have never loved each other since.
Q Well you signed it didn't you? A Signed what.
Q Contfact? A Yes sir, signed it after he put my name in it, he was trying to get my name out after I planted 150 acres of wheat there then he tried to get somebody else to rent the place and throw me off.
Q You fell out at that time? A Didn't fall out, but he left mighty quick and was never back afterwards; I told him what I thought about the way he was doing and he left and never did come back in the house while I was living there, until the day of my sale, 4th day of November.
Q How did you happen to come here? A How did I happen to come?
Q Yes. A I was sent for.
Q Who sent for you? A Commissioners I believe.
Q Were you subpoenaed? A Yes sir.
Q Regular subpoena? A Well I guess it is a regular subpoena , I am not acquainted with subpoenas; it says subpoena.
Q Did Morris Knight have you to come here? A I don't know. I aint seen Morris Knight attached to it, not his name in the papers.
Q You are Morris' witness in a lawsuit he has over a place here
A Not down here now on that business.

Q You have been? A No sir.
Q You made affidavits in his behalf voluntarily? A Yes sir I did make an affidavit for Mr. Knight.
Q I will get you to look at this and see if you didn't rent the place in 1899 from Mr. Long a couple of years ago? A Why I said I did.
Q Where was his wheat stored that year? A I don't know where it was stored, because I went away while he was thrashing. I went on a visit to California.
Q You stayed there the balance of the time that year didn't you? A Stayed where.
Q All the year of '99? A I stayed there until November on the farm.
Q You don't know then where Long was on the place during that time or not, do you? A He might have been there a few days while I was gone, I wasn't gone but about a month.

MR.KORNEGAY: I would like to introduce that lease.

Witness: I rented the place from Mr. Long last year, I acknowledge that.

MR.KORNEGAY: (Reads lease as follows:)

Lease, dated February 28,1899, signed by W.A. Long, Laura Mack, Harry Hayden. Term beginning March 1st,1899 and ending March 1st,1900.

Q Well, he had the granaries that year too didn't he, to store his wheat in? A I told you I don't know where he stored his wheat there or not, I don't believe his wheat was there when I come back.
Q Reserved the stalk fields that year didn't he? A Not all of them he didn't.
Q Part of it? A We went right by the contract; we didn't break the contract.

MR.KORNEGAY: I will introduce the contract. (Reads it):

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That this Contract made and entered into by and between W.A.Long, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, I.T., party of the first part, and Harry Hayden, and Laura Mack, as citizens of the United States, parties of the second part, that the party of the first part this day and of this date do let and by these presents have leased and let unto the parties of the second part the following described improvements for the year 1899, situate and being in Cooweescoowee District, Cherokee Nation,I.T., said farm containing about 500 acres in cultivation, being situate about 2 1/2 miles northeast of Bartlesville,I.T., This contract is to begin March 1st, 1899, and end March 1st, 1900. For and in consideration of the rent of said farm the party of the second part hereby obligateshimself and agrees to pay unto the party of the first part one-third of all the wheat and oats raised upon said farm in half-bushels, and also one-third of all the corn raised upon said farm, to be delivered to the party of the first part in crib upon said farm; also one-third of all hay and other products raised upon said farm, excepting those above mentioned, to be delivered to the party of the first part in stack; the party of the second part hereby obligates himself to agree to keep up the fences, houses andother improvements upon said farm in as good condition as they are now in, usual wear and tear and deterioration excepted, for which the party of the first part obligates himself and agrees to give unto the party of the second part free ad undisturbed use during the continuance of this lease of the pasture containing 100 acres more or less, said pasture being located immediately south-west of the house upon said farm being reserved for the benefit of the said first party.

Party of the first part, in addition to the covenant above mentioned is to receive,one-third of the stalk fields that grow, first party to pay for stacking of his one-third part of stacking upon said farm, giving the party of the second part the privilege to purchase same from the party of the first part at the market value at the time the same is ready for use. Party of the second part hereby waives any notice of determination of this lease and hereby agrees to give the party of the first part peaceable possession of the said farm on or before March 1st,1900, without any notice whatever.

In Testimony Whereof, the parties to this contract on this 28th day of February,1899, set their hands.

(signed)W.A.Long,
Laura Mack,
Harry Hayden.

Q Mrs. Mack, that was a part of this place that was made under contract with Eliza Long was not it? A No sir, holdon, I believe so. It was the last, I wont be positive but I think it was; we took in a scope of land three or four years after the first place was made; I think that lease was made with Mrs. Long, I wont be positive.
Q That was the one that was witnessed by William McCoy wasn't it? A McCoy, why of course he says he witnessed it, but I think the other was witnessed too.
Q Well as a matter of fact a part of this place was originally made under Mrs. Long? A I didn't say it was made under her, I said I thought the last was; that was the one Mr. Mack made the bargain with, I think it was after his death, I wont be positive.
Q Wasn't it with Mrs. Long, and wasn't the name Eliza Long signed to it? A Well it says sothere , but I wont be positive.

BY MR. KORNEGAY: (Reads instrument):

February 5,1891. On California Creek.Ranch.

This is To Certify, that I have this day employed Joel O. Mack to improve the land lying now between the place occupied by him on Four Mile and Coon Creek and Billy Wilson's place and west of said place now occupied by Joel O. Mack, and for payment for his improvemaaing said land the said Joel O. Mack is to have all he can make off of said land so improved for 15 crops, commencing from date and ending with the year 1906, at which time said Joel O. Mack shall give full possession of said premises together with the improvements thereon.

Eliza Long,
Joel O. Mack.

Witness: William McCoy.

February 5,1891.
On California Creek Ranch.
This written contract is not to be construed so as to alter the contract on farm or old improvements in any particular.

Eliza Long.
Witness: William McCoy. Joel O. Mack.

Q Mrs. Mack, I will go back to the year 1898, you remember the bin that was put there on the east side of the barn during that year? A A bin put there?
Q Yes, put on the east side of the barn during the year 1898? A There never was.
Q Don't know anything about that? A A new bin built thera on?
Q A floor built in the shed on the east side, making a bin? A There always has been a bin there. Mr. Long repaired some bins and he put floors in; I think he put them on both sides of the barn, the bins were on each side of the barn, I think he put a floor in each bin.

BY MR.HASTINGS:

Q He never did li ve there in 1898 or 1899 up to the time you left there? A No sir, he never did.

Q And he never has any stuff there? A No sir.
Q No effects in your house? A No sir.
Q When he was down there occasionally he has lived in your house and slept on your beds? A Yes sir.
Q Now I believe you stated that you thought that Mr. Blosser, Emanuel Blosser was dead when this last contract was entered into? A That's what I said.
Q Had there been any talk of any trouble as to holding the old improvements when this last contract was ~~entered into?~~ made?
A Never had to my knowledge.
Q You know what wa s said as to who these new improvements should belong to at the time it was made? A-

MR.KORNEGAY: I object to that, because the written contract speaks for itself; the contract indicates both the contract between Mrs. Long in her own right and the party , and I dont think they could vary it by oral ~~objection~~ testimony at this time.

COMMISSIONER: That statement and objection will be noted and the answer permitted that the Commission may consider the whole matter.

A It was understood.

MR.KORNEGAY: I object to what you understood, but what was said

A Well I understood that it was Joe Blosser's, that it was to be attached to the other farm and also just the same as the old lease was.

Q How far was it from the old place? A It wouldn't- just took off the old wire ~~from~~ from it andput it all in.
Q You made it all part of one place? A Yes sir.

MORRIS F.KNIGHT, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your name please? A Morris F. Knight.
Q How old are you? A 27.
Q What is your post-office ad A Vinita? I.T.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q You know the applicant here, W.A.Long? A Yes sir.
Q You know his wife, Eliza? A Yes sir.
Q When did you first learn to know them? A I knew them about in 1895, I think, 1894 or 1895.
Q Did you ever know them in 1898 or '9? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you know them? A I understood they lived at Coffeyville.

MR.KORNEGAY: I object to what you understood; what you know, if you please.

Q Did you ever see them at Coffeyville? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever at their house? A Yes sir.
Q Where were they living? A They were living south-west of Coffeyville, two or three miles.
Q In Kansas or the Cherokee Nation? A In Kansas, yes sir.
Q What time were you at their house? A I was there in the summer of 1897, summer or fall of 1897, and I was there again in 1898.
Q You see them both times in Coffeyville? A Yes sir.
Q What time in 1898 were you there? A I was there sometime in the fall, I don't know exactly, it must have been September or October.
Q When did you first know that W.A.Long laid claim to the place down near Bartlesville? A Well I knew it here last year.
Q You had a mortgage on the place sometime ago? A Yes sir.
Q With whom?A Joe D. Blosser.
Q Joe D. Blosser a son of Mrs. Long? A Yes sir.
Q You had more or less litigation about it? A Yes sir.
Q Now when didhis mother, that is now Mrs. Long, and Mr. Long first claim it? A I never knew they claimed it until here the last year or so, within the last year; they never did claim it to me; never claimed that they had a bill of sale of it; I just understood that they claimed it.

Q You ever talk with Joe Blosser about it in the presence of either of these people, while they were together about it, about what relations you had in the matter or about his rights or anything with reference to ownership of it? A Yes sir, several times, he and Long talked.
Q Long ever claim that he or his wife owned it then? A No sir.
Q Well was this place sold on an order of court or foreclosure of sale? A Yes sir.

MR.KORNEGAY: I suggest that you ought to bring in the record if that is what you are tryihg to do.

Q I want to know if Mr. Long was present when the sale took place? A Yes sir.
Q Did he make any objection to the sale because of his owning it at that time? A No sir.

MR.KORNEGAY: I object to that.

Q Did he object to it at all? A He had a few objections there he never claimed the place.

Commissioner Breckinridge: It is competent to inquire into the facts that are within the immediate knowledge of the witness Of course it is not the best testimony if it is a matter set forth in the official document; but this is a matter not set forth in the document I believe.

MR.KORNEGAY:

Q Were you present when this stipulation was talked of and arranged between Ola Wilhite & Mrs. Eliza Long and Mrs. Mack, in 1897? A Between them?
Q Yes? A Yes sir.
Q You knew then as a matter of fact that they or that Mrs. Long had some interest in it didn't you? A None other than as protecting her son or helping him out.
Q You knew this contract that has been introduced in evidence was signed by the father didn't you? A Yes sir.
Q You know that George Crooks rented the place from Mrs. Long under that contract at that time didn't you? A Yes sir.
Q You never made Mrs. Long a party to your foreclosure proceedings at all did you? A No, sir, she was in the complaint.
Q You never made anybody a party except Joe D. Blosser, a non-resident? A That's all.
Q You never notified a tenant on the place did you? A Why I suppose my lawyer did if it was necessary.
Q Well did you or not? A I don't know.
Q Never made anybody a party to the proceeding except J.D.Blosser and published for him? A That's right.
Q You are talking a very prominent part in this citizenship matter are you not? A Why I am taking considerable interest in it,yes.
Q Youare the party that had Mrs. Mack to come here did you not? A No sir, the Cherokee Nation subpoenaed her I suppose.
Q Wasn't it done at your instance? A No sir.
Q Wasn't it done at the suggestion of your attorney? A I don't know.
Q You have been in frequent consultation with her since she has been here? A I had a talk with her.
Q She has been at your attorney's office? A Yes sir.
Q The matter has been thoroughly canvassed has it not? A It was talkedover.
Q Where have you been for the last year or two? A I have been here for about six months; I was in California for about 6 months.
Q What place? A Los Angeles.
Q What time were you in California? A

MR.HASTINGS: I submit that I don't see that that's a proper cross-examination.

MR.KORNEGAY: I suggest that if you put a witness on the stand I have aright atthe time to know about his antecedents. The point is that I have a right to inquire into the antecedents of the witness; of course there is some latitude to the cross-examination; he has disclosed here that he is very much of an interested witness in this case. That's developed and I want to know what are the motives behind this, that's what I want.

Commissioner Breckinridge: The Commission gives great latitude in examinations, much wider than is customary in regular judicial proceedings; it wants to get at all the facts, but the record shows in numberless cases that some care must be exercised to keep the record from growing unduly volumnious. If you want to show that the witness occupies a position prejudicial to the case why that is all very well, but you don't want simply personal biography introduced don't you see.

MR.KORNEGAY:

Q You very frequently have called on Mr. Long in the last three or four years to see something about your interests on the place?
A I have met him several times and seen him.
Q Talked to him about your interest in the place? A I believe so.
Q Why were you so instrumental in talking to him about this place if he had nothing to do with it? A Because he was the father-in-law of Joe Blosser and Blosser had skipped out of the country.
Q And Long was looking after his interest? A Mrs. Long I suppose so.

BY MR.HASTINGS:

Q Did you have, about that time that this contract that was introduced here was entered into, an interview or conversation or an understanding with Mr. Long and his wife with reference to the payment of the amount due you from Joe Blosser? A Yes sir.
Q What did they agree to do then? A Why Mrs. Long was appointed receiver for the place, and she was to pay off this mortgage out of the place from Joe Blosser; there were several judgments against him, and he was a little bit afraid that I would take the place away from him and she was appointed receiver of the place.
Q And Joe Blosser had failed had he? A Yes sir.
Q Was deeply in debt? A Yes sir.
Q And he left the country? A Left the country, yes sir.

BY MR. KORNEGAY:

Q What evidenced his confidence of her as receiver? A Why it was understanding betweenus.
Q It was this Wilhite contract that you have reference to was not it? A Yes sir.

PRESTON S. DAVIS, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your full name? A Preston S. Davis.
Q What is your age? A 30 years old, past.
Q Your post-office? A Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q You are apracticing attorney here at Vinita? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q You know W.A.Long and his wife? A Yes sir.
Q You know Morris Knight? A Yes sir.
Q You know Mrs. Mack? A Yes sir.
Q You know Joe D. Blosser? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know his father, Emanuel Blosser? A I didnot.
Q How long have you known W.A.Long? A I have known Mr. Long ever since the summer of 1896.
Q You know where he was living at that time? A I am not positive as to where he was living at that time, no sir.
Q Have you ever been to his house in the years of 1897 or 1898? A I was at his place in Coffeyville, Kansas, about this time, to the best of my remembrance, in the year 1898.
Q What did you go up there for? A Well sir, I got into a correspondence with Mr. Long in the summer of 1898 after the wheat crop was made on this Mack-Blosser place relative to Long and his wife complying withxwhat that agreement and paying over to Morris Knight on his mortgage indebtedness on this farm a portion of the proceeds of the crops, as they had agreed to do.

MR.KORNEGAY: I object to your testifying about the agreement unless you state whether it was verbal or written; if it is written I want the original and if it is verbal I guess you can go ahead.

A This agreement was verbal.

Q Well tell about it? A Well sir, this place in question belonged to J.D.Blosser and in the fall of 1896, to-wit: on September 21, of that year, I was employed by J.D.Blosser to file suit to recover the possession of this place from Joel O. Mack et al., who were then living upon it.

Q Did you do that? A I filed this suit, yes sir, it is suit No. 379 law, on the Civil Docket of the United States Court at Vinita, and the papers are now lying here before me in that case on the table. In this suit Joe D. Blosser swore that he was the owner.

KORNEGAY: I object to that.

A Here is the complaint here. (Witness hands paper to Commissioner.)

COMMISSIONER: You can substantiate any statement of fact that you want to introduce in the case; it is undertaken I believe to show that a certain party claimed a certain interest or disclaimed a certain interest in the property at a given time; the official proceedings had in that connection by theparty would certainly be competent testimony.

MR.KORNEGAY: I don't believe, Mr. Commissioner, that you could introduce Joe Blosser's affidavit in this connection as to what Joe swore, as evidence.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE: As to his own interest?

MR.KORNEGAY: Yes sir, where he was swearing for himself.This is a proceeding that Joe Blosser is not a party to and I don't believe that what he swore about it in that proceeding, he not being a party to it, would bind us in any way.

BY MR.HASTINGS: The point that we are trying to get at is that this place down here belonged to Joe Blosser instead of William A. Long or his wife at that time, and therefore that they had no effects in the Cherokee Nation, together with the additional fact that these people didnot live down there as Mr. Longhas sworn in this case. There are two points in it, both the question of ownership of the place and the question of Mr. Long and his wife's residence in 1898.

BY MR. KORNEGAY: Now he wants to introduce an affidavit sworn to by Joe Blosser in another proceeding; Joe Blosser now mind you in an unlawful detainor case where the title could not be gone into at all, and in a suit that was dismissed without any action taken by the court at all, upon Mr. Davis' own testimony.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE: But the point is to establish, if I understand it right, what Joe Blosser's relationship was to the particular piece of property; of course I know nothing of the general theory and merits of that, and in the taking of testimony from time to time in these cases it is sometimes submitted before one Commissioner and sometimes before another; I knew nothing of the general theory and character of this case; that isn't possible in these field proceedings and in lengthy cases. The Counsel for the applicant can state his objection and the testimony can be introduced simply for consideration, and the Commission will exclude it as having no bearings upon the merits of the case if upon examination they find it so. I can't undertake to discriminate definitely on these matters and the connections.

MR.KORNEGAY: Our objection is that the witness on the stand cannot testify to what was sworn to in a collateral proceeding. Further objection is that the affidavit itself made out in the proceeding would not be competent and relative in this proceeding, it being a matter to which the applicant herein was not a party at the time, and being offered as an admission of one of the applicants. And for the further reason that that was in a proceeding which under the law the title to the property could not be brought in issue, being merely an action of unlawful detainor under the statutes in force in this proceeding.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE: The Commission will decide finally as to the weight and competency of the testimony; at present under these conditions you can introduce such matters of fact as you like for what they may prove to be worth.

MR.HASTINGS:

Q Now go ahead and tell in as brief a way as you can about this matter? A In this civil suit number 379, entitled J.D.Blosser, vs. Joel O. Mack, and others, in the complaint in this case, September 21,1896, in the United States Court at Vinita, J.D.Blosser, the plaintiff, dtated that he was the owner and entitled to the possession of this farm in the controversy, also making some showing in the affidavit that he swore to.

Q I would like to ask you if that is the same place that has been testified about here? A That is the identical place that has been talked about in this case.

Q I want to ask you if Mr. and Mrs. Long knew anything about the pendency of this suit?

MR.KORNEGAY: I certainly object to that, their knowing anything about the pendency.

A Mr. Long came to me before this suit was filed, at the time it was filed and after it was filed; talked to me about it on several different occasions, about bringing the suit and about the place, and stating that it was Blosser's place, and had been made for Joe D. Blosser by his father, Emanuel Blosser under improvement contract with Joel O. Mack.

MR.KORNEGAY: I move to exclude that, because it is developed now that the man came to him and consulted him as attorney .

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE: It will be included in the testimony for what it may be worth.

MR.HASTINGS:

Q Were you present at the time this agreement was entered into, I believe it was '97? A Yes sir.

Q Now you tell briefly why Mrs. Long's name, if you know, was in that contract? A

MR.KORNEGAY: I object to that, because the contract speaks for itself.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE: Your objection will be noted.

A This civil suit number 379 was continued I think on the dockets here of the court until Joel O. Mack was killed in 1897. It was imperfect in the name of his administrator Ola Wilhite, and when called for hearing was dismissed by the court on that technicality, without prejudice; Ola Wilhite at that time was administrator of the estate of Joel O. Mack, in probate case No.60, in this court at Vinita, and Joe D. Blosser threatened to re-bring this suit for an order of court obtained in the probate case No.60; the administrator got leave to make a settlement with these parties in order to keep down another suit. Pursuant to that order Mr.W.A. Longand Morris F.Knight, who held a mortgage on this place dated in 1894, securing a note of a thousand dollars to J.D.Blosser, and Ola Wilhite, met in my law office in the town of Vinita, on the 22nd day of December, 1897, to effect this compromise in this matter. Considerable discussion was had as to the clauses of this contract and settlement, and the terms of it were finally agreed upon as set forth in this written instrument, with the exception that it was to be made in the name of J.D.Blosser; Morris Knight was present with his note and mortgage, and objected to this on the ground that he either wanted his monry or wanted the place turned over. In order to satisfy Mr. Knight Mr. Long and J.D.Blosser then and there spoke up and agreed that they would put Mrs. Eliza

Long in this contract to act for J.D.Blosser, on the ground that Blosser had been sued, had several judgments hanging against him, had some trouble with his wife, was unsettled at the time, had no permanent habitation; that Mrs. Long and her husband were living in Kansas near this place, and they offered to guarantee Mr.Knight that Mrs. Long's name would be substituted in here to act for Mr. Blosser, and that they would see to it personally that he was paid every cent of his money out of the rent of the place as fast as they could, promising him that he would be paid some two or three hundred dollars out of the rents of 1898. This contract was made and signed by Blosser and these parties to that effect.
Q Did Long and his wife at that time individually claim the place? A They didnot; Mr. Long emphatically said that it was Blosser's place there in the office and that this was just done and that Eliza and himself would see to it that Mr. Knight was paidout of the rent and they put Mrs. Long in there for the purpose to see that that was done, and that they would handle it for Blosser.
Q During the correspondence that you had with Mr. Long in 1898 or '9 or during 1897, what was his post-office address, where did you write him or where did he write you? A Coffeyville, Kansas.
Q When the rents weregathered in 1898 Mr. Long didn't apply any of them to Mr. Knight; I was representing Mr. Knight at that time and I began a correspondence with Mr. Long; I was writing from Vinita and writing to him at Coffeyville, Kansas. It was sometime before I could get any answer out of Mr. Long, and I wrote a pretty sharp letter, urging him by calling attention to what he agreed to, and he finally wrote me, claiming I had written to the wrong man, I wrote it "W.H."Long I believe he said, and his name was "W.A." Long, and he wrote that letter,- I then got into a correspondence with him and saved his letters, had them on file in my office, and lost the correspondence in the burning of my office on the 9th of November, 1899; I kept up this correspondence with Mr. Long and fixed it for Mr. Knight and myself to meet him there in Coffeyville, Kansas. We notified him that we would be there on that day, and we went and were there on that day and met Mr. Long on the streets across from the post-office near the brick building with an iron stair way went up on the outside, and some big goods boxes set there diagonally across in the corner. We had a conversation with Mr. Long in which he went over this whole transaction, had him look up the rents on the place, where he hadn't paid out this and that, and the upshot was that he would try to raise 600 dollars and give it to Mr. Knight if he would turn ober this security, that he held against Blosser;Mr. Knight wouldn't do it, wanted a thousand dollars; Mr. Long got on his horse and rode away, left the town, and we talked the matter over and decided we would find him again and offer to split the difference with him; we went out to his house, if I remember the direction it was in the northwest part of Coffeyville, Kansas, in the town, we went out there, and I don't know who come to the door, but they said that's where he lived, and said he was not there, he was gone somewhere, I dn't know where. We never did find him again.
Q Square house? A I think so, square house, roof went up on the four sides and a deck on top, painted kinf of brown. I don't know that he lived there, they said he did, but he had gone. These letters that I got were all post-marked Coffeyville and I met him in Coffeyville, Kansas.
Q That was about three years ago now? A Yes sir, about three years ago.
Q Do you remember my asking Mrs. Mack on the stand about the contract that she signed and Mr. Hutchings, and West, her attorneys, had? A Yes sir, that was the original contract between Joe/ O. Mack and Emanuel Blosser.
Q I will ask you if you made a search for that contract? A Yes sir.

Mr. Mack, in his answer in the suit, No.379, said he had filed a copy of that contract, he didn't file it. I made mention of that fact to Mr. Hutchings, Mr. Mack's lawyer, and he said he would file it, and that is since I was in Mr. Hutchings office at Muskogee, and they never did file the contract; they couldn't find it.
Q Made search ofor it? A Yes sir, went through his files and it wasn't there.
Q You were not present when this place was sold? A Yes I was there
Q You were present? A Yes sir.
Q Was Mr. Long present? A Mr. Long was there, sir.
Q Was his wife? A I didn't see her.
Q Did Mr. Long at that time claim it was his place? A He did not.
Q About when was this sale? A On the 18th day of March,1901, right on the place, in a few ~~days~~ steps of the front door, in the yard.
Q When did you first learn or know of Mr. Long or his wife individual ly claiming the place? A I never knew they had any claim on the place until they came down here and filed a motion to vacate the appointment of a receiver in the foreclosure suit No.973 in this court by Morris F. Knight against Joe D. Blosser; that was filed on July 16, 1901, is the first time I ever heard of any claim made that they owned this place.
I will state this: That Mr. Long was there at the day the sale was had; he read from a letter that had Denison & Aiken letterhead from Galena, Kansas, he read some two or three objections, three I think, to this sale in that letter.
Q Among them did he claim the question of ownership? A No sir, it wasn't touched upon; his objection was that it was contrary to Cherokee law, that was his principal objection; there was nothing that even looked towards a claim of the place; never said he had a bill of sale, never said it was the title; he said he desired to take it as allotment and that it was contrary to the law in force now; I believe that's all he had to say. Stayed there and the place was put up and sold at public outcry.
Q Did he produce a bill of sale? A He did not, never said anything about having one.
BY MR. KORNEGAY:
Q He now claims to have a bill of sale dated in March, 1898, doesn't he? A Yes sir, he came down here and carried a paper, swore that he bought it from Blosser and his wife, Elmira Blosser, on the 4th of March, 1898, and that he had no knowledge of Knight's mortgages, never heard of it before, and that he had been in the actual possession of this farm, living there since the 4th of March,1898; he swore to that in that paper, to my surprise.
Q Now Mr. Davis you didn't have any written contract at the time of the compromise in 1897 except the one that is introduced here in evidence already did you? A No sir when the parties agrees to this matter before it was written it was written and it was to be made in the name of Joe D. Blosser; Morris Knight objected and to pacify him they took Blosser's name out and put Mrs. Long's name init to act for Blosser in the contract, I then wrote this contract myself.
Q That is all the writing that was made embodying the supposed a-greement? A That's all that was reduced to writing.
Q You say Mr. Long had talked to you several times about bringing this Blosser suit before the suit brought? A Yes sir, he consulted me.
Q Now Mr. Davis, Mr. Long and Mrs. Long were there after the suit was dismissed to you on this compromise that we have evidence here by this writing was made, wasn't they? A Mr. Long was present in my office, Mrs. Long was not.
Q She was not there? A No sir.
Q I believe you say you and Morris Knight went to Coffeyville to his house there in the town of Coffeyville? A We went to a house; we inquired where he lived; we went to the house as near as we could, and asked at one or two places, and we finally were pointed out to a certain house as being where Mr.Long lived.

Q That was in the town of Coffeyville? A That was as I remember it now in the north-west part of the town, kind of that way, and they said, whoever come to the door, they said that that's where he lived but that he was not there, he had gone, got on his horse and gone away; I don't know whether he lived there or not, but I know that occurred. Morris Knight was with me and we were in a buggy, from Vinita we went up Pumpkin Creek and got rained on and got wet, instead of crossing the Verdigris River we went up Pumpkin Creek and stayed all night with a farmer in Kansas, and got in the next morning.
Q Who was occupying the premises at the time you brought the foreclosure proceedings? A Mrs. Mack.
Q What time did you bring those foreclosure proceedings? A This suit was originally filed, the original papers were filed in my office, it was in March,'99, on the 30th day of March, 1899.
Q Where was Joe Blossed at that time? A Well sir, I don't know, I don't know whether God knows or not; he wasn't here.
Q Was he a resident or a non-resident of the Indian Territory? A He was a non-resident to the best of my knowledge and belief.
Q Did you notify anybody at all of the pendency of your foreclosure proceeding? A I think we did, by published notice according to law, and Judge Denison was appointed attorney, an attorney here at the bar, and I notified him in person that he had been so appointed.
Q No tenant on the premises was ever summonsed in the court to answer? A No sir.
Q Was any proceeding taken to take charge of the premises pending the litigation? A Not until after the decree was rendered, after the sale and decree we got a receiver.
Q How long after you took that step before Mr. Long and his wife claimed the place? A They came down right away after that.
Q You say they had objected to the sale upon the ground that he wanted to take this as an allotment for himself and family? A He didn't say that; he read from this letter, I desire to take this place for my allotment; I desire to take my allotment on this place is the words he used I think, was one objection to the sale.
Q He read from the Denison & Aikin letter didn't he? A I believe so.
Q Did he not read this: I forbid the sale, because I want to take the lands as there improved as the pro rata share of myself and fmily as allotment of Cherokee lands? A He might have done it, I don't know, I don't remember exactly.
Q And then when you sent for a receiver he came in too? A Yes sir, I never notified him at all, considered he had nothing to do with it.
Q At whose suggestion was Mrs. Mack brought here as a witness in this proceeding? A I couldn't tell you.
Q Did you not suggest to the representatives of the Cherokee Nation as to what Mrs. Mack would testify in this case? A I didn't know what she would testify to, further than an affidavit she made here in Mr. Knight's foreclosure suit, I think I did call Mr. Cale Starr's attention to that sometime ago.
Q Did she not report to your office as soon as she came in this proceeding, and did you not come over on yesterday and get the evidence in this case and together with her run over the whole transaction? A Mrs. Mack was at my office; I never saw Mrs. Mack until her appearance here in Vinita at this time in my life, Mrs. Mack was at my officethere at the gate waiting for me when I came down yesterday morning, yes and I did get the testimony taken here and I think she and Mr. Knight went over it, I didn't.
Q In your presence in your office? A Yes sir, and then Mr. Hastings came down and talked to the lady in my office.
Q As a matter of fact isn't that combined effort to forfeit Mr. Long's citizenship the direct result of your and Mr. Knight's law suit on the civil docket of the court? A I can't say as to Mr. Knight, it isn't from my standpoint, no sir.

Q Who subpoenaed you to testify here? A Mr. Hastings asked me to be sworn this morning; I didn't know I was going to be sworn.
Q Didn't you come up for that purpose? A No sir.
Q Didn't you bring those papers here for that? A You asked me to bring these papers here.
Q Didn't I ask you after I saw you in the court room? A You asked me yesterday I believe.
Q As a matter of fact haven't you sat here and prompted Mr.Hastings as a representative of Morris Knight to ask these questions that he has asked in this case? A Yes I have whispered to him a time or two.

I desire to state now that all I have in this case of interest is the fact that Mr.Long came down here in this Morris Knight case and wilfully and absolutely swore to something that he knew positively to be untrue and false, and if I have had any interest at all it is only on that account; I have got nothing against Mr. Long outside of that when he came down here and swore that he had no knowledge of Mr.Knight's mortgage he swore to something that he knew to be absolutely untrue.

M.D.Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Commissioner.

Further proceedings and testimony in this case taken by stenographer, Bruce C.Jones.

William A.Long et al. Taking of testimony continued from Stenographer, M.D.Green.

Additional testimony introduced on behalf of the Applicant.

Mr.Hastings: The representatives of the Cherokee Nation desire to call attention to the fact that the attorney for the applicant asked that the witnesses be placed under the rule, and made no statement at the time that he desired to call in witnesses for the applicant, and that after the introduction of three witnesses on the part of the Cherokee Nation against the applicant, that he then made known the fact that he had some witnesses that he desired to introduce, and that they were called up out of the room in which the Commission was taking testimony and were in a hearing distance of what the other witnesses had testified to; and therefore, object to the introduction of these witnesses at this time.

Commissioner: The statement will be made a part of the record, but the Commission gives very wide latitude in the ascertainment of facts, and the testimony of the witnesses now present will be taken under the circumstances as set forth.

Q How old are you? A 59 years old.
Q What is your post-office? A Vinita.
Mr.Kernegay: Mr. Isbell, do you know the applicants, W.A.Long and Eliza Long, A Yes sir.
Q Any relation to any of the parties? A Brother in law.
Q Well, in what way? A I married, my wife and his wife were sisters.
Q Well Mr.Isbell, where were you living in '96, '7 and '8?
A Living here in Vinita.
Q Did you know them at that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Where were they living during '96? A Why in August, '96, Mrs. Long came to keep house for me, Mr.Long stayed with Mr.Blosser, his stepson, up here in the west part of town; Mrs.Long stayed at my house from sometime in August till April, 1897, I can't give the dates of the month.
Q Well, was she there any more? A Then they went away in April and about the middle of September,1897, she came back and kept house for me until in April,1898.
Q Where was Mr.Long? A Mr.Long came to my place in the latter part of October,1897, and stayed till the spring, April,of 1898.
Mr.Hastings: Did Mr.Long stay there till April,1898? A Mr. Long came there in October of 1897 and stayed til 1 April, through the winter till April, they both went away at the same time in April.
Q Did they live in the house with you? A Yes, sir, Mrs.Long kept house for me; that was after my wife died and she stayed there and kept house for me.
Q When did your wife die? A She died in 1895, July of '95, and my eldest daughter was married in August,1896, and then Mrs.Long came there and lived and kept house for me through that winter, and afterwards the next winter when the children was going to school.
Q How long had you known Mr.Long? A I had known him since '90 I believe it was, I believe he was married in '90, the first time I saw him they came to my house and was married at my house here in town.
Mr.Kernegay: Where did they reside after they were married up to the spring of '98? A Well I never was at their house until about '96 when they lived out here, '94 and '5, out between here and Lightning Creek; while they lived up on the line, I wasn't there.
Q Lived on California Creek a while? A That is what I understood, I never was up there.

Q Up near the line? A Yes, sir.
Mr.Hastings: Were you ever at this man's house in Coffeyville, Kansas? A Not in Coffeyville I wasn't.
Q Well near Coffeyville? A Near Coffeyville, well I would say about three miles.
Q What direction? A West.
Q In the State of Kansas? A Yes, sir.
Q Whem were you there? A I was there in June,1897; after him and his wife left my house and went up there he came back in June and got my two little girls and taken them up there and kept them till August, and when school commenced I went up after them and went out to his place and get these two girls of mine, and then his wife came down to keep house for me that winter.
Q Were you there in 1898? A No sir.
Q Did you have any letters from them up there? A I had letters from Eliza in '99 in Colorado.
Mr.Kornegay: When you went up there after the children when they had taken them up there, where were they living, on the place? A? They were living in a log house and right on the bank of Onion Creek, about three miles I would call it west of Coffeyville.
Q Well do you remember about their having a tent up there at one time when you went up after the children? A They didn't have a tent at the time I was there.
Q Well, you remember about their camping out on the place? A I don't know, I wasn't there.
Q They were back at your place in the fall of '97 after you were up there, and stayed all the winter here? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know where they went to in '98 when they left? A No,sir; they went up to that country ever there, I don't know where they went to from here, they left part of the things at my house that spinrg and in the spring of '98 they took all the things from my house.
Mr.Hastings: Wasn't anything left there in June, the 28th,1898? A No, sir.

JAMES DOWNING, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:
Q State your full name? A James Downing.
Q How old are you? A 40 years old.
Q What is your post-office? A Bartlesville.
Mr.Kornagay: Do you know W.A.Long? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known him? A The first time I met him was in '98.
Q Where? A At the Joe Meek farm .
Q Where is that? A That is in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Where from Bartlesville? A About two miles and a half or three miles north.
Q What was he doing the first time you saw him? A The first time I saw him met him and Hayden was fixing up some wire fencing around the barn.
Q Do you know what time that was in '98? A Sometime along about the 10th of March,some wheres along the first of March.
Q Well, did you see him about the place there any more that year that you remember? A I saw him along I think about the time they commenced cutting wheat, building agranary on the place.
Q Did you see him there any more? A Seen him there threshing time.
Q How far did you live from that place? A Mile and a quarter.
Q Where were you in the year '99? A I lived the same place I was in '98.
Q Have anything to do with any of the land on that place? A I tended forty acres in '99.
Q Who were you under? A I rented from Mrs. Meek.
Q She is the witness on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q She Long up there in that year? A Yes, sir, saw him around there.
Q How frequently did you see him around there? A Well sir I can't tell you, just saw him maybe a time or two and might be maybe three or four weeks before I would see him.

Q What was he doing there? A I don't remember now what he was doing.
Q He was frequently at the place, was he? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, did he use the barn, any of it that you know of? A I don't recollect anything about it.
Q Do you remember his using the granary that year? A Yes, sir.
Q What did you do with the grand that you harvested that year? A I never had nothing but corn and I hauled it to Willhite.
Q Willhite bought it from Long? A Yes, sir.
Mr.Hastings: Are you a Cherokee or a non citizen? A Non citizen.
Q How far was your house from where Mrs. Mack lived? A About a mile and a quarter as near as I can guess.
Q Do you know whether this man lived down there with his wife or not on that place in 1898? A No, sir, I don't.
Q Did you ever see his wife there in 1898? A No sir.
Q Did you ever see him except on occasional visits? A I seen him work there them times I told you about is all I remember.
Q About how many times in the year 1898 did you see him there at work, you have mentioned two or three times? A Three times I saw him and I saw him another time.
Q Only for a day or two at a time? A I wasn't around very much, I just went over to see Hayden on some business and he was around there.
Q You never saw him living down there? A No, sir.
Q Never knew of him living down there in '98? A No, sir.
Q Where was he living at that time? A I don't know.
Q Don't you know he was living in Coffeyville? A No, sir, March, '98, is the first time I saw him.
Q Don't you know where he came from when he came down there? A No, sir.
Q You know he wasn't living on this place, don't you? A No sir, I don't know he didn't live on the place, I don't knowhe did live there for certain.
Q It was never claimed then he lived on the place in '98? A It wasn't my understanding, no, sir.
Q You saw him you think three times during that year? A Three times he worked there, yes, sir.

ELIZA LONG, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:
Q What is your full name? please? A Eliza Long.
Q How old are you? A 51.
Q What is your post-office? A Dewey.
Mr.Kernegay: Mrs. Long, where were you living in the year 1896? A In Vinita.
Q Whom were you living with? A With my son, Joe Blosser.
Q Do you remember the time you were up about Mr. Isbell's; when was that? A What time in 1896 you mean?
Q Yes? A Well I was there in August I think.
Q How long did you remain there at Isbell's? A In August I was there about two weeks I guess, or three.
Q Well, did you stay there during that winter? A Yes, sir, I went down there and stayed to help my niece get ready for her wedding, and after she was married I went back up to Joe's there west of the Academy where they live and made preparations to go back there and keep house for Mr.Isbell.
Q Well, where were you in '97 and '8? A In '97 and '8, well I was here in Vinita during '97.
Q Well, any part of '98 were you in Vinita? A I was here until,I think, about the middle or latter part of April,1898.
Q Where did you go to then? A I went up to Kansas.
Q Howlong did you remain in Kansas? A I suppose about a month.
Q Where did you go to from there? A I went to Colorado.
Q What did you go there for? A Went there for my health, I was sick and the doctor told me I had better go to Colorado, I went there and spent the summer.

Q What doctor was it told you that, do you remember? A Dr. McChesney.
Q Where did you go to when you came back from Colorado? A In '98, I went to Coffeyville.
Q What time did you come back in '98? A Well I don't remember, but I think it was, I am not certain, but I think it was either November or December.
Q Well, what time did you return to Colorado? A I went the next spring, I think it was in May, I think it must not have been earlier than that because I wasn't able to go.
Q Were you sick all winter? A I was sick all winter the winter I came from Colorado.
Q Where did you stay then? A I boarded at the hotel in Coffeyville.
Q Under the care of a physician? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did you go from there? A Went back to Colorado.
Q How long did you remain there? A Well I came back, I don't know just how long I was out there that summer of '98--
Q Sometime in '99 was the last time you were there? A Sometime in '99, that is right, it was in December I think when I came back.
Q Well where are you now living? A I live near Dewey in the Cherokee Nation.
Q How long have you been living there? A Since I came back from Colorado in December, 1899.
Q Is that on what is known as the Mack place? A Yes, sir.
Q Mrs. Long, who was that place under originally, for whom?
A The first contract, myself and my husband, Manuel Blosser.
Q Whose place was it at that time? A Well it was ours, we bought the place from a man by the name of Wilson and gave Joe Mack a lease on it.
Q Well was the place ever deeded to Joe Blosser at all? A No,sir.
Q Now under whom was the west part of it made? A Under me individually.
Q Have you at all times had an interest in that place,Mrs.Long?
A Yes, sir.
QWere you a party to the contract made here in December,1897, between Willhite and yourself and Mrs.Mack? A What kind of a contract.
Q Well I have the original here(handing witness paper); that is your signature there, Mrs. Long? ~~this~~ isn't it? A Yes, sir.
Q You have at all times had an interest in that place? A Yes,sir.
Q Mrs.Long, when did Joe Blosser's interest in that place cease?
A March 4,1898, I think.
Q You think that was the date of the contract? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you and your husband buy the place? A Yes, sir.
Q You have got a bill of sale for it have you? A Yes, sir.
Q Who got the rents from the place for the year 1898? A We did.
Q Who got them for the year 1899? A We did.
Q Mrs.Long, did your husband do any work on the place in 1898 and '9 that you knowof? A Why he went down there to work, I wasn't there, I can't tell, I duppose he did.
Q You don't know what he did so? A He told me what he done and what he was going to do when he went down; I wasn't there but a short time after we bought the place before I went to Colorado and I don't know what he done after ~~that~~ I left.
Mr.Hastings: Mrs.Macj was present when these trades were talked over between your former husband and yourself and her husband? A I think so, yes, sir.
Q This was just a claim on the public domain at that time, wasn't it? A No, sir, we bought the place, there was a cabin a nd a little piece of ground broke out there.
Q How much ground? A I can't say as to howmuch ground, it was a small field.

Q Do you think as much as an acre? A Yes, sir, more than that.
Q Five acres? A I suppose about five acres as well as I remember.
Q Well all the rest of this has been made from that? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether or not the contract between these parties, your husband and Mrs.Mack, was made on behalf of Joe Blosser; don't you know it was understood and stated at that time that the place was to be Joe Blosser's A Yes sir, it was to be his place some day when we seen fit to turn it over to him.
Q Joe was a minor at that time? A Yes, sir.
Q And it was always known and understood to be Joe Blosser's place? A It was understood that it was to be his place when we saw fit to turn it over to him.
Q Well it was never turned over to him? A No, sir, never particularly turned it over to him.
Q Well, did you ever any other way turn it over to him? A No sir.
Q You know about this mortgaging the place to Morris Knight? A No, sir, I don't know anything about that.
Q You swear you don't know it? A No, sir, I don't.
Q Well, did you ever know it afterwards? A No, sir, I never knew it afterwards.
Q Wasn't you present at the time this contract was entered into and wasn't that question of Joe's indebtedness to Morris Knight and his lien on this place discussed? A Not in my presence.
Q Well weren't you down at Mr.Isbell's that night when Morris Knight took these papers referred to down there and discussed it and went over the matter with you and wasn't your name put in there for the reason that Joe Blosser was heavily indebted, that he owed a great many people, and didn't you promise to act as the trustee and to receive these rents from on this place and apply them to the payment of this debt, and wasn't it fully discussed? A No, sir, Mr. Knight never came down to Mr.Isbell's to present any papers whatever to me.
Q Never saw you in any way whatever? A No sir, he didn't.
Q Never did discuss it at all? A No sir, not at all.
Q Didn't you know of Joe's indebtedness to him of this $1000? A No, sir, I didn't.
Q You never heard of it? A No, sir, I knrw that there was a debt, but I didn't know the amount and I asked Joe once on one or two occasions how much he owed Morris and the only answer I could get was he didn't know exactly, but he supposed he owed him $100 or $150.
Q You knew he owed him? A Yes, sir.
Q You knew there was a lien on this place? A No, sir.
Q Morris Knight never told you about it? A No, sir, he didn't never.
Q Well, didn't Morris Knight come to your house up in Kansas and talk this matter over? A Yes, sir, he came up there where we are in Kansas.
Q Didn't he present this note and mortgage? A Not to me he didn't.
Q Didn't he in your presence, to your husband? A No, sir.
Q Wasn't it talked over in your presence? A I never saw that note.
Q Wasn't it talked over in your presence? A The indebtedness, yes sir.
Q Was the fact that he had a mortgage talked over in your presence? A No, sir.
Q Nothing was said about it in your presence? A No sir.
Q Didn't your husband at that time offer him some milling stock to satisfy this debt, in your presence? A No, sir, not in my presence he didn't.
Q Did you know about Joe Blosser bringing a suit against Mrs. Mack and Mr. Mack before his death for the possession of this place out there? A No, sir.
Q You never knew about it? A No, sir.
Q Never heard of it? A No, sir, not until after Mr.Mack was killed, about that time.

Q You didn't know about it when he brought it? A No, sir, I knew nothing about it.
Q Well, when you came back in the winter of '98 you stayed in Coffeyville, didn't you? A Yes, sir.
Q When was the first time you ever went down there on the place; I mean to live, with things to move in the house and sleep and cook and eat? A Well I never went there to live until I came from Colorado, and I didn't bring anything with me but my trunk, didn't have anything to bring.
Q When was that? A I think December of '99.
Q Then you never lived there in '98? A No, sir, I never lived there in '98.
Q And you never lived there up until then? A When we bought that place in the spring of '98 I was sick and wasn't able to go there and I wouldn't have gone down there to life for a dozen places because I wasn't able to, I was under the doctor's care.
Q Have you got a copy of the bill of sale that you purchased from Joe Blosser:

Mr.Kornegay: Here is a copy(Handing Mr.Hastings paper),

Q Well, if you owned this place all this time and you never turned it over to Joe Blosser and he never had any interest in it and it was yours originally, why is it that you took occasion to buy it from him and his wife on the 4th day of March, 1898, and pay him the alleged sum of $2200 for it? A Well that was just this way; I always intended to give Joe the place, but I saw he was getting his health so ruined and he had no health and I saw he wasn't going to live long in this country and climate and I gave him the money instead of giving him the place, and I thought if he would go to Colorado he would get his health.
Q Yet you took occasion to take a bill of sale to transfer the place from him? A Yes, sir.
Q And you took occasion to have it witnessed? A Yes, sir, I thought that was the right thing to do, for I didn't intend him to have the place after I gave him the money.
Mr.Kornegay: The place was made under you and young Blossr's father originally, wasn't it? A Yes, sir.
Q His father was dead at this time, at the time you bought it? A Yes, sir.
Q And he was an heir of his father also wasn't he? A Yes, sir.
Mr.Hastings: This bill of sale didn't say anything about his heirship, you bought the place of him, didn't you? A I supposed he was an heir, he was his father's son.
Q You bought the whole place of Joe and the whole place is described in this bill of sale of March 4,1898? A I don't understand you.
Q You bought the whole place of Joe Blosser on March 4,1898, and the bill of sale stated that you gave him $2200 for it, didn't you? A Yes, sir, I bought the whole place, yes sir.
Q Was Manuel Blosser a white man? A Yes, sir.
Mr.Kornegay: He was an adopted citizen, wasn't he, of the Nation, your former husband? A Adopted by marriage, yes, sir.
Commissioner: You are the wife of William A.Long? A Yes, sir.
Q And your maiden name was McKay? A Yes, sir.

Mr.Hastings: I want to introduce a copy of the application of W.A.Long and Eliza Long to vacate order appointing receiver in the case of Morris Knight, plaintiff, against J.D.Blosser, defendant, No.973, Equity, filedJuly 16, 1901, in the United States Court at Vinita; this is the original here.

(Mr.Hastings reading):

"Morris Knight, plaintiff) In the United States Court for against) the Northern District, Sitting
J.D.Blosser,defendant.) at Vinita.

Application of W.A.Long and Eliza Long to vacate order appointing receiver.

Comes noW W.A.Long and Eliza Long and asks leave of Court to intervene herein and protect their rights, and show to the Court that Eliza Long is a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood and W.A Long by adoption, he being her husband. That the premises in controversy made by Eliza Long, who is the mother of defendant, when defendant became of age, the premises in question were given by her to him without consideration except love and affection; that defendant was never in the actual possession and the transfer was never evidenced by any writing.

That as to the genuineness of plaintiff's mortgage and the genuineness of the indebtedness they are not possessed of sufficient knowledge or information to form an opinion, in view of the fact that plaintiff has made different statements concerning the matter, and they ask for strict proof of same. That on March 4, 1898, without knowledge, either actual or constructive, of the existence of plaintiff's supposed mortgage, they, for value then and before supplied defendant, purchased of defendant and his wife, Elmira Blosser, the premises in question, and immediately took possession and have been in the actual possession ever since; that a copy of the conveyance is as follows:

"Know All Men By These Presents, that we, Joe Blosser and Elmira Blosser, his wife, of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, and citizens of said Nation, have this day bargained, sold and delivered, and by these presents do sell and deliver unto W.A Long and Eliza Long, his wife, of the Cherokee Nation, for and in consideration of the sum of twenty two hundred dollars ($2200), all of that part and parcel of improved land, hereinafter described, to-wit: About six hundred acres (600) of improved farm land located about twenty (20) miles south of Coffeyville, Kansas, and bounded as follows, to-wit: on the north by the improvement of Jack Shalers; on the east by Shaler; on the south by Tom Buffalo; on the west by the Coffeyville and Bartlesville road; being about two and a half (2 1/2) miles northwest of Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and known as the Joel Mack farm.

To have and To Hold the same unto said grantees, their heirs and assigns, horever, together with all the appurtenances, hereditaments, thereunto belonging.

In Witness thereof we have hereunto affixed our hands and seals this the 4th day of March,1898.

(signed) Joe Blosser
Elmire Blosser.

Witness: A.M.Etchen
A.W.Berrian.

That the same was duly recorded in the record of improvements of Cooweescoowee District, Cherokee Nation on page 364, Book F, No.2; That plaintiff herein had due knowledge of petitioners' rights herein at all time; that in utter disregard of same he has purchased proceeded to foreclose his supposed lien; that at the supposed sale of the premises the mother of the plaintiff being the purchaser as the applicants are informed and believed, and she is the real party in interest, but the plaintiff herein, notwithstanding said sale, has had a receiver appointed for the property without knowledge of the applicants and to their injury. They further show that the receiver is the brother of plaintiff and the bond therein is not sufficient, plaintiff being the bondsman and T.M.Buffington being the other; that a judgment on contract could not be collected of either of the bondsmen.

Wherefore, applicants ask that the receivership be vacated, and the receiver be required to turn over any funds he may have received by virtue thereon to the applicants, and that they may have any further relief to which they may be entitled.

Mr.Kornegay: I want to introduce a certificate of record of the bill of sale that is referred to there.
Mr.Hastings: We have no objection.
Mr.Kornegay: The certificate of record introduced is as follows: (reading):
"United States of America,) Indian Territory,Northern District.)ss.
I, James A.Winston, Clerk United States Court, and ex officio recorder for the Northern District, Indian Territory, do hereby certify that the instrument hereto attached was filed for record in my office the 2nd day of April, 1898, at 8 A.M., and is duly recorded in Book J, page 431.

Additional testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

MORRIS F. KNIGHT, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:
Q Give me your full name? A Morris F. Knight.
Mr.Hastings: Mr. Knight, after the contract was entered into between the administrator of the estate of Joel Mack, deceased, and a number of parties, which has been introduced here in testimony, after the death of Mr.Mack sometime in December of 1897, I will ask you if you had a talk with Mrs.Long about the indebtedness of Joe Blosser to yourself, down at Mr.Isbell's? A Yes, sir, I went down there in the evening and took the papers and showed them to her, and she had them in her hand.
Q What papers? A -

Mr.Kornegay: I object to that for the simple reason that for the purposes of this case it would be immaterial as to whether or not she had knowledge of the witness' lien, and it is not therefore a matter about which contradictory testimony can be introduced.

Commissioner: The transactions in regard to the debt as now proposed to direct inquires has already become a part of the record,and the inquiries may be addressed in relation thereto for the further consideration of the Commission.

Q Well now if you had any talk with her, state it; at that time?
A Well old Long there, in Preston Davis' office, after the contract was drawn up, asked me to go down and see Mrs.Long and show her these papers.
Q What papers? A The mortgage I hold against the farm.
Q Who was the mortgage given by and to whom? A Joe Blosser to me.
Q And what was it given to secure? A To secure a note for $1000 I had loaned him.
Q Well, did you go down there? A Yes, sir, I did.
Q Did you show her the note and mortgage? A Yes, sir, I showed her the note and mortgage and she read them and looked at them.
Q And I believe you have already stated, promised to pay it out of the rent? A Yes, she cried and went on and said Joe was drinking and gambling and having trouble with his wife and to be easy on him etc., and a whole lot of stuff like that, and I told her what was done and she promised, and said it was all right , etc.
Q She actually had them in her own hand, both the note and mortgage? A Yes sir, read them.
Q Did you ever discuss this note and mortgage with her ayt any other place up at her home? A Well I was out to the place there at Coffeyville and I was talking with Long.
Q Just Long? A Where Long lives, three miles from Coffeyville, I was talking to Long and she came in the room while I was there.
Q Did she hear the conversation between you and Long then? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, was that conversation about this note and mortgage? A Yes, sir, entirely.
Q Did you have the note and mortgage with you at the time?
A Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember whether she saw it at that time? A I don't know whether she did or not.
Q Was she in the room during this conversation?A Yes, sir.
Q Well, was there anything said looking to a settlement of it, in her presence I mean? A They promised about what they did before, that this note would be settled.
Q Well, anything about any mill stock? A Well old Long there offered me $500 Afton Mill stock out here for the note and mortgage.
Q Do you know whether she was present at the time? A No, I don't, she came in while we were talking.
Q Do you know is she knew what you were talking about? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, did she take any part in the conversation herself? A Why she talked as much, took as much part in it as Long did himself, when she was in.

Commissioner: This testimony will be filed as supplemental testimony in Cherokee straight case No.4304, entitled William ALong et al.

In the matter of the application of William A.Long for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage and for the enrollment of his wife, Eliza Long, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation; he being sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A William A.Long.
Q How old are you? A Fifty-two.
Q What is your post-office? A Dewey, Indian Territory.
Q Are you a white man? A Yes sir.
Q You are claiming as a citizen by intermarriage? A Yes sir.
Q What is your wife's name? A Eliza .
Q How old is she? A Fifty-two.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q How long has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All her life I believe.
Q When were you married to her? A Married in '90.
Q Is Eliza your first wife? A Yes sir.
Q Are you her first husband? A I am her second husband.
Q Was her first husband dead when you married her? A No, he died soon after she got a divorce from him.
Q When did she get a divorce? A Her papers are all filed here in the office.
Q Do you know, do you remember? A I remember she turned in her papers.
Q Do you remember when the divorce was granted? A I wasn't acquainted with her then; she got the divorce before I knew her.
Q Was that the only time she was ever married before? A I think some years.
Q Have you and your wife been living together ever since you married her? A Yes sir.
Q Were you married under a Cherokee marriage license? A Yes sir.
Q You never was separated from your wife? A No sir.
Q You were living together on the first day of September? A Yes sir, ever since we were married and living together ~~now~~ yet.
Q Made your home in the Cherokee Nation all the time? A Yes sir.
J.C.Starr: Didn't you live out in Kansas a while? A No sir.
Q You never did? A No sir.
Q Where were you in 1898? A I was living on a farm in Dewey, Indian Territory. We had a fight over there at Vinita, as some parties had a Cherokee mortgage on the place and they made a fight and we had a trial before the Dawes Commission and they swore I lived up in Kansas in '96, '7, '8 and '99.
Q Didn't you have a law suit up in Kansas about a place up there? A Yes sir.
Q Didn't you testify before that court that you were a resident of the State of Kansas? A They had that up there that I swore on the witness stand that I was a resident of Kansas.
Q Didn't you swear that? A I might have done that, I don't know. I was up there with a law suit and I proved that I wasn't there.
Q It didn't make any difference with that case? A Unthoughtedly they asked the question where I lived and I said I lived in Kansas; it didn't make any difference on one side of the case or the other as the lawyers on both sides knew I was a resident of the Cherokee Nation.
Q But didn't you defeat the case up there by claiming that place as a homestead? A No sir.
Q What became of that place? A They beat me and got my farm and the mortgage I was holding.

Q Didn't you claim that place was exempt and it was your homstead? A No sir, there was a mortgage on it.
Q Didn't you ever live on that place? A Nver lived on that place since '87, no sir.
Q You deny that you ever lived in the state of Kansas do you? A Yes sir, I had proof at Vinita.
Q Did you ever live in Kansas? A No sir, never did live in Kansas.
Q You testified in that case up in Kansas that you did live there? A They asked me the question where I resided; I didn't know what they did ask me, and I said I resided in Kansas.
Commission: Did you ever make aresidence in Kansas? A No sir.
Q Did you ever live there at all? A No sir.
Q What do you mean by saying your residence is in Kansas? A I had a farm there
Q What made you say that? A Unthoughtedly they asked me where I was residing, which wasn't the case at all; I never thought about it.
J.C.Starr: You were living in Kansas in 1898? A No sir, I lived on my farm in '98, down there at Dewey.
Q Were you up in Kansas at any time in 1898? A ~~xNoxxirxxIxlivedxx~~ In 1898 I sent her to Colorado for her health, and in '99, I sent her to Colorado for her health and in the winter of '99 she went to Coffeyville under a doctor's care and I lived on my place and went backward and forward. She was there under the doctor's care and I lived on my place.
Q How much of the time of '98 were you in Kansas? A I was up there the time the Chautauqua was going on; Davis came there to see me; I was there four days.
Q Where were you at that time? A At the Southern Hotel at that time, or the Farmer's Home.
Q Didn't live on a farm in Kansas near Coffeyville in '98? A No sir. My wife was gone away to Colorado in '98.
Q Where were you living? A I was living on my place; I had no home, nobody to keep house; I never kept house when I went to Coffeyville; I went up there frequently, stopped at the hotel there.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Eliza Long as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on October 10, 1900, William A. Long appeared before the Commission at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and made personal application for the enrollment of his wife, Eliza Long, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Vinita, Indian Territory, on October 10, 21, 24 and 30, 1901, and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on October 14, 1902. The application also included William A. Long for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, but his status as such is not passed upon at this time and he is not embraced in this decision.

The evidence shows that Eliza Long is a Cherokee citizen by blood, and is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; also the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

The evidence further shows that she was married to one William A. Long, a white man, in 1890, and subsequent to said marriage she resided with her husband at various times outside the boundaries of the Cherokee Nation and Indian Territory. It further appears that during said absences she owned lands and property in the Cherokee Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the decision of the Department in the case of Joseph D. Yeargain, et al., (I.T.D. 2300-1903), Eliza Long should be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

.....
Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 16, 1903

W. W. Hastings,

Attorney for the Cherokee Nation,

Tahlequah, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is herewith enclosed a copy of the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated September 11, 1903, granting the application for the enrollment of Eliza Long as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

You are hereby advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from date hereof, in which to file such protest as you may desire to make against the action of the Commission in this case, a copy of which protest you will be required to furnish the applicant. If you fail to file protest within the time allowed this decision will be considered final.

Respectfully,

Tams Bixby

Chairman.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al vs. the United States, Nos 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied

Commissioners

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Bartlesville, I.T. October 10th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF CLARA STOCKTON, FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HERSELF AND HUSBAND AS CHEROKEE CITIZENS.

The said Clara Stockton, appearing before the Commission, was sworn by CommissionerC. R. Breckinridge, and being examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Clara Stockton.
Q What is your age? A Twenty-six.
Q What is your post office address? A Dewey.
Q Are you a resident of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you resided in the Cherokee Nation? A Twenty-six years.
Q You were born here? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you ever resided anywhere else? A No, sir.
Q Have you been outside of the Cherokee Nation within the past three years? A No, sir.
Q Are you making application for enrollment as a native Cherokee, as an adopted Shawnee, a Delaware or an intermarried white? A As a Cherokee by blood.
Q To what district in the Cherokee Nation do you belong? A Cooweescoowee.
Q What is your father's name? A Jeff Eldridge.
Q Is your father living? A No, sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A He died in 1885.
Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your mother's name? A Ellen Bolton.
Q Is she living? A No, sir.
Q Was she a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.
Q She was a white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q How much Cherokee blood have you? A One-eighth I suppost.
Q Are you making application for anyone besides yourself? A I guess not.
Q Why do you guess about it? Have you any children? A No, sir.
Q Have you been married? A I was married in 1897.
Q Then, you don't want to make application for your husband, is that it? A Yes, sir; I guess I might as well.
Q Have you any children? A None living.
Q What is the name of your husband? A James Stockton.
Q What is his age? A Twenty-seven.
Q Is he a white man? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did you marry him? A Claremore.
Q When? A June 29th, 1897.
Q Married to him in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your husband's father's name? A John Stockton.
Q Is he living? A No, sir.
Q Is he a white man? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your husband's mother's name? A Hulda Stockton.

Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q She is a white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you your marriage license and certificate? A Yes, sir.

There is offered in evidence in the matter of the application for the enrollment of James Stockton, husband of the applicant, marriage license issued by the Clerk of Going Snake District, Cherokee Nation, to James Stockton, a citizen of the United States, to marry Miss Clara Eldridge, and also certificate of J. A. Trickey, as to the performance of the marriage ceremony between the parties. The ~~xixx~~ license is issued June 29th, 1897, and said license and certificate are recorded in Book E of the Marriage Records of Cooweescoowee District, Cherokee Nation, page 246.

Q What was your maiden name? A Clara Eldridge.
Q Is your name upon the authenticated roll of 1880? A Yes, sir.
Q As Clara Eldridge? A Yes, sir.

1880 Roll, page 97, No. 976, Clin ~~Eldxx~~ Elridge, Cooweescoowee District. Native Cherokee.
Q Your father's name was Jeff Eldridge? A Yes, sir.
Q He is dead? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your mother's name? A Ellen Eldridge.
Q She was a white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q She is dead too? A Yes, sir.

1896 Roll, page 745, No. 741, Clara Eldridge, Going Snake District.

The name of the applicant appears upon the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation as Clin Elridge, and is identified as that of the applicant, and also upon the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation as Clara Eldridge. The applicant having given sufficient testimony as to her residence within the Cherokee Nation as prescribed by law, will now be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee nation.

In the matter of the application for her husband, James Stockton, as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee nation: It appears from the testimony and from the documentary evidence that she has offered in support of his application, that he was married to her the 29th day of June, 1897, subsequent to the passage of the act of the National Council of the Cherokee Nation of December 16th, 1895, providing that no property rights should accrue to citizens by intermarriage subsequent to that time. The application, therefore, made on behalf of the husband of the applicant as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation, will be refused.

No. 4310. Department of the Interior.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Bartlesville, I. T. October 10, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Thede L. Dancer for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee by intermarriage and his wife and child as Cherokees by blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, he testified as follows:

Q Give me your name? A Thede L. Dancer.
Q How old are you? A 24 years old.
Q What is your post office? A Caney.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who do you want to have put on the roll, yourslef? A Yes sir.
Q And only yourself? A My wife and also our child.
Q One child? A Yes sir one.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A No sir.
Q Your wife a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Let me see your marriage license and certificate? A I have'nt got any certificate, only the license.
(The applicant presents a license issued by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee District, July 27, 1897, authorizing marriage between himself amd Miss Myrtle Philipps. The certificate s hows that they were united in marriage on July 29 of the same year by the Rev. J. R. Charlton. This is filed herewith.)
Q You and your wife have lived together ever since you were married, have you? A Yes sir.
Q How old is your wife? A 21
Q Was she born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Has she lived here all her life? A Yes sir, well now, she and I have moved to town to live there a short time, we have lived there and worked.
Q How long did you live there? A Lived there two months.

On 1896 roll page 231, No 3733 Myrtle Phillipps, Cooweescoowee Dist

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and one child. His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a natibe Cherokee, she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and her change of name arises from her marriage, which is established by the license and certificate filed herewith. She will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The applicant is shown to have married his wife in accordance with Cherokee law but on July 27, 1897, too late under the Cherokee law of 1895 to entitle him to enrollment at this time. The application therefore, for his own enrollment is rejected. When the Commission is supplied with a certificate of the birth of his child, this child will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF GOLDIE CATHERINE STARBUCK FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HERSELF AND MINOR CHILD, ERNEST GLEN STARBUCK, AS CHEROKEE CITIZENS. -

The said Goldie Catherine Starbuck, being sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, was examined by the Commission, and testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Goldie Catherine Starbuck.
Q How old are you? A Nineteen.
Q Are you making application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q How much Cherokee blood have you? A About one-eighth.
Q To what district in the Cherokee Nation do you belong? A I don't know. I was born and raised on Bevin's Creek.
Q What is your post office? A McFalls.
Q In Cooweescoowee district? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life. I never was out of the Cherokee Nation but twice.
Q Have you been outside of the Cherokee Nation within the last three years? A No, sir.
Q What is your father's name? A Allen Bivins.
Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir; he was a white man.
Q What is your mother's name? A Hername is Kate Catherine Bivins.
Q Was she a native Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q To what district in the Cherokee Nation did she belong? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Are you making application for any one besides yourself? A Me and my baby.
Q You are not making any application for your husband? A No; don't you think it.
Q What is your husband's name? A James Starbuck.
Q Is he a white man? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your child? A The folks that taken him to keep him for me, they named him over, but I named him Earnest Glenn Starbuck.
Q Don't you live with your husband? A No, sir.
Q Is somebody else in the custody of this child? A Yes, sir; Dock Tillison has him.
Q Who do you live with? A I work at Ramona, and when I get work anywhere else I go there.
Q What did you do about giving this childaway? Did you just give it to these people?
A Why, yes, partly I did, because I wasn't able to work and make a living for it. The child was sick and it was all I could do to make my own living.
Q Do you know where your husband is? A Why, I think I do. I ain't sure though.
Q Are these people that have the custody of this child any relation to you? A No, just a friend of mine. I understand I can get the child. The papers that give him away ain't any good. I can get back the child.

Q How old is that child? A He will be two years old in February.

Examination by Mr. W. W. Hastings, respresentative of the Cherokee Nation.

Q How long have they had custody of it? A I don,t know how long. It will soon be a year, though.

Q When were you married to this man Starbuck? A It will be two years next May.

Q Is your husband a white man? A Yes, sir.

Q Has he ever had the custody of this child? A No, sir.

Q He never has? A No, sir.

Q These people got it from you then did they? A Yes, sir

Q By your consent? A Yes, sir.

Q Are they citizens or not? A No, sir; they are white people.

Q When were your father and mother married? A I don't know.

Q Is your mother's name on the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation? A It ought to be.

Q She is dead, ain't she? A Yes, sir; she died when I was four years old, I think.

Q Her name was on the roll under the name of Bivins? A Bivins or Timberlake.

Q You had a brother by the name of David and one by the name of Walter? A Yes, sir.

Q They are around Armona, somewhere, I think.

Q Have you got any evidence of the birth of this child? A Yes, sir.

BY THE COMMISSIONER:

Q Where is it? A Why, Mr. Norwood said he would see to that part of it. I don,t know whether he did or not. There is a woman here in town, Miss Beffy. She lives here in town.

1880 Roll, page 68, No. 229, Catherine Bivins, Cooweescoowee District. Native Cherokee.

1896 Roll, page 118, No. 595, Catherine Bivines, Cooweescoowee District.

Q Now, have you a birth affidavit as to the birth of this child? A Yes, sir.

Q Where is it? A Miss Raffie Beffy is here in town.

Q Well, you will have to get affidavits as to its birth.

It appears that the name of the applicant's mother, Catherine Bivins, is on the roll of 1880 of the Cherokee Nation, and that the name of the applicant appears upon the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation as Catherine Bivines,;sh e having been born subsequent to the preparation of the 1880 tribal roll by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation her name would not appear thereon. She having sufficiently established her residence in the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the law, she will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood.

The application made by her for the enrollment of her minor child, Earnest Glenn Starbuck will be granted by the Commission,

Commissioner.

No. 4312 Department of the Interior.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Bartlesville, I. T. October 10, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Frank Frenchman for the enrollment of himself and children as Delawares, and his wife as a Cherokee by intermarriage; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, he testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Frank Frenchman.
Q How old are? A 44
Q What is your post office? A Caney.
Q In what district do you live? Cooweescoowee? A Yes sir.
Q Who do you want to have put on the roll, yourself? A No sir.
Q Dont you want to be enrolled? A Yes sir.
Q Got a wife? A Yes sir.
Q Any children? A Yes sir.
Q How many? A Two.
Q Then you want to have yourself, wife and two children enrolled?
A Yes sir.
Q What are you? A Delaware.
Q Full blood? A Yes sir.
Q Your wife a Delaware? A A white woman.
Q How long have you been here, 32 years? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A Frenchman.
Q Dead? A No he is living.
Q What is the name of your mother? A I have forgotten her name.
Q She dead? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Ida.
Q How old is she? A 31
Q When did you marry her? A About eight years ago.
Q Has she lived with you ever since she married you? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the names of your children? A The first one is Charles, 7 years old.
Q What is the next one? A Four years old, named Willie.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Q. She had no intimacy with any other man that you know of did she? A No sir not that I know of.
Q. There is a child that was born 10 days and 9 months after your seperation, do you know anything about this child? A No sir.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and one child He stetes that his wife is a white woman and that he was married to her in 1897 and he makes no application for her. He is identified on th 1880 and 1896 rolls as a noative Cherokee and states that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life. He will be listed for enrollment now as a Cherokee by blood. When he supplies the Commission with a certificate of the birth of his child and also satisfactory evidence of his marriage to his wife, the mother of this child, Luther L. Don Carlos, it will also be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

It develops that the child Luther L. DonCarlos has already been enrolled by its mother, therefore Louis A. Don Carlos himself, will now be enlisted for enrollment. A reference is made to the application of the mother, Card No. 5395 (Straight Card) in regard to still another child who is listed on that card and who is shown by the testimony here above, to have been born 9 months and 10 days after the seperation of its father and mother.

Chas. Von Price, being duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause on the 11th day of Oct., 1900 and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes of said proceeding.

Q Your wife's father and mother, Jack Shaler and wife living?
A Her mother is dead; her father is living.

The Commission: Alonzo J. Everett makes application for himself for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation and on behalf of his three children for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation; it appears from the testim ony offered in evidence in this case that he is a white man, married to Annie E. Shaler, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on the 17th day of July 1889, and there is offered evidence of their marriage, the license and certificate issued by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee District, Cherokee Nation.

The name of the applicants deceased wife is found upon the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation, and the name of the applicant on the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and he will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation, having given sufficient testimony as to his continued residence in the Cherokee Nation for the time prescribed by law.

The names of his three minor children are found upon the census rolls of 1896, and are the children of a Cherokee woman by Delaware blood, sufficient evidence having been given as to their continued residence in the Cherokee Nation for the time prescribed by law.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW. That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al vs the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Alonso J. Everett,

Lenapah, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. C_____ Commissioner.

Cherokee No.4314.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 7, 1907.

Alonzo J. Everett,

Lenapah, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

C Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five CivilizedTribes,
Skiatook, I. T., June 18,1902.

In the matter of the application of Charley Tiblow for the enrollment of his son, George W. Tiblow, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. (SHAWNEE) Charley Tiblow being sworn and examined, testified as follows:

BY COMMISSION:

Q What is your name? A Charley Tiblow.
Q How old are you? A About 26.
Q What is your post-office address? A Right here, Skiatook, I.T.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A No sir, I am a Shawnee.
Q What degree of Shawnee blood do you claim? A I couldn't say, but about a half-blood though I guess.
Q Who do you want to enroll? A George W. Tiblow.
Q Is George W. Tiblow your son? A Yes sir.
Q How old is he? A About six years old I guess.
Q Where is he now? A He is in Merwyn, Missouri, close to Kansas City.
Q How long has he been there? A Going on three years.
Q Prior to that time was he always in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q With whom does he make his home in Merwyn, Missouri? A I could not say, he is with his mother.
Q She is a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q What is her name? A Eliza Tiblow.
Q You were married to her? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married to her? A It's somewhere along in 1894 or '5, but I could not say exactly when.
Q Who were you married by? A Greathouse, a Methodist minister of the Gospel, who at that time lived at Vinita.
Q You have no certificate or any record of your own of that marriage? A No sir.
Q How long did you live with that woman? A Three years.
Q Did you enroll her with you in 1896? A Why i enrolled her once but I could not say whether it was then or not.
Q Did you separate from her or did she leave you? A It was both, kind of separation case I guess; I and her both left the place at the same time.
Q Have you ever been divorced from her? A Not that I know of; she claimed she sued for one.
Q She has since married again? A Yes sir, from all appearance she is married.
Q Married to a white man? A I suppose so, I never did see him; she may not be married to him according to law; she is living with him.
Q How long since you have heard from your son? A Why about a couple of years.
Q You don't know positively that he is living now? A No, not now, I don't, but I suppose he is; he had good health last I heard of him.
Q In what district did you live about 1880? A Delaware.
Q Who were you living with about that time, 22 years ago? A I was living at Daugherty's.
Q What is the name of your father? A Obediah.
Q Is he living? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your mother? A That is something I could not say, she died when I was small.
Q Did your father live in Cooweescoowee District about 1880?
A I couldn't say where he did live, he was just here and there, I think he was.

Q Did they ever call you by any nickname? A Nothing only Bean.
Q Your father had no other children about 1880, that he would have enrolled with you? A No sir.

1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined for applicant, and identified on page -- No. 2933, Bean Tiblow, Adopted Shawnee, Cooweescoowee District, aged 5.

Q About the time your child was born when you were living with this woman Eliza, in what district were you living? A Living in Delaware.

1896 census roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined for applicant's former wife, and identified on page 590 No. 549 1/2, Eliza Tiblo, Delaware District, 20 years old, intermarried white;
1896 census roll of Cherokee citizens for George W.Tiblow: page 613 No. 350 George W. Tiblow, Delaware District, Shawnee, four months old.

Q Can you secure some proof of your marriage to this white woman the mother of your child, George W.? A Of course I can get it from the Clerk, it was registered in the Cherokee Clerk's office, I think, I can get it at Tahlequah.
Q Did you get a license? A No, we never got no license, the preacher said we didn't need any; there was a preacher married us all right, and it was recorded in the Cherokee. Greathouse give me an order and told me to take it over to the Cherokee Clerk at Vinita and I took it over there,- the preacher said it would save getting out a license.
Q What was the name of the clerk? A I can't call his name now; I know him like I know myself; he lives in Vinita now.

George W. Tiblow will be listedfor enrollment upon a doubtful card, awaiting further proof of marriage between his mother and father.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Tahlequah, I.T., April 21, 1904.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of George W. Tiblow as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Charmee blow.

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

An examination of the Cherokee census roll of 1896 shows that Eliza Tiblow, the mother of the applicant, is enrolled thereon as an intermarried white, the wife of Charles Tiblow, and that George W. Tiblow appears on that roll with the said Charles Tiblow.

It is ordered that a copy of the testimony in the matter of the application of Charles Tiblow, Cherokee 4318, be filed herewith and made a part of this record.

C. R. Breathitt
Commissioner.

Cherokee D-1373
Cherokee 4318.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of George W. Tiblow as a citizen by (Shawnee) blood of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R .

The records of this Commission show that at Skiatook, Indian Territory, on June 18, 1902, application was made for the enrollment of George W. Tiblow as a citizen by (Shawnee) blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that the said George W. Tiblow was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee Doubtful card No. 1373.

The records of the Commission further show that one Charley Tiblow who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 and Cherokee census roll of 1896, was listed for enrollment as a citizen by (Shawnee) blood of the Cherokee Nation, on Cherokee card No. 4318, and is included in a partial roll of citizens by (Shawnee) blood of the Cherokee Nation approved by the Secretary of the Interior December 6, 1902, opposite No. 10362, is the father of the said applicant, George W. Tiblow; and that the said George W. Tiblow was born about the year 1894, and is duly identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

It is therefore ordered that the enlistment of George W. Tiblow for enrollment as a citizen by (Shawnee) blood of the Cherokee Nation, on Cherokee Doubtful card No. 1373, be cancelled, and that the said George W. Tiblow be listed for enrollment as a citizen by (Shawnee) blood of the Cherokee Nation, on Cherokee Straight card No. 4318.

In the matter of the date of death of George W. Tiblow, Cherokee card No. 4318, Roll No. 32481.

Testimony of Charles Tiblow taken at his home at Sperry, Oklahoma, October 13th, 1909. Sworn by A. G. McMillan, Deputy Clerk, United States Court, Eastern District of Oklahoma.

Examination on behalf of Commissioner:

Q What is your name? A Charles Tiblow.
Q How old are you? A Thirty-four.
Q What is your post office address? A Sperry, Oklahoma.
Q Are you on the roll as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, full blood Shawnee.
Q What is the name of your father? A Obediah Tiblow.
Q Is he living? A No sir.
Q What is the name of your mother? A I don't know; died when I was small.
Q Have you a son named George W. Tiblow? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of his mother? A Eliza.
Q Is Eliza living? A No sir, I think she's dead.
Q Is your son George W. living or dead? A He's dead.
Q When did he die? A He died before I enrolled with the Dawes Commission at Bartlesville.
Q Do you know what year you wenrolled? A At Bartlesville?
Q Yes? A No sir, I don't.
Q You say the Dawes Commission was at Bartlesville enrolling citizens of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, some of the officers were there anyhow. They were there in a big tabernacle. They were there enrolling people.
Q And did you appear before them and give in your name for enrollment? A Yes sir.
Q Did you give in the name of your son George W. at that time?
A No sir.
Q He was dead then was he? A Yes sir, that's the reason I never gave in his enrollment and never fooled with it.
Q But you don't know what year that was? A No, I don't remember what year that was at all.
Q How long had the boy been dead before you enrolled at Bartlesville? A Well, to have it straight it was near two or three years, but I couldn't say positive for I never paid no attention to it don't you see, but he was buried there where Mrs. Tucker lives.
Q Where does Mrs. Tucker live? A She lives south and a little bit east of Vinita, on Little Cabin creek.
Q About how far from Vinita? A It isn't so far--let's see--two and a half or three miles.

Q About how old was your son George W. when he died? A Two years old I think.
Q You were living near Vinita when your son George W. died? A Yes sir.
Q Where was the boy born? A On Big Cabin over there near Vinita.
Q Do you know who enrolled him? A No, I don't. I enrolled him at first on the other roll but not on the Dawes Commission roll.
Q Was his mother Eliza a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q Who was her father? A I couldn't say.
Q Did you know an Indian named John Pecan who formerly lived at Skiatook? A Yes sir.
Q Was he a Shawnee? A Yes, he was Shawnee.
Q Do you know when he died? A No, I don't know how long ago it was, but I remember about him dying, alright.
Q Where did John Pecan die? A Died over here near Skiatook.
Q Did your son George W. die before John Pecan died? A Yes sir.

(Records in the office of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes show that John Pecan died in the fall of 1901).

Q Do you know what year this is? A Yes sir, this is 1909.
Q Well, couldn't you count back when your boy died? A No sir, I couldn't. I don't even know what year they enrolled at Bartlesville.
Q But you are sure that your son died before John Pecan died?
A Yes sir.
Q And that your son George W. died before you enrolled at Bartlesvi ville? A Yes sir.
Q Did you buy a coffin for your son? A No, sir, just buried in a home-made one.
Q Any tombstone at his grave? A No sir.
Q How long has it been since you left that country over there about Vinita? And moved over here? A Oh, it has been quite a while ago. I have been over here about eight or nine years I reckon.
Q And your son died over there about Vinita before you moved away from there? A Yes sir.
Q How long had he been dead when you left there? A Well, I could not say, but he had been dead quite a bit.
Q Were you living there near Vinita when you enrolled at Bartlesville? A No sir, I had just come here when I enrolled at Bartlesville. I had been here a time or two before, but I came over here to my uncle's and went on over with them to Bartlesville and enrolled. I was going to enroll at Vinita but they had my name down wrong; they had it down Bean, so I came over here and got proof and went with my folks to Bartlesville to enroll.
Q Had you moved here then? A I didn't have anything to move but myself.
Q What was your uncle's name that enrolled at Bartlesville at the s same time you did? A Sam Tiblow.
Q Have you any relatives living? A No sir, my kinfolks are all dead except two little cousins. My father and uncles and all are dead.

George Tiblow case 3

Testimony of Lottie Coffman taken three miles southeast of Vinita, Oklahoma, November 8th, 1909. Sworn by A. G. McMillan, Deputy Clerk, United States Court, Eastern District of Oklahoma.

Q What is your name? A Lottie Coffman.
Q How old are you? A Thirty-five.
Q What is your post office address? A Vinita.
Q How long have you lived in this vicinity? A Well, I have lived here -- here and up about Seneca-- thirteen years, but I lived down here about seven years; one time five years and another time one or two years.
Q Where did you come from to Oklahoma? A Why we came from Iowa.
Q Was there an Indian child died in this neighborhood near the time you first came here? A Yes sir.
Q What was its name? A Well, I didn't know the father at the time but I got acquainted with him afterwards.
Q What was the father's name? A Charles Tiblow.
Q Was Charles Tiblow a Shawnee Indian? A Well, I don't know myself, but I heard them call him a Shawnee.
Q Did you know the name of his wife? A No, I didn't know her name.
Q This Indian, Charles Tiblow, had a child to die about the time you came here from Iowa? A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember what year you moved from Iowa to Oklahoma?
A 1897.
Q And you say this child of Charles Tiblow's died near the time you moved here? A Now that child died the same year we moved here, but I wasn't married then. We came to Seneca and stayed there about a week and came on down here, for I remember my husband and my cousin sat up with the corpse.
Q How old was that child when it died? A Well, I don't know, but they called it a baby. I know the child died when we came down here and I was here just a little over a year when I was married and I was married in 1898; I know that. It was along in May when the child died.
Q Where was this child buried? A It was buried over here in a graveyard on Amos Dick's place.

Same place and date as above.

Q What is your name? A Mary Tucker.
Q And your age? A Fifty-six.
Q What is your post office address? A Vinita.
Q Did you ever know an Indian around here by the name of Charles Tiblow? A Yes sir, I knew Charlie a good while.
Q Was he a Shawnee Indian? A Why that's what they always said.
Q Did you know Tiblow's wife? A Why I was some acquainted with her.
Q Do you remember her name? A No sir, I don't; never did hear her name called that I know of; Mrs. Tiblow was all I knowed.
Q Was she an Indian? A No sir, she was a white woman.
Q Did Charles Tiblow have any children? A He had one that I know of, that little boy that died; it is buried right over here.
Q Do you remember the child's name? A No sir, I don't remember the child's name.
Q Was it George? A Well, I think I heard some one say they called it George.
Q Do you remember when this child died? A No sir, I don't. I couldn't tell you when it died. I remember of them being here and hearing of the child being dead. I was working out and didn't pay much attention to anything that way.

Q Would you say that this Tiblow child has been dead ten or twelve years? A No, I couldn't tell how many years, but I remember these red buds was just beginning to burst when that child died; I know that was the time of the year.

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, Oklahoma, March 28, 1910.

In the matter of the application of Charlie Tiblow for the enrollment of his son, George . Tiblow, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, Cherokee card No. 4318, Roll No. 32481.

Testimony of EDWARD DAUGHERTY, taken at Vinita, Oklahoma, March 26, 1910.

Sworn by S. A. Mills, deputy Clerk for the U. S. District Court, Eastern District of Oklahoma.

EXAMINATION ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

By Mr. S. A. Mills-

Q What is your name? A Edward Daugherty.
Q How old are you Mr. Daugherty? A Along about 36 years old.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Vinita, R. F. D. No. 3.
Q Are you a member of the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians? A Yes sir, I am a Shawnee, enrolled as a Cherokee citizen by blood.
Q Do you know one Charlie Tiblow? A Yes sir, he is a cousin of mine; he is a Shawnee too. We were raised together. He is a Cherokee by blood.
Q What was Charlie Tiblow's father's name? A Obadiah Tiblow.
Q Was Charlie Tiblow ever married? A Yes, his wife was a white woman; her name was Eliza; they were married here in 1894.
Q Did Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tiblow have any children that you know of? A Yes, they had one child; he was named after my brother. He was the only child they had. When he was about two years old he took sick and died at my mother's place, and we buried him on Amos Stick's place in an old graveyard there, about three and a half or four miles here on the Okoee road. They didn't have any other child. Charlie and his wife separated shortly after the child died. Charlie went to his uncle, Sam Tiblow's, near Skiatook, and Eliza went to her people in Missouri, and I have never heard of her since then.
Q You are sure there was only one child born to Charlie Tiblow and his wife, Eliza? A Yes, I am sure they had but the one child. We were together every day and lived together a part of the time. When they had this child they were living in Vinita. After he took sick they moved out to mother's place and stayed there till after the child died. I was living about one quarter of a mile from mother's house and I saw them every day. Mother helped them to take care of the child and to doctor it but it died; it had summer complaint. Charlie got some medicine in town but the child didn't get any better. Charlie went to town to see a doctor, but before he came back the child died and they buried it in the old graveyard on Amos Stick's place.
Q Was there a doctor in attendance on this child at any time during its last sickness? A No Charlie went to town to see one but the child died before he got back.
Q What was this child's name? A George Tiblow; he was named after my brother.
Q When was it that this child died? A It was 1897, in May, the latter part I think. I know it was 1897.

Q How do you know it was 1897; how do you fix that date so positive; have you a ~~fmi~~ family or other written record of this child's death? A Yes, I had it down in a book but I have lost it, but I know, as I had a child, Florence, who was fifteen years old the 11th day of February this year and she was two years old when Charles' boy died. They were about the same age; my baby was a little the oldest.

Q Were you present when the child died? A Yes, I was there; I helped to lay it out and I made the coffin for it and helped to bury the child.

Q Now you are quite sure that this child, George Tiblow, was the only child Charlie Tiblow had, and that it died in 1897? A Yes I am, I ought to know, I was there and I know because I have kept track of it in the book I lost, and from the age of my daughter, Florence, who was about the same age.

Q Who else besides you and your mother were present at the death of George Tiblow, a son of Charlie and Eliza Tiblow? A Our family and I believe a Mrs. Whiteday, but I am not sure about her.

Witness Excused.

Testimony of CHARLES E. COFFMAN, taken at Vinita, Oklahoma, March 26, 1910.

Sworn by S. A. Mills, Deputy Clerkfor the U. S. District Court, Eastern District of Oklahoma.

EXAMINATION ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

By Mr. S. A. Mills-

Q What is your name? A Charles E. Coffman.

Q How old are you? A 45 years old.

Q What is your postoffice? A Vinita, Oklahoma.

Q Are you a member of the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians? A No I am a non-citizen.

Q You know one Charlie Tiblow? A Yes sir, he was a Cherokee Shawnee Indian.

Q How long have you known him? A I first knew him in 1894 until now. I saw him last year, last fall.

Q Is Charlie Tiblow married? A Yes sir.

Q Who was his wife? A He married a white woman; her name is Eliza Jones.

Q When were they married? A I just can't say.

Q Did Charlie Tiblow have any children? A Yes one boy, it is dead though.

Q When did this child die? A Either in the latter part of May or early in June, 1897.

Q How do you fix the date so positively? A Because I was living in the neighborhood and sat up with the child's corpse and helped to bury it. I was single then. It was the year before I was married. I was married the very next year and our marriage certificate will show which year I was married.

Here witness produced and showed a marriage certificate showing Charles Coffman, of Newton County, Missouri, and Lottie Gray, of Seneca County, Missouri, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at Neosho County, Missouri, on the 11th day of July, 1898- Rev. J. W. Harris.

Q You are quite sure it was in 1897 that the child of Charlie and Eliza Tiblow died? A Yes sir, I am. I know so, I have talked it over with my wife and also Charlie Tiblow.

Q Where did the child die? A At Mrs. Daugherty's place on Mustang Creek, ten miles south-east of Vinita.

Q What has become of Charlie Tiblow, the father of this child? A Charlie is out west near Skiatook.

Q Where is Eliza Tiblow, the mother of this child? A I don't know unless she is at or near Springfield, Missouri. She and Charlie separated after the death of their child; she went to her folks in Missouri and I have lost tract of her since then.

Witness excused.

I, Stephen A. Mills, an employe of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, hereby certify that on March 26th, 1910, I secured the testimony in the above entitled cause and that the within and foregoing is true and correct as shown by my notes taken in said cause on said date.

Mr. Charles Tiblow,

Sir:

Evidence has been secured by this office showing that your son, George W. Tiblow, whose name appears on the roll of Cherokee citizens by blood opposite No. 32481, died prior to September 1, 1902.

The act of Congress of July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), contains the following provision:

> "That no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person, or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on said roll and who died prior to the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two. The right of such person to any interest in the lands or other tribal property shall be deemed to have become extinguished and to have passed to the tribe in general upon his death before said date, and any person or persons who may conceal the death of anyone on said roll as aforesaid for the purpose of profiting by said concealment, and who shall knowingly receive any portion of any land or other tribal property or of the proceeds so arising from any allotment prohibited by this section, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be proceeded against as may be provided in other cases of felony, and the penalty for this offense shall be confinement at hard labor for a period of not less than one year nor more than five years, and in addition thereto a forfeiture to the Cherokee Nation of the lands, other tribal property, and proceeds so obtained."

You are, therefore, notified that on or before February 21, 1910, you may appear at this office, if you so desire, to show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department of the Interior that the following notation be placed opposite the name of George W. Tiblow on the approved roll of Cherokee citizens:

"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

Sir:

In accordance with your instructions of recent date, I have the honor to report that I investigated the matter of the date of the death of George W. Tiblow, Cherokee Roll No. 32481, and enclose herewith testimony taken by me in said matter.

SAM(CM)
Enc. 31-1

Subject:
Enrollment of
George W.
Tiblow:

Muskogee, Oklahoma, April 5, 1910.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to bring to the attention of the Department the case of George W. Tiblow who is enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation opposite number 32481 on the final roll of such citizens.

No application to select an allotment of land for this citizen having been made, an investigation was begun to determine whether or not he was living, and if not, the date of his death.

The record in the matter of the enrollment of this person, who was a minor, shows that his father, Charles Tiblow, made application for his own enrollment on October 11, 1900, at Bartlesville, at which time no mention was made of his having a son.

On June 18, 1902, Charles Tiblow again appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of his son, George W. Tiblow, stating that this child was living with his mother from whom witness was separated, and that he had not seen his said son for about two years.

On December 1, 1909, Charles Tiblow testified that his son, George W. Tiblow died before he enrolled himself at Bartlesville; that this was the reason that he made no application for his son's enrollment. This statement was corroborated by the statement of other witnesses, and on January 22, 1910, Charles Tiblow was notified that he might in a stipulated time appear to show cause why a notation should not be made opposite the name of his son on the citizenship roll of the Cherokee Nation, that he had died prior to September 1, 1902, and was not entitled to land or money.

This notice was received as was evidenced by the return of the registry receipt, but no response was made. However, not being entirely satisfied in view of the conflicting testimony of the father of this child, a further investigation was made which resulted in showing conclusively that George W. Tiblow died in 1897.

I therefore have the honor to recommend that the following notation be placed upon all copies of the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation opposite the name of George W. Tiblow at number 32481:

"Died prior to September 1 1902, not entitled to land or money."

A copy of the r cord in this case is enclosed herewith.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

Enrollment case of
G. W. Tiblow. May 25 1910

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit, herewith, a report dated April 5, 1910, from the Acting Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, relative to the death of George W. Tiblow, whose name appears opposite No. 32481, on the final approved roll of citizens, by blood, of the Cherokee Nation.

It is shown by the enclosed papers that George W. Tiblow died prior to September 1, 1902. It is provided in Section 31 of the act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat. L., 716), that no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person or to the heirs of any person whose name is on the Cherokee roll and who died prior to September 1, 1902. The Office, therefore, recommends that opposite the name of George W. Tiblow, on the above mentioned roll, there be placed the notation "Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money", and that this Office and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes be authorized to make a similar notation upon the copies of the roll in their possession.

The papers in the case show that the heir of George W. Tiblow was notified of the proposed action and afforded an opportunity to show cause why said action should not be taken.

Very respectfully,

In the matter of the application of Mollie Swannock, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

JONAS SWANNOCK, being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Jonas Swannock. I generally put it down J. E., but that's my right name, Jonas.
Q You are 37 years of age are you? A Yes sir. About 38.
Q Your postoffice is Dewey is it? A Yes sir.
Q You are a Delaware? A Yes sir.
Q What's your wife's name? A Mollie.
Q She's living is she? A Yes sir.
Q Do you and she live together? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married to her? A We were married in '94.
Q 1894? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been living together continuously since that time? A Yes sir.
Q Who married you? A I forget the name now, we got married in Independence, and we got our license recorded with Joe LaHay,
Q He was clerk of Cooweescoowee District? A Yes sir.
Q Did you file with the Commission your marriage license and certificate? A Yes sir.
Q Was your wife ever married before you married her? A No sir.
Q You were previously married were you? A Yes sir, I was married once or twice before that time.
Q What was the first woman you ever lived with? A Josie Arnold.
Q Is she living? A No, she's dead.
Q Did you and she live together until she died? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married to her? A I couldn't tell you that. I must have been about 18 years old, but I couldn't tell you what year that would be.
Q About 20 years ago? A Yes sir. I lived with her about a year and a half and she died.
Q You lived together until she died? A Yes sir.
Q And what was the name of the next woman you married? A Addie Hickman.
Q Was she a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q About how soon after Josie's death was it t at you married Addie Hickman? A I can't remember, it must been a couple of years any way. Two years I think.
Q Is Addie Hickman living? A Yes sir.
Q Whereabouts do you know? A She's living over here in the Osage. She's married.
Q What is her name now? A Shipley.
Q What is her postoffice? A Bartlesville.
Q Were you and Addie divorced? A Yes sir.
Q In what Court? A In the Cherokee I reckon. Norwood got my divorce.
Q Do you know the Judge you secured the divorce before? A No.
Q How long did you and Addie live together? A About a year.
Q And then how soon after that was it that you and she were divorced? A I think about 6 months.
Q Have you a copy of your decree of divorce? A No, I don't think I have.
Q Did you ever have one? A Yes, Norwood sent me one, but I don't know what I done with it.

Q Did you ever have the records of the Cherokee Nation examined to see if you could find any record of your divorce? A I believe I did once.
Q You don't know whether you found it or not? A No, but it ought to be there.
Q After you and Addie separated w at is the next woman you married?
A This woman.
Q Mollie? A Yes sir.
Q So you never lived with any other women besides these three?
A That's all.
Q You and Mollie have lived together continuously since your marriage? A Yes sir.
Q She's a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q Have you any children? A No, no children.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Gentlemen:-

With reference to your communication of Dec.19th. requesting certificate of divorce between Jonas and Addie Swannock,you are respectfully advised that I have searched the records of Coowee scoo-wee District,Delaware District,and the Acts af the National Council of the Cherokee Nation for the years 1884 to 1888 inclusive,and fail to find any record of such divorce.

A. H. Norwood,

Dewey, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mollie Swannock, wife of Jonas Swannock, evidence of a divorce between Jonas Swannock and his former wife, Addie, is desired. The records of the Cherokee Nation fail to show such divorce. Jonas Swannock states that you represented him in the suit. Will you please advise the Commission what you know relative tb this matter, giving date of the decree and the Court in which the divorce was granted.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge

Mrs. J. W. Swannock,

Dewey, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of May 24, asking if Norwood has yet supplied the Commission with a copy of the decree of divorce which you claim was granted to your husband, Jonas Swannock from his former wife, Adda.

In reply you are advised that the record of your application for enrollment as a citizen by marriage, fails to show that any evidence of that divorce has yet been filed. In reply to a communication from this Commission, Ex-secretary of the Cherokee Nation, under date of December 23, 1903, advises that no record can be found of such a divorce having been granted in Cooweescoowee or Deleware District or by act of the National Council.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge
Cherokee Land Office.

Tahlequah, Indian Territory. June 14, 1904.

Mrs. Joseph Swannock,

Dewey, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of June 6, in further reference to your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation and asking if it will be necessary for you to introduce the testimony of witnesses tending to prove the divorce of your husband, Joseph Swannock, from his former wife, Addie.

In reply you are advised that as you do not present any documentary evidence as to the said divorce and as the records of the Cherokee Nation fail to show that any divorce proceedings between them were ever recorded, it will be necessary for you to introduce the testimony of witnesses to corroborate the testimony of your husband that such a divorce was secured.

Testimony to the effect that A. H. Norwood was the attorney for your husband in the divorce suit from his wife, Addie, has been introduced in your case and you are desired to have Mr. Norwood appear before the Commission for the purpose of testifying as to his knowledge of any such divorce proceedings. You should also offer in evidence the testimony of any other witness or witnesses who know that such a divorce was secured.

As no action will be taken looking to your final enrollment until the testimony above referred to has been offered, it is important that you introduce the same before the Cherokee Land Office of the Commission at Tahlequah at the earliest practicable date.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge
Cherokee Land Office.

Q What i your name ' Jacob Street.
Q How old are you? A 26.
Q What is your post o fice address? A Skiatook.
Q Are you a resident of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you resided in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you ever resided anywhere else? A No, sir.
Q Have you been outside of the Cherokee Nation in the pas three years? A No, sir.
Q Are you making application as a native Cherokee, adopted Delaware of Shawnee? A Shawnee.
Q What is your father's name? A I do not know.
Q Is your father living? A I do not know.
Q Was he Shawnee? A No, sir,white man.
Q What was your mother's name? A Eliza.
Q Eliza Street? A I do not know I could not tell you.
Q Is your mother living? A No, sir.
Q Was she Shawnee indian? A Yes sir.
Q How long has she been dead? A She died when I was about seven.
Q Do you know whether she died before 1880 or not? A I think she died.
Q She was not living when the roll was made in 1880? A I could not tell you.
Q Are you making application for anyone besides yourself? A No,sir. 1880 enrollment; page 184, #2854, Jake Street, Cooweescoowee.
Q Where were you in 1896? A I was out west working.
Q West of where? A Sac and Fox.
Q Was not in the Cherokee Nation then? A No, sir.

W. W. Hastings, Representative of the Cherokee Nation:

Q How long did you work out there? A About six months and come back
Q That all you were ever out? A Yes,sir.
Q You always lived here, with the exception of that six months, in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

The COMMISSION:

Q Did you ever talk with Mr. Rogers? A. Just spoke as I was passing him as I would pass any stranger.

Q. Does Mr. Rogers know you? A. Yes, sir; he knows me, I reckon, when I see him. I don't know whether he knows me or not.

Q. Ever talk with him? A. I have spoke to him. I never had any conversation with him any more than I would to any strange man.

Q. Where are your two other children living? A. They are living at Bartlesville. One is living right close to me.

Q. One is married? A. Well, they both been married. One is married and lives close to Bartlesville and one is living with me.

Q. Did they ever live at Skiatook? A. No, sir; they never lived at Skiatook.

Q. You state, then, do you, Mrs. Guess, that you have never been married since the death of Nelson Guess and you haven't lived with any man? A. No, sir; I ain't married and never lived with no man.

Q. You have been living single and been a widow ever since he died? A. Ever since he died.

BY MR. STARR:

Q. Is Susie Guess your youngest child?
A. Yes, sir; Susie Guess if my youngest child.

Jesse O. Carr on oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the above entitled case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

BCJ

Cherokee 4324

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Cherokee Land Office,
Tahlequah, I. T., May 6, 1904.

In the matter of the application of FRANCES GUESS for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of her children, ALBERT, ELIZA and SUSIE GUESS, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY.

Appearances:
Cherokee Nation represented by J. C. Starr;
Applicant not present.

Attorney for the Cherokee Nation makes satisfactory proof of service of notice upon the applicant, that testimony will be heard in this case at Tahlequah, I.T., on May 6, 1904.

J. C. STARR, being duly sworn ad examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A J. C. Starr.
Q How old are you? A 34 years.
Q What is your postoffice? A Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q You are a citizen o f the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q You represent the Cherokee Nation before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in applications for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, do you? A Yes sir.
Q Do you wish to make a statement or introduce any testimony in this case?
A Yes sir. I am acquainted with the applicant, Frances Guess, and knew her when she was the wife of Nelson Guess. Sometime during the session of the United States Court jury at Vinita, the applicant, Frances Guess, telephoned to my house for me to meet her at the Ballentyne Store. I asked her to come to my house and she replied that she wanted to see me by myself.

I went to the Ballentyne Store and she was waiting for me when I arrived there. She asked me to come to the rear end of the store, that she wanted to talk to me about a case that she had in court, and she commenced by telling me that she was under subpoena to come before the United States Court jury at Vinita, and that she had heard that the representatives of the Cherokee Nation had reported her to the District Attorney for living with one Clarence B. Haggard on the theory that she had not been married to Haggard.

She made much inquiry about this report and I told her that we had nothing to do with it and had no knowledge of any subpoena being out for her. She then went on to say that she had been before the Dawes Commission and testified positively that she had never married since the death of her husband, Nelson Guess; that she had passed the Dawes Commission all right on this testimony, but that she had heard that I was making inquiry about her marriage in Oklahoma. She said that she had gone to the town of Pawnee, Oklahoma, and had there married a non-citizen by the name of C. B. Haggard, and that she believed that I knew about it, and she opened a purse, and said she would give me $100.00 if I would not report it. She then increased her offer to $200.00 and during the talk I ascertained where she secured her marriage license and then told her I was not in that business. She went on to state that she had testified falsely before the Dawes Commission and that, if she was called again, she would tell the same story although she knew it was false.

I then wrote to the Probate Judge at Pawnee, Oklahoma, and founf the marriage record showing that C. B. Haggard and Frances R. Guess were married in Pawnee, Oklahoma, on the 21st day of September, 1901.

I am acquainted with C. B. Haggard, who at one time lived on Horse Creek, near where Frances Guess lived before she went to Oklahoma, and I know [redacted] that C. B. Haggard is a white man and not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. I know that the applicant, Frances Guess, is now living with the said C. B. Haggard as his wife.

Commission: The records of this Commission do not show that C. B. Haggard is an applicant for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

There is offered in evidence certified copy of the marriage license and certificate, showing the marriage, on September 21, 1901, of C. B. Haggard and Frances R. Guess. The same will be filed.

----o----

Mabel F. Maxwell, being duly sworn, states that, as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, she correctly recorded the supplemental testimony in this case, and that the above and foregoing is an accurate and complete transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

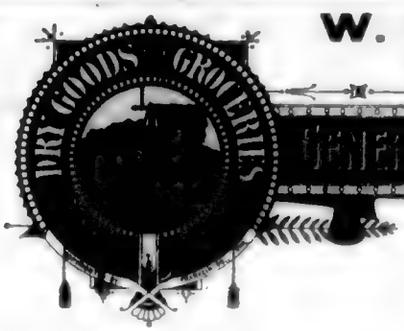

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

Frances Guess,

Skiatook, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Department, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, has been designated by the Secretary of the Interior, as the official to make and approve appraisals of the value of improvements upon land in the Cherokee Nation which were made prior to November 5, 1906, by white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Tahlequah, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried white claimant, or makes any adverse claim to said improvements, or to the right of the intermarried white claimant to sell said improvements under the Act approved March ried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Tahlequah, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried white claimant, or makes any adverse claim to said improvements, or to the right of the intermarried white claimant to sell said improvements under the Act approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), said citizen must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes either at Muskogee, Indian Territory, prior to April 1, 1907, or at one of the places above designated and within the dates above designated and make formal complaint before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes of his contention. At Muskogee, Indian Territory, between March 11th and March 30th, 1907, inclusive, and at the other places herein named during the hearings at said places as herein fixed, plats will be open for inspection showing the location of tentative allotments made by former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage and all other land on which such claimants claim improvements, so far as indicated by the records of this office.

All persons interested should take careful note of the limitation of time herein provided for, within which designations and complaints may be made, and that they must be made by appearance before the Commissioner

1896 Roll page 352, No. 372, Susan Tiblo, Cooweescoowee,
1894 " " 161 " 1420, Webster Ellis, "

The applicant is shown by the official publication of the laws and joint resolutions of the Cherokee Nation enacted during the years 1881, 2 & 3, to have been admitted with her family on December 8th 1881. It is set forth on page 14 of said acts. This is identified as official evidence of her admission.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, her husband and two children. Her husband appears in person in the course of the examination. She has been married to her present husband only a few weeks but this marriage is established by her own and additional testimony. She is a full blood Cherokee. She is shown ro have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship in 1881. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since and is identified on the 1896 roll and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. When she supplies the Commission with a certificate of the birth of her two children Bertha and Charles Tiblow, children by a former husband, they also will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

Her present husband, Daniel Webster Tyner is identified on the roll of 1894 under the name of Ellis. He is not identified on the roll of 1896. It is claimed that he was admitted to Cherokee citizenship in 1887. He does not present sufficient evidence of his admission, nor can any reliable evidence be obtained at the present moment. It is said that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since his admission. It is stated that he came to the Cherokee Nation with a family by the name of Ellis. The application for his enrollment will now be placed upon a doubtful card to await further and sufficient evidence of his admission to Cherokee citizenship.

Chas. von Weise being duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all proceedings had in the above cause and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes of said proceedings.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of JACOB H. BARTLES as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, October 11, 1900 application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Jacob H. Bartles as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Dewey, Indian Territory, October 17, 1902 and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 6, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Jacob H. Bartles, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District No.260 as an adopted white, is a white man and neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as he may have acquired by virtue of his marriage, January 21, 1873 to one Nannie M. Bartles, nee Journeycake, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District No.261, as an adopted Delaware, and whose name is included on the approved partial roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation opposite No.32531, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. It is further shown that the said Nannie M. Bartles acquired her right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of her admission to the rights and privileges of Cherokee citizenship" by an Act of the National Council of the Cherokee Nation approved November 25, 1872.

In view of the foregoing it is considered that the applicant herein, Jacob H. Bartles, acquired no right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of his marriage January 21, 1873 to the said Nannie M. Bartles, who is a citizen of the Cherokee Nation not of Cherokee blood.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5, 1906 in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos.125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Jacob H.Bartles, is not entitled, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congressapproved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

Land
3410-1905. OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1905.

(C O P Y)

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated January 10, 1905, transmitting the record relative to the application of Nannie M. Bartles et al. for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood, including the Commission's decision of May 16, 1904, granting said applications; also motion of Nannie M. Bartles, Ida F. Gibson and Ella M. Neilson to reopen the case as to them and modify the judgment and render a decision according to each of them as citizens of the Cherokee Nation all the rights of registered Delawares, together with the Commission's decision of January 17, 1905, denying the motion.

Nannie M. Bartles applied for the enrollment of herself as a Cherokee citizen of Delaware blood and for the enrollment of her husband, who is differently classed and not included in the Commission's decision. Ida F. Gibson applied for the enrollment of herself and her child, Mary E. Gibson, and her husband, who is not embraced in the Commission's decision on account of being differently classed. Joseph A. Bartles applied for the enrollment of himself. Francis A. Neilson applied for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage and for the enrollment of his wife, Ella M., and their child, Nonie, as Cherokee citizens of Delaware blood. Francis A. Neilson being differently classed is not embraced in the Commission's decision.

May 16, 1904, the Commission held that Nannie M. Bartles, Ida F. and Mary E. Gibson, Joseph A. Bartles, Ella M. and Nonie Neilson were entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, with the same rights as Cherokee citizens by blood. Nannie M. Bartles, Ida F. Gibson and Ella M. Neilson claim that they are entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood, with the same rights as registered Delawares. The persons last mentioned and also Laronia J. Pratt, now Nonie Barndollar, were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by act of the National Council approved by the Principal Chief November 25, 1872. The act is as follows:

Be it enacted by the National Council that Nannie M. Bartles, Laronia J. Pratt, Ella M. Pratt and Ida F. Pratt, Delaware Indians, be and they are hereby admitted to the rights and privileges of Cherokee citizens. Provided, that the rights herein granted shall not vest in the said Nannie M. Bartles, Laronia J. Pratt, Ella M. Pratt and Ida F. Pratt, until they have paid into the National Treasury a sum of lawful money equal to the sum paid by other Delaware Indians per head in becoming Cherokees, under the articles of agreement between the Cherokee Nation and Delawares of April 8, 1867, and shall have permanently located in the Cherokee Nation as citizens thereof.

Nannie M. Bartles was admitted under that name; Ella M. Neilson was admitted under the name of Ella M. Pratt, and Ida F. Gibson under the name of Ida F. Pratt. The attorney for the applicants filed brief and argument in the case, as did also the attorney for the Cherokee Nation, and additional brief and argument of the attorney for the applicants will be found with Office report of March 23, 1905 (Land 3404,15069-1905).

I do not believe that the contention of Nannie M. Bartles, Ella M. Neilson and Ida F. Gibson that they are entitled to all of the rights of registered Delawares, although the record shows that they were required to pay into the treasury of the Cherokee Nation "a sum of lawful money equal to the sum paid by other Delaware Indians per head in becoming Cherokees" under the Delaware-Cherokee agreement of April 8, 1867, can be sustained. The record shows that the payment required was made. The Supreme Court of the United States, in the case of the Delaware Indians versus the Cherokee Nation (193 U. S., 127), briefly stated, held that the registered Delawares living at the date of the decree, February 23, 1904, were each entitled to an allotment of 160 acres of land, and that their children and descendants took only the rightsof other citizens of the Cherokee Nation, as the same are regulated by law. The names of the persons last mentioned do not appear on the rolls of registered Delawares made in 1867 under the provisions of the Delaware-Cherokee agreement of April 8, 1867. Furthermore, the Comptroller of the Treasury, in an opinion dated March 1, 1905, concerning the distribution of the $150,000.00 appropriated for the Delaware tribes by the Act of April 21, 1904 (33 Stats., 222), said, among other things:

> From the language of the act and conditions therein imposed, I think it clear that the appropriation of $150,000 was made for, and payable only to the Delaware tribe of Indians, as said tribe by its council direct, and that the Delaware Indians who, under the provisions of Articles III and IX of the treaty of July 4, 1866, supra, elected to dissolve their tribal relations, and became citizens of the United States are not legally entitled to be enrolled for participation in the distribution of said sum.

In view of the above, it seems to me that the action of the Commission in declaring the applicants whose rights are considered in this case entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, with all the rights of Cherokees by blood, is correct, and that its decision of January 7, 1905, refusing to reopen and modify its former decision, in so far as Nannie M. Bartles, Ella M. Neilson and Ida F. Gibson are concerned, and accord them the rights of registered Delawares, is also correct, and that both decisions should be approved, and I so recommend.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,
Acting Commissioner.

Gentlemen:

January 10, 1905, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Nannie M. Bartles, et al., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood, including your decision of May 16, 1904, granting said application. The record also contains a motion to reopen said case as to the applicants Nannie M. Bartles, Ida F. Gibson and Ella M. Neilson, and to modify your decision so as to entitle said applicants to all the rights of Registered Delawares.

January 7, 1905, you denied said motion.

It appears that the applicants included in your decision were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by act of the National Council approved by the Principal Chief November 25, 1872.

Reporting March 25, 1905, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that your decision of May 16, 1904, granting the application for the enrollment of the applicants as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood, and your decision of January 7, 1905, denying the motion to reopen and modify your former decision, be approved. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

Following the decision of the Department dated March 31, 1905, in the case of Mary A. Tiblow, et al., your said decisions are hereby affirmed.

Respectfully,

Thos. Ryan,

Acting Secretary.

Bartlesville, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of December 17, 1906, in further reference to securing a copy of your marriage license and certificate, which you stated you filed with the Commission tothe Five Civilized Tribes, and in reference to which you have been heretofore advised that the same was not on file with this office, you are advised that a further examination has been made of the records in the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and also in the matter of the application for the enrollment of your wife as a citizen by Delaware blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that the records fail to show that your marriage license and certificate was ever presented to the Commission, or that it was filed with it.

The original record in the case of your wife was transmitted to the Department with the decision in the case, and it is on file there. It is possible, however, that your license was filed and is among the papers on file with the Department, but the record seems to indicate that it is not.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

March 1, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from Commissioner Bixby, dated February 21, 1907, enclosing record in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Jacob H. Bartles as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, including the Commissioner's decision, dated February 21, 1907, rejecting the application.

The record herein shows that the applicant is a white man, and possesses no right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such as he may have acquired by virtue of his marriage on January 21, 1873, to Nannie M. Journeycake, whose name appears on the 1880 Cherokee tribal roll as an adopted Delaware. It is further shown that she acquired her right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of her admission "to the rights and privileges of Cherokee citizenship" by an Act of the National Council of the Cherokee Nation approved November 25, 1872. The applicant did not therefore marry a Cherokee citizen by blood, under Cherokee law, prior to November 1, 1875, and the decision of the Commissioner, denying his enrollment, is in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, and it is recommended that it be affirmed.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Sir:

The Department is in receipt of your report of February 21, 1907, in the application of Jacob H. Bartles to be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage.

Applicant is a white man, citizen of the United States, who married Nannie M. Journeycake in strict conformity with Cherokee law, January 21, 1873, under a license for intermarriage of a white citizen of the United States to a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood. It is found and stated by the Commissioner that Nannie M. Journeycake is a Delaware, by blood, who was by Cherokee act of November 25,1872, admitted to the rights and privileges of Cherokee citizens, provided that the rights herein granted shall not vest in the said Nannie M. Bartles (and others named) until they have paid into the national treasury a sum of lawful money equal to the sum paid by other Delaware Indians, per head, in becoming Cherokees, under the articles of agreement between the Cherokee Nation and Delawares of April 8, 1867, and shall have permanently located in the nation as citizens thereof.

Such may be the fact, but the record also shows, and the Commissioner found, that the applicant -- is identified with his wife on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as an adopted white; he has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since his enrollment in 1880, and he and his wife . . . . . have continued to live together.

This renders the fact as to admission of Mrs. Bartles to citizenship by the act of November 25, 1872, and its effect immaterial. In the case of John W. Gleason, the Attorney-General, February 26, 1907, referring to the acts of June 10, 1896; June 7, 1897; and June 28, 1898, expressed the opinion that:

> The Commissioner had no authority to go behind the Cherokee roll of 1880 upon which the name of Gleason appeared, ... The act of June 28, 1898, ... specifically directs the Commissioner "to enroll all persons now living whose names are found on said roll." The authority given the Commission to eliminate from the tribal rolls is also expressly limited to "any other rolls," meaning any other than the roll of 1880, which was confirmed. . . . The fact that his name appeared on such confirmed roll must be held to remove that question (of right and classification) from the realm of controversy, he being a resident of the nation as required by the act of June 28, 1898.

As the applicant is, and since 1880 has continued to be, a resident of the nation, he will be enrolled as an adopted white citizen of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of his enrolment as such upon the confirmed roll of 1880.

A copy hereof has been sent to the Indian Office, with the papers in the case.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) E. A. Hitchcock,

Secretary.

By the Commission-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, husband, and one child. She is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as an adopted Delaware; she has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since her admission twenty-seven years ago; her change of name arises from her marriage, which is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith. Her husband is identified to be engaged under a temporary license from the government in business within the Osage Nation, but not in a manner that interferes with his citizenship and right of the fact of residence in the Cherokee Nation. The applicant will be listed now for enrollment as an adopted Delaware. Her husband is shown to have married her in accordance with Cherokee law in 1892; they have lived together ever since their marriage, and he is identified with his wife on the roll of 1896. He establishes his residence in the Cherokee Nation in a satisfactory manner, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by intermarriage. Their minor child, Mary Ella Gibson, is identified on the roll of 1896; she is living at this time, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee-Delaware.

E. C. Rothenberger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above cause, and that the foregoing is a true and complete translation of his stenographic notes in said case.

In the matter of the application of Ida F. Gibson for the enrollment of herself, husband, and one minor child as Cherokee citizens; she being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Ida F. Gibson.
Q How old are you? A 34 years old.
Q What is your postoffice? A Pawhuska.
Q Do you live in Cooweescoowee District? A Part of the time. Pawhuska is in the Osage Nation.
Q You claim Cooweescoowee District as your home? A Yes, as my legal home.
Q For whom do you apply for enrollment? A Myself, and my child, and my husband.
Q Do you apply for your own enrollment as a Cherokee by blood? A Adopted Delaware.
Q What is your husband? A He is a white man.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since I was eight years old. I was adopted the same as Mrs. Bartles.
Q Prior to 1880? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you lived here for twenty-seven years? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your father? A Lucias B. Pratt.
Q What is your mother's name? A Nannie M. Bartles.
Q Since your father's death she has married Mr. Bartles? A Yes, sir.
Q Your own father's dead; your mother's living? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you been married more than once? A No.
Q Are you on the roll of 1880 as Pratt? A Yes, as Ida F. Pratt.
Q And on the roll of 1896 as Gibson? A Yes, sir.
Q When were you married to your husband? A In '92, I think it was.
Q Give me his full name? A Allen H. Gibson.
Q How old is he? A 40.
Q Have you his marriage license and certificate? A Yes, sir.

By the Commission—

The applicant presents a marriage license issued by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee District, Nov. 22, 1892, authorizing marriage between herself and her husband as stated by her; and the certificate shows that they were united in marriage on Dec. 14 of the same year by the Rev. Charles Journeycake. This document is filed herewith.

Q Have you and your husband continued to live together in the Cherokee Nation ever since 1892? A Here and in the Osage Nation.
Q Lived here, but not all the time in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.
Q Are you living at the present time in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.
Q How long have you been living there? A About two years.
Q Prior to that, did you live from the time of your admission to Cherokee citizenship continuously in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.
Q But for the past two years, you and your family have made your home in the Osage Nation? A Yes.
Q What is the occasion of your living there? A Business there under permit from the Indian Department.

Allen H. Gibson, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Your full name? A Allen H. Gibson.
Q Your age? A 40.
Q You are the husband of Mrs. Ida F. Gibson, here? A Yes.
Q Explain please, the nature and occasion of your living in the Osage Nation? A I am in business there.
Q What kind of business? A Trading business under permit from the Indian Office.

Q From the Osage Nation? A From the Indian Office, Commissioner of Indian Affairs.
Q Do all traders there have to get a permit from the Interior Department? A Yes, sir.
Q You are making your home there, are you? A There and here.
Q What interests have you in the Cherokee Nation? A Farming and stock.
Q You have a store in the Osage Nation? A Yes.
Q Keeping house there? A Yes, sir.
Q Don't vote there? A No, sir, never voted any place except in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Do you contemplate moving back to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir. Have no other place to move.
Q What is there of a temporary character of your occupation in the Osage Nation? A I have no claim there, and as soon as my permit expires, I will have to leave the reservation.
Q Or get it renewed? A Yes.
Q How long is your permit? A One year.
Q You are doing business there under a temporary license? A Yes, sir.

J. L. Baugh, representative of the Cherokee Nation:
Q Did you obtain that permit as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation or citizen of the United States? A I think as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

re-direct.

Q What is the name of your child? A Mary Ella Gibson.
Q How old is she? A 6 years old next month.
Q Is she living at this time? A Yes, sir.
1880 roll; page 156, #2245, Ida Pratt, Cooweescoowee.
1896 roll; page 370, #292, Ida Gibson.
1896 roll; page 306, #400, Allen H. Gibson.
1896 roll; page 370, #293, Mary E. Gibson.

By the Commission:

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, husband, and one child. She is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as an adopted Delaware; she has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since her admission twenty-seven years ago; her change of name arises from her marriage, which is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith. Her husband is shown to be engaged under a temporary license from the government in business within the Osage Nation, but not in a manner that interferes with his citizenship and right of the fact of residence in the Cherokee Nation. The applicant will be listed now for enrollment as an adopted Delaware. Her husband is shown to have married her in accordance with Cherokee law in 1892; they have lived together ever since their marriage, and he is identified with his wife on the roll of 1896. He establishes his residence in the Cherokee Nation in a satisfactory manner, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by intermarriage. Their minor child, Mary Ella Gibson, is identified on the roll of 1896; she is living at this time, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee-Delaware.

Cherokee 4327.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Allen H. Gibson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record herein shows that on October 11, 1900, Ida F. Gibson appeared before the Commission at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, among others, of her husband, Allen H. Gibson, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Dewey, Indian Territory, on October 17, 1902. The other parties to the application have been differently classified and are not embraced in this decision.

The evidence shows that Allen H. Gibson is a white man; that he was married, under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, on December 14, 1892, to Ida F. Pratt, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. He is identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

The evidence further shows that the said Allen H. Gibson resided with his wife in the Cherokee Nation from the date of his marriage up to March, 1898, and that since that time the applicant and his said wife have been living in the Osage Nation, under a permit from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. In a compact by and between the Cherokees and the Osage Tribe of Indians on November 2, 1843, and articles supplemental thereto on December 13, 1884, it is provided that citizens of either nation can take up their residence and live within the limits of the other nation without affecting their citizenship in their home tribe.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Allen H. Gibson should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph one, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Department of the Interior.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Bartlesville, I. T., October 11, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Lucy Ellis for the enrollment of herself as a Cherokee citizen; she being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows: Interpreter, William Tooley.

Q What is her name? A Lucy Ellis.
Q How old is she? A 23.
Q What is your postoffice? A Skiatook.
Q Do you live in Cooweescoowee? A Yes.
Q Do you want to enroll anybody besides yourself? A Just myself.
Q Are you a Delaware or Cherokee? A Yes, Cherokee.
Q Full blood? A Shawnee and Cherokee.
Q Were you admitted to Cherokee citizenship by the Council in 1888; weren't you? A Yes.

By the Commission-

The applicant presents an official statement from the office of the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation to the effect that by an act of the Nation approved Nov. 28, 1888, certain persons were admitted to Cherokee citizenship, said admission to accrue when the parties report to the Principal Chief within twelve months from the date of the act and permanently locate in the Cherokee Nation. This is recognized as official evidence of the fact stated, and the name of Lucy Ellis appears in the document, and as it concerns the admission and enrollment of ##### numerous other persons, the paper is returned to the applicant.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A (No answer)
Q Have you lived here ever since November, 1888? A Yes.
1896 roll; page 153, #1623, Lucy Ellis, Cooweescoowee.

By the Commission-

The applicant ###### states that she is part Shawnee and part Cherokee; she is a full blood Indian; she is shown to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship on Nov. 28, 1888; she has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since that date, and she is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. She will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

E. G. Rothenberger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete translation of his stenographic notes in said case.

1896 roll; page 352, #382, John Tyner,
Q Did I understand you to say that you think the father of these children was re-admitted in 1880? A Yes sir.
Q Well, did he come here in 1880 at the time of his re-admission? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he live here all the time after that? A No, he went back there. His wife had an allotment back there.
Q Where did he make his home? A Here in the Cherokee Nation, Cooweescoowee district
Q When he went back to the other country did he stay there much? A He was down there, I don't know how long he had the place here he was going backward and forward all the time.
Q Now tell me now about this man, Lewis C. Tyner, living in the Cherokee Nation after he was admitted in 1880, where did he make his home?

A About three miles south of Skiatook.
Q What did he do in going back to the other country--what did he do in going back there? A He farmed there in the Shawnee Nation.
Q Did his wife stay there? A Yes.
Q Were these children born there? A One was, the oldest one.
Q Did that child stay here after he was admitted in 1880? A Not all the time; he was with his father and mother.
Q Where did he live chiefly; where did he make his residence? A They moved up here in 1880; they lived here till '91.
Q From '80 to '91? A Yes, sir. They moved back down yonder and staid there for about two years.
Q Take all their household effects? A Yes sir.
Q And then came back here? A Yes, sir, came back in '93.
Q Did they take their allotments down there? A They took their allotments down there, but relinquished their allotments back.
Q Children didn't keep any allotment down there? A No, they have no allotment there now.
Q Did they sell t em? A No, they relinquished them.
By the Commission-

The applicant presents a letter from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, dated July 11, 1895, showing that the patents in question of Ellen, John, Bushyhead, Davis, and Rachel Tyner, as members of the absentee Shawnee tribe, were relinquished and accepted by the Department on Feb. 2, 1895, and that on Feb. 2, 1895, the Secretary of the Interior directed the Commissinner of the General Land Office to cancel said [redacted] patents upon the records of his office, which was done. This letter is filed herewith.

Q How long do you know these children to have been living steadily here in the Cherokee Nation? A Seven years.

By the Commission-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of four orphan children in his charge, half brothers of his. They are identified on the roll of 1896 as Cherokee-Shawnees. There has been some question about their being identified with what is known as the absentee Shawnees, but a letter filed herewith from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs shows that the allotment in the Shawnee reservation of the mother and all of these children, was relinquished, and the relinquishment was accepted by the Interior Department; and these children are all identified on the roll of 1896; they are living in the Cherokee Nation at this time, and have been living in the Cherokee Nation consistently for the past seven years. They will be listed now for enrollment as Cherokee-Shawnees.

E. G. Rothenberger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete translation of his stenographic notes in said case.

Sir:

In reply to your communication dated June 26, 1895, received by reference from the Department, I have to advise you that the relinquishments of the patents issued to Ellen Tyner, John Tyner, Bushyhead Tyner, Davis Tyner, and Rachel Tyner, as members of the Absentee Shawnee tribe of Indians were accepted by the Department and that on February 2, 1895, the Secretary of the Interior directed the Commissioner of the General Land Office to cancel said patents upon the records of his office, which has been done.

This action was taken upon the report of the Indian Agent, that Lewis Tyner was a Cherokee Indian and had proved the right of his wife and children to enrollment, and that Tyner had assured him that their names appeared on the roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Very respectfully,

The Records Further Show: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

It Is Therefore Ordered and Adjudged: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

1880 roll, page 95, No 949 Susie M. Don Carloff, Cooweescoowee Dist
1896 roll, page 144, No 1358, Susan M. Don Carlos, Cooweescoowee "

The name of the applicant appears upon the 1880 authenticated roll of the citizens of the Cherokee Nation as Susie M. Don Carloff, and on the 1896 roll as Susan M. Don Carlos. She is identified as the party so enrolled, and having given sufficient testimony as to her continuous residence in the Cherokee Nation for the time prescribed by law, will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood.

The application made by her on behalf of her husband for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation, will be refused by the Commission for the reason that by her testimony and the documentary evidence offered in behalf of his application it appears that he was married to her on the 23d day of May, 1897, subsequent to the passage of the law by the Cherokee National Council of December 16th 1895, discontinuing the acquisition of property rights by intermarried white persons in the Cherokee Nation.

Her two mino r children, Losson and Beulah Winkler, having been born subsequent to the preparation of any triabl rolls by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation upon the presentation of proper affidavits as to the birth of these two minor children.

By the Commission-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, her husband and six children. Her husband is present and appears in the application. He is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as an adopted Delaware: he has lived in the Cherokee Nation for 32 years, and he will be listed now for enrollment as an adopted Delaware. She is shown to have married him in 1884; that havelived together ever since; she is identified on the roll of 1896 with her husband and children, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption. Of the six children, the first five named in the evidence are identified on the roll of 1896; they are living at this time, and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee-Delawares. When the Commission is supplied with the certificate of the birth of the youngest child, Ruby A., this child also, will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee-Delaware.

E. C. Rothenberger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete translation of his stenographic notes in said case.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Bartlesville, I.T. October 11th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF ANNIE BELLE WINKLER FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HERSELF AS A CHEROKEE CITIZEN.

The said Annie Belle Winkler, being sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, was examined by the Commission and testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Annie Belle Winkler.
Q What is your age? A Seventeen.
Q Are your mother and fatherliving? A My father is not, he is dead. My mother is.
Q Are you living with them? A No, sir; I am married.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Wann, I.T.
Q Do you live in the Cherokee nation? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived there? A All my life.
Q Born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you been outside of the Cherokee Nation in the past three years? A No, sir.
Q To what district in the Cherokee nation do you belong? A Cooweescoowee.
Q What is your father's name? A Frank L. Don Carlos.
Q What is your mother's name? A Fitzsimmons, now.
Q What is her given name? A Mary.
Q It was Mary Don Carlos? A Yes, sir.
Q Was your father a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.
Q Was your mother a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q To what district of the Cherokee nation did your mother belong? A (no response)
Q Are you making application for enrollment as a native Cherokee? A Yes, sir.

1880 Roll, page 95, No. 946, Fil Don Carloff, Cooweescoowee District. Adopted white.
1880 Roll, page 95, No. 947, Mary Don Carloff, Cooweescoowee District. Native Cherokee.
1896 Roll, page 144, No. 1360, Annie B. Don Carlos, Cooweescoowee District.

The applicant, Annie Belle Winkler, applies for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The names of her father and mother appear upon the 1880 authenticated roll of the citizens of the Cherokee Nation. Her father, rank Don Carlos, as an intermarried citizen and her mother, Mary Don Carlos, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood. The applicant's name is not on the 1880 authenticated roll, she having been born subsequent to the preparation of thatroll by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation. Her name appears upon the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation, and she having given sufficient evidence as to her residence in the Cherokee Nation for the time prescribed by law, she will now be listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

-------c-------

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this application for enrollment, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Bartlesville, I. T. October 11th, 1902.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Claude Crawford for the enrollment of himself, wife and children as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn and examined by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q What is your full name? A Claude Crawford.
Q How old are you? A Twenty eight.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Collinsville.
Q In what District do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Whom do you want to have enrolled? A My wife and children.
Q And yourself? A No sir; I am an adopted citizen.
Q When did you marry A In 1897.
Q One child? A Yes sir.
Q You apply as an adopted citizen? A Yes sir.
Q Your wife is a Cherokee, is she? A Yes sir.

The applicant presents a license, issued by the Clerk of Tahlequah District, November 11th, 1897, authorizing his marriage to Miss Florence Chaney, and the certificate shows that they were married on the same day, by the Reverend J. E. Gorbs. This is filed herewith.

Q Have you lived with your wife ever since you married her?
yes sir.
Q And all the time in the Cherokee Nation? A yes sir.
Q How old is your wife? A She will be twenty her next birth day.
Q Was she born in the Cherokee Nation? A yes sir: She never was outside of the Cherokee Nation; the Indian Territory, in her life.
Q She has never lived outside of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir; she has been to Muskogee.
Q Just on a visit? A yes sir.
Q Give me the name of her father? A Jasper Chaney.
Q Is he dead? A No sir, he is living.
Q Give me the name of her mother? A Ellen Chaney.

Q How long since she died? A I do not know.
Q Give me the name of your child? A Healey.
Q How old is that child? A Two years past.
Q How old is your wife's mother now? A I do not know: She is dead.
Q How old would she be if she were living? A About in the forties, or thirty five.
Something like that.
Q Was your wife's mother a Cherokee? A yes sir.
Q Do you know what her name was before it was Chaney?
A yes sir; Ragsdale.
Q Was that her ~~xxxx~~ maiden name? A yes sir.
(1880 Roll, Page 338, #355, Ellener Chaney, Flint District)

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and one child. His wife is identified on the roll of 1896, as a native Cherokee: She is too young to be on the roll of 1880, but her mother is identified on that roll. The applicant's wife has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

She is shown to have been married to her husband in 1897. When the Commission is supplied with a certificate of the birth of their child, Healey, this child also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The applicant himself is shown to have been married to his wife, in accordance with ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ the Cherokee license and certificate filed herewith, on November 11th, 1897: This is too late under the Cherokee law of 1896 for him to acquire the right to enrollment, and the application for his own enrollment is rejected.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that he stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in the case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12228-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been co plied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "The Claremore Messenger", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Claremore, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, 1906, and the first issue in "The Claremore Messenger" was on March 2, 1906. Attention was called to Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of thenotice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial roll in its possession; and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31,(I.T.D.6186-1905), June 1,(I.T.D.6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D.12228-1905), and January 12,(I.T.D.110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report were living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this office and are transmitted herewith, the office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

The applicant presents an immuninated certificate, showing that William T. Cox and Cora I. Parsons were united in marriage at Caney, Kansas, on the 20th day of May, 1900, by the Reverend D. P. Squire. This is returned to the applicant.
Q Did your mother have any name besides Ruth? A I do not know what her middle name was.
(1896 Roll, Page 231, #3732, Cora I. Parson, Coo. D'st)
Q Who here knew your mother: Is your father here? A No sir.
Q Is there any one here who knew your mother? A I can not tell you.
Q You do not know of any one here that was acquainted with your mother? A No sir.
Q Was your father married before he married your mother? A Yes sir
Q What was the name of his first wife? A Mary Parsons.
Q Mary Parsons, on the roll of 1880, was not your mother?
A No sir.
Q What was your mother's name before she was married to your father? A Timberlake.
(1880 Roll, Page 191, #3022, Ruth Timberlake, Coo. D'st)
Q How old was your mother when she died? A I can not tell you.
Q Do you remember her? A No sir; I do not remember anything about her.
Q She died when you were three or four years old? A Yes sir.

The applicant is identified on the roll of 1896, as a native Cherokee: Her mother is identified under her maiden name on the roll of 18 80, accurately traced through her family connection, as a native Cherokee. The applicant's change of name is accounted for by her marriage, which is established by the certificate cited in the testimony: She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a

Keys as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 10, 1902.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Amanda M. Keys, is a white woman, and neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as she may have acquired by virtue of her marriage, in the year 1854, to one Richard R. Keys, a Cherokee by blood. It is further shown that the said Richard R. Keys was not, at the time of said marriage, a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and did not become such until his admission to citizenship therein by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation February 1, 1888. Said applicant did not, therefore, marry a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Amanda M. Keys, is not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 21, 1906.

Amanda M. Keys,

Ochelata, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

November 6, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your husband, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was a recognized Cherokee citizen at the time of your marriage to him.

You are, therefore, directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A. M., on Wednesday, January 2, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

Respectfully,

W. O. Beall

Dear Sir:

The Commissioner sent you this day a telegram as follows;

"Replying your letter fourth, furtner evidence necessary as to marriage of Amanda Keys and citizenship her husband. Same should be produced immediately."

The Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, provides that the Secretary of the Interior shall have no jurisdiction to approve the enrollment of any person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation after March 4, 1907.

This matter therefore demands your immediate attention.

Respectfully,

M.T.M. Commissioner.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
BARTLESVILLE, I.T. OCTOBER 11th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Samuel H. Keys for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn and examined by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q What is your full name? A Samuel H. Keys.
Q How old are you? A Forty five.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Ochelata.
Q In what district do you live? A Coowescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the rolls? A Just myself.
Q Do you apply as a Cherokee by blood? A I do.
Q Do you claim to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship in 1888? A I do.

The applicant presents an official Copy of an Act of the Cherokee Council, approved Febuary 1st, 1888, admitting certain persons to citizenship, and among them appears the name of Samuel H. Keys.

Q That is your name, is it? A yes sir.

(This is recognized as official evidence of the applicant's admission as stated)

Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since your admission in 1888? A No sir: I have lived here since 1894.
Q In what time in 1894, did you come? A In March.
Q Have you lived here ever since you came in March, 1894?
A I have.

(In the Act referred to, the applicant was admitted to all the rights and privileges of a Cherokee citizen by blood.)

The applicant is shown to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship in 1888: He states that he came to the Cherokee Nation in 1894: His admission was to all the rights and privileges of a citizen by blood. He states that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since he came in March, 1894: He is identified on the roll of 1896: He will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

TESTIMONY of AMANDA M. KEYS in the matter of the request of SAMUEL H. KEYS to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes to make a discretionary allotment and designation of homestead as shown herein and on attached application form.

AMANDA M. KEYS, being first duly sworn by Samuel Foreman, a Notary Public in and for the Northern District of Indian Territory testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Amanda M. Keys.
Q What is your age? A 74.
Q What is your post office address? A Bartlesville.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q About whose allotment and designation of homestead do you desire to give testimony? A Samuel H. Key's.
Q What relation is Samuel H. Keys to you? A He is my son.
Q Why does he not appear in person and make this application?
A He is in Colorado on account of his ill health.
Q Did he request you to come here and make this application for him? A Yes, sir.
Q Is this the written request he signed and gave to you? A Yes, sir.
(Request is here handed to the Commission).
Q Is he familiar with this land you are applying to the Commission to have allotted to him? A Yes, sir, he lived on it for ten years.
Q You request the Commission to designate and select the following described land: the E2 of the NE4 of the SE4, and the SW4 of the NE4 of the SE4 of Section 13, Township 24 N., Range 12 E., containing 30 acres and valued at $120.00, and designate as a homestead: the NW4 of the SE4, and the NW4 of the NE4 of the SE4 of Section 13, Township 24 N., Range 12 E., containing 40 acres and valued at $120.00, for your son, Samuel H. Keys; is this correct? A Yes, sir.
Q Are there any improvements on this land? A Yes, sir.
Q What do they consist of? A The land is plowed and fenced.
Q Is the land all in cultivation? A Yes, sir.
Q Is it all fenced? A Yes, sir.
Q Any houses on it? A There is a barn and stable.
Q No houses? A No, sir, no houses.

Q To whom do these improvements belong? A To my son, Samuel H. Keys.
Q Does anyone else claim this land, or any part of it? A No, sir.
Q Are there any churches, school houses, or burial grounds on this land? A No, sir.
Q Is that portion of the land which you have designated as a homestead for your son, Samuel H. Keys, suitable for a home for him?
A Yes, sir.
Q You make this application in good faith in all respects? A Yes, sir.

Amanda M Keys

Subscribed and sworn to before me this the 17th day of August, 1903.

Samuel Foreman,

BY THE COMMISSION:

From an examination of the records of the Commission, it is shown that the land applied for for an allotment for Samuel H. Keys, consists of forty acres of land, classified as 7(b) and valued at $2.00 per acre, and ten acres of land, classified as 4(b) and valued at $4.00.

The improvement plats made under the direction of this Commission, show, that the land is practically all in cultivation, and is shown to belong to Sam Keys.

The part applied for as a homestead consists of thirty acres of land classified as 4(b) and valued at $4.00 per acre.

The improvement plats show it to all be in cultivation, and to belong to Sam Keys.

Robert E. Berry applies for the enrollment of himself as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife Francis Lavonia Berry and of his two minor children Wesley B. and Lee B. Berry, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The name of the applicant's wife's parents, Lee Blevins and Louisa Blevins, appear upon the 1880 authenticated roll as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, her father Lee Blevins as a citizen by blood, and her mother Louisa Blevins as an adopted ~~wife~~ white. It appears from the testimony in this case, that the mother of the applicant's wife has, subsequent to the roll of 1880, abandoned her Cherokee husband and married out of the Nation. The name of the applicants wife, Francis Lavonia Berry, appears upon the 1896 roll of the Cherokee Nation. Her two children Wesley B. and Lee B. Berry, having been born subsequent to the preparation of any tribal roll by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, they and their mother will be listed for enrollment as citizens by blood, the two children upon the presentat ion of proper affidavits as to their birth.

The applicant Robert E. Berry, from his testimony was married to his wife Frances Lavonia ~~Berry~~ Blevins, on August 28, 1896. There has been no evidence presented as to this marriage, and as from his testimony it was subsequent to December 16, 1895, at which time the Cherokee Nation enacted a law refusing the rights of property to intermarried citizens in the Cherokee Nation, his enrollment will be refused by this Commission.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Q Is she a Shawnee? A No, sir, she is a Cherokee.
Q How old is she? A She is 32.
Q What was her maiden name? A Lulu Charley; she was admitted in 1881; I had another wife, but she is dead..
Q What is your wife's father's name? A My wife's father is Sam C harley.
Q Is she living? A No, sir.
Q Is he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your wife's mother's name? A Betsey Charley.
Q She living? A She is living.
Q She a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A I suppose so, they were admitted in 1881.
Q How did your wife become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.
A By proving up their rights, I suppose.
Q Were they admitted by the Cherokee National Council? A Yes, sir.
(Lulu Tiblow was unconditionally admitted as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation on December 8, 1881, under the name of Lulla Chirley, in the family of Samuel Chirley and wife; see laws of the Cherokee Nation enacted during the regular and special sessions of the National Council during the year 1881, pages numbers 13 and 14.)
Q Have you any children? A Yes, sir, I have got two children, got one by my first wife, she was a Delaware, and my boy is on the Delaware roll.
Q Your first wife was a Delaware? A Yes, sir.
Q What was your first wife's name? A She has got an indian name, Par-car-tah-ge-a-she.

Q When did your first wife die? A My first wife died about 8 years ago.

Q What was your first wife's Mother's name? A Mrs. Thomas Washington.
Q What are the names and ages of your children? A The boy is 14 years old.
Q What is his name? A Hawkins Tiblow; his Delaware name is Ne-car-tah-com-sekah.
Q What is your next child's name? A Beatrice Tiblow.
Q How old is she? A She will be 5 years old this coming December.
Q Got any other children? A No, sir.
Q Who is the mother of Hawkins Tiblow? A Par-car-tah-pe-a-she.
Q Is she a Delaware or a Cherokee indian? A She is a Delaware; she came in with the Delawares.
Q Who is the mother of Beatrice? A Lulu.
Q She is a native Cherokee? A Native Cherokee.
Q You are a Shawnee? A Yes, sir. You will now find my name on the 1880 roll, I was out working when they taken the 1880 roll.
(Applicant's parents on 1880 roll, page 190, No. 2987, Simon Tiblow, Cooweescoowee district, adopted Shawnee; Mary Tiblow on 1880 roll, page 190, No. 2988, Cooweescoowee district. William S. Tiblow on 1896 roll, page 352, No. 370, William S. Tiblo, Cooweescoowee district. Lulu Tiblow on 1896 roll, page 352, No. 371, Lula Tiblo, Cooweescoowee district.)
Q Why wasn't Hawkins Tiblow enrolled on the 1896 census roll? A He was, they put him down on the Delaware roll.
(Hawkins Tiblow on 1896 roll, page 348, No. 287, Ne-car-tah-com-sekah, Cooweescoowee district.)
Q How does it happen that your name is not on the 1880 roll? A I was out at work, I was out here on the Osage Agency.
Q Didn't you testify the first part of this examination that you had maintained a continuous residens in the Indian Territory since you moved here with the Shawnee indians? A Yes, sir.
Q How long were you on the Osage Agency in 1880? A I was out there three months, and came home and stayed here four or five months, and went out there again; I was working on the building.

The applicant, William S. Tiblow, applies for the enrollment of himself and his two minor children, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife, Lulu Tiblow, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The name of the applicant does not appear upon the 1880 authenticated roll of the citizens of the Cherokee Nation, but the name of his father, Zine Tiblow, and of his mother, Mary Tiblow, appear thereon, and the Commission is fully advised as to the reason of the omission of his name from said roll. His name appears on the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation. His wife, Lulu Tiblow, for whom he makes application as an adopted citizen of the Cherokee Nation, apears upon the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation, having been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the act of the National Council of that Nation on December 8, 1881. His minor child, Hawkins Tiblow, appears upon the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation, under the name of Ne-car-tah-com-sekah. Sufficient evidence having been made of the continued residence of the applicant, his wife and his minor children in the Cherokee Nation for the time prescribed by law, the applicant will be listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by Shawnee blood. His wife, Lulu Tiblow, will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by adoption of the Cherokee Nation, and it appearing from the testimony given by him that the mother of his child, Hawkins Tiblow, was a full blood Delaware, this child will be listed for enrollment by the Commission as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by Delaware blood. The minor child, Beatrice Tiblow, will be listed for enroll-birth. The minor child, Dorothy Tiplow, will be listed for enrollment on a citizen of the Choctaw Nation by blood upon the presentation to the Commission of satisfactory evidence of the birth of this child.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
AUXILIARY CHEROKEE LAND OFFICE.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 15, 1905.

In the matter of the application of Chas Carter to select allotments in the Cherokee Nation under letters of administation for William S. Tiblow, deceased, Cherokee citizen roll No. 10405, and Lulu Tiblow, deceased, Cherokee citizen roll No. 10406, Field Card No. 4344.

Chas Carter being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

Q What is your name? A Chas Carter.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Collinsville.
Q What is your age? A 57.
Q Do you claim any rights to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.
Q Is your object in appearing before the Auxiliary Cherokee Land Office of the Commission today to select allotments for William S. Tiblow and Lulu Tiblow, both deceased? A Yes sir
Q When did William S. Tiblow die? A Sometime in August, last year the 21st.
Q Has anyone ever been appointed administrator over his estate? A None but me.

Witness offers letters of administration dated November 3, 1904, issued out of the United States Court, Northern District, Indian Territory, at Claremore, in which Chas Carter is appointed administrator over the estate of Samuel Tiblow, deceased.

Q What were Samuel Tiblow's initials? A Well they just gave me it as Sam Tiblow.
Q Do you know who his father was? A No I don't. I don't know but if his father died before he come from Kansas.
Q Do you know who his mother was? A No I wasn't acquainted with an any except his brother.
Q What was Samuel Tiblow's postoffice in 1900? A Collinsville, I think- I moved there - yes it was that because he did live at Skiatook and he moved there, moved to the Washington place and then at Skiatook.
Q Who are some of Samuel Tiblow's children? State some of their names? A All that I knew was one called Hawk Tiblow. Went by the named of Hawk.
Q Didn't he have a daughter by the name of Beatrice? A Yes sir.
Q How old is she? A About six years old, I reckon. I judge she is that old.
Q Wasn't there one by the name of Frank? A Not that I know of.
Q Did he have a baby that died about three years ago? A He might of. There was baby died sometime in 1902.

2. Chas Carter.

Q What was Samuel Tiblow's wife's name? A Sallie Tiblow - Charley, Sallie Charley, daughter of Sam Charley.
Q What was her mother's name? A I don't believe I know.
Q Who was Betsy Charley? A I guess that was Lillie's mother. Yes I think it was. She had a sister.
Q Was Samuel Tiblow ever married before he married the present wife? A Yes sir, he married a Washington.
Q Was his present wife when she died much younger than Samuel? A Yes sir, oh yes.
Q You say he married Lillie Charley? A Yes, that was the name they gave me.

It appears from the records of the Commission that the William S. Tiblow, listed on Field Card No. 4344 is identical with the Samuel Tiblow referred to in the letters of administartion filed this date.

Q You say that his present wife's name is Lillie? A That was the name he gave me.
Q When did she die? A Died in February, year ago.
Q Was she and Samuel Tiblow living together at the time of his death A No, not at the time of his, she died first.
Q Were they living together at the time of her death? A Yes , oh yes.
Q You say her name was Lillie Charley? A That was what they always called her.
Q Beatrice is the daughter of Lillie? A Yes sir.
Q Has anyone ever been appointed administrator over the estate of Lillie or Lulu Tiblow, deceased? A Nobody but me.

Witness offers letters of administration dated November 3, 1905, issued out of the United States Court, for the Northern District, Indian Territory, at Claremore, in which he is appointed administrator over the estate of Lillie Tiblow, deceased

It appears from this testimony that Lulu Tiblow listed on Field Card No. 4344 is identical with the Lillie Tiblow referred to in the letters of administration filed this date.

(WITNESS EXCUSED).

Blanch Ashton upon oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes she accurately recorded the testimony in the above entitled cause and that the foregoing is a correct transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12228-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been co plied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "The Claremore Messenger", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Claremore, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, 1906, and the first issue in "The Claremore Messenger" was on March 2, 1906. Attention was called to Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of thenotice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Co missioner of Indian Affairs, that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial roll in its possession; and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31,(I.T.D.6186-1905), June 1,(I.T.D.6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D.12228-1905), and January 12,(I.T.D.110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report were living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this office and are transmitted herewith, the office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

W. H. Leupp.

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Bartlesville, I.T., October 11, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Thomas J. Tyner for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee of Shawnee blood: being sworn and examined, he testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Thomas J. Tyner.
Q What is your age? A 22.
Q What is your post office address? A Hillside, I T.
Q Are you a resident of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you resided in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Born here? A Yes, sir.
Q Ever been outside the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.
Q To what district in the Cherokee Nation do you belong? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Are you making application for enrollment as a native Cherokee, adopted Shawnee, or adopted Delaware? A Native Cherokee.
Q What is your father's name? A Carter B. Tyner.
Q Your father living? A No, sir.
Q Was a Cherokee Indian? A Yes, sir.
Q To what district in the Cherokee Nation did he belong A Cooweescoowee.
Q What was your mother's name? A Jane Tiblow.
Q That was her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q She living? A No, sir.
Q When did she die? A She died, I have forgot when; she is on the 1880 roll.
Q Was she a Cherokee indian? A Shawnee.
Q You making application as a native Cherokee, are you; you want to make application as an adopted Shawnee, do you; you follow your mother? A Shawnee and Cherokee.
Q You are an adopted Shawnee into the Cherokee Nation, aren't you; you are not a native Cherokee? A No, I guess not.
Q Are you married? A No, sir.
Q Ever been married? A No, sir.
Q Making application for anyone besides yourself? A No, sir.
(Thomas J. Tyner on 1880 roll, page 190, No. 3004, T. J. Tyner, Cooweescoowee district; on 1896 roll, page 272, No. 4895, Thomas J. Tyner, Cooweescoowee district.)

The name of the applicant appears upon the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation as T. J. Tyner and on the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation as Thomas J. Tyner, and he is duly identified as the party there so enrolled. On the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation he appears as the son of Jane Tyner, an adopted Shawnee, while his father, Carter Tyner, is a native Cherokee. He also appears upon the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation as a native Cherokee, but following the blood of the mother, he will be listed by this Commission for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by Shawnee blood. There has been sufficient evidence given as to his continued residence in the Cherokee Nation for the time prescribed by law.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.
